SPRINGFIELD'S WELCOME.

The public buildings and a large proportion of the business houses, as well as many private residences, were elaborately and tastefully decorated, and the entire central portion of the city was brilliantly illuminated in honor of the Grand Lodge.

At 6:45 o'clock Tuesday evening a brass band escorted the Grand Officers and other members who were disposed to join the procession to the State House. Upon arrival there,—

Past Grand Master Alfred Orendorff, as Master of Ceremonies, ascended the rostrum, and after a brief Address of Welcome introduced successively the following:

Roy M. Seeley, City Attorney, representing Mayor Reece, who delivered a highly entertaining address of welcome to the City of Springfield.

Brother Charles S. Dencen, Governor, who spoke briefly but eloquently as representative of the great State of Illinois.

Brother E. S. Conway, Grand Sire, representing the million and a half of Odd Fellows of whom he is for the time being the head, who delivered an address peculiarly appropriate to the occasion.

Grand Master Fred B. Merrills, on behalf of the Grand Lodge, responded in a fitting manner to the welcome extended.

GRAND MASTER'S REPORT.

---

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Once more the third Tuesday in November marks the ending of another year in the history of Odd Fellowship in Illinois. Only twelve short months ago I stood before you to assume the obligations of a great trust and to receive the authority as your Chief Executive Officer. I come again tonight, but this time to surrender this authority to one more worthy. The responsibilities, the cares, and the pleasures which have been mine during these twelve months have been so happily interwoven with each other that they have combined to make this year the shortest and the most pleasant one in my life.

As he who returned from a far country, required an accounting from his stewards, so it has been your practice to annually require an accounting from those to whom you have entrusted authority. In obedience to this custom I herewith submit my report:

STATE OF THE ORDER.

The Order is to be congratulated upon the fact that peace and prosperity prevailed in every department. True there have been cases of individual brain-storm. These do not portend danger. They may well be likened unto those light, fleecy summer clouds which afford just enough of contrast to add beauty to the surrounding landscape. It is only when the mental disturbance, through contagion, becomes general, and assumes the proportions of a mighty typhoon, that our Fraternal sky becomes darkened, and our peace and harmony endangered. No such impending danger may be discerned in our horizon. We have no strife. With the exception of the individual cases above mentioned, our only contention is as to who best can work and best agree.

So far as I have been able to discover, the remarkable growth in numbers which attended the administration of Past Grand Master Humphrey has practically continued during the year just closed. The Grand Secretary will give you the figures. The great State of Illinois is a mighty commonwealth containing more people than were contained in the whole United States at the time their Independence was acknowledged. Not one tenth of its resources has been developed. Our Order will keep pace with the development of these resources and the advance of civilization.

PROCLAMATIONS.

Shortly after installation I sent out the following introductory letter to Lodges, and the announcement of the Standing and Special Committees.

BELLEVILLE, ILL., December 10, 1906.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I.O.O.F., Greeting:

In accordance with a well established custom, it becomes my privilege and duty to address to you my salutatory as your Grand Master, recapitulating as to the past and making suggestions as to the future.

First—I beg to express my appreciation of the high honor conferred on me, and in behalf of all of the Grand Officers to assure you that their energies will be exerted to the utmost, toward promoting the welfare and prosperity of our beloved Order. Permit me also to solicit your hearty and unselfish co-operation, for without it the Grand Officers can do but little. They are the lights, so to speak, of the jurisdiction, you are the dynamo. And as the brilliancy of the electric light depends upon the measure of strength and activity of the dynamo, so will the usefulness and efficiency of your Grand Officers depend upon the measure of your activity and your co-operation.

During the past year we have been signally blest by growth and prosperity. The Subordinate Lodges have had a net increase of about five thousand, the Rebekahs about two thousand, and there has been added nearly Seventeen Thousand Dollars to the Endowment Funds. We should strive to duplicate this magnificent record during the coming year. As an objective point let each Lodge seek to add ten per cent to its membership. However, in our desire to increase our number, we should not be unmindful of the quality of the material sought to be added. Bear in mind that merit should be the only title to our privileges. No one should be recommended for membership unless it is believed that he or she possesses that strength of character necessary to the thorough appreciation and exemplification of the duties of the true Odd Fellow or Rebekah.

As to the Endowment Funds it would seem that a reasonable and proper contribution would be an amount equal to ten cents per capita. Of course, some will always give more. But if every Lodge would make a regular annual contribution of that amount, the Endowment Funds would soon be of such a size as to materially add to the stability and usefulness of the Homes.

But in our effort to extend fraternal relief and to build up and maintain the Homes, do we not frequently lose sight of the one great leading purpose of the Order, viz.: To improve and to elevate human character, to develop in our members a proper conception of their capabilities for good, to enlighten their minds, and to enlarge the sphere of their affections? In other words, is not the social feature of the Order either made secondary or lost sight of entirely? Comparatively speaking, but few members enter the Old Folks' Home, fewer leave children to enter the Orphans' Home, and as a rule a brother receives weekly benefits only for a very small period of the time during which he is a member. Worthy as these objects and purposes may be, if they are given prominence at the expense of the social feature, some may fail to see wherein they are benefited by retaining membership. Hence, I would suggest for another objective point, that we strive to inculcate in the mind of each and every member a consciousness of the fact, that the Order is a social and educating force, ever present and ever operating for good in his life and character; that the measure of good resulting from that force is dependent upon the measure of interest which the individual manifests in his fraternal life and associations. A reasonable degree of success in the attainment of this objective point will accomplish much good for the Order and for humanity.

The appointment of a Lodge Deputy is a matter which vitally interests every Lodge. Enclosed you will find a blank certificate for your recommendation. There may be some instances where, for special reasons, the recommendation of the Lodge will not be followed, but in most cases the Deputy appointed will be the person who receives the recommendation of his Lodge. I therefore, ask you to proceed by ballot to determine whom you will recommend. Do not recommend one who loves argument for argument's sake, or, who will become a martinet, when invested with a little bit of authority. Let your choice fall upon one who can diplomatically harmonize contending elements and conflicting opinions. By so doing you will add much to the peace and harmony of your Lodge and facilitate the dispatch of business in the Grand Master's office.

While our Order has made a noble history in the past, it should be remembered that we are at the door of a history-making period right now, compared to which the developments of the past are but insignificant in character. Therefore, let each officer and member be ever ready to exemplify in his life and character the duties of an Odd Fellow and the teachings of our Order. Let all unite with a view to reach the three objective points above named, and we will find at the close of the present year, that the Order has reached a degree of usefulness never yet attained.

Thanking you in advance for your support and co-operation, and again assuring you of my appreciation of the honors and responsibilities attached to the office of Grand Master, I am,

Yours fraternally,

Attest:

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Jno. H. SIKES, Grand Secretary.

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

I have also issued the following proclamations:

BELLEVILLE, ILL., March 15, 1907.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Illinois:

The eighty-eighth anniversary of the establishment of our Order in America will occur on the 26th day of April, 1907. In accordance with a well established custom, our Grand Sire E. S. Conway has issued a proclamation under date of February 18, 1907, enjoining upon all Grand and Subordinate Lodges of the Order the duty of taking appropriate action for the commemoration thereof. Therefore, I, Fred B. Merrills, Grand Master, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do most earnestly request that all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges within this jurisdiction observe this event by suitable and appropriate exercises, on the 26th day of April, 1907, or on some convenient week day approximate thereto. In such exercises let all render thanksgivings to the great Author of our being for the manifold blessings and prosperity, which, as an Order, we have received from His hands.

A general dispensation is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges which observe this anniversary in accordance with this proclamation, to wear the regalia of the Order upon such occasion and in accordance with our established laws.

Done at the City of Belleville, on this 15th day of March, A. D. 1907, and in the year of our Order the Eighty-eighth.

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

BELLEVILLE, ILL., May 6, 1907. `

To Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I.O.O.F., of Illinois, Greeting:

In accordance with the requirements of a standing resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and with the proclamation of E. S. Conway, Grand Sire, I do hereby request all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges that have suffered loss in membership by death, to assemble on the second Tuesday of June next, being the 11th day of June, 1907, or upon any convenient day approximate thereto, and engage in appropriate services respecting the memories of their deceased members.

A general dispensation to wear the regalia of our Order at such memorial exercises is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges within this jurisdiction.

Done at the City of Belleville, on this the sixth day of May, 1907, and in the year of our Order the eighty-ninth.

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

The ceremony for memorial day and for decorating the graves of deceased members (two in one book) may be obtained by lodges or individuals from the Grand Secretary, John H. Sikes, Springfield, Ill., at 25c per copy.

BELLEVILLE, ILL., December 10, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I.O.O.F., Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS—It has been brought to my notice that some of our members, particularly in the City of Chicago, have been buying, using and keeping in their possession, certain unauthorized publications, purporting to be the work, or purporting to be parts of the work of the Order. Your attention is kindly and respectfully directed to the fact that this is a gross violation of the law, which subjects the offender to the severest penalty. No Lodge or individual member is permitted to have in his possession or to use any work, writings or diagrams relating to, or purporting to relate to, the degrees or work of the Order, except those issued by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, certified to by the Grand Secretary.

It is the duty of the Grand Master to enforce this law. Therefore, I direct that all Lodges and individual members having in their possession any such unauthorized publication or publications, at once destroy the same. Lodge Deputies are particularly enjoined to hereafter see that this law is strictly enforced, and upon failure of any one to comply with the law, after having received due admonition from the Lodge Deputy, the Deputy will report the offense to the Grand Master.

Fraternally yours,

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

BELLEVILLE, ILL., February 13, 1907.

To the Officers and Members of all Subordinate Lodges, I.O.O.F., of Illinois:

On December 10, 1906, I issued a proclamation referring to the use of unauthorized publications. This same subject has been receiving the attention of the Grand Sire, and on the 29th day of December, 1906, he issued a proclamation on the same subject which is as follows:

“SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE OF THE I.O.O.F.

CHICAGO, ILL., December 29, 1906.

To all Grand Masters, I.O.O.F.:

DEAR BROTHERS—Information comes to this office of the circulation among Lodges of spurious publications purporting to be the secret or unwritten work of this Order, and it is deemed desirable in the interest of the correctness and uniformity of the work, and also for the preservation and carrying out of the law of the Order, that a letter or proclamation should be issued by each and every Grand Master directed to all Subordinate Lodges in the jurisdictions respectively, calling attention to the provisions of Secs. 1962 and 2246 of Busbee's Digest of 1903, which provide that issuing, exhibiting or having in possession any printing, publication or other device purporting to be the unwritten work of Odd Fellowship, abbreviation or memorandum of such unwritten work, is conduct grossly unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and on conviction requires expulsion from the Order, the only exception being that the same does not apply to such members as are in legal possession of the cipher books issued by The Sovereign Grand Lodge when obtained from their Subordinate Lodges respectively.

Under Sec. 2246 above cited, it is a gross violation of the law for a Lodge to use or have in its possession any work purporting to be the secret work of Odd Fellowship, except that issued by The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

If the entire membership of the Order will loyally conform to the law, it will be impossible for the publishers of spurious literature to find a market for their product. Not only are such spurious publications misleading, but it is immaterial how nearly correct any of them might be, as their use is clearly and positively forbidden.

I will, therefore, request that you at your earliest convenience issue a proclamation to all the subordinates of your jurisdiction on the subject, calling attention to the law above cited.

Fraternally yours,

E. S. CONWAY,

Attest:

Grand Sire.

JOHN B. GOODWIN,
Grand Secretary.

Your attention is most earnestly invited to the subject matter of the Grand Sire's proclamation and I trust that it will not be necessary to take any harsh measures in order to enforce the law therein referred to.

Yours very fraternally,

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

Other circular letters have been written which will be given space under the head of the subject matter with which they deal.

DECISIONS.

During the year I have been called upon to render a very large number of decisions. In most of these cases the question presented merely required me to corroborate the Code. These I do not report. In others questions were presented which the Code did not seem to fully cover. I have preserved these and submit them herewith for your consideration:

1. Section 1 of Article VI of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution provides that no degree shall be conferred upon a candidate until by examination in open Lodge he shall have been found proficient in the highest degree he shall have attained. When an examination is held under this constitutional provision, it is the Lodge and not the Noble Grand who shall determine the candidate's proficiency.

2. Section 7 of Article II of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution provides that if a candidate (for membership) shall be elected and fail to appear for admission within six weeks, except for cause adjudged sufficient, the election shall be void. This provision applies to application for admission by card as well as to applications for membership by initiation. And where a brother has been elected to membership by card, and delays for a period of more than seventeen months to file his card and sign the constitution, and offers no excuse for such delay, he cannot become a member of the Lodge in which he desires to deposit his card except upon a new petition and a new ballot.

3. The Grand Lodge has vested the control and management of the Orphans' Home in the Board of Directors. The Directors have power to make rules and regulations for the management of said Home which shall be effective until repealed or amended by the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge has not prescribed any qualifications which must be possessed by any child before it can be admitted to the Home, or which must be possessed by any child in order to maintain its residence in the Home when once admitted. This matter is a question for the discretion of the Board of Directors. It is not within the province of the Grand Master to interfere in any manner with that discretion.

4. All records of the Lodge shall be kept in ink, and all cards and official receipts shall be written in ink.

5. The Lodge trustees are nothing but a standing committee. They may examine the official bond of the Financial Secretary or Treasurer, but must report their approval of the bond to the Lodge for its ratification, before the bond becomes effective. They have no right to accept a bond, nor may the officer giving such bond be installed until his bond has been approved by the Lodge.

6. Where a member has been reinstated in a Rebekah Lodge such member should not be required to retake the obligation, or to resign the constitution.

7. Where the delegate representing a Rebekah Lodge in the Rebekah State Assembly removes to another state, such removal does not cause a vacancy in the office.

8. Where a brother of the First Degree petitions for membership upon a visiting card or an official certificate he does not become a member of the Lodge accepting said petition until his withdrawal card is filed and he has signed the constitution. Should the Lodge accepting such petition proceed to confer further degrees upon the brother before his card has been received, and before he has signed the constitution, it will be obliged, upon demand being made, to forfeit the degree fees to the Lodge to which he belonged.

9. When a candidate for membership by initiation has been rejected, notice of such rejection shall be sent without delay to all Lodges in the same place. But this notice should not be given by means of a printed circular sent out as third-class mail. The printed notice, or the copy from which the printed notice is "set," might fall into the hands of persons not members of the Order while it is being "set up" or "run" in the printing office. In this manner information would get out which the public is not entitled to receive and the rejected candidate might thus be unduly humiliated.

10. Where one signs a petition for a new Rebekah Lodge and does not assume the obligations of a charter member at the institution of the Lodge and does not care to become a member of such Lodge after the institution, his fee for membership should be returned.

11. Postoffice employes, mail carriers, members of a paid fire department, and all other public officers while on duty, owe their first duty to public service. It would not be right to exact from them attendance at a funeral under penalty of a fine being imposed for their failure so to do, when such attendance would conflict with the performance of the duties which they owe to the public in their respective employments.

12. Where a sister has been reinstated to membership in a Rebekah Lodge, she is reinstated with all the honors of office which she held at the time she was dropped for non-payment of dues. If she was eligible to the office of Vice Grand at the time she was dropped, she may be elected to that office immediately upon being reinstated.

13. Section 8 of Article X of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution provides that where a member has allowed himself to become more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, the Lodge may, by by-law, provide as a penalty that he shall not become entitled to weekly benefits for a period subsequent to payment not exceeding thirteen weeks. With reference to the penalty the Constitutional provision is not self-enacting, but before the penalty can be inflicted a by-law imposing it must be adopted. But such a by-law may not provide that the funeral benefits and funeral expenses shall be included in the penalty.

14. Question. Should an Odd Fellows' Lodge entertain a motion or a resolution to donate from its general funds for the purpose of assisting in the erection of a building to be used by an organization known as the Young Men's Christian Association?

Answer.—No.

Question. Would it be legal for a Noble Grand to entertain a motion or a resolution to appoint a committee of Odd Fellows to solicit voluntary contributions from members of the Order for the purpose of erecting a building to be used by an organization known as the Young Men's Christian Association, the contributions to be made either in the name of the individual members of the Order, or in the name of the Lodge in which the donors held membership?

Answer.—No.

15. Upon the death of a beneficiary member of a Subordinate Lodge, the Lodge is bound to pay for funeral expenses not less than sixty dollars, subject, however, to the provisions of section 10 of Article X of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution. The payment of funeral expenses is not conditioned upon the Lodge having provided for such payment by by-law.

16. Where a Lodge by-law provides that a fine of fifty cents shall be imposed upon a member of the Visiting Committee who fails to visit the sick and fails to report either in person or in writing of such visit except in cases of contagious disease; or, because of his own sickness, absence from the city, or being engaged in actual jury service; the excuses enumerated in the by-law do not exclude the consideration of other excuses. The exclusion of any and every other excuse would make the by-law unreasonable. For a brother might be prevented from performing his duty by Act of God, or a public enemy, and even by business engagements. It is within the province of the Lodge to determine whether the excuse offered is a legitimate one.

17. The following preamble and resolutions were presented to a Subordinate Lodge with the request that the Lodge act upon them.

WHEREAS, The evil of intoxicating liquors is considered by Odd Fellows to be one of the greatest evils that is cursing our fellow men at the present time, and

WHEREAS, We believe the present license system to be conducive of great evil, and should be changed by legislation, therefore, be it

Resolved, That ..... Lodge No. ...., of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, hereby indorses a Local Option bill giving to the whole people of the county the right to say whether or not saloons be licensed in any town or village in said county, and, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Lodge forward a copy of these resolutions to our Representative in the General Assembly urging them to do all in their power to have a law of this kind enacted at the present session. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished each of the county papers for publication.

Question. Is it within the province of the Subordinate Lodge to adopt said resolutions?

Answer. It is not within the province of an Odd Fellows' Lodge to take any part in the discussion of political questions or questions of public policy. "With the divisions and classifications of human society our Order holds no fellowship." The presentation of such a resolution to a Lodge must of necessity call forth an expression of different opinions which will lead to discussion. If the discussion of this question is permitted there is no reason why a Lodge might not discuss any other political question. The result would be that strife and discord, party and sect, which create heart burnings and divisions among men, would no longer be banished from our councils. My decision, therefore, is that an Odd Fellows' Lodge may neither discuss nor adopt any resolution declaring either for or against a Local Option bill.

18. Resignation from membership by a brother presented to and accepted by a Subordinate Lodge terminates his connection with every branch of the Order at the close of that meeting. Acceptance of this resignation, therefore, will terminate his membership in a Rebekah Lodge without any further action whatever on his part, or on the part of the Rebekah Lodge.

19. In the election of Trustees in a Rebekah Lodge the cumulative system of voting is not permitted. No member can cast more than one vote for any one candidate.

20. A brother who is a member of Lodge A residing in the territorial jurisdiction of Lodge B petitions for membership in Lodge B by deposit of an official certificate. Ballot is had upon this petition and the candidate is declared elected. The Secretary of Lodge B writes to Lodge A for the brother's withdrawal card. Before the card is received the brother removes from the territorial jurisdiction of Lodge B to the territorial jurisdiction of Lodge C.

Question. Can Lodge B receive the brother's withdrawal card and permit him to sign its constitution as a member without first procuring a waiver of jurisdiction from Lodge C?

Answer. It cannot. In joining a Lodge by deposit of a visiting card or an official certificate, the brother does not become a member and entitled to sign the constitution until the withdrawal card is deposited. Whatever action Lodge B may have taken upon the petition for membership was conditioned upon the granting of a withdrawal card by Lodge A and the deposit of this card in Lodge B while the candidate was a resident within its territorial jurisdiction.

21. A member of the Order, being a cigar maker, has some of his cigar boxes labeled I. O. O. F., with the heart and hand and other emblems of the Order and places them on sale.

Question. Is this a violation of the law?

Answer. It is. The brother must desist or be subject to discipline.

22. A by-law of a Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge which requires the payment of dues in advance is void.

23. Where a sister is elected Noble Grand of a Rebekah Lodge on July 9th, she cannot become a Past Noble Grand until the first regular meeting in the month of January next following. Any resolution adopted by the Lodge prior to that time which declares her to be a Past Noble Grand is void.

24. A Lodge deputy is not an officer of the Lodge. He is only the representative of the Grand Master. If he is a member of the Lodge of which he is the Deputy, he may hold any elective or appointive office in the Lodge except Noble Grand or Vice Grand.

APPEAL OF WASHINGTON LODGE NO. 665.

It is with pleasure that I am able to report that in the numerous instances in which I have been called upon to exercise the authority of the Grand Master's office, my rulings have been received with respect and cheerfully obeyed in all but a single instance. The one exception is in the case of Washington Lodge No. 665 at Chicago.

The controversy here arose out of a claim for benefits filed by Brother Leopold Hilb. A preliminary skirmish was had in the Grand Lodge at the last session, as will be found from Document No. 63, page 366 of the Journal of 1906.

Without attempting to present an abstract of the record, I will state briefly sufficient of the facts to show what issue is presented by this appeal. The original documents and correspondence will be transmitted to the proper committee, to which the appeal is referred.

Brother Hilb represented to me that he had paid his dues and that the secretary had refused to give him a receipt stating that his account was paid up to a day certain. He submitted the official receipt which had been given, and this corroborated his statement.

One of the issues in the case was as to whether or not Brother Hilb was more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues at the time of the commencement of the disability for which he claimed benefits. The Lodge pleaded that he was, for the reason, as was alleged, that Brother Hilb had not paid certain funeral assessments levied against him. To this Brother Hilb replied: (a) That he was not more than thirteen weeks in arrears, because he had paid said assessments and his official receipts showed him to be in good standing at the time of the commencement of the disability in controversy. (b) That he was secretary of the Lodge at the time the said assessments were levied and was exempt from the payment of said assessments by the Subordinate Lodge Constitution.

I reached the conclusion that the refusal of the Lodge to give Brother Hilb a receipt stating that his dues had been paid to a day certain, was an attempt on their part to manufacture testimony in support of their plea. I thereupon directed the Lodge deputy, Brother Max Davis, to cause the Lodge to give a receipt as required by law. Instead of yielding in obedience to this demand, the deputy wrote a lengthy and explanatory letter tendering a number of special pleas of confession and avoidance.

I thereupon revoked his commission and notified him and the Lodge to govern themselves accordingly. The members of the Lodge prayed an appeal, which challenges the authority of the Grand Master to revoke the commission of a Lodge deputy without giving the deputy a hearing, and which alleges that the deputy was removed in this case without cause.

NEW SUBORDINATE LODGES.

During the year there have been quite a number of inquiries sent in to the Grand Secretary's office and the Grand Master's office relative to the institution of new Lodges.

Considering the fact that the State is already fairly well organized, it has been the policy of the Grand Secretary and myself to proceed cautiously in the matter of authorizing new organizations. We have attempted to limit the granting of dispensations to those cases where there was evidence tending to show that in a very short period of time the Lodge would have about fifty members. We have also been cautious about sending out such dispensations to places where the institution of a new Lodge might be injurious to a Lodge already existing. Of course, in such cases no fixed rules can be established.

I have granted dispensations for the institution of fifteen new Subordinate Lodges, which are now working under dispensation, and which I now recommend as being proper organizations to receive charters from this Grand Body. A list of the names and numbers of said Lodges, together with their locations and the respective dates of institution, and the names of the instituting officers, is herewith presented.

NEW REBEKAH LODGES.

In the matter of instituting new Rebekah Lodges it has seemed to me that a greater latitude could be indulged in than in the matter of instituting new Subordinate Lodges. Rebekah Lodges do not assume the financial obligations which are assumed by Subordinates. Their purpose is more largely of a social character, and of necessity the pleasures and benefits arising from membership in a Rebekah Lodge must be of a tentative character. Where the application came from a place which already had a Subordinate Lodge and the evidence submitted seemed to indicate that the new organization would have an enthusiastic beginning, the dispensation has been granted and the Lodge instituted.

I have granted dispensations authorizing the institution of twenty-three new Rebekah Lodges, which have been instituted and are now working under said dispensations, and which I now recommend as being proper organizations to receive charters from this Grand Body. The following is a list of the names and numbers of these organizations together with their respective locations, the dates of institution, and the names of their instituting officers.

In addition to this list it appears that Staunton Rebekah Lodge No. 657, located at Staunton, Macoupin County, was instituted November 17, 1906, by Sister Julia Swinefort. This institution was authorized by the dispensation of Past Grand Master W. R. Humphrey. It does not seem to have been reported in the Session of 1906, and this Lodge is still working under the dispensation and has not received a charter. This matter is mentioned at this time in order that a charter may be granted at this session.

Subordinate Lodges Closed.

During the past year the following Subordinate Lodges have been closed.

Albany Lodge No. 168, located at Albany in Whiteside County, was closed July 25, 1907, by Brother Chester M. Turner, P. G. P., of Cambridge Lodge No. 199. This Lodge had not had any meeting in nine years, and it did not appear that there was any probability of its resuming business. The paraphernalia and records were found in a closet where the rain had come through the roof and they were necessarily in a very damaged condition. Brother Turner closed up the affairs of the Lodge, adjusted and paid its liabilities from the funds on hand, and returned to the Grand Lodge $12.85 in money, together with the seal, charter, rituals and records.

Macon Lodge No. 687, located at Macon in Macon County was closed on July 27, 1907, by Deputy Grand Master Owen Scott of Decatur. This Lodge had no money in the treasury and no assets. It appears to have had only four active members, and there seemed to be no prospect of its resuming business. The deputy arrested the charter and sent it to the Grand Secretary's office together with the records, seal, etc. Some furniture still remains unsold.

Egyptian Lodge No. 802, located at Camp Ground, near Anna, in Union County, Illinois, was closed August 30 by Brother I. R. Spilmon of DuQuoin. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary's office a treasurer's record and $4.50 in cash. He also returned an affidavit which showed that the records and effects of this Lodge had been destroyed by fire, and thereby hangs a tale which will be more fully explained in a subsequent part of this report.

Rebekah Lodges Closed.

At the beginning of the year the President and Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly furnished me with a list of Rebekah Lodges which seemed to be, so to speak, out of commission. I have spent a good deal of time in endeavoring to get these Lodges to work or to reclaim the charter and effects of such of them as could not be induced to resume work. I found in one instance that the Lodge had not held a meeting for seventeen years. In another no meeting had been held for ten years. In several instances no meetings had been held for a number of years. It was reported in one instance that the Lodge had never received a charter or rituals, and that it had held no meeting after the night when it was instituted. How this condition of affairs could have been permitted in so large a number of Rebekah Lodges for so many succeeding administrations is beyond my "ken." A list of the closed Lodges is herewith submitted.

Fidelity Rebekah Lodge No. 25, located at Stanford, McLean County, was closed by Sister Saidee Gray Cox, September 2, 1907. An affidavit was procured by Sister Cox from Sister S. S. Bowling, P. N. G., and Brother Henry Erisman, Past Grand, showing that the charter, rituals, records, seal and effects of this Lodge were destroyed by fire September 13, 1904. The deputy recovered nothing from this Lodge.

Margaret Rebekah Lodge No. 129, at Jonesboro in Union County, was closed May 2, 1907, by Sister Margaret E. Weldon, Vice President, of Cairo. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc.

Vashti Rebekah Lodge No. 151, located at Raleigh, Saline County, was closed July 12, 1907, by Sister Ellen Johnson of Galatia, who remitted to the Grand Secretary's office the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc. There were only two members of this Lodge left, and the Treasurer had been dead for over ten years.

Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 157, located at Albany in Whiteside County, was closed July 25, 1907, by Sister Emma Turner of Cambridge. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary's office the effects of this Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc. The records and rituals of this Lodge had been kept in the same closet with those of Albany Subordinate Lodge No. 168, and were likewise very much damaged from the rain. This Lodge had not held a meeting for seventeen years. If there is anything in names I would suggest that in the future no name be taken for any new Lodge from the alphabet of any dead language.

Whittier Rebekah Lodge No. 242, located at Atlanta in Logan County, was closed September 27, 1907, by Sister Saidee Gray Cox, of Hudson, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc.

Magnolia Rebekah Lodge No. 255, located at Magnolia in Putnam County, was closed by Sister Lillie E. Stewart on August 21, 1907. The effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., together with $10.35 in money were remitted to the Grand Secretary.

Murrayville Rebekah Lodge No. 281, located at Murrayville in Morgan County, was closed July 19, 1907, by Sister Mary D. Kinney, of Jacksonville, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., and $10.00 in money.

Lily of the West Rebekah Lodge No. 288, located at Bible Grove in Clay County, was closed August 21, 1907, by Sister Sarah A. Bourell, of Olney. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc.

Ingraham Rebekah Lodge No. 295, located at Ingraham in Clay County, was closed August 21, 1907, by Sister Sarah A. Bourell, of Olney. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, seal, rituals, etc., together with $5.79 in money.

Rosa Lee Rebekah Lodge No. 344, located at Boaz in Massac County, was closed by Sister Margaret E. Weldon, Vice President, of Cairo, June 9, 1907. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the records, rituals, seal, etc. No money or roll of membership was found.

Idell Rebekah Lodge No. 359, located at Versailles, Brown County, was closed September 19, by Sister V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., of Quincy. The deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc.

Shannon Rebekah Lodge No. 438, located at Shannon in Carroll County, was closed July 6, 1907, by Sister Violet B. King, of Rockford, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., and also $23.69 in money.

Rising Sun Rebekah Lodge No. 491, located at Smithboro in Bond County, was closed September 11, 1907, by Sister Mila Ritter of Vandalia, who remitted to the Grand Secretary, the records, rituals, seal, etc., together with $1.04 in money.

Trilby Rebekah Lodge No. 494, located at Grant Park in Kankakee County, was closed July 11, 1907, by Sister Nellie C. Thompson, of Kankakee, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., together with $15.01 in money.

Violet Rebekah Lodge No. 505, located at Riverton in Sangamon County, was closed August 26, 1907, by Sister Fannie Coon of Springfield, who remitted to the Grand Secretary's office the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., together with $6.28 in money.

Cannon Rebekah Lodge No. 527, of Columbus, Adams County, was closed September 18, 1907, by Sister V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., of Quincy. No property could be found but the deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary $4.52 in money.

Brenner Rebekah Lodge No. 564, located at ElDara in Pike County was closed August 21, 1907, by Sister V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., of Quincy, who remitted the effects to the Grand Secretary, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc.

Crossville Rebekah Lodge No. 566, located at Crossville in White County, was closed September 3, 1907, by Sister Ellen Johnson, of Galatia, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, seal, rituals, etc., and $2.35 in money.

Helen Rebekah Lodge No. 602, located at Coal City in Grundy County, was closed June 29, 1907, by Sister Ida M. Kewley of Chicago, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., and $6.32 in money.

Opdyke Rebekah Lodge No. 609, located at Opdyke in Jefferson County, was closed January 7, 1907, by Lillie E. Stewart, President, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, rituals, seal, etc., together with $9.63 in money.

Athensville Rebekah Lodge No. 613, located at Athensville in Greene County, was closed August 30, 1907, by Sister Nellie Halbert, of White Hall, who remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the Lodge, consisting of records, seal, rituals, etc.

A commission was issued to Sister Addie B. Harris, of Galesburg, to close Biggsville Rebekah Lodge No. 438, of Biggsville, Henderson County. Sister Harris reported that she had been informed by Brother C. D. McDill that on the 12th of November, 1904, he had shipped a box by Adams Express to the Grand Secretary, which contained the books and all of the effects of this Lodge. Sister Harris also reports that she was unable to find any of the former members of this Lodge except Brother McDill. I have received information somewhere that this Lodge was closed in 1904 by Sister V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., of Quincy. Sister Thomas reports to me that she did not close this Lodge. The Grand Secretary states that he can find nothing in his office showing that the Lodge was ever closed. Sister Miller, Secretary of the Assembly, corroborates the Grand Secretary. The Lodge has not been reporting. It is evident therefore, that it is either lost, strayed, or stolen. Although the Grand Secretary has found in his office the effects which were shipped November 12, 1904, by Brother McDill.

Other commissions were issued to close Rebekah Lodges, but the deputies holding said commissions were able to report the Lodges revived. Such Lodges revived and their respective Special Deputies are as follows:

LOSSES BY FIRE.

Seven Lodges have been burned out during the year; five Subordinates and two Rebekahs.

Diligence Lodge No. 129, located at Princeville, Peoria county, burned out November 1, 1906. They had a thousand dollars of insurance money, but the nature and extent of the loss has not been reported to me. This fire does not seem to have been reported last year.

Moultrie Lodge No. 158, located at Sullivan in Moultrie county, was destroyed by fire December 26, 1906. A duplicate charter was issued on same date. The Lodge lost all of its property and records, but carried considerable insurance. I have not been informed how much of the loss was covered by the insurance. I understand that the Lodge has already erected a new building.

Rhoda Rebekah Lodge No. 167, located at Sullivan in Moultrie county, was destroyed by the same fire which destroyed the effects of Moultrie Subordinate Lodge No. 158. A duplicate charter has been issued.

Marissa Lodge No. 622 at Marissa, in St. Clair county, was destroyed by fire December 28, 1906. The Lodge has received a duplicate charter. Its loss was practically total.

Leroy Lodge No. 149, located at Leroy, McLean county, was destroyed by fire March 2, 1907; building and all contents was destroyed. Loss was partially covered with insurance. The net loss was five or six thousand dollars. This is the second time this Lodge has been burned out. But they have already built a new hall, and I understand are now occupying it. A little thing like a fire does not seem to trouble them.

May Queen Rebekah Lodge No. 210, located at Leroy, McLean county, was destroyed by the same fire which destroyed Leroy Lodge No. 149.

Goreville Lodge No. 528, located at Goreville in Johnson county was destroyed by fire May 11, 1907. A duplicate charter has been issued.

The Lodge lost all of its effects, but the loss is partially covered by insurance.

CONSOLIDATIONS.

The following consolidations have been effected during the year.

Sato Lodge No. 533, located at Sato in Jackson county, was consolidated with Ava Lodge No. 672, located at Ava in Jackson county, on March 28, 1907, and Brother C. M. Bradley from Murphysboro acted as Special Deputy. The consolidated Lodge took the name and number of Ava Lodge No. 672.

Teutonia Rebekah Lodge No. 226, located at Quincy, in Adams county, was consolidated with Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge No. 27, located at Quincy, in Adams county, July 11, 1907, by Sister V. Catherine Thomas, P.P., of Quincy, acting as Special Deputy. The new organization is hailed as Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge No. 27.

REMOVALS.

The following removals have been authorized:

El Paso Lodge No. 819, located at El Paso, in Woodford County, was authorized to remove to Gridley, McLean County. The dispensation was dated on January 6, 1907. I had a report on February 3d, stating that the removal had been made, and that between the date of the dispensation authorizing such removal and the date of this report, the Lodge had initiated twenty-four and admitted four by card. In view of the fact that the Lodge had been doing nothing for quite a while, it seems that the removal was certainly a good thing.

Danby Lodge No. 187, located at Wheaton, DuPage county, was granted a dispensation on June 19, 1907, to remove to Glen Ellyn, in DuPage county. Brother Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., had been commissioned as Special Deputy either to revive or close this Lodge, and a dispensation authorizing its removal was granted upon his recommendation. He was only able to find five available members when the removal was determined upon. After the dispensation was granted, the Lodge reinstated three, and admitted ten by card. After the removal had been effected, the Degree Staff of Kane Lodge visited them and initiated fourteen. At the time Brother Stone made his report the Lodge had a membership of 32. This Lodge has been and still is situated in a veritable hotbed of opposition to our Order, and the success which has attended Brother Stone in his efforts is deserving of the congratulations of the entire Grand Lodge.

Wanlock Lodge No. 848, located at Wanlock, in Mercer county, was authorized to remove to Viola in Mercer county. Said removal to take effect from and after the regular meeting of said Lodge on October 19, 1907.

CHANGE OF LANGUAGE.

Dispensations have been issued authorizing a change of language in the following instances:

On December 18, 1906, I granted a dispensation to Uhland Lodge No. 305, located at Bloomington, authorizing it to change the work of the Lodge from German to English. Afterward, on representations to me, it appeared that this change was not working to the best interests of said Lodge, and upon a request regularly and voluntarily made on July 10, 1907, I granted another dispensation authorizing this Lodge to change back from the English to the German language.

On March 6, 1907, upon application regularly made I granted a dispensation to Northwestern Lodge No. 388, located at Chicago to change the work of the Lodge from German to English language.

On March 19, 1907, upon application being regularly made, I granted a dispensation to Humboldt Lodge No. 286, located at Mascoutah, St. Clair county, authorizing it to change the work of the Lodge from the German to the English language.

On April 6, 1907, upon application being regularly made, I granted a dispensation authorizing Guttenburg Lodge No. 380, of Spring Valley, Bureau county, authorizing it to change the work of the Lodge from the German to the English language.

CHANGE OF NAME.

On May 3d, I granted a dispensation to South Englewood Rebekah Lodge No. 464, authorizing it to change the name of said Lodge to Gresham Rebekah Lodge No. 464. Such change to date on, from, and after the 10th of May, 1907. It was represented to me by the Noble Grand and Secretary under the seal of the Lodge that at a regular meeting of said Lodge held on Friday, April 26, 1907, at which all resident members of the Lodge had been notified to be present, a vote was taken on the question which resulted unanimously in favor of such change. In consideration of granting the request I required the Secretary to forward to the Grand Secretary's office the Lodge charter in order that a proper endorsement might be made thereon by the Grand Secretary, and also required the Lodge to procure a new seal and forward an impression thereof to the Grand Secretary, and another impression thereof to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly not later than the 10th day of May, 1907. I sent a copy of the dispensation authorizing a change of name to the Grand Secretary, and another to the President of the Rebekah Assembly, and another copy to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly.

This was the only application made for a change of name. Upon examination of the law, I find that the Grand Lodge has not made any provisions which clearly defines the power of the Grand Master to grant a request of this character. I find some instances where such requests have been granted. These precedents are the only authority upon which I assume to act.

I think the practice should be discouraged. Where a Lodge has been instituted under a given name and built up a reputation and made a history, it would seem to be a matter of pride among its members to maintain the old name. A change of name is also liable to create confusion, and in instances might be the direct means of some worthy brother being denied a right, privilege, or benefit to which he is justly entitled, and at a time when he is in need. This is a proper subject for legislation, and the Grand Lodge should give voice to some expression more clearly defining the circumstances under which a change of name may be granted.

EXPELLED MEMBERS REINSTATED.

William Fair, expelled by Sparta Lodge No. 52, November 7, 1899; reinstated February 8, 1907.

William H. Stone, expelled by St. Clair Lodge No. 119, June 14, 1899; reinstated March 20, 1907.

John H. Davis, expelled by Pellonia Lodge No. 621, January 13, 1906; reinstated April 2, 1907.

Robert W. Gay, expelled by New Burnside Lodge No. 625, in 1891; reinstated April 12, 1907.

E. E. Clark, expelled by Kirkwood Lodge No. 673, November 15, 1895; reinstated April 20, 1907.

Charles Fried, expelled by Relief Lodge No. 452, July 1, 1904; reinstated May 8, 1907.

Lee Maline, expelled by Orion Lodge No. 686, September 8, 1902; reinstated May 28, 1907.

Albert Walley, expelled by Black Hawk Lodge No. 776, May 27, 1898; reinstated September 14, 1907.

J. W. Richner, expelled by Brothers Lodge No. 589, January 14, 1893; reinstated October 9, 1907.

George A. Lierd, expelled by Hiawatha Lodge No. 291, August 13, 1898; reinstated October 28, 1907.

The frequency with which petitions for reinstatement are presented by persons who have been expelled for keeping a saloon, or tending bar, leads me to believe that a practice is liable to grow up which would recognize reinstatement in such cases as a matter of a positive right, to be granted whenever asked, upon a showing made that the prohibited business has been discontinued. If such a practice is within the letter of the law, it is surely not within the spirit of the law. Lodges should be warned against giving it encouragement.

DISPENSATIONS.

During the year I have granted a very large number of dispensations. These have been asked chiefly for the purpose of enabling a Lodge to hold some festivity. As a rule I have endeavored to prevent such a festivity from continuing to such a late hour on Saturday night that it would be a violation of our Sunday law. I have also endeavored to prevent the sale of tickets to any persons except to members of the Lodge giving the festivity and to such persons as may attend.

I have observed that there is considerable desire to hold fellowship with other organizations. This desire has been made manifest by various petitions for dispensation. Hence I have thought it to the best interests of the Order to deny some petitions for dispensation, such as the following: To permit a Lodge to attend church in a body and in regalia on Easter Sunday. To permit a Lodge in a body and in regalia to join in a Sunday school picnic. To permit a Rebekah Lodge to construct a float representing a part of the dramatic work with characters clothed in the paraphernalia of the Lodge, such float to be used in a Labor Day parade. To permit a Lodge to join in a body and in regalia with a Labor Day parade. To permit a Lodge to use its regalia and the name of the Order for the purpose of advertising county fairs and street fairs and carnivals.

I have granted dispensations permitting Lodges to attend church in a body and in regalia on days other than Easter Sunday. The reason why I made an exception on Easter Sunday will be apparent. I have also granted dispensations authorizing Lodges to join with other civic organizations in celebrating the Fourth of July and in laying the corner stone of a county court house.

We have a cardinal principle which states that "with the classifications and divisions of human society our Order holds no fellowship." If we are to preserve this principle inviolate too much care cannot be exercised in the matter of granting dispensations in the class of cases I have above enumerated.

APPEAL FOR AID AND SPECIAL RELIEF.

During the year I have drawn upon the Special Relief Fund five times.

Two of these drafts were made in favor of Brother H. W. Franke, a member of Kemper Lodge No. 596. Brother Franke received a serious injury to one of his knee joints. This injury kept him confined in a hospital for several months. Upon his discharge from the hospital the joint was stiff, and for many months he was unable to do any work. He appealed to me for assistance and also for some official action to require his Lodge to pay him his sick benefits. I appointed Brother Walter E. Carlin, P. G. R., Special Deputy to examine into this case, and upon the receipt of Brother Carlin's report and recommendation I drew a warrant for twenty-five dollars in favor of Brother Franke. Later Granite City Lodge No. 852 reported to me that Brother Franke was entirely destitute and in need of clothing. Upon their recommendation I drew another voucher in his favor in the sum of fifteen dollars. Whether this Lodge could not or would not, it appears to me that it has not rendered this Brother the assistance to which he is justly entitled. I have therefore, lately endeavored to require this Lodge to join issue with the Grand Master's office on this question. It will be necessary for this issue to be tried, if tried at all, under the next administration.

Another case was that of Brother Massey, a member of Ava Lodge No. 672, who has been afflicted with chronic granulation of the eyelids for about five years. At the beginning of this affliction he had a small home and some property. In July last, he found himself destitute. He had been treated by Dr. John Green, of St. Louis, one of the most celebrated oculists in the country, who rendered his services gratuitously. During this time Ava Lodge contributed to the Brother's relief in the way of donations and benefits to the extent of $505.00. On July 22, this Lodge voted him a donation of five dollars per week for five months, which, with his benefits, would give him six dollars a week for that period. In consideration of the Brother's necessity and the liberal assistance which the Lodge had already rendered him, I drew a warrant in his favor for the sum of one hundred dollars, with the understanding that it would provide for him and his family until about Christmas, at which time the matter could be taken up again if his necessities required.

On June 26 I attended the Commencement Exercises at the Orphans' Home. The graduating class contained fifteen pupils, most of whom expected to soon leave the Home and go out into the world to make their own living. At the Commencement Exercises of 1906, my predecessor had given ten dollars in gold to each of the members of that class. This action on his part met with some criticism at the last Grand Lodge Session, but it appears to have received the sanction of the Finance Committee and the Grand Lodge, though nothing is said in the Journal to indicate that the Grand Lodge desired that the precedent be followed. I found upon my visit to Lincoln that if I did not follow the precedent, I would cause the members of this class very keen disappointment. I could not have the heart to do this. I therefore drew an order for One Hundred and Fifty Dollars for which I received ten-dollar gold coins, one for each member of the class, which I presented with his or her diploma. I understand full well that my action is liable to be criticised. I also understand that the brethren may differ in opinion as to the wisdom of continuing this custom. I present the matter to the Grand Lodge suggesting that some definite action be taken as to the continuance of this custom in the future. While not making any recommendation, I would suggest, that under a Statute of the State when a convict is discharged from a State Prison he is given a suit of clothes, a railroad ticket to the place from whence he was sent, and ten dollars in money. It does seem to me that when the children of our Home go out into the World, they should at least be treated with as much consideration.

The fifth warrant was drawn in favor of Brother Charles W. Reed, of No. 4331 Greenwood Avenue, Chicago.

Brother Reed is thirty-nine years old, a well driver by occupation, and a member of Rockefeller Lodge No. 815, which he joined March 1, 1901. He has been afflicted with rheumatism and unable to do any kind of work since February, 1903. For a large part of this time he could not feed himself nor turn himself in bed without the most excruciating pain. He required a constant attendant at his bedside. He was under the care of Kenwood Lodge No. 288, which Lodge brought his case to my notice. I found that Rockefeller Lodge was a very small organization and with very limited financial resources. They have paid Brother Reed sick benefits and apparently done their best to perform their duty. The means at their command is so insufficient in comparison with Brother Reed's necessities, that I found his case was one for the Special Relief Fund. I requested the Odd Fellows' League to examine the case and report. The case was investigated by Past Grand Master L. L. McKinley, and Brothers W. E. Gaskill and F. B. Fellows. In the report Brother McKinley states that he visited Brother Reed on September 10, 1907. At this time Brother Reed stated that he had been making rapid improvement and was able to wriggle his fingers and thumbs a little bit, and thought in time he would fully recover his former health and strength. His appetite and digestion had been improved and he was able to open his mouth so as to partake of solid food. Brother McKinley attributes this improvement more largely to Brother Reed's nurse than to his medical treatment. He is still unable to care for himself and needs a constant attendant. He is entirely destitute and has no family that he knows anything about. At the time he took sick he had about five thousand dollars which he has expended in maintenance and in endeavoring to become cured. The cost of his maintenance for the last several months has been borne partly by his Lodge, partly by Kenwood Lodge and out of the private purses of individual members of the Order. These individual members have expended sums amounting in gross to $667.47. The cost of his maintenance at the present time is about $26.00 per week.

I submitted this case to the Chicago members of the Committee on Finance, and they recommended that I send out an appeal for aid but that I give the Brother an appropriation from the Special Relief Fund to cover his present necessities. Upon mature reflection it occurred to me that it would perhaps be best to submit the entire matter to the Grand Lodge before taking any steps other than that of making a donation sufficient to relieve his present necessities. I thereupon drew a warrant in Brother Reed's favor in the amount of two hundred dollars, charged to the Special Relief Fund. I sent this to Brother Reed with the compliments of the Grand Lodge and the hope of the Fraternity that he would be restored to health and usefulness. I now present this matter to you for your consideration. The individual members of the Order who have assisted him in his distress should not be required to make so large an expenditure out of their private means. If Odd Fellowship means anything it means that when a Brother is in this condition, he should be cared for by the Fraternity at large, in the event that his own Lodge is unable to bear the burden. I think that the Grand Lodge ought to provide for the payment of this sum of $667.47, either by way of an appropriation from the Special Relief Fund, or from the proceeds of an appeal to the Lodges in Brother Reed's behalf.

There have been several other applications made for Special Relief which did not appear to me under the facts presented to make out a proper case for a donation. I have denied Lodges the privilege of appealing to the State for aid to raise funds for the following purposes: To replace a Lodge building together with furniture and paraphernalia which had been destroyed by fire. To furnish and equip a new Lodge room with regalia, paraphernalia and furniture. This request was made by two different Lodges. To lift a chattel mortgage from a team of horses and a cow; and to pay an installment on the purchase price of land.

One Lodge in this State sent out an unauthorized appeal for aid by way of a request for the purchase of tickets to a ball. I directed it to refund any sums received on account of these tickets. My directions were cheerfully complied with. The action of the Lodge was not taken through any disregard for the laws. It rather was ill advised and the result of inexperience.

One Lodge in Indiana sent out an unauthorized appeal for aid by way of soliciting the purchase of a chart. I called the attention of the Grand Master of Indiana, Brother Jacob Joel, to it, and he promptly and courteously replied that he had instructed the Lodge as to the law governing such cases. In due course I received a proper and suitable apology from this Lodge.

One Lodge in Indian Territory also sent out an unauthorized appeal, this too being by way of a request for the purchase of a chart.

I reported this matter to the Grand Master of Indian Territory but received no acknowledgment.

It might be well in this connection to make some remarks relative to the history and present condition and the probable future of the Special Relief Fund. A very large portion of this fund seems to have been a surplus of a contribution made for the benefits of the Yellow Fever sufferers under a call of Grand Master John Lake, in 1878. After the making of contributions for the relief of these sufferers, there was a balance on hand amounting to over three thousand dollars, which the Grand Lodge Committee on Finance recommended be invested in United States four per cent bonds. (See Journal 1878, page 568). These bonds have been kept until last June when they matured and were paid by the Government. The Fund has been added to from time to time, most notably when it received Sixteen Hundred Dollars, a surplus contribution for the East St. Louis cyclone sufferers, and again when it received a large refund of the amount sent to Galveston, Texas. It seems that this fund was for a while administered by a special relief committee. In late years it has been left at the disposal of the Grand Master, who has drawn upon it for the purpose of extending relief to individual cases which, in his opinion, merited a donation. For several years the practice has been to discourage the sending out of appeals for aid to the Lodges of the State, except in case of some public calamity where a community has been the sufferer. Instead of permitting such appeals, donations are made from this fund at the discretion of the Grand Master to relieve distress in individual cases. At the present time there remains a balance of $2,458.00. It seems to me that the maintenance of such a fund is a wise measure. It cannot be maintained by appropriations from the general fund, for under existing laws the Grand Lodge has no power to levy a capitation tax for special relief. Until there has been some remedial legislation adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, it will be necessary to maintain this fund, if it is maintained at all, by voluntary contributions. I would suggest the Grand Lodge authorize and empower the Grand Master at any time when he thinks the condition of the fund warrants it, to make an appeal to the Lodges for voluntary contributions, in order that this fund may be maintained for the purpose of relieving distress in individual cases.

MAINTENANCE FEES.

I desire to lay before the Grand Lodge certain correspondence which I have had during the year with Shelby Lodge No. 274, which I think will be explanatory without any further note or comment. On March 9th I wrote the Secretary of this Lodge the following letter:

"BELLEVILLE, ILL., March 9, 1907.

C. W. Rollins, Esq.,
Moweaqua, Ill.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Brother A. M. Phillipson who is a member of your Lodge was admitted to the Old Folks' Home on July 17, 1903, and is still an inmate of that institution.

I understand that at the time he was admitted, he had some kind of an agreement with Shelby Lodge No. 274, whereby he deposited some money with the understanding that Shelby Lodge was to pay his maintenance fees at the Home during his life, or during such time as he should remain there, and after his death the Lodge was to receive this fund.

I wish you would kindly take the matter up and report to me the facts of this case as Shelby Lodge understands them to be. An early reply will oblige.

Yours very fraternally,

FRED B. MERRILLS,
Grand Master."

On May 20th the Secretary replied as follows:

"MOWEAQUA, ILL., May 20, 1907.

Mr. F. B. Merrills, G.M.,
Belleville, Ill.

Dear Sir: Referring to your letter of May 18th, to Bro. J. C. Wilson with reference to certain money held by this Lodge belonging to Brother A. M. Phillipson, I regret very much to know that you failed to get my reply, which was sent you March 19th.

The substance of our contract with Brother Phillipson is as follows:

When Brother Phillipson entered the Home he turned over $500.00 to this Lodge. We were to pay his maintenance at the Home and pay him 7 per cent interest as long as the money lasted. We paid $78.00 per year to the Home until the law was changed that the Lodge was not required to pay such maintenance. We also have paid him 7 per cent interest and sent him money at different times besides, and his interest is now paid up. We have paid Brother Phillipson up to this time $325.12.

This Lodge is also donating Brother Phillipson his dues and has done so ever since he entered the Home. If any additional information is desired we will be pleased to render such at any time.

Yours in F., L. and T.,

G. W. ROLLINS,
Secretary."

On May 28th I again wrote the Lodge the following letter:

"BELLEVILLE, ILL., May 28, 1907.

G. W. Rollins, Esq.,
Moweaqua, Ill.

Dear Sir and Brother:

I have your letter of the 20th in which you state that at the time Brother Phillipson was admitted to the Old Folks' Home, he turned over five hundred dollars to your Lodge, with the understanding that you were to pay his maintenance fees at the Home from this money. You also state that you paid seventy-eight dollars per year to the Home until the law was changed that the Lodge was not required to pay such maintenance.

Permit me to state that my construction of this law is that it does not apply to a case of this kind, but only to those cases where the maintenance fee was being paid out of the Lodge treasury. Shelby Lodge was not paying the maintenance fees of Brother Phillipson, but in truth and in fact, he was paying them himself. I think your Lodge ought to continue to pay the fees to him as you have done heretofore. For you to hold this money and expect the Grand Lodge to maintain Brother Phillipson at the expense of the Order throughout the state would be manifestly unjust.

I shall take the matter up further with the Old Folks' Home to the end that the law as I construe it, be complied with.

Yours very fraternally,

FRED B. MERRILLS,
Grand Master."

On October 2d, the Secretary of this Lodge again wrote me as follows:

"MOWEAQUA, ILL., October 2, 1907.

Mr. F. B. Merrills, G.M.,
Belleville, Ill.

Dear Sir and Brother:

We have just received a bill of $136.50 from the Secretary of the Board of Trustees of I.O.O.F., Old Folks' Home for account of Brother Phillipson.

The Lodge has carefully considered this matter, and figured up Brother Phillipson's account which leaves $227.27 including interest up to September 30th, now in our treasury to Brother Phillipson's account. The Lodge has instructed me to write to you to the effect that this money is borrowed from Brother Phillipson and we are paying him 6 per cent, and if it is decided that it must be turned over to the Home, it will be necessary for us to have a written release from Brother Phillipson. While we have the money on hand and are ready to deliver it at any time, we do not feel that it is the proper thing to do to take it from Brother Phillipson and turn it over to the Home without his consent.

Nov. 19, 1907.

We would also like to ask if you are thoroughly familiar with the fact that this money is loaned to us on interest and not a donation, or was not simply turned over to us for keeping, but is a straight out and out loan.

Upon receipt of your reply with consent of Brother Phillipson, we will immediately mail draft for above amount.

Yours very fraternally,

G. W. ROLLINS.

Secretary."

To which letter I replied on October 4th, as follows:

"BELLEVILLE, ILL., October 4, 1907.

G. W. Rollins, Esq.,

Moweaqua, Ill.

Dear Sir and Brother:

I have your letter of October 2d before me. I think it is very important that the resolution abolishing the payment of maintenance fees to the Old Folks' Home found on pages 262 and 284 of the Grand Lodge Journal of 1905 be construed by the Grand Lodge itself. In order to procure such a construction I shall submit your case together with the correspondence we have had thereon to the Grand Lodge. In the meantime it will not be necessary for your Lodge to draw a warrant in favor of the Old Folks' Home, to cover the bill which they have sent you.

Yours very fraternally,

FRED B. MERRILLS,

Grand Master."

This correspondence presents the question as to whether the resolution adopted by the Grand Lodge at the session of 1905 abolishing the rule of charging the Subordinate Lodges for maintenance fees is intended to apply in cases where the member who was admitted to the Home was paying the maintenance fee himself. In other words, where he had provided the means from which his Lodge paid this fee, whether the Lodge shall be excused from any other payment. This is a matter of considerable importance and I trust the Grand Lodge will make a precedent for the government of similar cases.

SURETY BONDS.

Very shortly after the close of the last session of the Grand Lodge, my attention was officially called to the fact, that the Treasurer of Duane Lodge No. 11, had embezzled the funds of the Lodge to the extent of about four thousand dollars. It was presumed that the Lodge was secured at least as to a part of this loss, because the defaulting officer was bonded by a Surety Company, to the extent of two thousand dollars. Upon examination it was found that the contract had been issued by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, Maryland. When demand was made upon this Company to liquidate the loss to the extent of their obligation we were coolly told that the Company was not liable. Upon the Lodge taking legal advice it was discovered that the contract which it supposed to be a protection against loss, was in fact security in name only.

Looking up the history of recent legislation on this question I discovered that the Grand Lodge had required that before a security bond could be accepted by the Lodge, the form of the bond must first be approved by the Grand Master or the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. Acting upon the authority of this requirement, I thereupon sent out the following circular letter to the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges:

"BELLEVILLE, ILL., March 7, 1907.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of the Jurisdiction of Illinois:

The Grand Lodge has encouraged and authorized Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges to accept surety bonds for their treasurers and financial secretaries. Experience, however, has shown us that many of these so-called surety bonds are so filled with technicalities and restrictions as to make it well nigh impossible for a Lodge to enforce a collection against the Company issuing them in case of a defalcation of the officer bonded.

Recognizing this fact the Grand Lodge has provided that if a Treasurer or Financial Secretary is bonded in a Surety Company, the form of the bond must first be approved by the Grand Master or the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals before it is accepted by the Lodge. Your attention is respectfully directed to section 1197 of the Code of 1906, and all Lodges who accept this kind of security are hereby directed to forward to the Grand Master's office a copy of the bond accepted, which will be submitted to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals at its next regular session.

It is the desire of the Grand Master's office that the Lodges bonding their officers in a surety company, have something in the way of a bond which will secure them against loss. One case has come to the Grand Master's attention during the past year where the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, Maryland, had bonded a treasurer in the sum of two thousand dollars, and while there has been a default, this office has not yet learned of a settlement having been made by the company.

Yours very fraternally,

FRED B. MERRILLS.

Grand Master."

This letter brought to my desk a very large number of contracts. Nearly all of the Surety Companies doing business in this State were represented. In fact some of them were represented by several different forms.

A careful examination of all the forms forced me to the conclusion that there were no good ones among them; that the only choice which a Lodge would have in making a selection from the truck which had been submitted to me, was a choice of between bad and worse. They all contained such an artful blending of positive and negative obligations, that they might well be represented by the algebraic equation of

$$x+y-(a+b)^2=0$$

The major objections may be summed up in the following:

(a) They do not secure the Lodge against any loss except a loss occasioned by the embezzlement of the funds by the bonded officer. A loss which might be occasioned by reason of the officer's negligence, or by reason of the insolvency of some depository where the money had been placed, or by reason of the officer dying insolvent and the passing of the funds to the hands of the Executor or Administrator is not covered by the bond. In many cases liability is even limited to the embezzlement of the funds received from dues and assessments, thereby affording no security for loss occasioned by the embezzlement of moneys received on account of degree fees, or on account of interest, donations or rents. The law requires the officer to account for and pay over all funds which he receives. Any bond which does not meet this requirement does not comply with the law and should be rejected.

(b) The term of the contract runs from 12 o'clock noon of a day certain until 12 o'clock noon on the anniversary of that day, and as a rule does not cover the term of office for which the officer is elected. The law requires that the officer shall give a bond before he is installed which will extend to the expiration of his term of office and until the election and installation of his successor. A bond which does not meet this requirement, should not be accepted.

(c) Many of the forms prohibit any change being made in the manner of keeping the Lodge books of account. The Grand Lodge never has, and surely never will permit this important matter to become the subject matter of a contract between a Subordinate Lodge and a private corporation.

(d) Many of the forms contain clauses which repeal all existing laws of the Grand Lodge respecting the duties of the Finance Committee and the Trustees.

In such cases if the Lodge adheres to the "letter of the bond," it is liable to have its charter reclaimed by the Grand Lodge. If it does not adhere to the "letter of the bond" it will have its security repudiated by the Company. A Lodge with such a contract is between the Devil and the Deep Sea.

(e) All have a stipulation that the bond does not cover any loss occasioned before the date when it went into effect. Most of them also contain a clause stipulating that the "acceptance of this bond shall operate as a cancellation of any former contract held in this company." A contract containing both these clauses is like the proverbial bear trap. As to any loss occasioned under, or by a breach of a former bond it catches the Lodge both coming and going.

(f) All of the contracts are conditioned upon a supposed application therefor, presumed to have been made by the Lodge. The statements in this application are warranted to be true. Should the contrary prove to be the case, the contract will be repudiated. The matter of procuring a surety bond should be between the Treasurer and the Company and not between the Lodge and the Company. If the Treasurer is good enough for the Company to accept a premium from, he is or should be good enough for the Company to pay a loss on.

My next observation was that these same Surety Companies, when they executed Court bonds, did not tender any such forms of contract as had been sold to our Lodges. In such cases they are glad to execute a bond on the form handed out by the clerk of the Court. Why then should they not give us security upon the form of bond which had been in universal use among the Lodges in this State for a generation? The answer is obvious. My conclusion was reached accordingly. In this conclusion I had the unanimous concurrence of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. My next observation was that while some of the Companies would execute a bond on the form handed out by our Grand Secretary the rate was made so high that it was practically prohibitory.

At the beginning of my labors on this vexatious question the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore sent a Representative to my office to ascertain what would be satisfactory. They desired some modifications made in the form which we have been using, which I would not consent to, without the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. In conjunction with this Committee acting through Past Grand Master Henry Phillips, a form of bond has been prepared, which seems to me to be, and which the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals says is satisfactory. That form is as follows:

Recording Secretary of..... Lodge No....., in Illinois.

This same form may be modified so as to be applicable for a Financial Secretary's bond.

The Fidelity and Deposit Company agreed to execute this bond in favor of Lodges requiring a Security Bond, charging therefor the same premium which has heretofore been charged for the objectionable contracts and no more. This Company is one of the largest in business, and I can see no reason to object to it on account of its financial strength or resources. None of the other Companies paid any attention whatever to the matter.

I would recommend that the Grand Lodge prescribe a form of contract to be accepted by Lodges when a surety bond is required. That this form of contract be universal throughout the jurisdiction and be printed and sent out by the Grand Secretary, and that the acceptance of any form other than the one prescribed by the Grand Lodge be absolutely prohibited. While the form presented seems to be un-objectionable, I realize the fact that the Grand Lodge may desire to take a hand in this matter, and I also realize the fact that anything which the Grand Lodge may approve, will be infinitely better than what the Lodges have heretofore been getting.

If I have manifested some feeling while reporting on this question,
I trust you will pardon it, for no one can study the details of this matter without having the tension of his patience and feelings somewhat strained.

EGYPTIAN LODGE CASE.

Egyptian Lodge No. 802, was located at Camp Ground near Anna, in Union County. This Lodge owned the upper story of a building, the lower story of which was owned and occupied by a congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. On or about the 20th day of October, 1905, this building was totally destroyed by fire, and it appears that in said fire the Lodge lost its regalia, paraphernalia, furniture, fixtures and records. It seems that the Lodge was protected against loss by fire by an insurance policy written in favor of the Lodge Trustees by the American Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, to the extent of eight hundred dollars. Six hundred dollars of this sum was written upon the upper story of said building, and two hundred dollars was written upon the chattel property. There was some litigation between the Lodge and the church and the Insurance Company, which practically amounted to a three cornered fight over this insurance. Without attempting to give the history of this litigation in detail, it is sufficient to say that it was concluded by a judgment rendered in favor of the Trustees of the Lodge and against the Insurance Company for the sum of eight hundred dollars and the costs of suit. On or about the 29th day of October, 1906, this judgment was satisfied by the payment of eight hundred thirty dollars to one P. E. Hileman and one Taylor Dodd, two members of the bar, who acted as the attorneys for the Trustees of the Lodge in said litigation.

My attention was called to certain irregularities in the proceedings of this Lodge arising out of the recovery and satisfaction of that judgment, and the failure on the part of the Lodge to hold meetings after the fire. Upon inquiry it appeared to me that the Trustees had not accounted to the Lodge for the proceeds of this judgment. I could not ascertain whether the Treasurer had received the money or not. I thereupon appointed Past Grand, I. R. Spilman, of Hope Lodge No. 232, of DuQuoin, Ill., as a Special Deputy, and as such authorized him to examine into the affairs of said Lodge and formally close it, if in his judgment, such action was advisable. From his report it appeared that the only property he could find was a Treasurer's book which contained but few entries. The Trustees of the Lodge either could not or would not tell what had become of this money. The attorneys for the Trustees above mentioned upon request being made, refused to state what they did with it when it was received from the Insurance Company. I thereupon directed Brother Spilman to close the Lodge in due form, which he did, by receiving the Treasurer's book and remitting it to me with $4.58 in money, together with an affidavit showing the destruction by fire of the building, chattel property, seal, rituals, and records belonging to the Lodge as above mentioned. I thereupon directed Brother Spilman in conjunction with Brother W. D. Lyerle, of Jonesboro, to prepare and file a bill in chancery, against the Trustees of the Lodge and the surviving members together with their attorneys, praying that the defendants be required to discover the proceeds of this judgment, and to account for and pay the same over to the Grand Lodge, which is its proper and legal owner.

BEQUESTS.

Brother Charles A. Jacot, of Relief Lodge No. 452, of Cobden, Ill., by his last will and testament gave and bequeathed the residue of all his real and personal property to be equally divided between the Masonic Orphans' Home at Sullivan, Illinois, and the Odd Fellows Orphans' Home at Lincoln, Illinois. During the year this bequest has become vested in the beneficiaries. From reports I have had, the indications are that we will realize about twenty-five hundred dollars net from this bequest.

The will does not limit the use to which this bequest shall be devoted. Upon consultation with the brethren of Relief Lodge, we have agreed that no better way could be discovered by which the intention of the testator could be carried out, than to provide for the education of some of the Home children at the State University. Therefore, by and with the consent and advice of Relief Lodge, I recommend that this fund be set apart for the purpose of maintaining one or more scholarships at the University of Illinois to be known as the Charles A. Jacot Scholarships. That the fund be permitted to accumulate for the present until such time as, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Home, the earnings or increment thereof will be sufficient to maintain such scholarships. That the time when such scholarships shall be awarded shall be left to the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Home. That the terms and conditions upon which said scholarships shall be awarded, shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge and the President of the University.

In addition to this bequest, Elizabeth Ceiley of Carbondale, gave and bequeathed all her real estate and personal property to the Illinois Odd Fellows Orphans' Home at Lincoln, Illinois. Concerning the use to which this bequest shall be devoted the will contains no express provision, and no precatory words, from which the intention of the testator can be found. The estate is now in process of settlement, and from reports which I have at hand, indications are that it will net the Home somewhere near twenty-five hundred dollars.

I have taken the matter up with the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges at Carbondale, relative to making some recommendation as to the use to which this fund shall be devoted. The Carbondale Lodges approve the idea of providing for some scholarships at the University of Illinois, and with their consent I recommend that this fund be used to create one or more scholarships to be known as the Elizabeth Ceiley Scholarships. Said scholarships to be disposed of under the same terms and conditions as are imposed upon the Jacot scholarships, with this exception, that in the assignment of these scholarships, children of the Home from Carbondale, or, children in the Home whose parents or either of them were members of Carbondale Lodges, shall have the preference. But in default of there being any such children in the Orphans' Home, then the scholarships may be assigned to any qualified children in the Home.

These are the only bequests which have been officially brought to my attention. I have been unofficially informed that there have been other bequests. One of these is at Carlinville and another at Rockford.

It seems to me that the Home Boards should be more particular about reporting such things to the Grand Master's office. During the recess the Grand Master is the proper official to take charge of such matters, either in person or by a constituted deputy.

I have also noted that there is a very indefinite idea as to a proper form for granting a gift, devise, or bequest by will to the Grand Lodge for the use of the Homes. Whenever it is desired to make such a gift, by will, it should be made to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. It should also be noted that in making the gift, the testator is entitled to limit its use in such manner and to such purposes as he may see fit. Gifts made to the Homes or either of them, or to the Boards or either of them, are gifts to the Grand Lodge. The Homes belong to the Grand Lodge and have no independent corporate existence. The Boards under which the Homes are managed are but Committees of the Grand Lodge. Neither of them has any right, independent of the Grand Lodge, to receive a gift.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge, by the amendment of the Fifth Report of the Committee on Legislation and the adoption of this report as amended, the Grand Lodge provided that the administration of the Endowment Funds should be vested in a Board of three Trustees. Among other things this legislation also provided that this Board of Trustees should be appointed by the Grand Master, subject to the advice and consent of the Finance Committee, the chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, and the Grand Treasurer. That the first Board of Trustees should be appointed—one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and that thereafter one Trustee should be appointed in like manner each year, to serve for a period of three years.

Shortly after the beginning of the year I appointed the following brothers to serve on this Board: Alfred Orendorff, P.G.M., of Springfield, Lodge No. 465, to serve one year; E. S. Conway, Grand Sire, Oak Park, Lodge No. 217, to serve two years; Chester M. Turner, P.G.M., Cambridge, Lodge No. 199, to serve three years. These appointments were approved by the Finance Committee, the chairman of the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, and the Grand Treasurer. This Board of Trustees has made two reports, which I present herewith.

"SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 12, 1907.

Hon. Fred. B. Merrills,
Grand Master, I.O.O.F.,
Belleville, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: The Board of Trustees of the Endowment Funds of the Odd Fellows Orphans' Home and the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home of the State of Illinois respectfully report that the Board of Trustees have examined certain mortgages on unincumbered real estate, being improved farm land in the County of Iroquois, Illinois.

One mortgage by Augustus Dèmars on improved farming land for the sum of \$9,000.00 duly executed to Oren E. Taft, Trustee, and owned by the Pearsons-Taft Land Credit Company of Chicago, Illinois. The land is valued at \$33,000.00, and the notes and mortgages endorsed so that the holder receives  $4\frac{1}{2}$  per cent interest per annum, from March 27, 1907.

The other for the sum of \$6,000.00 on unincumbered real estate, being improved farm land in Iroquois county, Illinois, valued at \$15,000.00, and endorsed to net the holder  $4\frac{1}{2}$  per cent interest per annum from March 27, 1907.

The notes and mortgage are duly executed by Diobett Behrends to Oren E. Taft, Trustee, and owned by Pearsons-Taft Credit Company.

The description of the mortgage and notes covering the Demars land is as follows:

The Northwest quarter and the West half of the Southwest quarter of Section 25, in Township 28 North, Range 14 West of the Second Principal Meridian, containing 240 acres.

To secure one principal note made on the 22nd day of January, 1907, in the sum of Nine Thousand (9,000.00) dollars payable on the first day of March, 1912, with interest at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum, from March 1st, payable annually, which is evidenced by five (5) interest coupon notes attached.

The description of the mortgage and notes covering the Behrends land is as follows:

That part of the fractional Northeast Quarter lying west of the Iroquois River of Section 32, in Township 28 North, of Range 13 West of the Second Principal Meridian, containing 126 3-100 acres.

The principal note secured by this mortgage is executed on the 8th day of January, 1907, and payable on the first day of March, 1912, with interest at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum from March 1, 1907, payable annually, and evidenced by five (5) interest coupon notes attached.

Abstracts showing title to the property above named in the mortgages was presented and the opinion of an attorney confirming the same was obtained.

Information as to the value of the land was also obtained from competent parties in its locality.

In the matter of both of these loans your Trustees have complied with the requirements of the Grand Lodge as set forth in the law creating these Trustees, and in our opinion the loans are unquestionably safe and desirable investments for these funds.

In view of the above you will please cause warrant to be issued on the Grand Treasurer payable to Pearsons-Taft Land Company for $9,000.00 from the Endowment Funds of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home, and a warrant for $6,000.00 from the Endowment Funds of the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home, payable to Pearsons-Taft Land Company, and forward the warrants to Alfred Orendorff, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of said Endowment Funds.

Fraternally submitted,

ALFRED ORENDORFF,

E. S. CONWAY,

CHESTER M. TURNER,

Trustees of the Endowment Funds.

"SPRINGFIELD, ILL., September 5, 1907.

HON. FRED B. MERRILLS,

Grand Master I. O. O. F.,

Belleville, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER—The Board of Trustees of the Endowment Funds of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home and the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home of the State of Illinois, and the Orphans' Home Fund of the Rebekah Lodges working in the German Language, respectfully report that the Board of Trustees have examined a certain mortgage on unincumbered real estate, being improved farm land in the County of Whiteside, Illinois. The mortgage is given by Ida M. Darnall on improved farming land for the sum of three thousand one hundred dollars ($3,100.00) duly executed to Oren E. Taft, Trustee, and owned by Pearsons-Taft Land Credit Company. The land is valued at twelve thousand eight hundred dollars ($12,800.00) and the notes and mortgage are endorsed so that the holder receives four and three-fourths per cent (4¾%) interest per annum.

The description of the real estate mortgage and notes covering this loan is as follows: The Northeast Quarter of Section 34, Township 19 North, Range 7 East of the fourth Principal Meridian, containing one hundred sixty acres more or less. To secure one principal note made on the 7th day of May, 1906, in the sum of $3,100.00, payable on the first day of June, A. D. 1911, with interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent (5½%) per annum from May 7, 1906, payable annually, which is evidenced by five interest coupon notes attached. Abstracts showing title to the property above named in the mortgagors was presented and the opinion of an attorney confirming the title in the mortgagors to the same was obtained. Information as to the value of the land was also obtained from competent parties in its locality.

In the matter of this loan your Trustees have complied with the requirements of the Grand Lodge as set forth in the law creating these Trustees, and in our opinion the loan is unquestionably safe and a desirable investment for these funds.

In view of the above you will please cause warrants to be issued on the Grand Treasurer, payable to the Pearsons-Taft Land Credit Company for $3,100.00, $631.53 of which is from the funds of the Rebekah Lodges working in the German language, and $2,468.47 from the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home Endowment Fund, and have the same forwarded to Alfred Orendorff, chairman of the Board of Trustees of said Endowment Funds.

Fraternally yours,

ALFRED ORENDORFF,

E. S. CONWAY,

CHESTER M. TURNER,

Trustees of the Endowment Funds.

In this connection I desire to state that while I have attempted to give force and effect to the legislation of the last session, I have serious doubts as to the constitutionality of the second and third clauses. There are other members of the Grand Lodge who entertain the same doubts, and it would be well for us to consider these constitutional questions before the lapse of time has an opportunity to involve the Endowment Funds with legal complications.

In the first place the Grand Lodge has no right to restrict the appointing power of the Grand Master, or to compel him to submit his appointments to a part and parcel of the Grand Lodge for its approval, unless this restriction is provided for in the Grand Lodge Constitution. To designate certain individual members of the Grand Lodge who have no constitutional existence or constitutional powers as a ratifying board, with power to reject or confirm the appointments of the Grand Master, is not only unconstitutional, but is placing a restriction upon the exercise of that discretion which a long line of precedents has vested in the Grand Master. A second constitutional objection is that this Board of Trustees, if it is anything, is a Standing Committee which, according to the terms of the Resolution, does not expire with the expiration of the term of office of the Grand Master appointing it. It becomes, so to speak, one of the co-ordinate branches of the Government of the Grand Lodge. In organization and tenure it is like the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. But the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals is provided for by the Grand Lodge Constitution. The question is, can this purpose be accomplished in any other way than through the operation of our organic law? As to both of these questions I hold the negative view.

I think also that so much of the report as deals with the class and character of the securities which may be accepted should be further amended. I would therefore recommend that the fourth paragraph be amended to read as follows:

Fourth. It shall be the duty of said Trustees to keep the Endowment Funds of said Homes separate and distinct from each other, and to keep said funds invested in the bonds of the United States, State of Illinois, or in the bonds of any County, City, Village, Town, Township, School District, or other Municipality organized under the laws of Illinois, and first mortgages on real estate in the State of Illinois.

When investments are made in any of the bonds above enumerated, only those bonds shall be accepted in which the full faith and credit of the United States, of the State of Illinois, or of the City, County, Village, Town, Township, School District, or other Municipality, issuing said bonds has been pledged.

In case of loan on first mortgage real estate security as aforesaid, the maturity thereof shall in no case be later than five years after the making of any such loan, or the purchase of any such mortgage. No greater sum shall be loaned in any case than forty per cent of the conservative value of the property, land and buildings, and in no event shall a sum greater than a conservative value of the land exclusive of buildings be loaned. In all cases of loans on real estate, Insurance to the full insurable value of the buildings thereon shall be procured, and net loss, if any, payable to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, as its interest may appear."

The foregoing proposed amendment has been submitted to the Board of Trustees and meets with their approval.

It has appeared to me that it is not wise to make loans upon real estate security at all. But if such security is taken, it would seem to be good business policy to not put too many eggs in one basket. The legislative authorities of the Federal and State Governments recognize the wisdom of such a principle by preventing banks from making loans in any greater sum than ten per cent of the capital stock of the institution. It has seemed to me that a similar provision should be incorporated in the rules prescribing the character of investments which may be accepted for the Endowment Funds. It is true that the size of a loan does not make it unsafe. For a good loan is good large or small; but should we attempt to follow this principle, we must presume that we will always have a Board of Trustees which "Mother Nature" has endowed with infallible judgments. So long as the human judgment is liable to err, the practice of making large loans upon real estate security is liable to seriously affect the stability of the fund from which the loan is made. The Endowment Fund Trustees do not agree with me in these views. Hence I submit them to you for your consideration without making any recommendation.

A question also arises as to the proper fund from which the expenses of this Committee shall be paid. This also is a new question, for in the past the administration of the Endowment Funds has been conducted without expense either to the Grand Lodge or to the funds. The administration of the funds by this committee necessarily involves some expense. My construction was that this expense should be provided for out of the Grand Lodge appropriation for committees.

I do not believe it is wise to accumulate large General Endowment Funds. I have found during the year that there is in existence a growing sentiment of this character. The theory upon which the funds have been accumulated up to the present time is that of voluntary contributions. In order that this theory might be emphasized and that no member of the Lodge should entertain an erroneous view, that he or the Lodge was expected to make a contribution to the funds, I sent out the following circular letter:

BELLEVILLE, ILL., October 17, 1907.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS I. O. O. F.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I.O.O.F. of Illinois—Greeting:

It has been the practice for several years to receive at the opening session of the Grand Lodge, voluntary contributions to the Endowment Funds. In view of this custom a special order of business will be provided on Tuesday evening, November 19th, during which such contributions may be made. An envelope is enclosed herewith in which it is expected that the donations will be enclosed and handed in at that time.

It has appeared to me during the year that there was quite a prevalent opinion among a large number of the brethren that the Endowment Fund idea had been slightly overworked. In view of this fact I desire to state very emphatically that any and all contributions which are made, must be voluntary contributions and must come from the donors prompted by their own free will and accord. The purpose of this communication is not to insist, or even suggest, that contributions should be made, but rather to emphasize the fact that no Lodge or individual is expected to make any contribution to these funds as a matter of duty.

Individuals may properly make contributions in any sum. Lodges may do likewise, providing the sum is taken from a special fund. In my opinion it is unwise for any Lodge to appropriate for this purpose from its general fund a sum exceeding ten cents per member. It is the desire of the present Grand Master that where a Lodge may make such appropriation from its general fund that it limit the donation accordingly.

Yours very fraternally,

DUANE LODGE DEFALCATION.

It will be noticed that under the head of Security Bonds, reference was made to a loss which was sustained by Duane Lodge No. 11, by and through the defalcation of its Treasurer. The Lodge carried a balance in its treasury of about two thousand dollars. The Treasurer bonded in the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company to the amount of two thousand dollars. Through a certain turn of business an additional sum of money came into the hands of the Treasurer, making the balance about four thousand dollars. The Lodge permitted the Treasurer to receive this amount without requiring an additional bond. When the defalcation came, instead of having a bond in double the amount carried by the Treasurer as the law required, the Lodge had a bond for half the amount. This bond was repudiated by the Surety Company, on technicalities. The result is the Lodge stands to lose a very large portion if not the whole amount.

I have been informed that this Treasurer has been expelled by the Lodge and I also understand he is now under indictment in Cook county for embezzlement. Brother Edward H. Taylor of Deering Lodge No. 717, and Brother J. Ewing Davis of Lakeside Lodge No. 450, have been assisting me in looking after this matter, and I recommend that the incoming Grand Master continue them in this work.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

Brother Jacob Joel, the Grand Master of Indiana, requested that that jurisdiction be granted permission for St. Bernice Lodge No. 666, to initiate eight candidates who were residents of the State of Illinois. It appeared upon the showing made that the gentlemen who desired to unite with the Indiana Lodge, had no Odd Fellows' Lodge in this State that was at all convenient. The request complied in every respect with the General Lodge Law. It appeared to me that the interests of the Order would be promoted by granting the request, and it was granted accordingly. This courtesy has been highly appreciated by the Grand Master of Indiana, and I trust it will meet with your approval.

I have had other correspondence with the Grand Master of Indiana which has been about minor matters. He has shown me every courtesy and consideration. I visited the Grand Lodge of Indiana at its May Session, and was royally entertained. If it is possible for any set of Odd Fellows to be better than our own Grand Lodge, I think that set must be the Grand Lodge of Indiana.

I have had other correspondence with Brother Lucian J. Eastin, the Grand Master of Missouri; also with the Grand Secretary of Kentucky, and with the Grand Secretary of Vermont. These Grand Officers have likewise been very courteous. The subject matters of these different items of correspondence were of minor importance, have been effectually disposed of, and it is unnecessary to set them out in this report.

OLD FOLKS' HOME.

During the year I have visited the Old Folks' Home several times. Upon the invitation of the Board of Trustees, another picnic was held at the Old Folks' Home grounds on June 21st. At this picnic the members of the Old Folks' Home Board and the Advisory Board acted as hosts to entertain the children of the Orphans' Home and their attendants. Quite a goodly number of the brethren and sisters from the surrounding neighborhood were present, and some from a distance. The attendance was sufficiently large for the capacity of the grounds. The day proved an enjoyable one to all who attended.

In general my observation has been that the members of the Board of Trustees and the Advisory Board have contributed largely of their time and ability to promote the success of this Institution. The details of their work will be found in their report, to which I direct your careful attention. Considerable has been done during the past year in the way of making permanent improvements. Many needed changes have been made. Others will doubtless be suggested by the Trustees.

There are many vexatious problems which confront the management of the Home. We can hardly expect to eliminate all of them. During the year I have heard some criticisms. As far as I have been able to determine from my personal knowledge these criticisms may well be resolved into a question of more and better service. Ordinarily, an increased pay roll, both as to the number of employes and the amount of salaries paid, would accomplish much in this direction.

I have recently sent out a circular letter to the Lodges which is self-explanatory, and which I now quote herewith:

BELLEVILLE, ILL., October 15, 1907.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I.O.O.F. of Illinois—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS—I desire to direct your attention at this time to a problem which confronts us relative to the management of our Old Folks' Home. This problem should be dealt with at the coming session and I take this method of laying it before you, that you may have ample time to give it due consideration before the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly convene. The case may, perhaps, be best stated by quoting in full a letter which I have received from the Board of Trustees, which is as follows:

“DECATUR, ILL., October 5, 1907.

Hon. Fred B. Merrills,

Grand Master, I.O.O.F.,

Belleville, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER—At the October meeting of the Trustees of the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home, in passing upon petitions for admission, the Board realizes that the limit has been reached for receiving new members, and that all available space has been utilized. Therefore, in considering future applications, if accepted, will cause a “waiting list” which can only be reduced by death or discharge from the list of our present membership.

Having carefully investigated the arrangements now in force at the Home and the distribution of the members throughout the building, we feel that there should be some prompt action taken to bring the subject before the Fraternity relative to the erection of an additional building such as might fill our wants for years to come.

As it will require a year or more to complete a suitable building, we respectfully ask that you give us your valuable assistance and present the subject to the various Lodges that the representatives to the Grand Lodge may come fully prepared to pass upon the question when presented.

Fraternally submitted.

JOHN W. YANTIS, Chairman,

L. M. KAGY,

F. D. P. SNELLING,

O. B. ANDERSON.”

Secretary.

From the foregoing letter it will be seen that the limit of capacity has been reached. The conditions for admission to the Home have been prescribed by the Grand Lodge, and are as follows:

The Home is established for the care and maintenance of members of the Order who are in good standing therein, and who are unable to earn a livelihood by reason of the infirmities of age and chronic afflictions, and the wives of such members who are in indigent circumstances, without other means of support, and for members of Rebekah Lodges who are in like circumstances, and also for widows of Odd Fellows whose husbands died in good standing; and all such persons, upon being admitted to the Home, will be cared for while they are members thereof and will be required to relinquish all claims upon their respective Lodges for sick and attentive benefits as a condition of their admission to, and support while in the Home. Members of the Order to be entitled to the benefits of the Home shall have been in continuous good standing in the Order for the period of ten years next previous to admission, and for at least five years thereof in this Grand Jurisdiction. A widow who is otherwise qualified by age or affliction, whose husband was for ten consecutive years prior to and up to the time of his death in good standing in the Order, and for at least five years thereof in this Grand Jurisdiction, shall be entitled to the benefits of this Home. All applications shall be sent to the Secretary of the Board and must be submitted to and passed upon by the Board of Trustees.

Every applicant meeting these conditions is entitled to have his or her application favorably acted upon. It would seem that upon this question the Trustees have no discretion.

The rules governing admission to the Home also prescribe that members of the Home who shall become able to support themselves, or cease to be indigent, shall be discharged from the Home, or shall pay such an amount for their maintenance as the Trustees shall require. Also, that the Trustees shall prescribe conditions upon which non-indigent, aged members of the Order, in good standing in this Grand Jurisdiction, may be admitted to the Home and its care for any period, or for life; and all such transactions shall be reported to the next meeting of the Grand Lodge. In the matter of the admission of those who are non-indigent, and in the matter of the retaining in membership of those who were admitted as indigent members but afterwards ceased to be indigent, we would reason that the Trustees have a discretion.

The problem confronting us may be solved in one of four different ways.

First. The conditions of admission may be changed so as to reduce the number of those who will be entitled to admission.

Second. The benefits of the Home may be denied to those who are not in indigent circumstances, and to those who were in indigent circumstances upon admission to the Home, but who since have ceased to be indigent.

Third. The conditions of admission may be left as they are and the Board be required to keep a "waiting list," from which vacancies in the Home may be filled in the order of the acceptance of the applications.

Fourth. The capacity of the Home may be increased in any desired amount so as to eliminate the necessity of changing the conditions for admission, or the keeping of a "waiting list."

You will note from the above communication that the Board does not assume to make any recommendations as to the proper solution of this problem. In this I think the Board assumes the correct attitude. Figuratively speaking, it is their duty to cut the garment according to their cloth, and it is within the province of the Grand Lodge to say how much cloth they shall have for their garment. It would be well to take this matter up at your meetings and discuss ways and means of solving the problem for the enlightenment of your representatives and such of your past grands as may attend the sessions. You may not instruct your past grands; but you may instruct your representatives if you so desire. I would suggest, however, that you leave the representatives free to act according to their best judgment after the matter has been discussed in your Lodge and upon the floor of the Grand Lodge.

Yours very fraternally,

Grand Secretary.

FRED B. MERRILLS,
Grand Master.

In addition to the question of capacity, it has always seemed to me that the Old Folks' Home should have a chapel. A place set apart for religious worship and religious meditation, and used for no other purpose, should be a part of the equipment of any institution of this character. The furnishings, decorations and surroundings of such a chapel should be in keeping with its purpose. This need has frequently been discussed. No definite idea concerning the manner of supplying it has as yet been formulated. I suggest it at this time with the hope that some Endowment will be provided for the purpose of building such a chapel, and providing for its repair and maintenance.

Some years ago the question of installing an elevator at the Home was brought to the attention of the Finance Committee. On this question I took the negative view. I will say that during the past year I have experienced a change of opinion, and now consider the elevator a necessity. This improvement would perhaps prove more beneficial in the way of improving the services of the institution, than in the way of affording comfort to the members of the Home. Some time ago the Rebekahs started an elevator fund. I am not advised as to the amount of money now in this fund, nor am I advised as to what the installation of elevator service would cost. Suffice it to say that I recommend that whatever deficit there be, if any it be, be appropriated at this Session and added to this fund, to the end that the elevator service may be installed as soon as possible.

ORPHANS' HOME.

I have visited the Orphans' Home twice. Once on the occasion of their commencement exercises, and again on the occasion of the Joint Committee of the Board of Directors and the Advisory Board on November 6th. I have been highly pleased with the management of this Institution. I believe that the shoulders of our beloved Brother Lucas and his estimable wife furnish the place upon which the mantle of our late Sister Morrison should rest.

I have made some suggestions which have been concurred in by the Superintendent, and which I hope to mention during the course of the Session. As to details of management they will be furnished by the reports of the Directors and the Advisory Board. The appropriations will be suggested by the Finance Committee. On November 8th I received the following report from the Board:

"LINCOLN, ILL., November 6, 1907.

To the Grand Master, Hon. Fred B. Merrills:

In accordance with Document No. 20, page 328, and also report 6, Document No. 34, the Board of Directors and the Advisory Board beg to report at once to you and through you to the respective Lodges of the State of Illinois, that they are of the firm belief that this matter should have immediate consideration by the next Grand Lodge, with the view of building and equipping a Manual Training School at the earliest possible moment.

Signed by authority of the BOARD OF DIRECTORS."

This report is not self-explanatory; but by reference to the documents cited, it will be discovered that it alludes to a Manual Training school.

It appears to my mind that the one great need of the Orphans' Home, the need which overshadows all other needs, is the need of a department of Manual Training. Not that the children may be trained as skilled artisans, for that can never be accomplished in any Manual Training school. But it is necessary in order that the Institution may be enabled to properly combine practical instruction with theoretical knowledge. Every individual should at least know how to do some kind of useful manual labor. Another very useful purpose accomplished by manual training is that it enables the hand to work with the brain. There are some children who are not able to deal with abstract propositions. As to these an ordinary school will accomplish but little. Those of you who are fathers, if you have observed the little chubby brown hands of your own children, have noticed how willingly they work when there is some useful purpose to be accomplished by the work. You have also noticed how apt they are to busy themselves in sowing the seeds of discontent and destruction, if left with nothing to do. Remember then that we are not doing our full duty either to the children or to our country by simply providing them with a Home during their tender years, and by giving them the rudiments of book-learning.

“Those who toil bravely are strongest;
The Humble and poor become great;
And so from these brown handed children
Shall grow mighty rulers of State.
The pen of the author and statesman—
The noble and wise of the land—
The sword, and the chisel, and palette,
Shall be held in the little brown hand.”

The Sisters of the Rebekah Assembly have been at work to establish a School of Domestic Science for the benefit of the girls. This is but another name for the thing which I recommend. Let the good work go on. Let this also extend in scope until it has also included the boys in its beneficent purpose.

ADVISORY BOARDS.

I have been much pleased with the work which has been done by both of the Advisory Boards. I have not only been pleased with their work during the past year, but have been pleased with their work ever since I have been observing it. It appears to me, however, that our law does not give the Sisters their just due. The entire credit of building and establishing the Orphans' Home is due to the Rebekahs. Very much of the credit for building and establishing the Old Folks' Home is due to them. Then why should we assume that, by reason of our superior business sagacity, the entire management of these institutions should be left to us? True it is, we consult the sisters in an advisory capacity but we at the same time assure them that their advice will not be heeded unless it suits us. My idea is that the Advisory Boards should be abolished and the Sisters should be given equal representation and equal authority with the Brothers on the Boards of both Institutions. Men are all right in their place, but when it comes to making a Home we need a woman. To make a home in all that the sense of the word implies, we need both. This is a natural law. We have no right to expect a full measure of success in the management of these institutions if we disobey it.

DEGREES AT THE GRAND LODGE SESSION.

Under the authority granted by the Grand Lodge in adopting the report of the Special Committee which witnessed the Degree Work at the last Session, I have secured the right to use the State Armory on Wednesday evening, November 20th, at which time the degrees of the Subordinate Lodge will be exemplified. I have designated the following Lodges to exemplify this work. All of which will be done without expense to the Grand Lodge.

Hindsboro Lodge No. 571 of Hindsboro, will confer the Initiatory Degree. Bentley Lodge No. 412 of Carthage will confer the First Degree. Golden Rule Lodge No. 374 of East St. Louis will confer the Second Degree, and Prairie State Lodge No. 104 of Waynesville will confer the Third Degree.

The selection of these Lodges has not been made with the view of commending their work as being superior to the work of any other Lodge or Team. The purpose in view in making these selections has been more to encourage the work of Lodges in different localities of the State. It may be and probably is that there are Teams who can do the work better than some of the work will be done, but the careful observer can always find something to learn by witnessing the work done by any fairly good organization. I have requested Brother Oscar D. Olsen of John Ericsson Lodge No. 361, Brother C. M. Lytle, and Brother W. H. Bean, to act as an official committee to witness this work and report to the Grand Lodge. The understanding is that if the business of the Session will permit, the Grand Master will attend and deliver the Past Grand's Charge.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RAILROADS.

The Committee on Railroads has been unable to secure any reduced rates for this Session. I do not think any one will be disappointed in this. Since the two-cent rate law went into effect on the first of July, the railroad companies seem to be endeavoring to make the law odious. I submit herewith the report of the Committee, which is self-explanatory:

"HARVEY, ILL., October 29, 1907.

Fred B. Merrills,
Grand Master, I.O.O.F.,
Belleville, Ill.

Dear Sir and Grand Master—We, your Railroad Committee of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, beg leave to submit the following:

We have been unable to secure a reduction in railroad rates for the Grand Lodge to be held in Springfield, Illinois, November 19th, 20th and 21st, 1907.

The reason for our inability to secure the same is owing to the new rate which went into effect on all railroads in Illinois, on July 1, 1907, namely, two cents per mile, and we herewith beg leave to attach and make a part of this report, a letter under date of October 11, 1907, received from the Central Passenger Association which reads as follows:

"CHICAGO, October 11, 1907.

Springfield, Ill., November 18-23, 1907. Session of Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.

Mr. W. H. Pease,

Chairman Railroad Committee, I.O.O.F., Illinois Division, Harvey, Ill.

Dear Sir—Responding to your application of today for reduced fares on account of above occasion:

Since the two-cent per mile rate law was enacted by the Illinois legislature, no reductions from the fare applicable locally within Illinois have been announced by the railroad companies in that State for convention gatherings. I, therefore, in individual behalf of members of this Association operating in Illinois, beg to respectfully refer your organization to the fares established by your State.

Yours truly,

F. C. DONALD,
Commissioner.

Fraternally yours,

WILLIAM H. PEASE.
MARTIN W. SCHAEFER.
C. A. YOUNG."

HOME LIBRARIES.

The creation of a Committee on Libraries is certainly a happy and useful thought. During the year the Homes have been the recipients of a princely gift from Brother Varnum T. Hull of Home Lodge No. 416. Brother Hull had been for many years collecting a library which finally comprised over five thousand volumes. Some time during the summer he voluntarily offered the Committee on Libraries the privilege of making a choice of five hundred volumes from this collection for the library of the Orphans' Home, and a like choice of five hundred other volumes for the library at the Old Folks' Home. The gift was accepted and through the labors of the Committee on Libraries the books were selected, packed and shipped to the two Homes. I trust the Grand Lodge will take some appropriate action in recognition of this generous donation.

The Special Committee on Home Libraries has made the following report:

HON. F. B. MERRILLS, G. M.,
Belleville, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: The Special Committee on Libraries would respectfully report as follows: At the last Session of our Grand Lodge, held on November 20, 1906, Brother Galloway of No. 22 offered a resolution for the appointment by the Grand Master of a Committee on Libraries in our two Homes, to act in connection with the Grand Master, and the Superintendents of our Homes. The matter was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order, who endorsed it, and recommended that it pass, which was done. The Grand Master appointed J. L. Barnum, P. G. M., Leroy L. McKinley, P. G. M., and Charles E. Boyer, P. G. Marshal. The above named Committee have held several meetings and considered the matter in its various forms, and we feel that there is an opportunity of accomplishing great good, by way of placing in the hands of our young wards the means of acquiring knowledge and information which they might otherwise be unable to secure, and which will be of use to them all through life; and to our old folks, an opportunity to amuse and entertain themselves and make life happier and more enjoyable than it would have been otherwise.

So we feel that our Grand Body can do no more laudable work than is opened up by this legislation, and while it may cost something, it will be money well spent and will place our jurisdiction at the front of the grand procession of advancement of our great Order, which stands for all that is good. With these few preliminaries we would suggest that you have a copy or an extract of the above printed and sent out by the Grand Secretary while sending other matter, notifying all of the Lodges in our jurisdiction to donate two books, one for the Old Folks' and one for the Orphans' Home, to be sent in by their Representatives to the Library Committee, which will be located at the Grand Secretary's office or at the State House, where they will receive them, assort and pack them and see that they are properly shipped. The Committee reserves the right to examine all books and should there be any unworthy ones, to reject them.

The books should all be clean, well bound, and of an elevating character.

We would further suggest that the Lodges having members in the Old Folks' Home be requested to send copies of Home papers to said members.

Respectfully submitted.

J. L. BARNUM, P. G. M.

L. L. MCKINLEY, P. G. M.

CHARLES E. BOYER, P. G.

Acting upon the suggestions contained in this report, I issued a circular letter under date of October 15, which is as follows:

"BELLEVILLE, ILL., October 17, 1907.

I. O. O. F. LIBRARIES.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I.O.O.F. of Illinois—Greeting:

At the Grand Lodge session of 1906, a resolution was adopted authorizing the appointment by the Grand Master of a Committee on Libraries in the two Homes. Under the authority of this resolution I appointed J. L. Barnum, Past Grand Master, Leroy L. McKinley, Past Grand Master and C. E. Boyer, Past Grand Marshal, to serve on such Committee.

The above named committee has held several meetings to consider the subject matter, and has received a large number of books which they have placed in the Homes. One of the means suggested of expanding the libraries and thereby increasing their value and usefulness is, that each Representative and Past Grand attending the next Grand Lodge Session, and each delegate and Past Noble Grand attending the next session of the Rebekah Assembly bring two books, one for the Old Folks' Home and one for the Orphans' Home. These books are to be delivered to the Library Committee, who will have headquarters either at the Grand Secretary's office or at the State House, due notice of which will appear in the Grand Secretary's announcement of the Session. The books should be clean, well-bound and of an elevating character. They need not necessarily be new books. There will be no objection to receiving duplicate copies. The Library Committee will reserve the right to examine all books, and to reject any such as are deemed to be unworthy.

The Library Committee further suggests that Lodges having members in the Old Folks' Home, be requested to place such members on the regular subscription list of some newspaper published at the place where such member formerly resided. Observation has taught us that of all the reading matter which reaches the Home, the "Home Paper" is the one which is the most eagerly expected and enjoyed.

A little thought and a minimum of expense for a few years will build up splendid libraries in both of these Homes. The amount of good which they will accomplish is incalculable. Will you not all contribute something to this worthy cause?

Yours very fraternally,

Attest:

Jno. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

FRED B. MERRILLS,
Grand Master.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The stability and usefulness of our Order will always depend in a very large measure upon the ability of the Grand Lodge to meet its financial obligations. Our method of doing business for years past has been such that the Committee on Finance is more than an auditing committee. In addition to auditing the books and accounts of those Grand Lodge Officers and employes who receive and pay out funds, this committee has served in the capacity of a "Ways and Means" Committee, and as such takes the initiative in providing the necessary revenues, and making a proper adjustment between our receipts and disbursements. If these duties are neglected, or are thoughtlessly or inaccurately performed, disaster would necessarily result. I think the practice in the past of continuing old members of the Finance Committee in service so far as is practicable, is to be commended. I desire especially to commend the present Committee on Finance, and to thank them for their patient and efficient work. This Committee has presented to me the following reports, which are self-explanatory, and which I herewith transmit for your consideration:

First Report by Brother James Ewing Davis of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report that they met in the office of the Grand Secretary on the 15th day of May, A. D. 1907, and made a careful inventory of the stock of supplies and fixtures on hand, and for a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements as well as an inventory, see Grand Secretary's Report.

Your committee checked up the offices and found the business conducted in a very efficient manner and the funds and property of the Grand Lodge duly and properly accounted for. The receipts of the offices for the six months ending April 30, 1907, were as follows:

Aged Odd Fellows' Fund .....	$ 100.85
Orphans' Home Account .....	1,365.78
Sale of Supplies .....	3,375.30
Old Folks' Home Account .....	4,429.87
Old Folks' Endowment Account .....	7,265.32
Orphans' Home Endowment Account .....	7,411.01
Capitation Tax .....	34,934.20
Total Recéipts .....	$ 58,882.33

All of which has been remitted to the Grand Treasurer, Thomas B. Needles, and his receipts therefor are on file with the Grand Secretary.

The disbursements from November 1, 1906, to May 1, 1907, were as follows:

Orphans' Home .....	$ 12,141.06
Old Folks' Home .....	8,877.94
Ebert Fund .....	2.58
Bills allowed by Grand Lodge and Grand Master .....	439.52
Officers' Reports .....	414.00
Investment of Endowment Funds .....	15,000.00
Daily Journal .....	148.05
Annual Journal of Proceedings .....	940.10
Sovereign Grand Lodge Tax .....	150.00

Stationery for G. L., Circular Letters, etc. ....	254.94
S. G. L. Supplies .....	2,361.50
Special Deputies .....	43.23
Expense of Committees .....	527.33
Grand Master's Salary .....	600.00
Grand Master's Stenographer .....	300.00
Grand Master's Office Expense .....	286.69
Special Relief .....	225.00
Grand Secretary's Salary .....	999.96
Grand Secretary's Clerk and Stenographer .....	690.00
Grand Secretary's Office Expense .....	1,450.40
Total .....	$ 45,852.30

We have also examined and audited the bills for current and contingent expenses of the Grand Secretary's Office for the six months ending April 30, 1907, amounting to the sum of $1,450.40. We found that the same is a necessary expenditure and that proper bills and receipts are on file and we recommend that the Secretary's bill therefor be allowed.

The profit on the first six months' business, from November 1, 1906, to April 30, 1907, on supplies was $1,216.77.

The following Lodges were delinquent both in the matter of capitation tax and reports, May 1, 1907:

Second Report by Brother George F. Koester of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

We visited the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon on Wednesday, October 2, 1907, and met with the Board of Trustees of the Home and audited their books and accounts from October 10, 1906, to date and find the same correct.

We find the receipts as follows:

Balance on hand (last year) .....	$ 6,247.00
Received by Grand Secretary (last year) .....	63.17
Grand Lodge Appropriations .....	21,350.00
Receipts from other sources .....	6,920.64
Total .....	$ 34,580.81

Disbursements as follows:

Account Maintenance .....	$ 16,607.91
Account Barn (Building) Fund .....	3,600.00
Account Heating Plant Fund .....	3,220.40
Account Repair Fund .....	27.50
Account H. Ebert Fund .....	22.48
Account Cemetery Fund .....	24.00
Total .....	23,502.29

Balance on hand ..... $ 11,078.52

Balance on hand made up as follows:

Maintenance .....	$ 6,996.95
Barn Building Fund .....	420.00
Heating Plant Fund .....	1,779.60
Repair Fund .....	724.59
Elevator Fund .....	744.44
Heating Fund .....	100.00
Well Fund .....	150.00
Henry Ebert Fund .....	31.29
Cemetery Fund .....	131.65
	$ 11,078.52

We find that the meetings of the Board have been held regularly and were well attended and the affairs of the Home conducted in a businesslike manner, also the books are kept in a very satisfactory and creditable manner.

During the past year the Board has had a new brick barn erected and had such portion of the old frame barn moved as was worth while and which is now being used as an implement barn. They are also erecting the central heating plant, which is now nearly completed. Both of these buildings have been a necessity for some time and will meet the requirements of the Home probably for all time to come.

The Home is now taxed to its full capacity, as we now have 79 members, 64 brothers and 15 sisters with two (2) applications on file. The question of funds for an additional building should therefore be considered by the Grand Lodge.

On account of the lack of room in the main building, the help has been compelled to find quarters in the little frame cottage which, therefore, needs remodeling to meet these requirements so as to be able to keep good and reliable help.

The Superintendent now has on file a full and complete inventory of the personal property belonging to the Home. This is in accordance with our request.

Fraternally submitted.

Fourth Report by Brother James Ewing Davis of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

We visited the Orphans' Home at Lincoln on Wednesday, November 6, 1907, and there met with the Grand Master, Board of Trustees and Advisory Board.

We find the general condition of the Home to be good and its business transacted in a very satisfactory manner. A new system of books has been installed at the Home for which we wish to commend the Secretary of the Board and also wish to commend the Board of Trustees and Superintendent for the manner in which they have conducted the affairs entrusted to them. An inventory of the personal effects has been made as requested.

An implement shed has been erected to protect the farm implements, etc. In much of this work the older boys at the Home assisted.

Considerable improvement has been made in the general condition of the grounds surrounding the barn and stock sheds.

We are pleased to announce that the Rebekahs have started the foundation for a domestic science school at the Home which will instruct the girls in cooking, etc., thereby better equipping them to cope with the requirements of the day when they leave the Home.

We find the necessity of a central heating plant and recommend that their request for an appropriation, which was made by the Board last year with that end in view, be complied with.

There are at present 126 children at the Home, 75 boys and 51 girls, with 14 additional applications, 11 girls and 3 boys, which have been approved. This will make the total enrollment 140, 78 boys and 62 girls.

We find the receipts and disbursements to be as follows:

OFFICIAL EXAMINERS AND INSTRUCTORS.

The Chief of Examiners and Instructors and his Assistant have reported quite a number of brethren who have qualified to be appointed in the capacity either of Official Examiner and Instructor, or Official Instructor only. The unwritten work may in some respects be considered as dry and uninteresting. If this be granted the large number who have qualified for these appointments is only another evidence of the enthusiasm possessed by so many of our members.

The list here published does not contain the names of all the brethren who are qualified Instructors in the unwritten work. It only purports to contain the names of those who have passed examinations and been commissioned during this administration. I have no doubt that there are many hundred in this jurisdiction who are equally well qualified.

I have the following reports from the Chief of Examiners and Instructors, and his Assistant:

"JERSEYVILLE, ILL., October 22, 1907.

Hon. Fred B. Merrills,
Grand Master, I.O.O.F.,
Belleville, Ill.

Dear Grand Master—Conformably to the requirements of law as Chief of Examiners and Instructors, I have the honor to make the following report for the year:

With Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., as Assistant Chief, I held a school of instruction on the Monday preceding the Session of the Grand Lodge, at Springfield, in November, 1906. Such school being held for the purpose of verifying the work of those holding commissions for the previous year, and to secure qualified brothers to examine applicants for appointment during the Grand Lodge Session.

From all of those examined then and during the Session, and immediately subsequent thereto, I sent you a list on the 22d day of December, of all qualified, and recommended to you their appointment as Examiners and Instructors—and for Official Instructors. I suppose you appointed all of these, and as their names are in your possession and as well contained in the Journal of the Grand Lodge for 1906, I need not repeat them again.

Since the Session of 1906, I have sent you from time to time, the names of additional qualified brothers who have been examined by me, and reported to me as being proficient, by other Examiners and Instructors—as you will no doubt include all these names in your report, it seems unnecessary for me to give them here and thus duplicate the lists in the Grand Lodge Journal of the coming session.

The only school at which I have been present was that on the Monday preceding the Grand Lodge Session in November, 1906.

While there are many Lodges that do not have the work correct, the great majority do, and Illinois still maintains its position in the front rank in general knowledge of the unwritten work, most of the Lodges having one, two, or three members who have the unwritten work perfect. As there are qualified brothers appointed by you as Official Examiners and Instructors in all sections of the State, there is no reason why all Lodges should not secure the services of an Instructor and secure a knowledge of this work so as to insure entire uniformity.

All Examiners and Instructors are ready and willing to visit Lodges and give them instructions on very reasonable terms; in a majority of cases these may be had for the necessary expenses of the Instructor.

Lodges that do not know the unwritten work, should be urged to at once secure the attendance of a capable Instructor and learn the work. I regret to have to report that only in this month one of the faithful, earnest, capable Instructors, Eugene W. Stevens of Monmouth, died early in the present month, at his home, after a lingering illness resulting from a stroke of paralysis.

I thank you for my appointment and congratulate you for the successful results of your term as Grand Master.

With high regard, I am,

Truly and fraternally,

W. E. CARLIN, P. G. R.,

Chief of Examiners and Instructors."

REPORT OF ASSISTANT CHIEF EXAMINER AND INSTRUCTOR.

"AURORA, ILL., October 15, 1907.

Hon. Fred B. Merrills,

Grand Master, I.O.O.F.,

Belleville, Ill.

Dear Grand Master—Another year's mile-stone has passed, and the time has come to again render to the Grand Master my Official acts, as Assistant Examiner and Instructor for the I.O.O.F. of Illinois.

This being my 19th Annual Report as Instructor in our great Jurisdiction, I am pleased to say that the Campaigns of Education in our Order have been so crowned with success that there seems but little for the Chief and Assistant Chief now to report. Nearly every town or city where a good live Lodge is located, there you will find a brother or brothers well qualified to teach and drill the recruits, so that the regular Schools of Instruction are few. The only school in which I have been in attendance this year, was the Annual School held in Springfield, on Monday, P. M., November 19, 1906, which was not so much a School of Instruction as an examination of the applicants for commissions for the year to be appointed by you.

At this School I assisted my worthy Chief, Brother Walter E. Carlin, P. G. R. at this meeting and during the Grand Lodge Session.

The following Brothers have been examined in the unwritten work and reported to be commissioned, to-wit:

I desire to thank you for the appointment, and congratulate you on your work as Grand Master during 1907.

Fraternally submitted.

HENRY A. STONE,
Asst. Chief Examiner and Instructor.

But the Sisters of the Rebekah Lodges excel in this as well as in some other departments of the work of the Order. The very large number of Sisters who have been examined and commissioned, furnishes evidence of this fact. Sister Nellie L. Harris, P. P., has handed me the following report of her labors, as Chief of Examiners and Instructors of the Rebekah Degree. I cannot commend too highly the efficient work which this worthy Sister has done. Her work and personality has had a helpful influence upon not only the Rebekah branch of the Order, but upon every department of the Order. Following her report is a list of the Sisters who have been examined and commissioned either as Examiners or as Instructors.

"CHICAGO, ILL., November 1, 1907.

HON. FRED B. MERRILLS, G. M.,
Belleville, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: Please find enclosed a part of the work done in this office, together with a list of names of those who have been granted commissions to serve as Examiners and Instructors during the year 1907.

There seems to be a growing interest among the members to perfect themselves in the ritualistic and unwritten work of the Rebekah Degree, which is a healthy sign.

I have had the honor and pleasure of presiding at the Schools of Instruction of eight of the District Meetings during the year, and, in my judgment, there is nothing that so invigorates and enthuses the members to advance in the fraternal and intellectual requirements, as these gatherings. The meeting together, planning in the interest of our Homes, propounding and discussing questions of importance in our work, together with the social opportunities presented, is a wonderful stimulus to both mind and body.

Realizing that if we would keep up the strength of the mighty Sisterhood exemplified in the Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship, in this grand Jurisdiction, we must be constantly on the alert to prevent lethargy from taking the place of enthusiasm, and inactivity from depressing effort and determination.

As the Rebekah Assembly was instituted for the purpose of advancing and stimulating the growth of the Order by diffusing throughout the jurisdiction its helpful influence, so therefore in direct proportion do these District Gatherings carry with them a strength that helps to inspire with increased endeavor a large number of our members, who, by reason of circumstances, are unable to attend the Assembly.

In view of this, I cannot urge too strongly, not only the continuation of the District Meetings, but would admonish the officers that are from time to time elected by them to greater endeavors, looking to the devising of increased means and more proficient methods, as time moves on, to make them of greater interest, if such a thing is possible, than they are today.

Thanking you for courtesies extended, and commending you for the efforts that you have put forth to advance the interest of our great Order, during your incumbency as Grand Master, I have the honor to remain,

Fraternally,

NELLIE L. HARRIS,

Chief of Instructors."

WEEKLY MEETINGS.

My correspondence during the year has indicated that a number of the Lodges in this jurisdiction do not hold weekly meetings as is required by the Subordinate Lodge Constitution. This information has come to me incidentally while considering other questions. I have warned several Lodges of their duty and of their inability to adopt any by-law which fixes a longer interval than one week, as the intervening period between regular meetings. The last instance of this kind which has come to my notice is in the case of Guttenburg Lodge No. 380, of Spring Valley. I received information that this Lodge was not holding weekly meetings from a letter which had been written by its Secretary. I directed the attention of the Lodge to the law as I understand it to be, which is that so long as the Subordinate Lodge Constitution requires weekly meetings, they are bound to hold weekly meetings. This Lodge takes issue with me on this point, claiming that Section 2 of Article I of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution (Section 789 of the new Code) requires that meetings shall be weekly "except when especially otherwise allowed by the Grand Lodge." This Lodge contends:

(a). When it was instituted the report of the Instituting Officer showed that it was the intention to hold regular meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month.

(b). That its semi-annual reports since institution have invariably showed that regular meetings were held on the first and third Wednesday of each month.

(c). That the acceptance and approval of the report of institution and with the current semi-annual reports by the Grand Lodge operate under the doctrine of estoppel to prevent the Grand Lodge from enforcing the section of the Constitution requiring weekly meetings, and make out a case where the Grand Lodge has especially authorized their practice.

I do not think the reasoning of this Lodge and the conclusion reached by it are sound. I present this matter at this time in order that the law may have a construction by the Grand Lodge and be given greater publicity.

THE LEAGUE.

The Illinois Odd Fellows' League at Chicago has received so many favorable notices by my predecessors, and its work is so well known that it is not necessary to dwell upon it at length in this report. It is sufficient at this time for me to say that on several occasions it has rendered me valuable assistance. Early in the year I designated Brother James Ewing Davis, chairman of the Finance Committee, as Special Deputy for the League. The officers of the League all render valuable service, but its efficiency is, perhaps, in a greater measure due to the labors of Brother F. B. Fellows, its secretary.

COMMITTEE ON ANALYSIS AND DISTRIBUTION.

The dispatch of business at the Session can be materially facilitated if the work of the Committee on Analysis and Distribution has been carefully and judiciously done. It has seemed to me no one is better able to determine what reference should be made of the various parts and parcels of the reports than the chairmen of the various Standing Committees. Inasmuch as neither the Constitution nor By-Laws of the Grand Lodge prescribe the qualifications for membership on this Committee, nor fix the number of members of which the Committee shall be composed, I determined to appoint as and for the Committee on Analysis and Distribution for this Session, the chairmen of the various committees and the senior members of the Old Folks' Home and Orphans' Home Boards and Advisory Boards. The chairman of the Committee on Analysis and Distribution is Past Grand Master Charles S. Harris, who is the chairman of the Committee on the State of the Order, which is recognized in the order of business as being the Senior Committee. This plan is merely an experiment. If it should appear to be a good one, it may be followed in the future, or if it should appear to be good in substance but need some modifications, the experience of this Session may serve in some measure as a guide toward the making of such modifications as may seem proper.

STATE FAIR HEADQUARTERS.

Under date of June 24th, the Grand Secretary wrote me that it had been customary theretofore to provide an Odd Fellows' headquarters during the State Fair. These headquarters had consisted of a tent in which it had been the custom to place a table, chairs, drinking water, etc., and to put this headquarters and equipment in the care of a custodian. That there was usually a sign painted which read "Welcome I. O. O. F." which was displayed at the headquarters. The Grand Secretary also stated that the headquarters had usually been in the custody of Brother Charles R. Coon, of Sangamon Lodge No. 6, of Springfield. That the expense of maintaining said headquarters was usually thirty dollars, and it had been the practice to draw a warrant against the appropriation made for Special Deputies to cover this expense. The Grand Secretary requested to know what my wishes would be in the matter. It seemed doubtful in my mind as to whether this expenditure could be deemed a proper charge against the Grand Lodge in the absence of any expression of authority by the Grand Lodge, authorizing the expenditure. Not wishing to set aside a practice which had been continued from year to year, without giving the matter due consideration, I referred it to the Committee on Finance. Upon consent and recommendation of this Committee, I permitted the continuance of the custom and signed a voucher for thirty dollars to pay the expense of the headquarters this year. Report of the matter is made at this time with the recommendation that the Grand Lodge take some decided action in favor of the continuance or discontinuance of the practice.

CHANGE OF VENUE.

I think the law with reference to the practice of changing the venue in Lodge cases needs some modification and amendment.

First. It should be provided that where a brother is claiming benefits, a change of venue may be asked for and granted. During the year I have observed more prejudice and injustice in cases where the question at issue was one of benefits, than I have seen in cases where the question at issue was a charge of misconduct.

Second. The law should be so amended that a petition for a change of venue can be filed at any time before the evidence is read to the Lodge. Also that the filing of the petition shall suspend all proceedings until the request for a change of venue is passed upon by the Grand Master. If the request is granted, the proceedings should be transmitted at once to the Lodge to which the venue is changed. As the law now is a transcript of the record is not sent to the trial Lodge until after the commissioner has been appointed and the evidence taken. Assuming the existence of a prejudice in the Lodge which is sufficient to warrant the venue of a case being changed, it is probable that much mischief may be done before the change is made, and mischief of a character which the trial Lodge may be unable to remedy.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

On November 30, 1906, I presented to the University of Illinois, a copy of the Code of 1906, for the library of that institution. I asked if the University Library contained a set of the Journals of the Grand Lodge of Illinois or of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Under date of December 6th I received a letter from Catherine S. Sharp, the head librarian of the University, which stated that neither of these journals was in the library and that the University would appreciate it if I could arrange to have them donated to the library. The Grand Lodge should take pride in having its proceedings and the proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge upon the shelves of this library in order that they may be consulted by the students of that institution. I would therefore recommend that the Grand Secretary be directed to procure a new, well-bound set of the journals of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and also a new, well-bound set of the journals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and ship them prepaid to the University of Illinois. I would also recommend that hereafter the Grand Secretary be instructed to keep this set up-to-date by presenting the University the current journals both of the Grand Lodge and the Sovereign Grand Lodge as the same may be issued.

The matter of the payment of fees and expenses to Special Deputies who institute new Lodges is not very well understood. In one instance brought to my attention, the instituting officer had presented a bill for ten dollars for his services to the Lodge which he instituted. I do not think that instituting officers should be allowed to charge for their services. It ought to be understood, however, that the new Lodge should pay for the transportation of the deputy to the place of institution and return, and also provide for his entertainment while in the city at the time of the institution. This should be the limit of the liability of the new Lodge to the instituting officer.

A great many members both of the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges seem to have no idea concerning the proper use of the Lodge Seal. Some years ago in an effort to reduce the volume of correspondence which reached the Grand Master's table, the Grand Lodge provided that the Grand Master should not be obliged to answer any letter unless it bore the seal of a Lodge. This provision of law has not afforded the Grand Master much, if any relief. For I have noticed that in most Lodges any member of the Lodge can secure an impression of the seal upon his or her letter to the Grand Master. I have also received letters bearing the seal which were written by persons who had no connection with, or membership in the Order. The Lodge seal is in the control and custody of the Lodge Secretary. It should be used by him and him only. It should not be attached to any communication except a communication which is written by the authority of and has been approved by the Lodge. Even the Secretary has no right to use the seal upon correspondence which he may have with the Grand Master, unless his correspondence comes within this rule. This matter is mentioned at this time, in order that the Lodges may obtain a more definite idea of the use and dignity of the Lodge seal.

A number of dispensations have been requested to hold regular meetings in some hall other than the regular Lodge room. There are times when it would be proper to hold a regular meeting in some place other than the established meeting place. But I think the rule ought to be that if a regular meeting is not held at the Lodge room, due notice of the time and place when the meeting is held should be given to all resident members. What this notice should be might depend upon different circumstances. It would seem that three days' notice by the Warden, or by the mailing of notices by the Secretary would be sufficient. Unless such a notice is given, a faction might be enabled to receive and act upon petitions for membership, from persons who could not be elected to membership in due course, and business of prime importance might be transacted without actual or constructive notice to all of the members of the Lodge.

It is remarkable that there are so many Lodges throughout the state who are unable to distinguish between funeral benefits and funeral expenses. I have found numerous instances where Lodges have prescribed by by-law for the payment of a fixed sum for funeral benefits, with the intention that this one fixed sum should be in lieu of all benefits and all expenses allowed by the Subordinate Lodge Constitution. Where such cases have been presented to me and it appeared that the deceased was entitled to funeral expenses, I have required the Lodge to pay in addition to funeral benefits the sum of sixty dollars for funeral expenses. Such rulings on my part may, in certain instances, have worked some hardship, but it is the law, and the Lodges suffering the hardship have no one to blame but themselves. The question of funeral benefits and funeral expenses has been thoroughly discussed in the Grand Lodge on a number of occasions, and there has been much said about it in the opinions of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. If the Representatives of these Lodges had made faithful reports, and if the membership had read the journals and the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, there could be no misunderstanding as to the law on this subject.

My attention has been directed to a number of instances where the dispatch of business in the Lodge has been impeded by the action of the Lodge Trustees, or some of them. An erroneous impression seems to exist in the minds of some Lodge Trustees that it is their solemn duty to act in the capacity of guardian, conservator, or "general boss," of the Lodge. Where such an erroneous impression exists, the Trustees frequently disregard the will of the majority of the members legally expressed, and set up their own judgment and sweet will in opposition thereto. I have frequently held that the Trustees of the Lodge were nothing more than a committee, and as such bound to carry out the will of the Lodge whenever it has been legally ascertained and expressed in due form of law.

The Grand Lodge has directed that the printing for the Homes should be done under contract and superintended by the Committee on Printing. I have found that this direction has not been fully carried out. The Home Boards have been in the habit of having some printing done under separate contracts. It is within the province of the Grand Lodge to permit this to be done if such a practice seems best. If a change of policy is desired it should be done by way of amending the law and not by disregarding it. If the present law is to be adhered to, it should be insisted that the Boards furnish the Printing Committee with copy for such forms as they desire to keep in stock, in order that the Printing Committee may include these forms in their contract for the Grand Lodge Printing.

IN CONCLUSION.

I desire now to again express my high appreciation of the honor of having been chosen to serve the Order in this distinguished capacity. During the year my endeavor has been to express this appreciation in service rather than in words. In all my official actions I have endeavored to be governed by that time honored principle, "He governs best who governs least."

In all my work I have had the hearty co-operation of the Grand Officers and the Officers of the Rebekah Assembly, of the Boards of the two Homes, and of every brother and sister upon whom has devolved any duty, or upon whom I have called for assistance. I have found it necessary to appoint a very large number of Special Deputies. All these have also responded and faithfully served the Order in the work assigned. My relations with the Grand Officers and Special Deputies have been of a most cordial character, and from these have sprung up close personal friendships which I expect to continue through life.

Wherever I have gone, I have been cordially received and royally entertained. I have found the Lodges, whether large or small, active, enthusiastic units of a great fraternal Order, which is strong as the Rock of Gibraltar, as firmly established as the Rock of Ages, and is striving for the amelioration of our race and the elevation of human character.

I cannot refrain from making personal mention of the Swedish brethren. Three Links, John Ericsson, First Scandinavian, and Swedish Olive Lodges are shining monuments to the devotion which our Swedish brethren entertain for our Order.

It would be impossible to acknowledge my gratitude by making personal mention of each brother and sister to whom I am indebted. But I cannot close this report without acknowledging my gratitude to Grand Sire Conway, who has always assisted me with his valuable advice, and who honored me as one of his companions on the occasion of his official visits to the Grand Lodge of Missouri, and the Grand Lodge of Indiana. I desire to express my appreciation for the assistance which has been rendered me by sister Lillie E. Stewart, the President of the Rebekah Assembly, to Brother John H. Sikes, the Grand Secretary, and to Brother Thomas B. Needles, the Grand Treasurer. During our late little financial flurry it seemed as though the banks would not permit us to have sufficient funds to pay the expenses of the Session. This faithful guardian of our funds got busy, and I do not believe he stopped or slept until the necessary funds had been secured. Of the numerous Special Deputies who have assisted me I desire to make personal mention of Brother J. A. Lopp, Grand Conductor; Brother H. G. Cormick, and Brother J. Johansen, who have amicably and successfully settled some very troublesome questions of Lodge jurisdiction.

I trust that the deliberations of the coming session will be as pleasant as the work has been during the year, and that the brethren will give my successor the cordial and earnest support that they have extended to me.

And now, as I surrender this trust to another, I do it with a consciousness that whatever of good has been accomplished has been accomplished more largely through the assistance which has been rendered by others than by any ability of my own, and with a consciousness that whatever of errors may have been committed, have been errors of judgment and not errors of the heart.

Fraternally submitted.

To Fred B. Merrills, Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Illinois:

The Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home, in obedience to the requirements of the Grand Lodge, present this, their Fifteenth Annual Report, for the year ending October 1, 1907.

Another year has rolled around, and we are called upon to render a report of our Stewardship over the Home we love so well, and that stands so close to the great warm heart of Odd Fellowship in this jurisdiction.

As we record the success of the year that has just passed, and give expression to our hopes for the prosperity of our Home during years to come, may the backward glance, which reveals naught but pleasant recollections and associations, be but a forerunner of what the future has in store for this greatest of charities, the care and education of the orphans of our deceased brothers.

Our associations during the past year with the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, and the Matron, Mrs. J. A. Lucas, have indeed been most pleasant; being cordially greeted upon our arrival at the Home, and as cordially welcomed back again.

In the midst of our pleasantnesses, we would not be unmindful of the fact that since our last report death has visited the home circle of the Superintendent, claiming as its victim the aged father, who was laid to rest August 20, 1907, to await the call of the Grand Lodge above.

The Board extends to the Superintendent their sincere sympathy.

The Board has no secrets to reveal; all business pertaining to the Home has become a matter of record, and may be seen at any time by any member of the Grand Lodge, by calling at the office of the Superintendent.

The following is a list of all the children in our Home, October 1, 1907, together with the age, date of admission, name and number of the Lodge certifying to them:

How to Gain Admittance.

Lodges or guardians wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, at Lincoln, Illinois, for a blank form of application, this to be filled and signed by the guardian and the Lodge, (under seal) of which the father was a member at the time of his death. The application should be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter.

All applications coming before the Board are carefully considered as eligibility and individual merits demand.

Lodges or guardians are expected to provide children with at least one change of clothing before sending them to the Home.

School, Musio and Commencement.

The work of the year has been very satisfactory. Fifteen of our boys and girls finished our course of study and were graduated. The course has been very much strengthened by adding music as a part of the course. The work of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be more thorough than ever.

Grand Master Fred B. Merrills delivered the class address, which was a most able effort and was well received by the large audience as well as the class. The Grand Master presented the diplomas. Then the Grand Secretary made one of his characteristic addresses which greatly pleased the people. Brother E. R. Sayler gave some good advice to the graduates. The assembly hall was crowded.

The teachers for the year are: Miss Edna Snyder, Miss Flora Sheets, Miss Nina E. Petrie and Miss Huldah Peters.

Domestic Science.

The work has taken tangible shape. The committee appointed by the last assembly have been active and with the hearty co-operation of the Board and Superintendent have started the work. Rooms were secured temporarily in the East Cottage. While the work will be considerably crowded for lack of proper space, yet, under the able instruction of Miss Adele Ritter, of Mattoon, we hope to do much good for the girls. Miss Ritter is a graduate of Oread Domestic Science School, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Manual Training.

This branch of the work has not yet been launched. We have no building that can be utilized at all. Yet if we would give our boys a chance, such as they should have, this department of the Home should be started at once. While it will take some money, in the end it will pay for itself over and over again in the development of manhood and successful men. In fact, it appeals to us that there is no other way whereby we can do so much for our boys.

Religious and Moral Training.

Each child is given church preference. We have our own Sunday school where all of the children attend in the afternoon during the school year. And it is the aim of the Home to develop in the children a personality all their own. They are taught that right is might and that character is worth all else.

The Health of the Home.

Last winter we were sorely afflicted with diphtheria. There were many cases but not one of the dear ones was taken from us. Good nursing, a good physician and the kindness of Providence all together contributed to our aid and we were delivered from the dangerous contagion without any bad sequels. The disease was brought to the Home by one of the children from Springfield. Since that time we have been in the most happy condition as to the health of the Home, and at this writing every one is well.

Repairs and Additions.

Many have been the repairs needed and done. The Board have ordered a steel fire escape. For this they have received many just compliments. For years it has been needed.

A new implement shed 20x64 feet has been built out of the lumber from the old barn at a minimum of expense. Some new material was required for roofing and painting. Now the implements of the farm are well housed which should always be the case on every farm.

The Band.

For four years the band has been under the leadership of Master Harry Scott. But he has now gone to give way to another most worthy and capable leader, Wilfred Jaynes. And without taking any glory away from any former leader, our excellent instructor, Prof. Geo. D. Barnard, says: "the band never played better." We hope to make this part of the Home meritorious and give to the Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois the best boys' band in the country. As often as consistent with the work of the Home the band will respond to calls in the interest of our great Order.

Lawn Mower.

A new lawn mower was added to our stock of implements. It enables us to keep the lawn in much better condition as its power is a horse.

Insurance.

The buildings and contents are properly insured in the best companies with the approval of the finance committee.

Conclusion.

The end always comes. So it has this time as to the year. But it has been a most pleasant one of work and responsibility. The sessions of the Board have all been seasons of brotherly kindness and careful toil. Never has an unkind word dropped from a member of the Board, nor has the Superintendent or Matron met with other than encouragement and the best of advice from the members of the Board of Directors. The good sisters of the Advisory Board have aided with womanly and sisterly discretion and wisdom as they have given of their timely and valued suggestions. Nothing has entered the work of the year to mar the God-chosen endeavor.

From all over the great jurisdiction of Illinois have come words of good cheer and substantial gifts. To every one who has in the least contributed to the happiness we extend our sincerest thanks.

That the next year may be better than the preceding, in every way, is the wish of the Home and the Board.

Fraternally,

J OTIS HUMPHREY,

TRUSTEES' REPORT.

Mattoon, Illinois, Oct. 31, 1907.

HON. FRED B. MERRILLS,

Grand Master I. O. O. F. of Illinois.

Again it is our pleasant privilege and duty to submit to you, and through you to the Grand Lodge, the annual report of the Trustees of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home at Mattoon.

Regular meetings have been held each month, all expenditures have been carefully audited, and the business affairs of the Home given our earnest and fraternal consideration.

We indeed feel great pride in this Home, which has become one of the grand monuments of our Order, sending out good cheer and comfort to our aged and infirm, and attuning the heart strings of every true Odd Fellow and Rebekah in a grand chorus of thanksgiving and love.

Lonesome, indeed, must feel the Odd Fellow or Rebekah who seeks to speak disparagingly of the Odd Fellows' Homes of Illinois.

Under appropriate heads you will find our detailed report of what has been accomplished during the year, and to this we invite your careful consideration.

MEMBERSHIP.

The membership at the close of this year numbers seventy-six, with five accepted applicants yet to hear from—sixteen Sisters and sixty Brothers. Of this number fifteen are over 80 years of age.

While there are many things in the lives of our aged and afflicted members to cause them moments of sorrow and worry, yet their kind, cheerful and patient disposition at all times cannot help but be noticeable. That they appreciate their Home and are grateful to the Order for its fraternal care is evidenced by the manner in which they seek at all times to assist in things necessary for the welfare and advancement of the Home.

They lighten the burdens of our Superintendent and employes daily by their helping hands.

In the kitchen and dining room, the workshop and laundry, the farm and garden, you will find our aged members assisting in many ways to carry on the duties of this growing institution. It reminds you of one large family, working harmoniously for a general good.

The Board cannot but help notice the increased interest taken, and desires to thank each member, gratefully, for every assistance rendered.

CHRISTMAS, 1906.

"Santa Claus" was with us last Christmas and did not forget to leave the members many desirable gifts.

The halls and dining room were beautifully decorated with Christmas bells and mottoes, festoons of bright colors, entwined with the emblems of our Order were everywhere.

Donations of desirable articles of clothing and sweetmeats were received from many lodges and individuals over the State, while seventeen lodges donated money to the sum of over one hundred dollars.

When the Home family sat down to breakfast they found at each plate a box of fine candy, fruits and numerous presents from old time friends. A large envelope at each plate contained a unique Christmas card to which was attached a crisp, new one dollar bill.

The members enjoyed the day and in many ways showed their heartfelt appreciation.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Once more we desire to express our thanks and appreciation to the churches of the city of Mattoon and vicinity, and especially to the Sunday School children, who came to the Home at various times, and so nicely entertained the members with their beautiful exercises and bright happy faces. It was like a golden ray of sunlight in the pathway of our lives and we assure you that your kindness and its divine influences will ever remain in the memory of our aged Brothers and Sisters.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Various entertainments have been given at the Home the past year by friends of the Order, and the members have shown their appreciation at all times. We would like to make special mention of each entertainment, for they have all been of a high moral and instructive nature, but space forbids our entering into detail. The Board, however, in behalf of our great membership throughout the State, desires to express its heartfelt thanks to all who have so ably assisted to make this Home a pleasant one.

ANNUAL PICNIC.

Again our "Little Friends" from the Orphans' Home at Lincoln came in a body by special train to spend the day with the "Old Folks" at the Mattoon Home. June 21st was an ideal day for an outing and the beautiful grove and buildings were in readiness to receive and entertain the large crowd of visitors who came to participate in the "Union Picnic" of the two Homes.

Visitors commenced arriving early and a steady stream of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their friends from all over the State found their way to the Home during the day. The children in charge of Superintendent Lucas and his assistants, and accompanied by the Board of Directors, arrived by special train at 10 a. m. After being transferred to electric cars they were escorted to the Home by the Board of Trustees and the Grand Lodge Officers.

The Orphans' Home Band and the Odd Fellows' Band of Bethany divided honors on music during the day, while the children exchanged greetings with our aged Brothers and Sisters and the many interested visitors.

Nearly all of the officers of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly were present and helped to make the day a success. The management was ably assisted by the Brothers and Sisters of the Mattoon Local Lodges, and the Board of Trustees desires to express its earnest appreciation and best wishes to all.

FARM AND GARDEN.

As usual, under the management of Brother Henry DeBuhr, our farm and garden has yielded bountifully. Our report shows that besides the great amount of farm products used at the Home, we have sold products to the amount of $2,286.62, and have deposited same with the Grand Treasurer.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS.

Never in the history of the Home have our well-kept lawn and flower gardens looked so beautiful and attractive. Under the direction of Brother DeBuhr, assisted by Brother Cowper and other members of the Home, the flowers have been artistically arranged and carefully attended. The various beds have been one mass of beautiful colors, and greatly admired, not only by those associated with the Home, but by the many daily visitors from all directions.

VISITORS.

The Home has been well remembered by visitors the past year and the records show increased attendance by members and friends of the Order. All speak with praise of our magnificent Home and its well furnished apartments. Many compliments have been paid the Order for the manner in which it cares for its aged and indigent members.

Visitors return home with a higher opinion of the Society which teaches the principles of "Friendship, Love and Truth."

BARN.

Our new barn is practically completed and the old wooden structure has been moved away. This new building is of the very best material and constructed on the most approved modern plan. Resting on a heavy concrete foundation and a solid concrete floor, it stands a fine brick structure 42x76 feet, with slate roof.

Its capacity is ample for years to come. A solid brick wall separates the dairy department from horses and carriage room. Two stairways lead to the upper floor so that the aged brothers and employes may reach the hay loft with ease.

The cow barn is a model and affords room for 20 head of cattle. Water pipes are handy at various places in the building.

HEATING PLANT.

Our heating plant is in operation and with the exception of a few minor details the contract is finished. The heating plant is a solid brick structure 50x50 feet, adjoining the laundry building on the south. It has concrete and brick floors and is divided into three apartments by brick partitions—engine room, boiler room and coal room—all well ventilated and large enough for additional service and machinery when the demands of the Home require it. Two large high pressure boilers furnish the steam for heating all buildings as well as the power for running the laundry machinery.

REPAIRS.

We have had very little repairs to make this year on the main buildings, but much has been accomplished by Superintendent Wyman, assisted by members of the Home, in removing the old barn and all the old sheds, and utilizing them for other purposes. The old barn, being of heavy oak frame, was moved to a more desirable location and set on a concrete foundation with concrete floor. A new roof was put on it and it was converted into a first class implement house. The tool house was also moved and set upon concrete and is now a serviceable work shop for our aged brothers and farm employes, while the remainder of the old lumber was used to build hog houses and cattle sheds.

This removes all inflammable material away from the main buildings and new barn, and gives us desirable shelter for farm machinery and stock.

SPECIAL MENTION.

We feel it our duty to make special mention of the valuable services rendered the Home in the past year by Department Commander Maj.

General James Henry Harris, of Chicago. Bro. Harris, being an expert on heating plants for large institutions, came to the Home last November at his own expense, and carefully examined our heating system.

He gave the Board the benefit of his excellent judgment and we profited greatly by his valuable suggestions in installing our new plant.

We appreciate his services and desire to express our appreciation through the columns of this annual report.

We also desire to make special mention of the sacred and popular concert given at Oakland Music hall, Chicago, on March 24th, by Manzer's Orchestra.

Bro. Manzer is an ardent Odd Fellow and a liberal supporter of the two "Homes." He sent us the proceeds of this concert for the benefit of the Old Folks' Home. We appreciate and thank him and his associates for this kind remembrance.

Conclusion.

We desire to acknowledge the hearty co-operation of the Grand Lodge Officers, the great army of loyal and earnest Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, and the Fraternal Press. Such support has strengthened us in solving the problems and meeting any difficulties that seemed to confront us. There are now more applications accepted than can be admitted and cared for in our present building and we most respectfully invite the wisdom of the Grand Lodge in solving this difficulty, knowing you will consider it in Friendship, Love and Truth, and in that light do what seemeth best.

The Home stands as a glorious monument to benevolence.

Its future is in your hands.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN W. YANTIS.

REPORT OF GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

DEAR BROTHERS: Odd Fellowship in Illinois never was in better condition than at the present time. Most of our Lodges are active not only in the matter of increasing their membership and finances but in the fulfillment of the great mission of Odd Fellowship, viz: "To visit the sick, relieve the distressed, to bury the dead and educate the orphan."

We have at the present time a Subordinate Lodge membership of over eighty thousand and in less than five years should easily pass the one hundred thousand mark.

It is noteworthy that all branches of Odd Fellowship are prosperous and we have reason to believe that the principles of our Order will encircle the globe and our ranks be numbered in the millions.

The grandeur of our fraternity is being proclaimed through homes for the orphan and the aged, through our beneficences and kindly ministrations. We are known by our works and no other organization stands so closely to the heart of the people as the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Abstract of Lodge Reports.

The following is a summary of returns from Subordinate Lodges, March 31, 1907, and of the Rebekah Lodges, December 31, 1906.

The net gain in membership for the past year has been 4,364 in the Subordinate and 2,596 in the Rebekah Lodges.

The figures show another year of splendid work and growth.

The net gain in Subordinate Lodge members is little less than last year while the gain in Rebekah membership is much larger.

Grand Lodge Journal of 1906.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1906 consisted of 602 pages.

To arrange copy, read proof, and index the Grand Lodge Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we have for several years secured in the person of Bro. Past Grand Secretary N. C. Nason.

Veteran Jewels.

During the past year 176 Veteran and 8 Honorable Veteran Jewels have been sold, proving that the value and worth of Odd Fellowship was early recognized in this State, as well as indicating the pride and loyalty of our membership.

Trustees of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $23,502.29 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $23,335.44 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $46,837.73.

Judiciary and Appeals Committee.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1906, February, May and August of the present year. At the November session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from thirty-five Subordinate and eight Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session five opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from forty-six Subordinate and seven Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session three opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from fifty-seven Subordinate and twelve Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from thirty-two Subordinate and seven Rebekah Lodges acted upon—making a total of twelve opinions rendered and 204 codes of By-Laws acted upon.

Grand Secretary's Office.

The rooms occupied by the Grand Secretary are located on the fourth floor of the Odd Fellows' Building on the corner of Fourth and Monroe streets, and are numbered 405 to 410 inclusive, and also rooms 413 and 414, including a large brick vault.

These quarters were leased for five years at $60.00 per month, which lease expires on the 30th day of November, 1907.

The present lease was negotiated by the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, acting for the Grand Lodge, at that time. I would recommend that the incoming Grand Master, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary be empowered to negotiate a lease on suitable quarters for a term of years not to exceed five.

Salary.

The salary of this office is two thousand dollars together with an allowance of $1,380.00 for a stenographer and clerk hire.

The business of the Grand Secretary's office requires the services of myself, a competent bookkeeper and a stenographer regularly, and additional help during the winter months. The allowance was disbursed as follows: B. L. Carver, bookkeeper, $712.00; Marie Heintze, stenographer, $478.00; N. C. Nason, editor G. L. Journal, $175.00; extra help during G. L. Session, $15.00.

NEW LEGISLATION IN PAMPHLET FORM,

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be instructed to prepare a separate leaf, printed only on one side of the paper, giving all corrections made in the Laws, and add same to the Annual Journal, so that every purchaser of the Code may be enabled to insert these corrections in the proper place in the Code.

Action by Grand Secretary.

Under the above instructions your Secretary issued the new Legislation passed at the Session of 1906, in pamphlet form, consisting of sixteen leaves printed on one side following the type of the Code of 1906, and mailed the same to all Subordinate Lodges and individuals who had purchased the new Code.

OFFICIAL CERTIFICATES FOR DUES.

Official Certificates for dues, which have heretofore cost the Grand Lodge 80 cents per hundred and have been sold to Subordinate Lodges at $1.00 per hundred, are now bought from the Sovereign Grand Lodge at 60 cents per hundred, and in my judgment the price should be reduced to Subordinate Lodges. An Official receipt for dues is a matter of very great importance to each member of the Order and should be furnished at practically cost, plus postage, and I recommend that the price be reduced to 75 cents per hundred to Subordinate Lodges.

Printed Official Certificates.

At stated periods each year hereafter, Lodges may have their Official Certificates printed with name of Lodge, place, State, etc., reducing the work of the Secretary. Under the present form the Official Certificate reads:

$..... 190...

THIS CERTIFIES, That .....has paid to ..... Lodge No....., I.O.O.F., of.....
Jurisdiction of ..... the sum of .....Dollars in full for charges to .....190..., etc. ..

When printed as stated, it will read:

$..... Springfield, Ill., ..... 190....

THIS CERTIFIES, That ..... has paid to Springfield Lodge No. 465, I.O.O.F., of Springfield, Jurisdiction of Illinois, the sum of ..... Dollars in full for charges to .....190..., etc.

The printed form can only be obtained in orders of 5,000 or more, and the cost of printing is $5.00 per 5,000 in addition to the price of the certificates. Lodges may place orders for same at once, but just when such orders can be filled I can not say at this time. An order for 5,000 certificates should not last a Lodge of 150 members more than six or eight years, or one of 250 members more than four or five years. When orders are given for 5,000 as herein stated, the cost is as follows:

5,000 Official Certificates, at $1.00 per hundred.....$50.00
Printing of same, at $1.00 per thousand ..... 5.00

Total cost of 5,000, printed .....$55.00
No reduction will be made under any circumstances.

New Rituals.

At the September session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge the Subordinate Ritual was completely revised. It will go into effect July 1, next. Exchange will be without cost to Lodges, except transportation, but will not be ready until May 1 next or later. Due notice will be given. The law was so changed that a subordinate may have six rituals, instead of four as heretofore.

The Grand Lodge of California asks the Grand Lodge of Illinois to relinquish its pro-rata share of donations not used.

To the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—Your Grand Body has doubtless, ere this, been informed of the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in the matter of the disposition of the funds coming into the hands of the General Relief Committee of the Grand Lodge of the State of California. As you are aware, the call issued to our great and benevolent Order by our former Grand Master, Brother W. W. Phelps, when the great calamity of April 18, 1906, came upon us, was for "Funds for the relief of Distressed Odd Fellows," the victims of that calamity. By oversight, no relief was asked for for "Lodges" who suffered so severely by that terrible catastrophe. Doubtless, had the full situation been known, the extent of the destruction to the property of Lodges, as well as to individual Odd Fellows, the call would have been broader in its scope, thereby giving to the distributors of the Relief Fund greater latitude in the distribution of the funds received, and have permitted the Relief Committee to extend aid to Lodges, as well as to individuals. Many Lodges in this State not only lost their paraphernalia, books and property, and membership, but emerged from this calamity—of which history furnishes no parallel—worse than destitute. They had pledged the word of Odd Fellowship as a guarantee that their financial obligations would be met. Upon the faith of our symbols and reputation, banks and individuals had loaned the money which went into our halls and buildings. With their improvements razed by the earthquake, and not destroyed by fire, no insurance was recoverable. The plight of many Lodges was so great as to appeal to the Relief Committee, with the result that such Lodges received a small donation, to tide them over in their distress. The funds thus appropriated for this beneficent purpose doubtless saved to the ranks of our Order Lodges which otherwise would have been compelled to surrender their Charters. The sums thus placed, however, it would seem, were not within the letter of the "Call," although every dollar thus given did more good for the Order than the sums expended for the individual. To give to the infant is desirable and commendable, but to give to the mother of infants is still more commendable, for out of her abundance will be filled the mouths of her offspring. So, in this case, to rehabilitate the Lodge was to place her in the position of caring for her members.

Under the resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge hereto appended, it appears that it is not yet too late to remedy the oversight in the call for relief. I would, therefore, ask that all Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, so disposed, pass a resolution similar to the one contained in the Resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, to the effect that they relinquish all claim to their donation under the call of Grand Master W. W. Phelps, and authorize the Grand Lodge of California to use the same as it may determine. Rest assured that the fund now remaining in the hands of our Grand Treasurer, if diverted by the Grand Lodge to the aid of Lodges, will prove an important factor in saving to us a number of Lodges, as well as assist us in maintaining the high prestige of the Order.

Faternally yours in F., L. and T.,

Grand Secretary.

Grand Master.

Report by Representative Kuykendall, of Wyoming, from the Committee on State of the Order, to Which was referred the Resolution Relating to Final Disposition of Surplus Funds
Relief of Sufferers from Earthquake in California.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred the resolution relating to the final disposition of the surplus of the funds contributed by the several bodies of our Order, both Subordinate and Grand, for the relief of distressed members, who were sufferers from the earthquake in California, April 18, 1906, respectfully reports that we have carefully considered the subject matter contained in said resolution and find that the total contributions amounted to $216,714.49, and total disbursements to $157,921.83, leaving a balance or surplus of $58,792.66, May 2, 1907. Therefore, in accordance with the direction in said resolution authorizing the disposal of said surplus of $58,792.66, we recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge hereby relinquishes all claim to the $2,000.00 donated or contributed out of its funds for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, and authorize the Grand Lodge of California to use the same as it may determine.

Resolved, That all Grand Lodges, their Subordinates and such other bodies of the Order as contributed said funds, may at their option, and upon request, relinquish all their claims to pro-rata share of the $30,700.00 of the contributed funds used in aiding said California Lodges, that being the amount so used after deducting said $2,000.00 contributed by this Grand Body and relinquished as above.

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge of California be, and it is hereby directed to return to the several Subordinate and Grand Bodies, which contributed the remaining balance of said $58,792.66 (amounting to $26,092.66) their pro-rata shares of the latter amount in proportion to the amount contributed by each with the understanding that any Lodge or Grand Lodge may relinquish all claim to said pro-rata share if so disposed.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE,

I. O. O. F.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST SESSION.

Case No. 362.

Boyd Lodge, No. 788, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
William Eller.		February Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

This is an appeal on the part of Brother William Eller from the action of Boyd Lodge, which resulted in his expulsion.

On August 23rd, 1906, complaint was properly made by a member of said lodge that he had reason to believe that Bro. Wm. Eller has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow and requesting that the matter be investigated, etc.

A committee was duly appointed by the Noble Grand to investigate the charges. On September, 1906, a vote of the Lodge was taken which resulted as follows: 4 for expulsion and 2 for acquittal. On October 4th, 1906, the appeal of Brother Eller was read and allowed.

The foregoing is all of the proceedings in this case shown by a transcript of the records of said Lodge.

No report is shown to have been made by the investigating committee embodying the charges and specifications upon which the Brother was to be tried.

No copy of the charges and specifications under the seal of the Lodge is shown to have been furnished him, or that he was cited to appear for trial.

No opportunity is shown to have been given him to plead guilty or not guilty.

No commissioner is shown to have been appointed or obligated to take the testimony in the case.

There is nothing either in the record or among the papers furnished this committee purporting to be the testimony taken in said case.

Numerous other omissions and irregularities could probably be pointed out, but the above are ample to require us to sustain the appeal of Bro. Eller. It is therefore ordered that said appeal be and is hereby sustained and the Lodge is instructed to reinstate Bro. Wm. Eller to membership without prejudice.

Stonefort Lodge No. 731, I. O. O. F.	} Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
H. L. Webber.		February Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

This is an appeal taken by thirteen members of Stonefort Lodge No. 731, I. O. O. F. from the action of the Lodge in refusing to sustain the charges against Brother H. L. Webber under the evidence submitted to it in the case against him.

We have carefully read the record and all the evidence in the case. There were fourteen members of the Lodge voted to sustain the charges and twelve voted not to sustain them. The opinion of the members of the Lodge, all of whom live in the community and know the witnesses personally, seem to have been about equally divided on the question.

While the committee is not entirely satisfied with the decision of the Lodge, yet the evidence is so conflicting and so much of it hearsay, that we do not feel justified in disturbing the action of the Lodge and sending the case back and thus compel the Lodge to go over the matter again.

The record discloses the fact that the husband and wife, that were for a time separated by sensational reports, are now living together again, and we are unable to see where any good can result from again going over this evidence. For obvious reasons we refrain from reviewing the evidence or even stating the facts. There is no important question of law involved in the case. It is solely a question of fact, and that having been fully passed upon by the Lodge, so far as we can see, we do not feel justified in reversing the action of the Lodge.

The appeal is therefore dismissed.

Dahlgren Lodge No. 486, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, February Session, 1907.
C. E. Bennett.

Opinion by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

This case comes to us by appeal of Brother C. E. Bennett from the action of the above Lodge in "striking his name from the roll of the Lodge." The trouble in this matter arose between two members of the Lodge out of their business relations, and out of the refusal of Brother Bennett to pay a debt which he disputed, and claimed to have a legal defense. A court of law is the proper tribunal to settle all disputes of that kind and not the Lodge.

The specifications in this case fail to show any cause of action against Brother Bennett. They do not state how nor when nor where he was guilty of fraud. The last one clearly shows the trouble grew out of a failure to collect a debt. The evidence shows simply a disputed account between two Brothers, and discloses no proof of fraud, and the Lodge should have dismissed the matter.

The appeal of Brother Bennett is sustained and the action of the Lodge is reversed and the Lodge is directed to reinstate Brother Bennett to full membership.

G. W. Miller,	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
Forest Lodge No. 255, I. O. O. F.		February Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

Brother Miller was a member of Forest Lodge No. 255 in good and regular standing. He owned a home and leased it to a family with whom he boarded until a short time before his illness, out of which this case grows. The family having removed, Brother Miller occupied his home alone, when on June 16, 1906, he was stricken down with a very severe attack of iliosecal impaction. Dr. Davis was called as attending physician. So serious was the attack that for three or four days the attending physician made six to eight visits each day. About a week after the first attack, the illness developed into typhoid fever, so severe in its character that the attending physician pronounced it extraordinary. Three weeks later, when the fever was at its crisis, a visitor told the patient that he had typhoid fever. The result was a relapse and another three weeks' run of the fever, which the physician believed was wholly due to the statement made by the visitor to the patient.

Brother Miller was confined to his home from June 16th to October 1st, and his condition was considered dangerous until September 20th. The Lodge paid sick benefits until October 13th, when Brother Miller, at his own suggestion, though not able to resume work, was declared off the sick list.

Brother S. F. Merrifield, the Noble Grand, appointed Brother G. W. Hoover to look after Brother Miller's wants. Brother Hoover did not act as nurse at any time, but remained at Brother Miller's home at night and rendered some assistance to the nurses during the day time. For such services, from June 19th to July 14th, the Lodge paid Brother Hoover Thirty-eight Dollars ($38.00). He continued to look after the wants of Brother Miller until his recovery, but made no charge for services rendered after July 14th.

The controversy in this case arises over the question of the liability of Forest Lodge for the nurse hire. Part of the nurse hire was paid by the Lodge. During the illness of Brother Miller a notice was posted at the door of his home by direction of the attending physician, denying entrance to visitors. The nurse testified that, notwithstanding this notice, he usually allowed members of the Lodge, without restriction, to visit the patient. The bill for nurse hire, $22.50 of which was paid by Brother Miller to Miss Cunningham, and $115.50 of which was paid by Brother Miller to Charles Ransey, making $138.00, was presented by Brother Miller to the Lodge, and by the Lodge referred to the finance committee. The finance committee reported recommending the payment of the bill. The Lodge disapproved the report of the committee and refused payment. From this action of the Lodge Brother Miller appealed.

The evidence taken on behalf of the Lodge all shows that the opposition within the Lodge to the payment of the bill developed out of alleged statements derogatory to the Lodge membership made by the attending physician. The question of legal rights and obligations appears to have been almost entirely lost sight of. There is some evidence tending to show that the physician in charge did make uncomplimentary remarks touching the membership of the Lodge. If such remarks were made, they undoubtedly were made in a moment of irritation growing out of the fact that the brothers were allowed, without restriction, to visit the patient, in violation of the physician's positive orders, and no doubt from the view point of the physician, to the great detriment of the patient. In cases of serious illness absolute quiet is one of the most important essentials of recovery, and the judgment of the attending physician touching the necessity of the rigid enforcement of the rule against visitation of the patient, ought to be accepted as final and cheerfully complied with.

This case is not entirely free from doubt, but we are of the opinion that, under all the circumstances shown in evidence, the bill ought to have been paid. The appeal is therefore sustained and the action of the Lodge reversed.

New Boston Lodge No. 188,	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
Bro. F. E. Chamberlain.		February Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

This case comes before this Committee on the appeal of Brother F. E. Chamberlain from the action of the Lodge in convicting and expelling him upon a charge that "on or about August 31, 1906, before the Post Office in New Boston, openly and publicly used slanderous language against the New Boston Lodge." There are no specifications.

When slander or calumny is charged the words spoken should be set out in the specifications.

In the opinion of the Committee this charge is not sufficiently definite to sustain a conviction and it is doubtful whether, had the charges and specifications been sufficient, the evidence was sufficient to sustain a conviction.

The appeal is sustained, the action of the Lodge reversed and Brother Chamberlain reinstated to full membership in his Lodge.

J. H. Fry	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
Divernon Lodge No. 200.		May Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of Lodge No. 16.

From the record it appears that Brother Fry claimed sick benefits from the Lodge and the same were refused.

It appears that at the time Brother Fry was taken sick he was not a beneficial member, having been in arrears, and a period of thirteen weeks not having elapsed since the payment of his dues, he did not become beneficial—the by-laws of his Lodge directing that a period of thirteen weeks should elapse after the payment of his dues before he again became beneficial.

This is the best we can make out of the record, which is not in the best shape.

Therefore, it is ordered that the appeal in this case be dismissed and the action of the Lodge sustained.

Winfield Randall		May Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

This is an appeal by Brother Winfield Randall from the action of the above Lodge in expelling him.

The abstract from the records of the Lodge does not contain any charge or specification upon which, he was cited to stand trial.

The record in other respects is so devoid of the essential elements required under the code in the procedure of the trial against a brother that this Committee has nothing before it whereupon it can determine the guilt or innocence of Brother Randall.

It is therefore ordered that the appeal of Brother Randall be sustained and the action of the Lodge reversed.

Decatur Lodge No. 65, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
Herman H. Miller		May Session, 1907.
Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

STATEMENT.

December 4, 1906, pursuant to complaint made at a regular meeting, a Committee was duly appointed to consider and report regarding charges against the accused, Brother Herman H. Miller.

December 18, 1906, the Committee reported charging Bro. Miller with "Conduct tending to corrupt public morals," also "With a violation of his oath and obligations toward a member of this Lodge." The most material specification charges Bro. Miller "With having committed adultery with one ....., wife of ....., a member of this Lodge."

A commissioner was regularly appointed and duly obligated. All evidence offered by either side was duly taken and reported. After continuances pursuant to motions made by the Lodge and by the accused, the charges and specifications came on for trial, February 19, 1907, at a regular session of the Lodge. On account of illness, the counsel for the Lodge was not present, yet a motion to proceed with the trial was sustained. The prosecuting Committee acted on behalf of the Lodge and the accused was present in person and by counsel. No objection was made by the accused or his counsel to proceeding with the trial. No exception anywhere appears in the record to the regularity of the proceeding or the sufficiency of the charges and specifications. The evidence was read, arguments made, and the trial regularly conducted. Certain members were excused from voting, but no objection was made and no exception taken. The charges and specifications were regularly voted upon and the defendant, for want of the necessary two-thirds vote, found "not guilty" as to each.

The evidence established beyond all doubt that on the third day of December, 1906, the accused committed the offense charged. He was arrested upon a state's warrant, placed on trial before a Justice of the Peace, and he and the person with whom he was charged to have committed the offense, when the warrant was read to them, pleaded guilty. Indeed, on the trial guilt was not denied. Some effort was made by way of cross-examination to show that the offense was not committed in the particular room in which it was charged to have been committed.

OPINION.

The offense charged in this case is one of the most heinous known to the law of our Order. The invasion of the sanctity of the home is without excuse. In view of the fact that the guilt of the accused is established beyond all question, it is difficult to undersand how self-respecting members of the Order could adjudge the accused "not guilty." The action of the Lodge can only be accounted for upon the theory that it was the result of passion, prejudice, or gross mistake, as to the rules, usages and laws of the Order.

To allow the finding of "not guilty" to stand in this case would be to invite general disregard of all of the sacred obligations taken by members when received into the Order. In the opinion of the Committee the finding of "not guilty" was wholly unjustified. No finding except the finding of guilt could properly have been made under the evidence in this case and no punishment is commensurate with the gravity of the offense charged, except expulsion from the Order.

The appeal is therefore sustained, the action of the Lodge reversed, and the Lodge is directed to reinstate the case and proceed with the re-trial thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the Code and usages of the Order.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD SESSION

Harry H. Kan, Sol. Rygel and M. Hoffman	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1907.
vs.

Opinion by Brother Henry Phillips, of Lodge No. 16.

From the record before us it appears that Brother Leopold Hilb had filed his claim for benefits against the Lodge, which claim became the matter of litigation in said Lodge. By an agreement the record made in the matter of said claim was withdrawn and the claim for such benefits withdrawn, in other words, the matter stood as if no claim had ever been filed.

Afterwards, on January 30th, 1907, a report was made to the Lodge that the Committee having the matter in charge reported that they could reach no agreement in regard to the matter and requested the appointment of a commissioner to take evidence. There appears to be nothing in the record to show how or in what manner this Committee came into existence and nothing to show that any new or other claim for benefits had been filed or presented to the Lodge by Brother Hilb. The Lodge seems to take the position that when the records in the case concerning the first claim for benefits were withdrawn, that the whole matter was left as determined by the Lodge on October 24, 1906, at which time the benefits were formally refused, and that if any appeal was to be taken from the action of the Lodge it should have been taken within ninety (90) days from October 24, 1906, and that the claim was barred by the statute of limitation.

On February 6, 1907, the Lodge waived its right, whatever that might be, under the statute of limitation in the matter of said claim, upon the condition that Brother Hilb would file an immediate appeal with this committee. It appears that such an appeal has never been taken, and three members of the Lodge bring the matter before us and ask that the action of the Lodge be sustained. The action of the Lodge asked to be sustained, so far as we can gather from the records, seems to be in its refusal to appoint a commissioner to take evidence as to the claim of Brother Hilb for benefits. We do not see any reason why this appeal should be taken or what can be accomplished by it.

No commissioner has ever been appointed to take evidence and the record fails to show that since the records in the matter were formally withdrawn, thereby, as we understand, withdrawing also the claim filed, which is as much a part of the record in the case as any other matter. There seems to be nothing before the Lodge, as no claim seems to have been filed and therefore no ground for the appointment of a commissioner to take evidence concerning it.

In our view of this case, whenever a claim is filed by Brother Hilb for benefits, such claim must be disposed of either by its payment or by its being contested, and when such contest is had and the Lodge refuses its payment, or any such claim is ordered to be paid, then an appeal can be taken from the action of the Lodge, and the question of limitation and the effect of the former action of the Lodge done by agreement and stipulation, can be appealed from and come properly before this Committee for its action. Until such time we can see no other course for us to follow than to dismiss this appeal without prejudice to any party. It is therefore ordered that this appeal be and is hereby dismissed.

Steeleville Lodge No. 873, I. O. O. F.

John W. Sykes.

} Before Committee on
} August Session, 1907

Opinion by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

This case comes to us on appeal by Brother Sykes from the action of the Lodge in expelling him from membership on July 23, 1907, and we are asked to reverse the action of the Lodge. We have carefully considered the record, and weighed all the testimony and circumstances surrounding the case, and are of the opinion that the verdict of the Lodge should not be disturbed.

A complaint was filed in the Justice's Court by the girl in question, in which she, under oath, charges Brother Sykes with being the father of her unborn child. This affidavit is in this record without objection by any one. The record of the Justice's Court further shows, without objection, that Brother Sykes appeared before the Justice, waived examination and gave bond for his appearance before the County Court. Two witnesses testify to conversing with Brother Sykes, one swearing that he admitted the guilt, the other that he admitted having intercourse with the girl. This is about all the testimony taken on behalf of the Lodge, and we confess it is not very satisfactory proof of itself upon which to expel a Brother from his Lodge, but in our judgment Brother Sykes himself strengthens it when he goes upon the stand. He admits the conversation with the Brothers, and only denies that he admitted his guilt to them. He does admit that he told them, or at least one of them, that he had had intercourse with the girl, and when on the stand in his own behalf he does not deny his guilt. If he was innocent it is strange he would not avail himself of the opportunity of saying so.

Brother Sykes is not charged in this case with bastardy, but with seducing and ruining the girl. This he might have done, even though not guilty of bastardy. Brother Sykes was tried by his own Lodge and found guilty, and by almost a unanimous vote expelled, and we see no reason for disturbing this action of the Lodge. The appeal is therefore dismissed and the action of the Lodge sustained.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FOURTH SESSION, November 19, 1907.

. Case No. 368.

In the matter of the Questions submitted to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee by Grand Master Fred B. Merrills.	{	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Session, 1907.

Opinion by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

Questions. When a member of our Order in good standing in his Lodge becomes insane and is committed to the Insane Asylum, to whom should the Lodge pay his sick benefits? If the insane brother has a conservator, could the Lodge legally pay the benefits to him?

The above questions are important ones and questions that might arise in any Lodge at any time. They have been submitted to this Committee by Grand Master Merrills, with the request that we answer them. The questions are not new, however, they have been asked and answered at different times, both by our Grand Lodge and by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, but in all the answers that have been made to them, the answers have been based upon the facts of some particular case, and such answers do not clearly state general principles of the law, applicable to and that will govern in all such cases. It is such an opinion as that which we presume our Grand Master desires, as we have the facts of no particular case before us. To arrive at a clear and perfect understanding of what the law of our Order is in such cases, we must obtain our first light from a careful study of the fundamental principles, of the real aims and objects of Odd Fellowship. Without this light we will be compelled to grope our way in darkness and uncertainty, but with this light in our minds at all times the questions are easily answered.

"Odd Fellowship is organized Benevolence." The work of an Odd Fellows' Lodge is a Benevolent work. Its benefits are Benevolences, pure and simple. "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is a union of its membership for mutual relief, in times of sickness and distress." The spirit of our laws contemplates that every member, when in good health, must earn a livelihood for himself and for all those dependent upon him. So long as he possesses a healthy body, a strong arm and a clear mind, he is not entitled, as a matter of law, to benefits or financial aid of any kind, but our laws recognize the fact that sickness often lays its paralyzing hand upon the life of a brother, and weakens his arm, or clouds his brain, and renders him unable to support himself or those dependent upon him. It is then, and not till then, that Benevolence begins its work, and undertakes to supply the loss, to some extent, that has come to our brother, by reason of his inability to earn a livelihood for himself and family. Hence, weekly sick benefits are given for one purpose, and one purpose only, namely: to supply the present, personal needs of the brother and those dependent upon him, so long as he is sick or disabled from supplying them himself. Sick benefits, as paid by the Lodges of our Order, are purely personal benefits, given not as a charity, but given in the performance of a duty which we as Odd Fellows believe each member owes to his unfortunate fellow man. This makes our benefits benevolences. Our Order assumes no further obligation than this; none other is needed. The first question then is easily answered:

If a brother becomes insane, and is confined in the Insane Asylum, the Lodge should become his conservator for the purpose of paying out the benefits due him, and they should be paid out as follows:

First—For the comfort of the brother.

Second—If there is anything left and the brother has a wife and infant children, pay the balance to them. If the brother has no wife or children, but some other person in his family, that is dependent upon him, the balance, or so much thereof as might be needed, should be paid to them.

Third—If the insane brother has no family, and there is no one dependent upon him, the Lodge should use so much of his benefits as are needed for the brother's comfort and retain the balance, so if at any time the brother recovers and calls for it, the Lodge will have it to render to him. If the brother dies leaving no family and no one is dependent upon him for support, the Lodge will have fully performed its obligations, and there being no one entitled to the remainder, it will become the property of the Lodge.

This we believe to be the established law of our Order.

White's Digest, page 57, Section 46 and authorities there cited.

Merrills' Code, page 242, Sections 2068 and 2072, and authorities there cited.

And now as to the second question. If the brother has a conservator, will it be legal for the Lodge to pay such benefits to him?

Our answer is, No! Under no circumstances should the benefits be paid to the conservator. A conservator is a person duly appointed by the Courts of the State to take charge of the estate, personal and real, of a person that is not capable of attending to his own affairs. He gives bond to the Court and becomes, virtually, an officer of the Court, and is subject to its orders and directions. He files with the Court a complete schedule of all the property of his ward, and the same then becomes assets in his hands for the payment of the debts of his ward; hence, if the sick benefits of the brother were paid to his conservator, they might, and very likely would be, diverted entirely from the channel intended by the laws of our Order; they would be subject to the debts, if any, of the brother, and would be the conservator used in that way. While Odd Fellows believe in every man paying his debts, and every good Odd Fellow, so far as he can, does pay them, still Odd Fellowship does not undertake to pay the debts of its members. That is no part of its mission in the world. It does not undertake to liquidate past obligations, but to supply present needs. It feeds the hungry, clothes the naked, and brings comfort to those in distress. Its benefits are gifts, prompted by man's love for his fellow man, they are cups of cold water given to the thirsty. The funds in the treasury of a Subordinate Lodge are sacred funds, and should be used only for the purpose for which they are intended, that is, the personal comfort of the brother and of those dependent upon him; hence, in no case should a Lodge pay these benefits to the guardian or conservator of a brother while he is living, nor to his executor or administrator after his death, for in doing so the funds would likely be diverted from their proper use. As long as the Lodge retains the benefits, they are under the control of the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge, but the moment they were paid to a conservator or administrator, they pass forever beyond such control, and this is not the intention of our laws. We believe it has always been, and we trust always will be, the purpose of our Order to direct the channel through which its benevolences shall flow, and no civil court would ever undertake to deprive it of this right.

Grand Secretary.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Constitutions, to whom was referred amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, beg to report that we have carefully examined the same and find that said amendments do not in any way conflict with the Constitution or Laws of the Order; we, therefore, recommend that the same be approved.

Signed by the Committee.

AMENDED SECTIONS.

Journal 1906, Pages 183, 341.

Art. 4, Sec. 2. The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore, and all the Grand Officers who are not elective. He shall name the members of all committees, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. He shall give the casting vote whenever the Grand Lodge is equally divided. He may call Special Sessions of the Grand Lodge whenever, in his judgment, the good of the Order requires him so to do, and he shall call a Special Session whenever requested so to do in writing by the Representatives of fifty Lodges. He shall order the payment by the Grand Treasurer of all moneys voted by the Grand Lodge. In person or by Deputy, he shall confer all Official Degrees, and he shall communicate the necessary passwords to be used in this jurisdiction. During the recess of the Grand Lodge he shall have a general superintendence of the interests of the Order in this State; shall hear and decide any grievance or complaint that may be made to him; pass upon all questions of law and usage which shall have been first submitted on appeal under seal of the Lodge to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, and he shall not be compelled to answer questions submitted by individual members of the Order; grant dispensations to open Lodges, and do such other acts as this Grand Lodge might do, excepting that he may not, by virtue of any powers conferred upon him by this section, exercise any of the legislative functions of this Grand Lodge.

At each Annual Session, the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by this Grand Lodge.

Provided, This Grand Lodge may, by its Rebekah Assembly Constitution, transfer to the President of the Rebekah Assembly any of the functions or powers with which the Grand Master is herein invested, so far as the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge may permit, and with such restrictions and limitations as the Grand Lodge may provide in said Rebekah Assembly Constitution.

(3) On the written application of twenty or more brothers in good standing, and applications for initiation from thirty qualified and approved candidates, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge, provided the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place. Each of said two-thirds Lodges shall vote on the request for consent after a period of not less than four weeks after the date of receiving such request, and upon the report of a special committee of the Lodge appointed to investigate the qualifications of both charter members and petitioners for initiation whose names are signed to the petition for the dispensation to open the proposed new Lodge. All applications for dispensations to open Lodges shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, and must be accompanied by the cards of the petitioning brothers and the charter fee, to-wit: Thirty dollars.

Journal 1906, Pages 189, 191, 341.

Art. 9, Sec. 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge-room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons; which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days, from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by the return indorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge, within ten days next thereafter to formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge; and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy, and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy, of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing; and all parts of books, papers or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner, except in cases where the originals shall be so filed; but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I, ....., Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F., to take the evidence under charges and specifications against ..... Lodge No. ...., I.O.O.F., in the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd Fellow that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly, and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed) .....

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy, before such witnesses shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy; and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers, at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person, or by agent or other counsel.

Provided, That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him, which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same, and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That for good cause shown, they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice; and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this State. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause to the Grand Secretary; and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of the Lodge so charged may, personally or by agent (being an Odd Fellow), appear before said committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications; and said committee at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged; and if said committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

Journal 1906, Pages 192, 341.

Art. 10, Sec. 11. No Lodge receiving such members as above provided shall be liable for the payment of any sick benefits or funeral expenses to or on account of such members, nor shall any such member be required to pay any dues or assessments to such Subordinate Lodge, except for the benefit of the Aged Odd Fellows' Fund, and except for attentive benefits to the sick members of such Subordinate Lodge.

ILLINOIS ODD FELLOWS LEAGUE.

I am of the opinion that this Organization has, probably unintentionally, assumed to use the name of the Order to an extent never intended to be delegated to it by this Grand Lodge. It conducts entertainments, excursions, raffles and rummage sales in the name of the Order without asking the dispensation of the Grand Master. It is certainly not the desire of this Grand Lodge to delegate to any organization in matters of this kind greater rights than are accorded to the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of this jurisdiction. Also letters of appeal should not be sent out to the Lodges without the approval of the Grand Master.

Journal 1906, Page 369.

Sixth report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to whom was referred Document No. 29, in Wednesday's Proceedings, on page 338, most respectfully report that the Illinois Odd Fellows' League is an organization composed of elected Representatives of the various Lodges of the City of Chicago and throughout the State, having for its purpose the relief of the members of the Order exclusively.

In our opinion, it is an organization which does a great deal of good work that cannot be performed by the several Lodges, and whose work should receive the encouragement and commendation of this Grand Lodge, in all respects where the same does not conflict with the laws of the Order.

As to the legal right of this League to do this work in the name of our Order, and its right to use the words "Odd Fellows' League," we express no opinion, for the reason that your committee believes it has no authority to pass upon that question, but refers its legal standing to the decision of the Sovereign Lodge or to the Grand Sire.

Signed by the Committee.

DECISION BY GRAND SIRE.

Statement—The Grand Master in his annual report referred to an independent organization made up of representatives from a number of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges as follows:

"I am of the opinion that this organization has, probably unintentionally, assumed to use the name of the Order to an extent never intended to be delegated to it by this Grand Lodge. It conducts entertainments, excursions, raffles and rummage sales in the name of the Order without asking the dispensation of the Grand Master. It is certainly not the desire of this Grand Lodge to delegate to any organization in matters of this kind greater rights than are accorded to the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of this Jurisdiction. Also letters of appeal should not be sent out to the Lodges without the approval of the Grand Master."

This report was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals and that Committee recommended that the matter of the legal standing of this organization be referred to the Grand Sire. The letters I.O.O.F. and the three links are not used on the printed matter but it claims to be an organization of our Order and is publicly so known.

Answer—The Grand Master was clearly right in his opinion. No association or league, composed of delegates selected from a given number of Lodges or Rebekah Lodges has any right, according to the laws of our Order, to conduct entertainments, etc., without a dispensation from the Grand Master. The mere fact that the letters I.O.O.F. and the three links are not used is immaterial, if the association or league is made up of representatives from Lodges and Rebekah Lodges. No club composed of the members of any Subordinate Lodge, Rebekah Lodge, Encampment or Canton, has a right to conduct any entertainment, dance, etc., without the dispensation, such as would be required for either of these Subordinate Bodies. No raffle can be conducted in the name of the Order. A dispensation cannot be granted for that purpose. A rummage sale might be conducted by a Subordinate Body, a club, an association or league, provided dispensation had been granted by the proper Grand Officer.

A sum not exceeding $12,000.00, or such part thereof as may be necessary to erect the building and install the machinery necessary for heating and furnishing hot water for the Home buildings, as set forth in the first item in the above recommendations, during the year 1907.

PROPOSED CHANGE OF MEETING PLACE.

Resolved, That the session of this Grand Lodge for the year 1908 shall be held in the city of Peoria.

Consideration of the Following Report from the Judiciary and Appeals Committee was Postponed. Jour. 1906. Pp. 366-367.

Fifth report of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to which were referred for answer the following two questions—

Question One—Is the Secretary liable for the payment of such funeral assessments under Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution?

Question Two—What is the meaning of the words “shall be exempt from all dues,” with reference to the Recording and Financial Secretaries of Subordinate Lodges, as used in Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, and is this provision of exemption legal and binding?”—

Beg leave to report as follows:

Section 5, above referred to, provides that the Secretary shall be exempt from all dues—and in view of that section, we answer Question No. 1—No.

As to Question No. 2, your Committee is of the opinion the words “shall be exempt from all dues,” means that such Secretary shall be exempt from the payment of his regular Lodge dues, and that funeral assessments are included in the word “dues.”

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HERNY A. STONE,
M. P. BERRY,
W. E. P. ANDERSON.

The above report is based on the appended

STATEMENT.

A Lodge, by its By-Laws, provides for the payment of funeral benefits and expenses from its General Fund, and on the death of a beneficiary member levies a funeral assessment of fifty cents against each of its beneficial members. It has but one Secretary, who performs the dual duties of Recording and Financial Secretary.

Question One—Is the Secretary liable for the payment of such funeral assessments under Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution?

Question Two—What is the meaning of the words “shall be exempt from all dues,” with reference to the Recording and Financial Secretaries of Subordinate Lodges, as used in Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, and is this provision of exemption legal and binding?

PROPOSED NEW BUILDING AT OLD FOLKS' HOME.

Resolved, That suitable arrangements be made by this Grand Lodge at once for the erection of a separate building on the grounds of the site of the Old Folks' Home, located sufficiently distant from the main buildings of the Home as to prevent all danger of contagion; said proposed building to cost not more than $5,000 for complete construction.

(Referred to Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home by the following report.)

Second report, by Bro. I. G. Wise, of No. 30.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, asking that the resolution of Representatives of Lodges Nos. 831, 55 and 540, in reference to the establishment of a separate building at the Old Folks' Home for the care of contagious and incurable cases, be referred to the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home for report to this Grand Body. [See Doc. 4, p. 314.]

Signed by the Committee.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois:

Brothers:—The Eighty-third Annual Communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. was held in St. Paul, September 16 to 21, 1907. For the first time in the history of our Order a brother from the Jurisdiction of Illinois presided as Grand Sire. Never was there held a more harmonious or a more business-like session. Never did the Sovereign Grand Lodge meet in a city or jurisdiction more loyal to Odd Fellowship than St. Paul and Minnesota. Nothing had been left undone that would in any way add to the pleasure or comfort of the members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the thousands of visitors. On the Sunday preceding the session the officers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Grand Representatives with their wives attended divine services at the People's Church, Rev. Samuel G. Smith, the Pastor, delivering a most able address, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

On the morning of the 16th, just prior to the opening of the session, a welcome address was delivered in behalf of the Governor. Addresses of welcome were also delivered by the Mayor, the Grand Master, the Grand Patriarch, and the President of the Rebekah Assembly. Grand Sire Edwin Stapleton Conway responded in a most masterful and wonderfully appropriate address. He spoke as follows:—

"It is an honor that I, on behalf of the Order of Odd Fellows, deeply appreciate, to be given the opportunity to respond to so many sincere and inspiring sentiments of good will that have been uttered here this morning. Surely it is good for the souls of men to have the respect and esteem of their fellows.

"It is an additional pleasure that so many of the distinguished sons of Minnesota join the citizens of this lusty metropolis of the Northwest in making this meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge a memorable one. Civic influence and civic support can give their recognition to no more worthy cause than that which our organization symbolizes.

"To me, personally, it is an especial gratification to represent the Order on this occasion and in these environments. You will the better appreciate my words when I say that it was in Lake City, Minnesota, that I was initiated into the Order; when you know that your glorious State was really my cradle as an Odd Fellow. During all my progress since then, to the highest place in the gift of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I have never forgotten the little town in Wabasha County, where, as an Odd Fellow, I first saw the light of day and became acquainted with the beneficent principles and lofty aspirations of the Order.

"I was sure that all good citizens are interested in every force that tends to the moral uplift of the community, that inspires the individual with higher ideals and the determination to work out for himself a larger usefulness as a member of society. So, fully believing this, I feel that you will be interested in knowing that never in the history of the Organization has more been accomplished in the direction of enlarging its membership than during the year 1906. The principles of our Order stand for distinct achievements. They are a crystallization of the highest type of human endeavor in the direction of humanity's betterment. When I say that our membership has largely increased, the statement carries with it the implication that the noble work that Odd Fellows performs finds a greatly extended field of helpfulness.

"I will not weary you with statistics. The records are eloquent in their own behalf. To them I refer with justifiable pride as the climax of a twelve-month of well directed effort, guided by a profound compassion for the weal and the woe of our fellowmen.

"The Order of Odd Fellows, let me say to you, brothers and sisters, is a type of that democratic spirit that lies at the foundation of civilization. It is democratic from center to circumference; from root to apex, a reflex of the fraternal zeal that achieves grand results. While it magnifies the individual, recognizing in him the force that moves the mass—the complex social fabric—it yet regards the individual as subservient to other phases of life that must be attained before we can reach a perfect plane of existence. One of these is the ultimate happiness of others; the other the symmetrical development of human character.

"This question of character is one of the most important with which we have to deal. It is in a large measure, it ought to be in a full measure, the motive power of the individual. Character transforms the inefficient individual unit into one of the foundation stones, at least one of the important factors, in the building up of society. If the man has not character, he is merely a tinkling cymbal. Character fills up the cracks and crannies of the individual career and rounds it out to a high degree of worthiness. Here is where the revivifying work of Odd Fellowship makes itself felt. Character is the basis of our Order. Everything is measured by that gauge. We are taught that character adds to the dignity of life, and not clothes, not money, not landed possessions. What is wealth without character? Is wealth without character any more enjoyable than wealth without health. How bright and cheerful and ennobling can life be made by the man who lacks material wealth but is rich in moral worth. Can you compare the two? Can you compel your mind to accept as final the statement that earthly riches are above character? No, my brothers and sisters, for there is in every man's intellect an innate belief, an inborn appreciation, of the fact that character is the pearl of great price, and that to possess it is the surest title to contentment and happiness.

"It is character that invests the individual in all situations in life with a charm that is beyond the power of analysis. It is character that envelopes in a singular dignity the man or the woman who is obliged to work in order to live; to whom grim necessity is an uncompromising tyrant. The worker who has character imparts to every task that he or she may undertake, this same dignity. It is likewise character that gives labor its peculiar dignity, and it must ever be borne in mind that all labor that is essential to our well-being is alike honorable. We all know that labor is essential to the well-being of society; absolutely essential. None of our daily tasks would be undertaken unless there were specific demands for specific works. No men would produce an article for the market for which there were no purchasers; nor should any man or woman engage in an occupation as a means of livelihood, for which there is no remuneration. The fact that there is remuneration is ample evidence that some one desires such services.

"If the satisfying of the varied legitimate human wants is essential, as every one will quickly admit, then the toil that brings about such satisfaction must be honorable. There is no such thing as dishonorable labor, because the fundamental principle of all labor is the filling of some particular need; which makes labor a necessity, and therefore legitimate and of a certain value. The Order of Odd Fellows insists upon this view of an important economic question, and sincerely endeavors to inculcate this principle into the mind of every one of its members.

"The women who cook our meals, who aid in keeping our homes clean and orderly, and, therefore, sightly; who minister to our comfort in every way, provided that they have character, are relatively as important factors in society as the dentist who crows a bad tooth, the lawyer who protects one's rights, the doctor who cures the patient of a bodily ill, and the theologian who by his appeals and admonitions tries to keep us in the straight and narrow path that leads to ultimate salvation. Each ministers to some need in the life of the individual; each strives to satisfy it to the best of his or her ability. The fact that this service is performed well, so that the need is well satisfied, and that healthful conditions are secured, is abundant evidence that the worker is entitled to our respect and our consideration. I am not making a special plea for the domestics in our homes, but am merely attempting to apply to you the principles of Odd Fellowship in a practical way. The domestic is the one that oftenest feels the sting of disregard, and sometimes, I am sorry to say, of actual reproach; so I have chosen her as an example that will appeal to us with sympathy and force.

"There are some occupations that are called menial, but they are not so. All labor that is legitimate is, by a parity of reasoning, important and honorable. The men who may clean our cess-pools, who may see that our sewerage system is in good condition; who may remove the decaying vegetable matter and offal from our doors, are following a legitimate calling, and therefore are engaged in honorable labor, no matter what the scale of remuneration may be. Suppose that our domestics, suppose that the men who clean our sewers, the scavengers, should be taken from us suddenly, pray what would we do? The work would have to be performed by ourselves, otherwise we should suffer. And if we were called upon to do it ourselves, even if we were to protest vigorously, would we be likely to look upon it as dishonorable?

"True character gives the man an enviable individuality and dignifies his calling, no matter what it may be. Manhood is surely not based on a vocation but on the manner of moral living. 'The rank is but the guinea's stamp; the man's the gold for a' that,' as the poet Burns, with his sturdy thought, expressed precisely the same sentiment.

"The foundation stones of a nation are the character of the men and the women who make up its society. Let the individual worker be lacking in fiber; let the individual mother be weak; let there be a want of character, generally, on the part of rich and poor; a deficiency in the proper sense and appreciation of moral stamina, which is merely another term for character, and what would become of the government in time of war? What could it accomplish in the time of peace? If the individual citizen lacks backbone, moral character, can the government possess it? We may be the richest country in the world; we may claim a greater number of millionaires than any other nation under the sun, but if our men and our women have not character, what more is their life than sounding brass? Wealth surely is desirable, knowledge and culture more desirable; but, believe me, these possessions are merely secondary. Not one can take the place of character in the individual.

"I want to emphasize this view of the value of character in the individual life by maintaining that no Odd Fellow can be true to the principles and the teachings of our Order unless he follows out, to its fullest fruition, the thought that character is the possession most to be prized. Every Odd Fellow should measure himself and his associates by that standard. Not what we may have; not what we may know, but the character of the individual should be the true proportions by which the individual is to be judged. At the bottom of nearly every man's heart lies that which is both sound and sane. How wise in the individual man to use his mental and his moral strength to bring these traits to the surface, where they may be seen and their cheering influence be felt by all.

"Odd Fellowship, brothers and sisters, represents distinct ideals; ideals that are essential to the well-being and the happiness of the world. The proper development and the careful application of these ideals must come if the spear is to be beaten into a pruning hook and the sword into a ploughshare. Our grand old Order stands for the rights of others. Who can deny that the future of humanity must rest upon the emphatic enforcement of this principle; that the complete observance of the rights of others is the universal rock of salvation. There is no other force that can accomplish so much along that line as the inherent moral force of our own Order. We are opposed to the hollow distinctions of Society, that are shadowy and immaterial. We are opposed to the artificially established social castes, because we believe that all men should be given equal respect so long as their conduct entitles them to such respect. Caste and the true democratic spirit can no more assimilate than oil and water. They are opposing forces, or at least types of opposing forces; and where two opposing forces come in conflict, one must give way to the other. In our Order, the democratic spirit, the intense sympathy for the man in all the varying conditions of life, is the dominant principle, the impelling power that shapes all our actions and all our hopes, and, indeed, all our realizations.

"Faith, hope, charity, friendship, love, truth; these are the shibboleths of our Order. What a world of significance is in each word! These are the concrete foundation upon which we build; a foundation as solid as the rock of ages, the Fatherhood of God; the brotherhood of man. Can any thought be more uplifting than that which is inspired as we contemplate the aim and the actual achievements of Odd Fellowship? If we understand these principles as they ought to be understood, their value will be quickly appreciated. If we apply them in the affairs of our daily life, they will prove to be of untold value. They are tangible, palpable. Although merely abstract qualities, they can be measured by practical effects. Our Order seeks to make men and women of strong, virile character, ready and willing to minister to the wants of the afflicted, to shed light into darkened souls, to bring joy into the places where misery reigns. Can there be a more lofty work, a more imposing mission?

"Let me say to you, brothers and sisters, that a work of this kind is almost divine. To guide and develop manhood and womanhood to its highest purpose; to fill them with sympathy and love for their fellows; to establish high ideals in their souls; to make them heroes in the warfare of life,—this is a purpose so exalted that it reaches to the very gates of Heaven. Yet that is what Odd Fellowship does; that is what it stands for; that is our chief claim upon the favor of humankind. And you will grant with me that our Order has lived up to its professions with an intelligence, a loyalty and a persistency that have won for it, I am sure, the confidence and the admiration of every right thinking man and every right thinking woman in the civilized universe."

GRAND SIRE,

THE GRAND SIRE'S REPORT.

"To The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

OFFICERS AND REPRESENTATIVES: It is with much pleasure and satisfaction that I am able, as Grand Sire, to state that our Order was never more prosperous and harmonious than at the present time. At the beginning of my term of office I wrote a letter to each Grand Master, each Grand Patriarch, and to every District Deputy Grand Sire, and to the Grand Sires of Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Australasia, and Sweden, with a view to bringing our Order into closer relation the world over. I requested that each of these brothers write me as often as convenient, reporting as to the work of the Order. Also advised that an effort be put forth to increase the membership in the subordinate and Rebekah branches 10 per cent, and in the Encampment branch 15 per cent. The co-operation of all these executive officers of subordinate Grand Bodies, as well as the District Deputy Grand Sires, has been satisfactory. It has enabled me to know the situation in every Grand Jurisdiction and of the lodges and encampments under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge. In this connection I wish to quote from a few of the letters I have received.

Grand Sire Paul Gerlach, of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire, in his first letter, spoke of the excellent work in that Jurisdiction and that the membership there now numbers about 6,000. In another letter he says: "The systematic procedure you explained with respect to the enlistment of new members into our Order is likewise adhered to in our Jurisdiction. It is a rule that in every session of a lodge the Noble Grand asks its members, 'Whether one of them wishes to propose a friend to become a member of the lodge.' We do not fail to discover ways by dint of which any friend of a brother may gain a certain interest to become associated with our Order.

"Our ideas regarding the introduction of young men into our Order corroborates fully with your views; I myself do not neglect any suitable opportunity to recommend such a system. It cannot, however, be denied that a powerful difference prevails between America and Germany regarding the question which age might be more convenient to look after. While in America the young man becomes independent at 21 years of age, this eventually takes place in Germany at 25 years. This forms one of the reasons that those who have not attained the 25th year are not entitled to vote. Young people below this age will seldom become members, although our laws prescribe 21 years the limit of age, and exceptions to this rule occur often."

Grand Sire Paul Gerlach, of Germany, under date of August 4, 1907, also writes: "It will be surprising to you that your kind letter of April 2, 1907, did not receive any answer until now. The reasons are of a different kind. First of all I wished to attend the session of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire, which took place from the 17th to the 22d of June, at Dresden. I then undertook a trip to Austria-Hungary, which lasted several weeks, and at my return caused so much business to discharge as to make it impossible to answer your friendly epistle. I hope, however, this letter will reach you in time to prepare the annual report of The Sovereign Grand Lodge prior to the session.

"The session of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire was governed by a truly brotherly character. The problems in question were unanimously discharged and in spite of all difficulties guided in a very harmonious manner.

"All officers were nearly unanimously re-elected and I enjoy the honor and pleasure to become again the Grand Sire for the term of 1907-1909, and to entertain a heartfelt intercourse with The Sovereign Grand Lodge. Our mutual correspondence with The Sovereign Grand Lodge called forth unbounded satisfaction to the members of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire, and it has been gratefully acknowledged that the letters of the present leader of The Sovereign Grand Lodge were conducted in a truly brotherly and friendly spirit. I trust this well to be wished for circumstance will harmoniously prevail for all time to come between The Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Grand Lodge of the German Empire.

"You were kind enough to tender an invitation to me or to any other brother of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire to come to the annual session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge this year. The Grand Lodge of the German Empire did not decide to accept the invitation, the expenses being so great and it would be difficult to find a suitable representative. As far as I am concerned, it is impossible to go this year to America and venture upon a journey lasting several months. I trust, however, to find at a later period an opportunity to make an acquaintance with the motherland of our beloved Order and with the chief of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

"Permit me, my most esteemed and revered friend, to express to you and to The Sovereign Grand Lodge my cordial congratulations from my part as well as from the Grand Lodge of the German Empire, and the hope that your deliberations may result for the benefit of our beloved Order and for mankind in general in happiness and blessings."

Grand Sire K. O. Schar, of the Grand Lodge of Switzerland, wrote me as follows: "It is a very rare thing in our Jurisdiction that we must drop a member for non-payment of dues. A large loss of membership would also discredit the Order in our country, therefore we impress our lodges at every opportunity to be very careful with the acquisition of new members."

"E. S. Conway, Grand Sire of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, Oak Park, Illinois, U. S. A.

DEAR BROTHER CONWAY:—I beg your pardon that I have not answered your favor of January 30th, but I wished to present your cordial invitation to attend the meeting of The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session in St. Paul, Minnesota, September 16th, of this year, to the Grand Officers of our Grand Lodge of the Republic of Switzerland. Our Grand Officers assembled July 27th, and we have resolved, upon mature consideration, to thank you for your invitation, also for your pronounced readiness to endeavor to have a portion of the great expenses of a representative of our Grand Lodge paid by The Sovereign Grand Lodge; but we cannot justify such great expense for a Jurisdiction so small as ours. Moreover, our knowledge of the English language is not sufficient to enable us to participate with success in the debates of the honorable Grand Body. We desire, therefore, to beg you to excuse our non-attendance at the session of the highest Grand Body of the Order, and to submit to the esteemed Grand Representatives our hearty greetings and the assurance of our best regard.

Attest:

Cordially and fraternally yours,

E. KNUCHEL,

K. O. SCHAR,

Grand Sire.

Grand Sire Petrus Beyer, of Denmark, wrote me two letters in reply to mine. In his first letter he says: "I think the propositions here in Europe are very much alike, and everywhere you must be careful to avoid a mass production; unfortunately we cannot descend very far in society to take our members, one of the reasons being that the workman cannot yet afford to enter this Order, which demands pretty large economical sacrifices from its members.

"I trust that I shall go to America in 1908, and I hope and wish to get to Chicago to call on you and verbally state my views to you. I believe that such an interview might be of happy consequences. In any case I shall be most pleased and honored in making the personal acquaintance of the Chief of the Order."

The Grand Lodge of Australasia has more than 30,000 members within its jurisdiction. Grand Sire George T. Clarke, of that Jurisdiction, writes: "Your fraternal letters of the 22d of November last, duly at hand. After reading the same with much interest, I have decided to carry out your wishes to the best of my ability. As the first step towards the accomplishment of the end which you have in view, I am publishing the letter in extenso in the 'Australian Triple Links,' a copy of which issue will be duly forwarded to you, as well as subsequent issues, and if you can spare the time to address your Australian brothers and sisters, I will be pleased to publish any article from your pen, and I am sure the membership in the Commonwealth and New Zealand will read it with interest. My next step will be to forward a copy of your communication to each of my District Deputy Grand Sires, with a view to copies being distributed in the lodges under their jurisdiction. I feel convinced that with a determined effort on our part we can accomplish all that you desire, notwithstanding the fact that the Jurisdictions in Australasia are working under a legal, and not a moral law, which to a certain extent is a draw-back, but on the other hand the registration of lodges is a safeguard against bogus and mushroom societies being instituted for personal gain."

Grand Sire George T. Clarke, of Australasia, under date of June 26, 1907, writes as follows: "I am in receipt of your esteemed favor of February 23; a variety of causes have prevented me from replying earlier.

"I duly received the several letters written by your esteemed self and they have, one by one, appeared in the 'Australian Triple Links.' Like Oliver Twist, I cry out for more; such effusions disseminated among the brotherhood tend to do a great deal of good.

"I come, now, to the second part of your letter, which is most important to me, for it offers to me an opportunity I have been looking forward to, for several years past, viz.: a visit to America, to see with my own eyes, and hear with my own ears, how the work of our beloved Order is carried out in the land where it was founded. I know I have a lot to learn about Odd Fellowship, and the brethren in America would find in me a very apt pupil. I wish I could accept your generous invitation to be present at the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge to be held at St. Paul, Minnesota, in the month of September in the present year. One of my reasons for holding over my answer to your letter was to see if there was any possibility of accepting. I regret there is no hope whatever of my leaving Sydney this year. In the first place, the Grand Lodge of New South Wales having legislated for the consolidation of the sick fund, my hands are more than full transferring the accounts and rearranging the bookkeeping system. This work, in addition to ordinary duties as Grand Secretary of New South Wales and Grand Sire of Australasia, ties me up in such a way that I am very much afraid if I passed the responsibilities on to others, I would be doing a most unfair thing. Moreover, in December last, I accepted a great honor at the hands of the City Aldermen, viz., that of 'Chairman of Finance.' Had I contemplated a trip this year, I do not think I would have acceded to my brother aldermen's wishes.

"In addition to extending to me the invitation, you were good enough to offer to reimburse, if not all, most of my expenses; and, if you can see your way to renew the invitation about the latter end of the year, to be present at the 1908 session, you may be sure I will take immediate steps to endeavor to represent Australasia at whatever place is selected for the annual meeting.

"I fully endorse your views that Australasia should, if not regularly, occasionally, send a Grand Sire or a Past Grand Sire to represent its Jurisdiction. It is by exchange of ideas and methods that our Order must advance. The Order is universal, and should be recognized so. America will ever be recognized as its birthplace, there must never be any disintegration; on the contrary, everything must be done to cement our unity into one concrete and everlasting body.

"And now in conclusion, will you do me the favor of conveying to the Representatives of The Sovereign Grand Lodge my sincere regrets in not being present with them in session, especially to our St. Paul brethren, who, I feel sure, would give a Grand Sire from the antipodes a warm welcome."

Grand Sire Wm. Laurentz, of the Grand Lodge of Sweden, writes: "I am glad to inform you that the development of our Order here in Sweden has been and still is good indeed. Our Grand Lodge was instituted in 1895, and at the beginning of that year our membership was only 567, while today it is 3,969. Every year has increased our membership, and only one year the net increase went down to 9 per cent; all the remaining years it has been more, from 11 to 33 per cent; last year it was 13 per cent, and we have every reason to expect that the increase will continue to be good, although as a principal point we endeavor to look out for a good quality of members.

"We commence, however, to realize that the system of sick benefits and dues inherited from America evidently is not arranged on a satisfactory basis, especially if we shall be able to collect funds for other purposes, such as relieving the distressed and educating the orphans. The claims for long lasting sickness begin to draw too much on our treasuries and some other financial plan ought to be introduced."

Bro. W. H. McBlaine, District Deputy Grand Sire, Treadwell, Alaska, writes me as follows: "I hope you will pardon me for not writing to you sooner. I have been waiting to hear from Fairbanks Lodge, No. 3, working under The Sovereign Grand Lodge. It is so far and the mails are so slow it takes a long time to get any return. They have a membership of 40 and are doing work at every meeting. I think they will be able to double their membership before the end of 1907. Alaska Lodge, No. 1, and Silver Bow Lodge, No. 2, now working under the Grand Lodge of Washington, are getting along very well, but still according to last reports they have both fallen away in membership. They have been doing some work all through the summer, but the winter is the time for Odd Fellowship to get in her work in Alaska, for in summer the boys are all out on the creeks working away from town, and sometimes it is hard to get enough to open lodge. Sometimes I think we are a little slow, but when we take everything into consideration, I think we are doing all right. The biggest part of the population of Alaska is what I call a floating population, for they are here today and away tomorrow. I think we will have a new lodge in Ketchikan in the near future, for some of the brothers have been writing to me for information, and I have been doing all in my power to help them along with the good work. We have a nice little encampment of 47 members, also a nice Rebekah lodge of 52 members, both in Douglas, and they are growing very fast."

Bro. Geo. N. Hurd, District Deputy Grand Sire, Manila, Philippine Islands, writes: "I take pleasure in reporting that Manila Lodge, No. 1, the sole representative of our Order in the Philippine Islands, has had a prosperous and harmonious year, and enters upon the new term under favorable conditions. We began the year with 70 members, and, notwithstanding the loss of a number of members, are able to report at the close of 1906, 76 brothers in good standing, a net gain of six, which is very close to the increase which you, as Grand Sire, desire to report as the percentage of gain for the Order at the end of your term. The finances of the lodge are in a satisfactory condition, although our expenses are so high that it is difficult to acquire much of a surplus. All demands for relief have been promptly met and a debt of nearly one thousand dollars has been wiped out. This debt was incurred for the alteration and fitting up of our lodge room and the adjoining one occupied by the Masons. We have a very comfortable and commodious lodge room overlooking the Pasig River. Its walls are adorned with paintings, and over the Noble Grand's chair is a very pretty electrical device of the three links.

"In my last letter to the Grand Secretary I wrote that the establishment of a Rebekah lodge in Manila was under consideration. As suggested by Bro. Goodwin, we have proceeded cautiously in the matter.

"The good that the lodge is doing cannot be appreciated from the Secretary's report or from my report. Young men here are subjected to many temptations and have few places to go for social intercourse where the surroundings are not harmful. The influence of the lodge over its members and visiting brothers is of incalculable benefit. In spite of the fact that the heat for many months of the year is so intense as to render meetings rather uncomfortable under the most favorable circumstances, we meet each week, and at nearly every meeting we have visitors from some part of the world."

Bro. D. C. Robertson, District Deputy Grand Sire, Dawson, Yukon Territory, Canada, says: "We have lost nine members by withdrawal cards, but while we are sorry to lose them, they are not lost to the Order at large; five of them have joined Fairbanks Lodge, Alaska, and the others have joined lodges on the outside. Dawson Lodge, No. 1, has only initiated two during the year, but while we have not been very prosperous numerically, we have been very prosperous financially. and I am glad to report that none of our brothers have been sick; in fact, this is one of the most healthful countries in the world. We have not in the five years of our existence here paid out a dollar to a member of our own lodge. God has been very good to us in that way. We have been called upon to assist quite a number of brothers of other lodges. There are hundreds of Odd Fellows in this country, but the majority of them are in bad standing, but we have nearly every meeting from 10 to 15 visitors who are a great help to us in conferring the work and in other ways. We are not very far behind the times in here. The only difference is we have not a drilled staff which has the work memorized, but we got along very well. Of course our principal officers have the work and charges down very well. I was very glad to see that letter of yours on the increase of membership. It was very timely as far as this lodge is concerned. I read it to the lodge and made a motion that the entire Lodge resolve itself into a committee to devise ways and means to increase the membership of Dawson Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.

"I am going to communicate with a brother Odd Fellow at White Horse, the principal town in the southern part of the Territory, as to the advisability of organizing a lodge there. Klondyke Encampment, No. 1, is not booming, but it is holding its own, and we are catching nearly all the active members of Dawson Lodge, No. 1, and a number of the visitors. I am glad to report that both Dawson Lodge and Klondyke Encampment have elected good and energetic men for the term, the Noble Grand is the Rev. Christopher Reed, the rector of St. Paul's Church, a very active and enthusiastic Odd Fellow. In regard to Yukon Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., I have to report that it is just alive and holding its own; we find it hard to make a Rebekah lodge go in here. The population is so transient and so many of the ladies go outside every winter. The exodus to the lower country has been a bad blow to all branches of the Order here. The brothers are willing to stay with it and help it along in hopes that it will recover its vitality. I take it for granted that the officers of The Sovereign Grand Lodge would not like to see the charter returned and would be willing to encourage the Rebekah lodge in every way, providing they comply with the law."

With the desire of arousing more interest in the work in Cuba, I appointed Bro. W. W. Griffing, recently of Illinois, Special District

Deputy Grand Sire, and he writes: "I find in Havana two Spanish-speaking lodges, viz., Habana, No. 6, and Regla, No. 7, with about 40 members each; they are fairly well posted in the work, their yearly dues are $8.00 and they pay $5.00 per week sick benefits. They seem to be very liberal with unfortunate brothers and their families. The only other lodge I found on the Island is at La Gloria, where they have promised to get up a revival. We think we can organize a Rebekah lodge there and several more subordinate lodges in the Province."

Grand Master John W. Coburn, of New York, says: "The reports indicate a gain for the term ending December 31, 1906, of 5155, which should bring our total membership in this Jurisdiction at that time to 108,534. The lodges are prosperous not only numerically, but in obtaining into membership in the Order men of high standing in their respective communities. The Rebekah branch is also in a prosperous and flourishing condition. In fact, I can readily say that in the prosperity of our country and this State, Odd Fellowship seems to be keeping pace."

Bro. W. A. Carter, Grand Master of Oregon, writes: "Members in good standing, January 1, 1906, 12,151; members in good standing, January 1, 1907, 13,071; net gain for year 1906, 920. Number of new lodges, 8. No charters surrendered or lodges destroyed by fire. Harmony and brotherly love prevail.

"My term commenced May 22, 1906, so there are four months of 1906 that belong to my predecessor. Four months of the present year, of my term, will not be reported until the reports are in the first of the year. Reports indicate a very large gain since the first of the year. This Jurisdiction has for several years been practically on a standstill. This, I think, was largely due to the fact that little or no particular effort was made to get members; the Grand Master, as a rule, going home and attending to such matters only as were presented for his consideration and occasionally visiting a lodge. Being the youngest Grand Master ever elected in Oregon, I decided to depart from the beaten path, and accordingly inaugurated a 'get busy' campaign early in my term, with the result of a nice increase for the year. I had printed and sent to each lodge 12 blank cards to be filled out by the Secretary and mailed to me on the fifth of each month, showing members admitted by initiation, number admitted by card, suspended or expelled, and the names and addresses of any brothers about to be dropped for non-payment of dues. To any so reported I addressed a personal letter urging them to pay up and explaining the importance of keeping their membership in this great fraternity, etc. This was a success. I set apart in December an 'initiation week,' and requested each lodge to initiate at least one candidate, and more if they could. This created quite an interest and resulted in injecting new life into some of the lodges that had been dormant for some time.

"Financially the Jurisdiction is in splendid condition. Most of the lodges own their homes and are out of debt. Being pioneers in the town or city in which they are situated, they have acquired choice locations, and the rapid growth of the country is rapidly making them more valuable. Odd Fellowship in this Jurisdiction is keeping pace with the splendid growth and development of Oregon.

"My business is such that I could only give up one-half of my time to visiting lodges. Being a very large State, in area, and sparsely settled, it requires considerable time and effort to get around to all the lodges. For example, I made one trip to the 'Eastern Oregon Country' by team, the only means of transportation except walking, and to visit four lodges required a drive of 512 miles over a very mountainous country, a part of which has for centuries known no sound except the war-whoop of the Indian and the yelp of the coyote wolf."

Bro. Chas. E. Miller, Grand Patriarch, of Ohio, says: "I can only give you exact figures from January 1, 1906, to January 1, 1907. Gross addition to membership, 1,511, making the membership 17,218; losses: expelled, 10; dropped, 549; withdrawn, 214; deceased, 190; total, 963, leaving the membership December 31, 1906, 16,255, making a net gain of 548. Since January 1, 1907, there has been some very active work done in all of the encampments."

Bro. Fred B. Merrills, Grand Master of Illinois, says: "The net gain during the year in the subordinate lodges was 4,364, or 310 less than the net gain of the preceding year. In the Rebekah branch the net gain was 2,596, or 930 more than the net gain of the preceding year."

John P. Paul, Grand Secretary of Arkansas, says: "Since our last report we have instituted 93 new lodges and made a net gain of 5,600 in membership. No club scheme or reduced fees, but a natural steady growth, and a response to the Grand Sire's request."

Bro. R. W. Starr, Grand Patriarch, of Washington, says: "A net gain for the year of 442 members, December 31, 1906, being a percentage gain of 14.4 per cent; not quite the 15 per cent you requested in a former letter. But I am pleased to be able to say that I had reports from many scribes of the encampments in the Jurisdiction, some of them up to June 1, and some of a prior date, showing a net gain during that portion of the semi-annual term beginning January 1, 1907, of 450. From reports that came in afterward and from work that I know was done in the month of June, I am confident that the net gain for the full semi-annual term is 500 members, making a percentage gain for the half year of 14.4 per cent; nearly double the desired 15 per cent.

"Not only has the membership been increasing, but the Patriarchal branch is active and aggressive in almost every portion of the State.

Every Patriarch is a booster; the incoming Grand Patriarch, Bro. Coffin, is a hustler; and the Grand Patriarch who will probably follow him, Bro. Frank Killien, is one of the most progressive young men."

Bro. J. F. Pierce, Grand Master of Wyoming, writes: "It has been my pleasure to visit all of the lodges of this Jurisdiction; I find them prosperous. Peace and harmony prevail. The outlook for this Jurisdiction is very good. Have instituted four Rebekah lodges and one subordinate lodge so far, with bright prospects of four more before the first of October. Just what the increase of membership is I am unable to state. I think that it will not be less than 200."

Bro. Willis A. Bailey, Grand Patriarch of Maine, says: "The Encampment branch of the Order is flourishing in Maine better than for several years."

Bro. W. C. G. Hobbs, Grand Master of Kentucky, writes: "We are having a most prosperous year. We have instituted, up to this time, 31 new lodges; this beats all former records for this period. The net increase for this year will approximate 2,500.

"Since the institution of our Widows' and Orphans' Home in this State we have been compelled to pay taxes on all of the property owned by the Home. Our supreme court decided in 1901 that it was taxable. I was confident that the decision was wrong, and have waited for another opportunity to present the matter to the Court of Appeals. Last March the opportunity came when the auditor's agent sued us for back taxes. We carried the case to the supreme court, and they reversed their own decision of 1901, and held that all of our property held and used for the Home was not subject to taxation. This is one of the best legal victories I have ever won in my practice of law, and is a great thing for the Order in this State. It means the saving of more than $600 a year for our Home."

Bro. William E. Felch, Grand Master of New Hampshire, says: "The Jurisdiction is steadily increasing. I believe our membership will gain 500 in subordinate lodges and 325 in Rebekah lodges. I feel well pleased with the work in general. Where, but a few years ago, the ritual was used by nearly every lodge in doing the work, during the past year, I have seen only one ritual used in degree work, and that by an officer filling pro tem."

Bro. Nestor E. Wedge, Grand Patriarch of Connecticut, says: "There is strong sentiment in Connecticut for Patriarchal Odd Fellowship, and we are keeping the matter before encampments constantly. I am going to send out one more letter and I will show each encampment just the number they must take in, in order to make up the 15 per cent gain asked for by you. I have had to do most of my work through circulars to the encampments, as my health has not been such as to admit of my going about the State very much, and besides I felt that by the letter I could reach every encampment at the same time, whereas if I visited, the season would be gone before I could have brought these matters before every encampment.

"I believe our officers are in the main responsible for the condition of their encampments, for results show that where effort is made good results are shown. I believe the average Odd Fellow is susceptible to inspiration, and if the Chief Patriarch of every encampment was fully alive to his obligations and the interests of his encampment, the influence would be far reaching and results would be much better than at present."

Bro. L. C. Thomas, Grand Patriarch of South Dakota, says: "Our branch of the Order had a net gain January 1, 1907, of 109, and a much larger gain since that time to the present, with three new encampments instituted since the first of the year. We have set our mark for 1,500 members by January 1, 1908; our membership June 1, 1908. Most of our encampments are doing well, with bright prospects for the future; some have suffered by the moving away of members, as is the case many times in a new country."

Judge Chester F. Miller, Grand Master of Washington, writes: "The membership of our Order has been increasing very rapidly during the last 18 months in the State of Washington, and the lodges are all in splendid financial condition and doing good work. January 1, 1906, we had 205 lodges with 15,497 members, and on January 1, 1907, we had 219 lodges with 17,343 members. From January 1, 1907, to June 1, 1907, when my term of office as Grand Master expired, we instituted 10 new lodges, making 24 new lodges in the 17 months, and without the loss of a single lodge. During the first part of this year, I issued a circular letter asking the lodges to show their appreciation of the good work done by our Grand Secretary, by initiating a class of members on the anniversary of his appointment to that office, and this was followed by letters from the Past Grand Masters who had held office during that time. As a result of this united effort, we initiated during January, February, March, and April of this year 1,500 new members, which, with the natural increase during May and June, should now give us 19,000 members in this Jurisdiction."

Bro. B. A. Sleyster, Grand Master of New Mexico, writes: "Since my installation into the office of Grand Master, October, 1906, the Order in New Mexico has made some increase in lodges and membership. We have instituted four new lodges with a membership of about 125, and I learn from our Grand Secretary that nearly all lodges show an increase in members, so that we have to show a total membership of 1,500 or 1,600 in New Mexico this year. We have in view two or three more places where new lodges will be instituted within the next 60 days. The Order now owns a site of 10 acres of very choice land, located near Roswell, N. M., for the 'Odd Fellows' Home.' In the course of a little time we expect to erect suitable buildings where orphans and old Odd Fellows and their widows can be taken care of. With the small membership in New Mexico, this is quite an undertaking, but the entire membership is enthusiastic on this subject. In proportion to our membership this Jurisdiction takes care of more sick members of the Order than perhaps any other. From all over the country sick brothers come to be benefited by our health-giving climate and to enjoy our 'every-day' sunshine. Hence all lodges have charges of this kind, and thus the principles of our Order are almost daily brought to our notice. Our Order (though perhaps this is the smallest Jurisdiction in members) in New Mexico is thriving; and with the steady immigration to our territory, I look for a healthy growth in membership."

Bro. Dean W. Selfridge, Grand Master of Montana, says: "It affords me great pleasure to report to you at this time that Odd Fellowship is doing well in Montana. While the increase has not been as large as we hoped, still it is a gain. I am not able at this time to furnish the figures as to the membership, but will say, we have instituted five new lodges and have an application for charter for the sixth. Two of the lodges have consolidated and one is about to give up its charter because of removal of the members to other parts. This leaves an increase of three to date and one to be instituted as soon as they are ready. I have great hopes of getting two more applications before the end of my term in October. We do a great amount of relief in this Jurisdiction and the true fraternal spirit prevails in all gatherings of Odd Fellows."

Bro. H. P. Cooper, Grand Master of North Dakota, says: "During the past year North Dakota Odd Fellowship has gained more than in any year since its organization. Twelve new subordinate lodges were chartered, and there as a net gain of 765 members, being a 20 per cent increase in membership.

"The Home Fund Treasurer reported receipts during the year of $2,862.84, making the fund $14,697.50. We expect that our State will be well represented at St. Paul in September."

Bro. W. S. Bogart, Grand Patriarch of Michigan, says: "Am pleased to report that the Patriarchal branch is now in better condition in every way than it has ever been before. Plenty of members were admitted last year, but in December nearly every camp had a house cleaning of delinquent members and started the new year with a clean roll of live members backed up with the right kind of enthusiasm. Our gain last term was between 500 and 600 members. Five new camps were instituted and five revived, and one petition was received too late to be instituted before the session. I made a special effort during my year to take up the charters of the dead camps and clean up on the delinquent members and put the Jurisdiction in a sound business condition, and in this we were very successful."

Grand Master P. B. H. Shearer, of Indian Territory, says: "I can not give you the exact work done during the last 12 months, but we have increased about 2,000 in the subordinate, and I think about 1,200 in the Rebekah branch. We have also completed the addition to our Home at the expense of about $20,000."

Bro. Philip Pond, Grand Master of Connecticut, writes: "During the past 12 months of my term of office as Grand Master in this Jurisdiction, which term expired May 15, 1907, special attention was given to the work of increasing the interest and activity of the Deputy Grand Masters in the belief that thereby the subordinate lodges would be more effectually reached and their interest and active participation in the enlargement of Odd Fellowship improved. The work of the deputies was increased by asking more frequent reports from them and reports upon other subjects than their mere routine work, and also in requiring them to report the full lists of all officers installed and the increase of membership in their districts. The lodges, too, were by a circular letter called upon to put forth a special effort to reach a given goal, namely, the attainment in this Jurisdiction of a stated membership, and were advised to try in the interests of the Order the exemplification of the initiatory and of the degrees by contesting degree staffs made up in various ways. Every encouragement was given, also, to the interchange of fraternal visits by the several lodges, and such visits were frequent during the year. As a result of these special efforts our year closing December 31, 1906, showed a net gain larger than we had shown for many years, although confessedly not as large as this Jurisdiction ought to show. The activity during the winter was marked, and on the first of April special reports from the Deputies showed a net gain for the three months of the new year considerably larger than the net gain for the entire previous year, so that at our Grand Lodge session May 15, it was felt that the Order in this Jurisdiction is experiencing a gratifying forward movement. Personally, I regarded the year as a successful one and it is generally so regarded in this Jurisdiction, although it seems to me that far more can be accomplished, and should be in Connecticut. The Order, however, is in a gratifying condition here with its future never brighter."

Bro. Walter M. Crawford, Grand Master of Alabama, says: "The work has actually commenced on the Home. The cost of the Home will be $50,000. We have 120 acres of fine land and the property will be well worth $80,000 when the Home is completed. Five years ago a proposition to start a Home was voted down, but the sentiment in favor of a Home has been gradually increasing until at the meeting of the last Grand Lodge, when the Home proposition came up, there wasn't a single negative vote.

"Our State is being organized into districts and public meetings are frequent. Anniversary celebrations, memorial occasions, public installation of officers and Odd Fellow rallies have done much toward increasing the Odd Fellow sentiment throughout this Jurisdiction.

"The Odd Fellows of this section have done much in bringing together the divided sections of this country. Outside the power of God, I firmly believe that Odd Fellowship has done more toward unifying the people than any other agency."

Bro. Henry J. Suder, Grand Master of Arizona, says: "Arizona made a net gain of 147 members last year, and so far this year we have nearly duplicated our last year's gain, while both Rebekah and Encampment branches are joining in with a general prosperity which we feel is but a beginning of unusual prosperity for Odd Fellowship in Arizona, and from now on you will see Arizona holding her own in percentage of gains made with any of her larger sister Jurisdictions. We are prosperous here, and all members are trying to keep it so."

Bro. Ernest W. Bradford, recent Grand Master of District of Columbia, writes: "The growth in this Jurisdiction is, I think, upon a growing and prosperous basis. The growth is not very rapid, but is continuous and substantial. During the last year we showed very nearly a 10 per cent net increase in membership.

"I think the special work which is being done in this Jurisdiction most entitled to mention is the work of raising a fund to establish an Odd Fellows' Home. We now have in pledges and cash in bank something more than $10,000 for this purpose. I hope in the not distant future that an Odd Fellows' Home will become a reality in the District of Columbia."

Bro. J. M. Stevens, Grand Master of Idaho, says: "It is safe to estimate the increase of membership at 2,000. We are making no special effort to institute new lodges, but are trying to build up the membership of the older ones, particular attention being paid to weak lodges. It was the policy of my predecessor in office to establish lodges wherever a sufficient number of charter members could be found, and much of our time and energy has been expended in keeping some of these alive. The officers of the Grand Lodge are working in perfect harmony, and we hope to be able to count this as one of the most prosperous years Odd Fellowship has ever known in Idaho."

Bro. Joseph Belcher, Grand Master of Massachusetts, says: "I am pleased to report to you that the net gain in our subordinate lodges during the six months ending June 30, 1907, was 850, our membership then being 57,493. Without the institution of a single new lodge to help swell the numbers, we think this is a very creditable showing."

Bro. H. L. Hart, Grand Patriarch of Maritime Provinces of Canada, says: "A net increase of membership of 177 for the year, and thus making a total of 1,020, over 21 per cent. Trust this percentage over the 15 per cent asked for will please you."

Bro. Philip J. Vetter, Grand Patriarch of Pennsylvania, writes: "Our terms expire with March 14, and September 14, so it is difficult to give you an accurate estimate of our increase or other statistical reports you might desire. September, 1906, with 252 encampments we have 15,996 in membership. To June 15, or nine months, we have 257 encampments and 16,856 in membership, being an increase of 860. This is rather under than over the actual membership, so that I feel safe in reporting a gain of about 1,200 for the year ending September 14, 1907."

Bro. O. B. Quin, Grand Master of Mississippi, writes: "The Order in Mississippi is in a healthful and prosperous condition; the past year has been fairly satisfactory and successful. There has been no big increase in new lodges or new membership, but a substantial growth and a marked improvement have been obtained in the lodges throughout the State as a whole. Odd Fellowship here is made up of the best people, and the Order commands the highest respect and esteem throughout the State. The prospects for the future are bright and encouraging, and we expect to show large additions to our membership in the near future. The healthful condition of the subordinate lodges is reflected, of course, in the Grand Lodge, and it is gratifying to note that this body is in better financial condition than ever before in its history, and that it is an institution that commands influence and power in the Jurisdiction.

Bro. W. A. Lamont, Grand Master of Colorado, writes: "The lodges in this Jurisdiction have been doing good work; this is especially the case with the lodges in the farming districts. A number of lodges claim to have far exceeded the 10 per cent increase asked for at the commencement of the term. One lodge in particular wrote me that they had initiated 26 applicants at one meeting. In the mining regions I do not look for much increase, but altogether Colorado has had more than an average year if I am not badly mistaken. I have made official visits to more than half the lodges in the State, and have nearly four months yet to serve. It has been my aim to visit the weaker lodges as much as possible. Four new lodges have been instituted, one resuscitated, and the charter of one lodge which my predecessor arrested has been restored. The prospect is bright for three or four more new lodges to be instituted before the session of the Grand Lodge."

Bro. Oscar N. Falk, Grand Patriarch of New Jersey, writes: "The net increase in the Encampment branch in New Jersey during 1906 was 151; since that time it is impossible to give a full report, but I feel satisfied that the increase for the past six months is at least 300, and have good reasons to believe that the net increase for this year will be 500. Nearly all the encampments are active and doing good work. I enclose a few circular letters which I am sending out from time to time and also a system of reports which I adopted for the purpose of keeping in touch with the progress made in the various districts throughout the State."

Bro. C. C. Vaughan, Jr., Grand Master of Virginia, says: "Virginia, during the past year, has kept abreast of the times in Odd Fellowship. On April 1, 1907, our membership was 26,800, giving a net increase for that year of 3,340. The greatest difficulty we experience is the large number of suspensions for non-payment of dues. I am glad to say, however, that the last year has shown a decided improvement over previous ones and the percentage of suspensions has been somewhat reduced. This year I am trying a new plan to help along this line. The lodges in Virginia have been requested to furnish me with a list of the members they are to drop at the end of June, 1907, and I am writing a personal letter to each one of these members, bringing to their attention the great mistake they make in permitting their names to be dropped from the roll, and explaining, briefly, the advantages the Order gives to good men for benefiting themselves and also benefiting their fellow-men. I do not know, of course, what the result will be, but if it only brings back a few of these members, it will be time and money well spent. Perhaps in Virginia the conditions the Order is called upon to face are different from those in the States north of us, but certainly, from the records available, they are not different from those in the other Southern States, and it is in these States that the greatest percentage of drops is found, and we are applying ourselves in Virginia to discover, if that is possible, the causes that produce them. We have been accused in the South of favoring what is called the club plan, but I am convinced that this plan is a good one in certain localities, especially in the rural districts, where money is not so plentiful, and perhaps it is the exercise of this plan that has given us our best increases. If, in the future, this plan proves detrimental to the best interests of the Order, we will discontinue it, but just now, I feel that it is doing much good.

"We have an excellent Odd Fellows' Home in Virginia, both for orphan children and for old and indigent members of the Order, their wives and widows. This Home has been so well managed that in the brief period of four years we have received at it more than 60 orphans, and we have applications pending for others. The Home for old people is just completed; at this time the first resident has been received. This Home has been the greatest advertisement the Order has ever had, and the fact that the Odd Fellows have this Home has brought thousands of good men to our ranks that, probably, would not now be members of the Order. As the Home increases in usefulness so, I expect, the Order in Virginia will increase.

"The Order in Virginia is growing so large that not more than six cities in the State can accommodate the Grand Lodge in annual session, and this feature is bound to receive attention in the next few years."

Bro. J. S. Romine, Grand Master of Oklahoma, writes: "I will say in brief that the Jurisdiction of Oklahoma is progressing very nicely, with a steady increase of lodges and members. We have erected an Odd Fellows' Home at a cost of $39,510.63, and dedicated the same upon April 26, 1907, free from debt, which causes us to feel proud of the fact that we now have a Home for the orphan children and the aged Odd Fellows, and have paid for same without working any great hardship upon the young lodges, and can maintain it, I think, without placing any great strain upon the Order in the Jurisdiction."

Bro. E. L. Dimick, Grand Patriarch of Nebraska, says: "The increase in the Patriarchal branch of our Order in Nebraska is about 180 to 200 net."

Bro. H. Schwartz, Grand Master of Texas, says: "Texas is in the zenith of her glory as far as Odd Fellowship is concerned. Am pleased to say to you, that 42 lodges have been instituted since the Grand Lodge met in March, and supplies are out for several others. Great interest has been manifested in anniversary and also memorial ceremonies, and the demand for speakers for said occasions has been very great."

Bro. Chas. H. Morrill, Grand Master of Maine, says: "I am pleased to be able to state that Odd Fellowship in Maine is in a very prosperous condition, and we have made a substantial gain the past year."

Bro. John W. Brown, Past Grand Master of Wisconsin, says: "We have not been able to reach the 10 per centum that you requested, but we have done so much better than in some recent years that I am feeling quite elated to-day to learn that our growth from July, 1906, to July, 1907, has been about 800."

Bro. W. H. Williams, Grand Patriarch of Idaho, says: "There was a big falling off in the membership during the year ending December 31, 1906. But from what reports I have had from the encampments we will be able to show a satisfactory increase at the end of the present year."

Bro. Harry Pine, Grand Secretary of New Jersey, says: "For the subordinate lodges of New Jersey I am glad to report progress all along the line. Net increase in members last year was 263 (plus error in report of 1905, of 150, which we have made good), and this year we expect to show a net increase of 1,000; already three new lodges this year (none last year). We report net assets of lodges, $1,093,496.62, as against $573,471.54. (More accurate reports insisted on from lodges.) Greater disbursements for relief, etc., and larger proportionate income.

We are this year raising $30,000 by assessment to start a Home for aged and indigent Odd Fellows and their wives. We are going to have a Home for every Odd Fellow who needs it."

Bro. Fred A. Groom, Grand Patriarch, of Maryland, says: "In answer to your letter of May 23d, I will say that Maryland, the Mother Jurisdiction, will show an increase of about 200 in the Encampment branch this year, ending June 30. This is the largest gain in one year for a long time and the Patriarchal branch numbers more than it has done in the last decade."

Bro. Lucien J. Eastin, Grand Master of Missouri, writes: "Our year ends with December 31, and all reports submitted to the Grand Lodge at its meeting in May speak for the period ending with the year. At the beginning of 1906, the total membership was 50,698; at the beginning of 1907, it was 55,081, a net gain of 4,383.

"I realized at the beginning of my term that the most distressing condition ahead was the prospect of an enormous suspension list. Our Grand Secretary was also awake to this baleful prospect, and we set about reducing it by every method in our power. On December 20, I called a general meeting of all lodges in the State, urging especially that a full attendance be secured and all possible precaution be brought to bear upon delinquents on that night. I received a large number of letters saying that efforts along this line on that night have saved to the fraternity many good men who had grown distant and careless. Along the same line the Grand Secretary in all his communications to the lodges urged that the names and addresses of all who were liable to suspension be given him, in order that he might write personal letters to them. This work he faithfully did, and I am sure it aided greatly.

"I am inclined to believe, with all our efforts, that changed conditions aided us materially. Some four or five years prior to 1904, the minimum price of admission was reduced to eight dollars, and straightway the majority of the lodges—and a great majority, too—reduced to that figure. For a while members were taken in wholesale, but many of them were as those 'who received the seed into stony places' and could not endure. In 1904, the minimum was made $14, and in the latter half of that and the whole of the following year many became offended. All the evil results of this law have not yet befallen us, but it is encouraging to note that they are decreasing.

"During the year 26 subordinate and 44 Rebekah lodges were chartered and organized, so that we now have in this Jurisdiction 740 subordinate and 388 Rebekah lodges."

Bro. C. L. Charrest, Grand Patriarch of Manitoba, says: "At the beginning of 1906 the membership of this Jurisdiction was 837. We made a gain of 307, thus raising our numbers to 1,144, and entitling us to two representatives to The Sovereign Grand Lodge. More than two-thirds of last year's gain was made in the latter part of the year. So far this year we have instituted two encampments, and while all the reports from the country are not to hand, I am safe in saying that our increase during the 12 months ending June 30, will be not less than 350. We hope to make a better showing during the next six months, as the brothers are beginning to take more notice of the Encampment branch, and it is no trouble to procure applications."

Bro. T. M. Stephens, Grand Master of North Carolina, says: "We set apart the month of October as a month for a special revival in the Order, urging a full attendance upon lodge meetings, special efforts to build up the lodges by bringing in applications for membership, becoming familiar with the ritual, etc. While this was an experiment it resulted in great good to the Order."

Bro. John I. Brown, Grand Patriarch of the District of Columbia, says: "We have not had a great increase in numerical strength, yet I am pleased to state that we have had a slight increase and have not fallen behind. As you are undoubtedly aware, this Jurisdiction has certain peculiarities that are not met with in other Jurisdictions, one of them being the cosmopolitan character of its population, which limits the community of interest feeling so well defined in other Jurisdictions or places. I will state that our membership, while small, is loyal and enthusiastic in the cause of Odd Fellowship."

Bro. J. Powley, Grand Patriarch of Ontario, says: "The past has been a year of exceptional prosperity with this branch of our Order in Ontario. With the increased enthusiasm and ambition of the Patriarchs our membership has been increased by nearly 30 per cent during the 12 months ending June 30, 1907. New encampments have sprung up everywhere, and throughout the Jurisdiction there is unmistakable evidence of a much needed improvement in our condition."

Bro. A. M. Wooldredge, Grand Master of West Virginia, says: "The condition of the Order is good in this State. Since July last we have added 23 lodges and closed one. We have added about 1,500 members, and the prospects look good for more lodges and members before my term ends in November next. The Rebekah degree is also looking up as we have added quite a number of lodges to that branch. We will add about eight lodges during my term, but will, I think, close five.

"We will have at the end of this term some $60,000 in the Home fund. Taking everything into consideration, I think we are in a better condition in this State than ever before, and I hope that is the same report you will get from all the Jurisdictions."

Bro. David W. Whittier, Past Grand Patriarch of New Hampshire, writes: "Interest in the Encampment branch has increased materially since January 1, 1907, and some very good work done by several encampments."

Bro. C. E. Frick, of North Carolina, says: "The Patriarchal branch of our Order will show an increase of about 125 members during the past 12 months, which will be a net gain of about 12½ per cent. This is not as much as it should be, but I can give no reason for it. The subordinate lodges number over 13,000 members, and it seems to me that the Encampment branch should have over 2,000 of these. The next men in line for the office of Grand Patriarch are live, progressive men, and I look for a considerable increase in the next three years."

Bro. Smith L. Walker, Grand Master of the Maritime Provinces, writes: "Our official report for the year ending December 31, 1906, shows an increase of 5 per cent. Since January 1, our work has improved very much, and although at this writing no returns are in, I am confident we have made a half-yearly gain of at least 5 per cent more, and so we are not far off the desired 10 per cent. Considering the condition industrially of the most eastern sections of this Continent (in view of western booms) this is a most satisfactory result. The Encampment branch has taken on increased activity and has gained at least 15 per cent. They are striving for a second representative. Six Rebekah lodges have been instituted and also four subordinate lodges (with more in sight), which is the best for several years. The last lodge was most appropriately named 'Century Lodge, No. 100'—we feel that congratulations are in order. Through correspondence, etc., I have been enabled this year to get into closer touch with the Noble Grands of the various subordinate lodges than has been the fortune of many of my predecessors. The system of securing monthly reports from the Noble Grands has indicated that if followed up and developed, it would be a marked factor in maintaining the general interest. Summarizing, I might say that our period of depression seems to be past, and active, energetic work seems to be the general condition. While I regret to report that I am about to recommend that one charter be withdrawn, I am glad that several lodges which one year ago were not in good condition are today in splendid working trim."

"I beg to acknowledge the assistance that your evident desire to see our Order flourish has been to me in my work this past year, and I am sure my successor in office will also be able to report continued prosperity in this Jurisdiction."

Bro. Frank J. Heintz, Grand Patriarch of Illinois, says: "The net gain in Encampment membership in Illinois for 1906, which has just been figured by the Grand Scribe, is 628. This is a very good numerical gain. So far as I can judge, the increase is continuing nicely. I have issued dispensations for six new encampments already this year, with more in sight."

Bro. J. H. Henderson, Grand Master, of Iowa, writes: "The Grand Secretary's report, though all of the lodges have not yet made their returns so it can be tabulated, shows a net increase of about 1,500, since the last report. I have instituted nine new subordinate lodges and fifteen new Rebekah lodges, all of them in good condition and with good prospects for success."

Bro. W. B. Hutchinson, Past Grand Patriarch of Vermont, says: "I can estimate the increase in membership at 115. There has been one encampment instituted during the year, making 33 in all, and with three exceptions all are in good working condition."

Bro. William A. Jones, Grand Secretary, of Maryland, says: "Our Grand Lodge work closes in December and our gain for the work of last year was 330, and for the first half term ending June 30th, our net gain with six lodges to hear from shows an increase of 440, our aim for this year's work is 1,000 members."

Bro. E. H. Walling, Grand Master, of Quebec, says: "Peace and harmony prevail throughout the Jurisdiction of Quebec, and as a result no appeal whatever has come before me. I have had the pleasure of instituting two new lodges in this Jurisdiction. The Order is doing splendidly considering all the difficulties it has to overcome. The Encampment branch of the Order is doing well in the Jurisdiction of Quebec."

Bro. J. A. Carlberg, Grand Patriarch of Oklahoma, writes: "I think that when the complete returns show up, it will be found that Oklahoma has made an increase of at least 15 per cent in its membership of a year ago."

Bro. A. W. Hershberger, Grand Master of Kansas, writes: "We estimate the increase of membership for the year ending June 30, 1907, to be more than 2,000, making the membership in Kansas above 39,000.

"A special effort has been made to keep members from being dropped for non-payment of dues, and to enthuse dormant lodges, to increase interest in the work all along the line, and especially to harmonize differences in lodges; and to the present time I have but three appeals to decide, and the Grand Lodge session but a little over three months distant. While I have no regret at the thought of the term of office drawing to a close in so short a time, yet the term is at an end just when a Grand Master is in a position to do some real good work. Another special effort of the year has been to firmly establish the Rebekah Odd Fellows' Home, which effort has been very satisfactory."

Bro. Bert H. Weeks, Grand Patriarch of Indian Territory, says: "The membership, I think, will reach twelve to fifteen hundred, and the prospects for the future are most encouraging."

Bro. E. G. Wiswell, Grand Master of Manitoba, writes: "Our Order is making a very substantial growth, and is, I believe, the most influential fraternal organization in our Jurisdiction. We are fully alive to the importance of a continued increase in membership, and the promulgation of those principles which underlie the success of fraternal societies; 'quality' is the watchword, and 'onward' is the cheering reply all along the line."

Bro. Fred A. Rogers, Grand Master of Michigan, says: "I am indeed gratified to report that there has been great activity throughout the Jurisdiction the past term, the result being a splendid growth. The boys took 'hustle' for their watchword as well as password, and made good in consequence. Of the 519 lodges in the Jurisdiction I am in receipt of reports thus far from 370 for the term ending June 30 (or July 1); of this number 320 lodges reported a total gain of 2,680 new members for the term."

From the foregoing letters and reports from the Militant branch, it is clear to me that it is not legislation that is required, but rather continued co-operation and united effort in all branches of the Order.

DECISIONS.

During the year I have rendered the following decisions:

SUBORDINATE LODGE DECISIONS.

DECISION 1. Question.—Did the adoption of the report of the Special Committee on the Transfer of Membership Law, at the session of 1906 (see pages 778-784, S. G. L. Journal), repeal the law requiring lodges to admit applicants for membership on card without charge, upon change of residence within State Jurisdictions?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 2. Statement.—The Grand Master in his annual report referred to an independent organization made up of representatives from a number of subordinate and Rebekah lodges as follows:

"I am of the opinion that this organization has, probably unintentionally, assumed to use the name of the Order to an extent never intended to be delegated to it by this Grand Lodge. It conducts entertainments, excursions, raffles, and rummage sales in the name of the Order without asking the dispensation of the Grand Master. It is certainly not the desire of this Grand Lodge to delegate to any organization in matters of this kind greater rights than are accorded to the subordinate and Rebekah lodges of this Jurisdiction. Also letters of appeal should not be sent out to the lodges without the approval of the Grand Master."

This report was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals and that Committee recommended that the matter of the legal standing of this organization be referred to the Grand Sire. The letters I. O. Q. F. and the three links are not used on this printed matter, but it claims to be an organization of our Order and is publicly so known.

Answer.—The Grand Master was clearly right in his opinion. No association or league, composed of delegates selected from a given number of lodges or Rebekah lodges has any right, according to the laws of our Order, to conduct entertainments, etc., without a dispensation from the Grand Master. The mere fact that the letters I. O. O. F. and the three links are not used is immaterial, if the association or league is made up of representatives from lodges and Rebekah lodges. No club composed of the members of any subordinate lodge, Rebekah lodge, encampment or canton, has a right to conduct any entertainment, dance, etc., without a dispensation, such as would be required for either of these subordinate bodies. No raffle can be conducted in the name of the Order. A dispensation cannot be granted for that purpose. A rummage sale might be conducted by a subordinate body, a club, an association or league, provided dispensation had been granted by the proper Grand Officer.

DEC. 3. Question 1.—During the recess of the Grand Lodge, and in the absence of any local law governing the resuscitation of lodges, has the Grand Master the right to restore the name, charter, and effects to five or more petitioners of a suspended lodge, if, in the judgment of the Grand Master, a successful, harmonious lodge will be maintained?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Can a suspended lodge be resuscitated by a Grand Master upon the petition of five or more members of said suspended lodge, said petition praying that a new charter bearing the name and number of said suspended lodge be issued, and the effects of said suspended lodge be restored?

Answer.—No.

Question 3.—as the Grand Master or the petitioners of a suspended lodge the right to exclude from membership of the resuscitated lodge all members of said suspended lodge which said Grand Master or said petitioners believe will be detrimental to the success and harmony of the resuscitated lodge?

Answer.—If the lodge has been closed by the preceding Grand Master and his action approved by the Grand Lodge, then the present Grand Master is not authorized to set aside the action of the Grand Lodge. He has the authority to grant a dispensation for a new lodge, and may allow the use of the same name and number. In this new lodge such members may constitute the charter members, as may be approved by the Master.

DEC. 4. Statement.—Bro. Robert Mobley, P. G. M. and P. G. Rep., was tried in his subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction upon charges and specification, found guilty, and sentenced to suspension for the period of one year. He appealed to the Grand Lodge of Idaho, and on his application the Grand Master granted stay of execution. The Grand Lodge dismissed his appeal, sustaining his subordinate lodge. He has regularly taken his appeal, in good faith, to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, and the Transcript on appeal is about ready for the printer. At the last session of the Grand Lodge a resolution amending the by-laws of subordinates was passed whereby an appeal, ipso facto, stays execution where the sentence is suspension. Herewith as part of this statement is a copy of the proceedings relating to the said resolution, certified under the seal of the Grand Lodge by the Grand Secretary.

Question.—Does the appeal of Bro. Mobley from the action of the Grand Lodge of Idaho to The Sovereign Grand Lodge stay, ipso facto, the sentence of suspension?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 5. Statement.—A member of the I. O. O. F. in the jurisdiction of Ohio met with an accident which rendered him totally blind. He was in arrears for dues and not entitled to benefits. He was placed on the sick list of his lodge, and is still on the sick list. There is no prospect of his ever becoming able, by reason of his blindness, to earn a livelihood, as he is quite an old man. But since becoming afflicted, he has paid up his dues, and, to all other intents and purposes, is in good standing.

Question.—If, while already on the sick list because of blindness, but not entitled to benefits for the present sickness, he should become afflicted with another sickness, could he be placed on the sick list a second time and draw benefits for said second sickness, although never having recovered sufficiently from his first sickness (blindness) to follow some occupation whereby he could gain a livelihood.

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 6. Statement.—In each of several subordinate Grand Jurisdictions there is an organization which meets at the convenience of the membership and at the call of the chief officer, the members of which will not propose, nor will the Order accept, any applicant who is not a Scarlet degree member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

There is no reference in the printed matter, laws, or ritualistic work of this organization, to Odd Fellowship; neither are the initials, signs, or any of the emblems of the I. O. O. F., used by the organization in any form or manner.

Question.—Is a member in affiliating with, or organizing, such society in violation of, or in conflict with, the laws of The Sovereign Grand Lodge as referred to in resolution No. 66, by Past Grand Sire

Answer.—No.

DEC. 7. Statement.—Referring to the Journal of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for 1905, and page 20 of the same, I find the following questions and answers in the report of Robert E. Wright, P. G. S., which were approved at that session.

Question.—Can Grand Secretaries under the resolution of 1903 sell a number of these cipher keys to the Secretaries of subordinate lodges upon their order?

Answer.—Yes.

Question.—If the Grand Secretary is permitted to sell a number of these keys to the Secretary of a subordinate lodge, can the Secretary of the subordinate lodge sell them to members of his lodge?

Answer.—Yes, but to Third degree members only.

Question.—Can any Odd Fellow, except one who has obtained the Third degree, buy or have one of these keys?

Answer.—No.

Question.—Can a Grand Secretary sell these keys to any Odd Fellow in good standing, or must he sell them to secretaries of subordinate lodges only?

Answer.—To secretaries of subordinate lodges only.

Question.—Is it a violation of the law for a brother who has but one of these keys to sell it to another brother, or to give it or lend it to another brother?

Answer.—Yes; although there is no specific legislation on this subject.

The above queries, you will understand, refer to the cipher keys of the secret work of the subordinate lodges.

Question.—Do the same restrictions and regulations as above cited apply to the disposal of and regulate the sale of cipher keys of the secret work of the subordinate encampments?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 8. Statement.—In accordance with the law authorizing the formation of a General Relief Committee in cities having two or more lodges, the lodges of Memphis have organized such a committee. Said committee is authorized to levy a tax of 10 cents per capita every term of six months for the purpose of relieving transient or sojourning members of lodges located elsewhere throughout the world. By vote the Memphis lodges authorize the General Relief Committee to use such fund for the purpose of assisting or relieving any members of the Memphis lodges or the families of such members, if (in the judgment of the General Relief Committee) the lodge to which such member belongs is financially unable to supply the needed assistance.

Question.—Have the lodges the right to give such authority to the General Relief Committee?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 9. Statement.—A lodge discontinued its meetings in 1861. It was closed in 1867 and all of the property and effects were surrendered to the Grand Lodge. By accident or carelessness on the part of the Special Deputy, the charter was not reclaimed. In 1874 this lodge was reinstated under the same name and number and the property was returned to it by the Grand Lodge. For two members now in good standing it is desired to present each of them an Honorable Veteran Jewel. The certificates were all made out in regular form, but inasmuch as the lodge failed to report to the Grand Lodge from 1861 to 1874, and inasmuch as it had been closed, and the Journals of the Grand Lodge so show, the Grand Secretary held that notwithstanding the lodge has in its possession the original charter granted in 1854, yet the two brothers were not in membership from the year the lodge was closed in 1867 until it was again instituted in 1874, a period of seven years, and he refused to furnish the Jewels.

Question.—Under the facts as here stated, did the Grand Secretary err in refusing to deliver the two Jewels as requested?

Answer.—No. It was clearly a case of discontinuance of membership for a period of seven years. It was a mere accident that the charter was not actually returned to the Grand Lodge.

DEC. 10. Question 1.—Should an Odd Fellows' lodge entertain a motion or a resolution to donate from its general funds for the purpose of assisting in the erection of a building to be used by an organization known as the Young Men's Christian Association?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Would it be legal for a Noble Grand to entertain a motion or a resolution to appoint a committee of Odd Fellows to solicit voluntary contributions from members of the Order for this purpose, the same to be contributed either as individual members of the Order or in the name of the lodge in which the donors hold membership?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 11. Statement.—The following question was submitted to Grand Sire Carleton and his answer follows the question:

Question.—If a brother is reported sick with a chronic disease (rheumatism), and the lodge pays 40 weeks' benefits at two dollars per week; the brother is then a little better and is reported from the sick list; in a short time is reported sick again from the same disease, and continues sick for a long time; must the lodge pay him two dollars per week for 52 weeks from the date of the last report, or can it pay the balance of 12 weeks, which would have been the brother's due if he had not been reported recovered from the first sickness, and then one dollar per week thereafter? Would you call this last sickness a new one, or a continuation of the old, where the disease is the same?

Answer.—It is two separate cases of sickness and the lodge must pay him two dollars per week from date of the last sickness.—1897 Journal, S. G. L., Decision 18, page 15,166.”

The Judiciary Committee recommended the approval of this decision. See Report No. 105, page 15,534. When the report was considered The Sovereign Grand Lodge took separate action on Decision No. 18, and disapproved of it.—See bottom of page 15,584 and top of 15,585.

Question.—From this action of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, does the law then stand that in cases similar to that asked of the Grand Sire, the lodge should treat it as one sickness?

Answer.—Yes.

Question.—As this matter has not been digested in Busbee's Digest, would its absence therefrom affect its legal status or validity at this time?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 12. Statement 1.—Our laws, you will note, provide for “complaint” and “charges” where a brother has committed an offense. Any brother may make complaint, in which case it is referred to the Noble Grand, who appoints a committee of investigation. If this committee finds the complaint well founded it prefers formal charges in its own name against the offending brother.

Statement 2.—Members of a lodge were complained of by the Grand Master for being in the saloon business, and the lodge directed to proceed against them. Previous to such notice, it is alleged, the brothers resigned, on the night of, or immediately following, the complaint of the Grand Master. Upon learning the facts the Grand Master directed that such resignations be annulled and that the members be proceeded against. Committees were appointed to investigate the charges and complaint. Some of the members were expelled thereunder, but on others the committee failed to report. Finally the Grand Master suspended the charter of the lodge and reported the facts to the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge directed the return of the charter and that the lodge proceed against the brothers for saloon-keeping. This situation presents the following questions:

Question 1.—If the resignations were received prior to the complaint of the Grand Master, were they legal and effective?

Answer.—Yes, provided that if charges against a member and a resignation of such member be presented at the same meeting of his lodge, such resignation shall not be operative until the proper disposition of such charges. (Words in italics added by the Judiciary Committee and approved as modified.)

Question 2.—Could these resignations take place after complaint had been made against the brothers by the Grand Master or other persons, any time previous to formal charges having been preferred by the committee?

Answer.—No.

Question 3.—Is our "complaint" equivalent to "charges" set out in The Sovereign Grand Lodge law?

Answer.—Yes, so far as it pertains to resignation of membership.

DEC. 13. Statement.—At the recent session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, Report No. 139, providing a penalty of forfeiture of all degree fees and all dues paid by a member admitted without the territorial jurisdiction of a subordinate lodge, an encampment and a Rebekah lodge, without having secured proper permission, was adopted. The Grand Lodge of Massachusetts has provided that the penalty to be imposed upon a subordinate lodge in this Jurisdiction for such a violation of law shall be for the first offense a fine of fifty dollars, and for each subsequent offense a fine of seventy-five dollars.

Question.—Does the adoption of Report No. 139 nullify the local law in Massachusetts as above explained?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 14. Question.—Is it legal for a picnic and excursion to be held on Sunday under the auspices of a subordinate lodge or a committee representing the lodge?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 15. Question 1.—Is it the duty of the Grand Secretary, as custodian of the Unwritten Work and Book of Diagrams, at all times, except when the same is taken to a session of the Grand Lodge, to keep said work in a safe or vault in his office?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—May the Grand Secretary, as custodian of said work, permit it to be taken from his keeping and office by any person or persons carrying the same into subordinate lodges for the purpose of instructions in the work?

Answer.—No.

Question 3.—Has the Grand Master, by reason of his office, any right to the possession of this book during his term of office, for the purposes of instruction in the work in the several subordinate lodges of the Jurisdiction?

Answer.—No.

Question 4.—When said work is present at the sessions of the Grand Lodge, if it be within the province of the representatives to ask for the appointment of custodians of the same, who is the proper person to appoint such custodian—the Grand Master or the Grand Secretary?

Answer.—The Grand Secretary.

DEC. 16. Question 1.—Is a lodge compelled under the laws of the Order to prefer charges against a member who has become a bartender?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—A member becomes a bartender, the lodge has knowledge of the fact. He applies for a withdrawal card, the lodge grants it. Is its action legal, no charges having been preferred against him?

Answer.—Yes.

Dec. 17. Question.—What is the meaning of the words "Territorial Jurisdiction" as found in the report of Special Committee on Transfer of Membership Law, page 779, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1906? Does it mean the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge or simply the jurisdiction of a subordinate lodge?

Answer.—It refers to the jurisdiction of the subordinate body.

DEC. 18. Statement.—A brother living at a distance from his lodge writes them for a withdrawal card. The lodge votes to grant the card and the Secretary finds that he is out of cards and writes the Grand Secretary for cards. Before he receives them and makes out the brother's card to send him, the brother's wife dies, and he claims funeral benefits on her death.

Question.—Is the brother still a member of the lodge, and is he entitled to funeral benefits on his wife's death?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 19. Statement.—In our State a brother must have been a member six months before he is entitled to sick benefits and a lodge may, by its by-laws, exclude the first week's sickness.

Question.—Where a brother becomes ill before he has been a member six months and such sickness continues until after the expiration of his six months, does the by-law excluding the first week's sickness have the effect of excluding the first week after the six months' limit has expired?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 20. Statement.—A brother was a member of one of our lodges here at the time the Anti-Saloon law was passed. His occupation was a bartender. He allowed himself to be suspended for non-payment of dues and now makes application to join another lodge on a dismissal certificate, still being a bartender.

Question.—Is he eligible?

Answer.—No. In the absence of local law to the contrary he could have been reinstated in the lodge in which he had been dropped for non-payment of dues and then could have transferred his membership in the regular way. Should he discontinue the saloon business he could then make application for membership upon his dismissal certificate.

DEC. 21. Statement.—The Noble Grand of a large city lodge has been in the habit of signing in blank a hundred or more official receipts at a time for the use of the Financial Secretary in collecting dues between lodge sessions. The lodge, by vote, directs the Noble Grand to sign no more receipts in blank, on the ground that such receipt is not only a receipt for money paid, but is an order for the Current Term Pass Word, and the Annual Traveling Pass Word, and by the same resolution the lodge directed the Financial Secretary to have a memorandum receipt to be issued by the Financial Secretary to brothers paying dues between lodge sessions and providing that an official receipt must be issued to such brothers at the next regular meeting of the lodge, said memorandum receipt to be in the following form:

RECEIVED FROM BROTHER ..... $.....

to apply on dues in.....Lodge, I. O. O. F. This receipt shall be exchanged for an official receipt at the next regular meeting of the lodge following this date, and if not so exchanged, then the Financial Secretary shall mail to the brother above named an official receipt.

.....

Secretary.

Question 1.—Is the lodge correct in holding that it is improper for the Noble Grand to sign official receipts in blank?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—Is a memorandum receipt for dues issued in the form above described and to be exchanged at the next regular meeting of the Lodge for an official receipt, a violation of general law?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 22. Statement.—If a member, or the family of a member, of a local lodge of this city, shall be sick or in distress and the financial condition of his lodge be such that it cannot render him the necessary assistance, the General Relief Committee may render him such assistance as in their judgment the case merits and the condition of their finances may warrant. And in case the assistance necessary for the relief of such brother exceeds the amount which the committee feels justified in giving him out of the regular funds, they shall be authorized to address a communication to the lodges of the city in order that they may have an opportunity to make a special donation for the purpose of relieving such distress, such donation to be optional and voluntary with each individual lodge and not in any sense an assessment.

Question.—Does the above section conflict with any law of The Sovereign Grand Lodge when adopted by our General Local Relief Committee and approved by our local lodges?

Answer.—No. Such a communication could be sent to each lodge which is a member of such Relief Committee. To send it to the other lodges of the city or of the Grand Jurisdiction it must have the approval of the Grand Master.

DEC. 23. Statement.—Section 5, Article I, Constitution of the Subordinate Lodges in the Jurisdiction of Missouri reads: "A favorable ballot on a petition for membership shall entitle the applicant to receive any degree or degrees of a subordinate lodge."

Section 1, Article V, of the same Constitution reads: "The qualifications for degrees shall be membership in the Order free from charges and in good standing for the following terms, viz.: For the First degree, two weeks; for the Second degree, four weeks, and for the Third degree, six weeks. And the brother shall be proficient in the highest degree he shall have attained, i. e., in possession of the obligation and unwritten work thereof, so as to give an intelligent explanation of its uses, and as near as may be in the language of said degree. The Noble Grand shall appoint a qualified member to instruct said brother. The examination shall be in open lodge in the degree in which the brother is a member, after which the brother shall retire to the ante-room. The lodge shall reopen in the Third degree and shall determine by a majority vote as to his proficiency. If favorable, the degree shall be conferred; if unfavorable, it shall not be conferred until upon further examination he shall be declared proficient."

Question.—Are these provisions invalid because in conflict with The Sovereign Grand Lodge Law?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 24. Statement.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the Toronto session of 1906, adopted the following resolution, which is found on page 148 of the Daily Journal of Proceedings of said session:

"Resolved, That the penalty to be inflicted upon a subordinate lodge, encampment, or Rebekah lodge violating the provisions of the law prohibiting subordinate lodges, encampments, or Rebekah lodges from admitting persons as members not residing within their territorial jurisdiction, without having secured proper permission as provided by law, shall be as follows:

"Said subordinate lodge, encampment, or Rebekah lodge shall, upon conviction of such offense, immediately remit to the subordinate lodge, encampment, or Rebekah lodge having such territorial jurisdiction, the initiation and degree fees received from the member so admitted to membership, and that from time to time thereafter when requested by the lodge which has received the initiation and degree fees, pay to such lodge all dues received from said members so admitted to membership, and shall so continue to pay all such dues while he or she shall retain his or her membership, provided nevertheless that this resolution shall not affect the present legislation or any decisions in respect of and in relation to members being admitted by cards under facts heretofore recited."

Question 1.—Does the above mentioned resolution apply to those only who are residents of one State or territory wherein lodges are established and who shall be admitted to membership in a lodge of another State or territory, without having secured proper permission as provided by law, or does it have reference also to those who are residents of one city or town wherein a lodge is established and who shall be admitted to membership in a lodge located in another city or town in the same jurisdiction of their residence, without having secured proper permission as provided by law?

Answer.—It applies in all cases wherein an applicant has been admitted as a member of one lodge while residing within the jurisdiction of another.

Question 2.—In the event of a lodge violating the provisions of the aforesaid law by admitting a person as a member who is not a resident within the territorial jurisdiction of the said lodge, and the person so admitted resides in a city or town wherein two or more lodges have concurrent jurisdiction, to which of these lodges holding such concurrent jurisdiction shall the offending lodge remit the fees and dues received from the candidates so admitted to membership?

Answer.—The fees for initiation and degrees and the amount received for dues should be paid to the lodge in whose jurisdiction the applicant resides. Territorial jurisdiction is determined by local legislation except as to those directly under the jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

DEC. 25. Statement.—Bro. A. B. presents charges against Bro. B. C.

2. The lodge by resolution declined to deal with the case (alleging that it would be better to try the case in a Rebekah lodge.)

J. A. Lucas.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.

3. Bro. A. B. appealed to the Grand Lodge against this action of the subordinate lodge.

4. The Grand Lodge sustained the appeal and ordered the subordinate lodge to proceed with the trial.

5. The lodge proceeded in all due form to hold such trial giving full notices as required by local law.

6. Bro. A. B. willfully neglects to be present or to proceed with the charge.

7. The committee acquits Bro. B. C.

Question.—Does such "neglect" on the part of the accuser constitute "contempt" and render Bro. A. B. liable to punishment therefor?

Answer.—It depends upon local legislation. In Illinois, such refusal would be contempt.

DEC. 26. Statement.—A person residing in Washington makes application, accompanied by the proper fee, for membership in the nearest lodge to his residence, and is duly elected a member. He is not notified of his election by the Secretary under the seal of the lodge, but by the direction of the Noble Grand is personally notified of his election by the brother who brought in his application. Shortly after he removes to the State of Idaho and establishes his residence in that State. Subordinate lodge constitutions in this State do not provide for an official notification of their election to be sent to applicants by the Secretary.

Question 1.—Can he legally demand the return of his fee from the lodge in Washington which legally elected him to membership?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Has the lodge in Washington, by reason of having legally elected him a member, jurisdiction to initiate him after his removal to Idaho, while temporarily visiting in this State?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—If so, for what length of time would they retain jurisdiction to initiate?

Answer.—Until fee is forfeited as provided by local law.

DEC. 27. Statement.—Clause 1, Sec. 1, Art. 4, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge provides, "That the Grand Master may call special sessions, at the request of not less than ten Past Grands entitled to receive the Past Official and Grand Lodge degrees, and who agree to pay the necessary expenses of such session at such time and place as he may determine, for the purpose of conferring the Past Official and Grand Lodge degrees, and giving instructions in the work, and for no other purpose. At such special sessions the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Warden, or either of them, together with the Grand Secretary and five Past Grands, shall constitute a quorum."

Question.—Is it necessary for the Grand Secretary, in person, to be present at a special session called under the provisions of the above law, or would it be competent for a duly appointed and certified deputy to act in his stead?

Answer.—The Grand Secretary must be present.

DEC. 28. Question.—A brother living in a town, where a lodge is located, in which he holds membership, applies for and receives a withdrawal card. He then moves to another town, where a lodge is located. He applies for membership in the lodge located at his new place of residence. Would he be entitled to admission free of charge, under the resolution authorizing the transfer of membership?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 29. Statement.—Attention is called to the fact that the resolution on the bottom of page 149 of the Daily Journal of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, for 1906, reads as follows:

“Resolved, That there be added to the Transfer of Membership Law the following:

“That a brother desirous of availing himself of the provisions of the said law, shall send with his application for a withdrawal card, the sum of 25 cents (cost price of such card), and an additional amount equal to four weeks' or one month's dues, which shall entitle the brother to the protection of the lodge from which he proposes to withdraw, as far as benefits are concerned, for the period of four weeks or one month, or such less time as may be necessary to complete the transfer of his membership.”

It happens that there are three separate methods of transferring membership which collectively make up what is known as the “Transfer of Membership Law,” viz.:

First—As a veteran.—Busbee, 969.

Second—Without change of residence by depositing a visiting card or official certificate.—Busbee, 968.

Third—Change of residence from the territorial jurisdiction of one lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of another lodge, by filing an application for membership, showing that the brother is entitled to a withdrawal card from his own lodge, and based upon this right, desires to be elected before he severs his connection with his old lodge. 1906, S. G. L. Rep., No. 143.

Question.—Does the resolution above set forth mean what it reads? That there be added to the Transfer of Membership Law the provisions of said resolution, and hence apply to all methods under the “Transfer of Membership Law” or only to the last named method?

Answer.—Report No. 143 has special reference to what is known as the new law, but the resolution covers all cases, when applicable.

DEC. 30. Statement.—The Constitution for subordinate lodges prescribed by the Grand Lodge of this Jurisdiction reads as follows: "Any member whose weekly dues remain unpaid for a period of seven months from the date to which dues have been paid, shall thereby forfeit all right to weekly, attentive and funeral benefits."

Question 1.—Does this conflict with the law as laid down in Busbee's Digest, Section 2650?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Is the constitution in above part, valid?

Answer.—Yes.

Statement 2.—Under this provision of the Constitution a subordinate lodge makes a by-law prohibiting payment of benefits to a brother more than 13 weeks in arrears.

Question 3.—Has the subordinate lodge the authority to change by by-law the provision for length of time, or sum of dues, to constitute a brother non-beneficial named by the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction in its constitution for subordinate lodges?

Answer.—No.

Question 4.—Is such a by-law under such a constitution valid?

ENCAMPMENT DECISIONS.

DEC. 31. Statement.—A member of the Order belonged to a lodge in Columbus, Ohio, and to an encampment in Springfield, Ohio. In January, 1907, the member was injured and his encampment and lodge notified, when it was discovered that the member had been dropped by his lodge in December, 1904. His dues in the encampment were paid to April, 1907. Under Busbee's Digest of 1903, Section 890, his membership in the encampment terminated in December, 1905. The encampment had no previous knowledge of his suspension by his lodge.

Question.—Should the encampment refund his dues from January, 1906?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 32. Question.—Does the following language on page 779, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1906: "Also that this law be, and the same is, hereby extended to the Encampment and Rebekah branches of the Order" properly and legally amend the law of 1904, so that it now reads as if the words "Encampment and Rebekah lodge" were inserted after the word "lodge" wherever it occurs in said law of 1904?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 33. Question 1.—Can an encampment use its funds to make a donation to the Widows' and Orphans' Home?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—Can an encampment use its funds to make a donation to a fund to offer the Grand Lodge to induce it to locate the Home in a certain city. Said fund not to be paid until the Grand Lodge accepts the proposition and the fund to be turned over to the Grand Lodge for use in building the Home?

Answer.—Yes.

REBEKAH DECISIONS.

DEC. 34. Statement.—A sister takes a withdrawal card from her Rebekah lodge on the 13th day of February, 1905, and deposits the same and was elected a member of another lodge on the 6th day of February, 1906, but has not signed the Constitution and By-laws, as she has not been in the vicinity of the lodge since her election. The By-laws governing Rebekah lodges in this Jurisdiction, read as follows: "Each member of this lodge, on being admitted—whether by initiation, or by card, or by certificate—shall sign the Constitution and By-laws, and his or her membership shall date from the affixing of his or her signature thereto."

Question.—Has the sister a right to come forward and sign the Constitution and By-laws at the present time, and thereby become a member of the new lodge, her card having expired.

Answer.—Yes.

Question.—Has the lodge any right to refuse to let her sign the Constitution and By-laws, on the ground that she should have done so at an earlier date, there being no local law on the subject.

Answer.—No.

DEC. 35. Question.—May the Constitution of a Rebekah Assembly legally provide that Past Grands and Past Noble Grands may vote for Assembly Officers at an election to be held in the subordinate Rebekah lodges, or must the election be held in the Assembly at its annual session?

Answer.—The Constitution of a Rebekah Assembly with the approval of the Grand Lodge can be so amended that the officers of the Assembly may be elected by the vote of the Past Noble Grands. Said vote to be taken in the Rebekah lodges.

DEC. 36. Statement.—A lady and her husband received the Rebekah degree in a subordinate lodge. She is married again and her present husband is not an Odd Fellow. She holds a certificate signed by the Noble Grand and Secretary, and under seal of the lodge, certifying that she received the Rebekah degree in said lodge.

Question.—Is she eligible to membership in a Rebekah lodge on this certificate?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 37. Statement.—The Constitution of the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania, Art. XII, Sec. 3, says: "The term office in a Rebekah lodge shall be six months or twelve months, as the by-laws may determine." The result is that Rebekah lodges in Pennsylvania elect officers every six months in some places, while others elect their officers once a year. This law was approved by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania at its annual session in May, 1902.

Question.—Have the Rebekah lodges in Pennsylvania a right to elect their officers as above?

Answer.—Yes.

Statement.—The Constitution of the Rebekah Assembly of New Jersey, Art. III, Sec. 1, says: "The elective officers of this lodge, etc., shall serve for one year, etc." This forbids the Rebekah lodges in New Jersey from electing officers every six months. This was approved by the Grand Lodge of New Jersey at its annual session in November, 1905.

Question.—Has the Rebekah Assembly or the Grand Lodge a right to make such a law?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 38. Question.—Is there a law under which the Grand Lodge may grant power to the President of a Rebekah Assembly to restore charter after Grand Master has expelled lodge?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 39. Statement.—The following is a copy of approved decision No. 50, of Grand Sire Wright, at the 1906 session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge:

"No. 50. Question.—Is a solid gold jewel in the form of a five-pointed star in a circle with the emblem of the Rebekah degree on it, attached to a pink and green ribbon, sufficient regalia for a Past Noble Grand to wear in a Rebekah lodge, and to take part in its deliberations?

"Answer.—No."

The question has arisen whether the decision as above was rendered on account of the jewel not being in the form prescribed by law, or whether it is intended to mean that a Past Noble Grand is not permitted to wear a badge of pink and green in lieu of other regalia.

Section 25, of the Rebekah Code provides that the regalia for each Past Noble Grand shall be a collar, the same as the Noble Grand's in shape and colors, except that the lace and fringe shall be of gold instead of silver, etc. The same section further provides that sisters who are not officers or Past Noble Grands shall wear badges or collars of pink and green not exceeding three inches in width. See also Rebekah ritual, pages 30 and 31.

Question 1.—May a Past Noble Grand, who is not an officer, wear a badge of pink and green in lieu of other regalia?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—May a Past Noble Grand, who is not an officer, wear a badge of pink and green, with the jewel of a Past Noble Grand affixed thereto, in lieu of other regalia?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 40. Statement.—In a city where there are two subordinate lodges and one Rebekah lodge, one of the subordinate lodges desires to have another Rebekah lodge organized. The present Rebekah lodge refuses to grant permission, giving as its reason that one Rebekah lodge is sufficient for the town.

Question.—Can said subordinate lodge without permission of said Rebekah lodge petition by resolution under seal of the lodge for dispensation to institute another Rebekah lodge in said town?

Answer.—No, a subordinate lodge as such may not petition for dispensation to institute a Rebekah lodge. Qualified members may so petition. This petition should be in accordance with the local law governing the granting of dispensations.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT DECISION.

DEC. 41. Statement.—A canton met to elect canton officers and field officers and opened the poll for Department Commander only and kept the poll open for two hours, many coming in and going out during recess and drill, when the Commandant called the canton to order, and with ballot box in hand, asked the question, "Have all voted, if so, I declare the ballot closed," gave the ballot box and votes to the tellers, who then canvassed the vote and announced a result of 53 votes for Department Commander, with only 31 chevaliers in the hall. The Commandant again opened the poll for canton and field officers other than Department Commander with 31 chevaliers in the hall and with 31 votes, the highest number of votes cast outside of the vote for Department Commander.

Question.—Was that vote cast for Department Commander legal?

Answer.—No.

And to that end to dedicate the occasion to appropriate exercises and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold blessings to the members of the Rebekah Degree, individually and collectively.

GROWTH OF THE ORDER IN 1906.

	1905.	1906.	Gain.
Lodge members .....	1,278,065	1,362,310	84,245
Encampment members .....	185,370	193,846	8,476
Patriarch Militant .....	18,465	20,001	1,536
Rebekah members, sisters.....	322,647	347,223	24,576

Total number of persons belonging to the Order, being the members of the subordinate lodges and sisters of the Rebekah lodges, December 31, 1906, 1,709,533.

Total amount expended for relief by the Order for 1906, $5,005,753.37, an increase over 1905, of $325,365.63.

RECEIPTS OF LODGES, ENCAMPMENTS, AND REBEKAH LODGES FOR 1906.

The total receipts of subordinate lodges, subordinate encampments, and Rebekah lodges for 1906, $15,168,307.90, an increase over the previous year of $1,106,757.21.

ENCAMPMENT BRANCH.

From letters I have been receiving from the Grand Officers of the Grand Encampments of our Order, as well as from official reports, it is ascertained that the Encampment branch is generally prosperous. In my opinion it would be more so if its work was devoted to the social side of our fraternity. This branch should not in my opinion pay benefits, thus duplicating the work of the subordinate lodge. The lessons taught in the encampment should be received by a large majority of the members of our subordinate lodges.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

It is gratifying indeed that the Patriarchs Militant branch of our Order shows a net gain of 1,536 for 1906. The total membership of this branch of our Order, December 31, 1906, was 20,001. I am of the opinion that the gain for 1907 will be even larger than for 1906. Also see Exhibit "A" for report of M. A. Raney, General Commanding.

THE HOMES OF OUR ORDER.

Nothing has done more to call attention of good people to the real worth of our Order than the building and maintaining of Homes for the helpless orphan children of deceased members and Homes for the aged and indigent of our Fraternity. There are 42 Homes and 2,379 members of these Homes. The present value of the Homes, $2,561,135.43. The cost of maintenance for 1906 was $397,066.27. Eleven Jurisdictions are now raising funds for the erection of Homes, and it is learned in an indirect way that there are some Homes in the Foreign Jurisdictions that have as yet not reported.

ADDITIONAL GRAND REPRESENTATIVES.

It is gratifying that we have this session five additional Grand Representatives, two from the new Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, one from the Grand Encampment of Manitoba, one from the Grand Encampment of South Dakota, and one from the Grand Encampment of Maritime Provinces. This emphasizes that the Order is indeed growing.

A RECOMMENDATION.

In my opinion we should be in closer fraternal touch with the European Grand Lodges and the Grand Lodge of Australasia. Each of these Grand Lodges should send one Grand Representative to attend the annual communication of The Sovereign Grand Lodge. The railroad and steamboat fare should be paid by this Grand Body and the Jurisdictions should provide for the traveling expenses of their representatives. Few are our Grand Representatives whose Jurisdictions pay into the treasury of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in per capita tax an amount equal to their mileage and per diem. I see no reason why we should not contribute annually even more liberally, distance considered, to defraying the expenses of the representatives from the Foreign Jurisdictions. It is true we receive no profit from sale of supplies for Foreign Jurisdictions, but it is equally true that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is an American institution in its origin, and in my opinion an obligation rests upon us to keep in closer touch with the Order the world over than heretofore. We paid for years out of our treasury $1,000 per annum for a foreign representative, and that was money wisely expended. This expense having been discontinued, a like amount, or even more, might well be expended annually in helping to secure one representative at our annual sessions for each of the Foreign Jurisdictions working under charters from this Body. I would recommend that such representatives be given full privileges with our representatives, including the right to vote.

TRANSPORTATION.

It is to be regretted, and indeed inexplicable, that the railroads refuse to grant our Order this year a three-cent rate for the round trip, as granted in previous years, when at the present time they are of their own volition giving summer excursions to the Atlantic seaboard for about one cent a mile each way and making a like rate to points in the mountains west of us. Bro. Goodwin has put forth every effort in his power to secure the same rate as heretofore, but without avail.

THE PRESS OF OUR FRATERNITY.

With a view to bringing about a more united effort toward the instruction of our members in Odd Fellowship, I have written seven letters for publication in the various papers devoted to the interests of our Order. The editors of these papers have cheerfully published the letters and rendered valued assistance. We need the powerful influence of a friendly press, and in order to be more successful these papers must have the encouragement of the members of our Order. I wish to thank all the editors of our Fraternity for their helpful assistance in the advancement of Odd Fellowship in all of its branches, during the past year.

ALLOWANCE FOR OFFICE EXPENSES OF GRAND SIRE.

The allowance for the annual expenses of the office of Grand Sire is inadequate and should be increased to not less than $3,000. No great corporation would embarrass its chief executive officer by an insufficient allowance for necessary office expenses and neither should this great Fraternity embarrass the Grand Sire by an allowance so meager that in order to do the work of his office efficiently he must give not only his time, but of his private funds as well. A Grand Sire should maintain an office with sufficient help. In addition he should visit as many meetings of Grand Bodies as possible and without expense to said Grand Bodies. He should not only take care of the work that comes to his office, but should keep in close touch with the subordinate Grand Bodies and the lodges and encampments under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge. In other words, he should be an active executive officer, ever ready to assist in the building up of our great Fraternity and always be familiar with what is going on in all parts of the world where Odd Fellowship is introduced. The Sovereign Grand Lodge can well afford this additional expense, and in my opinion it is not only the right thing to do, but good business policy as well.

IN CONCLUSION.

I fully appreciate the honor of having been chosen Grand Sire of this Sovereign Grand Lodge, and I am thankful indeed to you for having conferred this great distinction upon me. I have also realized from the very beginning of my term the great responsibility of the office as well as the exceptional opportunity to be of service to my fellowmen. The success of the past year has been made possible by the loyalty and general assistance of you, my brothers, and also the assistance of the Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs, District Deputy Grand Sires, the Grand Sires of Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Australasia and Sweden; also the prompt assistance of the Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes. I wish to specially thank Bro. Goodwin, our Grand Secretary. He has promptly assisted in every way possible, and it has made the work of the office very pleasant.

With full confidence in the continued success of our Order, and with the hope that this our eighty-third annual communication may be a most pleasant one, I am

Cordially and fraternally yours,

E. S. CONWAY,
Grand Sire."

WHAT WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP.

The following resolutions, No. 33, offered by Grand Representative Stocker, of Washington, were adopted:

“Resolved, That a member of the Order in possession of an Official Certificate or Visiting Card changing his residence from the territorial jurisdiction of his Lodge or Encampment to the territorial jurisdiction of another, and desiring to unite with a Lodge or Encampment at his new place of residence, upon making application for membership, accompanied by his Official Certificate or Visiting Card, showing his dues paid in advance, and being elected as provided by local law [and official notice being sent] to his Lodge or Encampment, said Lodge or Encampment shall, unless charges are pending against him, without ballot and without fee, issue a Transfer Certificate and send the same, at once, to the Secretary or Scribe sending for the same; and upon receipt of the Transfer Certificate, the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of his new Lodge or Encampment without the payment of any additional fee; Provided that, if a physician's certificate is required, he must pay the expense of the same.

"The issuing of a Transfer Certificate shall sever membership in the Lodge or Encampment issuing it; Provided that, if the member becomes sick or disabled, or should die, within four weeks of its date and before completing his membership by signing the Constitution of his new Lodge or Encampment, then said Transfer Certificate shall be cancelled and said member shall retain his beneficial standing in his old Lodge or Encampment, the same as though no Transfer Certificate had been issued.

"Provided further, That a brother desiring to receive the advantage of the preceding proviso must pay his dues four weeks in advance of the date of his Transfer Certificate.

"The provisions hereof, except those relating to benefits, shall apply to Rebekah Lodges the same as to Subordinate Lodges and Encampments.

"Be it further Resolved, That the resolution on page 761, Journal 1904, known as the New Transfer Law, and the amendments thereto on pages 778 and 784, Journal 1906, be and the same are hereby repealed."

The following was added to the Telegraph Cipher and Key:

"Rock—A member of our lodge is in your city needing assistance. His name and address are ....."

The amendment making it possible to install an officer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, who is unable to be present at the session on account of illness, was unanimously adopted. Such an officer may now be installed after adjournment of the session.

The amendment fixing the age of admission at eighteen instead of twenty-one years was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

The Committee on Judiciary and the Sovereign Grand Lodge approved every decision of the Grand Sire just as he made them except No. 12, which was slightly modified. This is an exceptional honor to Grand Sire Conway. It is very rare, indeed, that every decision of a Grand Sire is approved. All of his recommendations were also approved.

A resolution was adopted permitting the Vice Grand of a Rebekah lodge to communicate the annual traveling password to a member visiting from another jurisdiction when found upon examination in the ante-room to be in possession of the proper credentials and entitled to admission.

The Grand Lodge of California used about $33,000 of the funds contributed to assist lodges outside of San Francisco in rebuilding their buildings that had been destroyed by the earthquake and not by fire. Permission was given the Grand Lodge of California to use these funds to the above extent upon asking for and receiving the permission of the various Grand Bodies contributing toward the relief. About $50,000 will be unused and will be returned to the jurisdictions pro rata even if consent is given to use the entire $33,000. The total amount contributed by the Order for the relief of California was $216,714.49. Total amount expended $157,921.83.

The Special Commission, consisting of Past Grand Sire Pinkerton and Grand Representatives Alexander and Fuller of Massachusetts, appointed at the session of 1906 to revise the Subordinate Lodge Ritual, reported. The report of this Commission was referred to a Special Committee of Fifteen, of which Grand Representative John B. Cockrum, of Indiana, was chairman. After careful examination by this Special Committee of Fifteen, a unanimous report was made to the Sovereign Grand Lodge approving the work of the Special Commission. The Sovereign Grand Lodge adopted the report of the Special Committee by a unanimous vote. It was also unanimously decided to exchange the rituals, ritual for ritual, without cost, to the number of four. It was also provided that hereafter, if a lodge so desires, it may own six rituals instead of four. If a lodge now has four rituals it can exchange them without cost; and if it wishes two additional rituals they can be obtained by paying the usual price. The new ritual is a masterpiece. It is a credit to any order. It will be well printed and well bound.

All pending legislation pertaining to the Patriarchs Militant was, on motion of Grand Representative M. A. Raney of Iowa, indefinitely postponed. This leaves this Branch of the Order as it has been for a number of years. It is now making substantial progress. Gen. M. A. Raney was unanimously re-elected General Commanding for another term of three years.

Denver, the one-mile high convention city, was selected by a unanimous vote as the meeting place for the Eighty-fourth Annual Communication, to be held in September, 1908. A most cordial invitation was extended to the Sovereign Grand Lodge by the Chicago Association of Commerce to hold the 1908 session in Chicago. Inasmuch, however, as this Grand Lodge had not extended an invitation to the Sovereign Grand Lodge to meet in Illinois, your Grand Representatives did not feel authorized in making an effort to have the meeting come to Chicago.

It was decided that, where it is the wish of the family of a deceased brother, the funeral ceremony adopted at the session of 1874 may be used instead of the one now in general use.

The amendment excluding from membership not only saloonkeepers and bartenders, but all dealers in liquors, was defeated, as it takes a three-fourths majority. But thirty votes were needed. Grand Representative J. A. Lucas prepared another similar amendment, which will be acted upon in 1908.

Past Grand Sire Alfred S. Pinkerton and Grand Representative Charles N. Alexander, both of Massachusetts, and Grand Representative Walter S. Wheeler, of Missouri, were appointed a committee to revise the encampment ritual. Brothers Pinkerton and Alexander were members of the committee that revised the subordinate lodge ritual.

The following resolution was adopted: "Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred a resolution providing that when a member in good standing in the Order dies and his funeral, at the request or desire of the family, is conducted without the funeral services of the Order, and independent of its ritual, and not by the Order, it is the duty of the lodge and encampment to which said member belongs at the time of his death to pay to his widow or personal representatives the funeral benefits, as provided by the by-laws of said lodge, and that it shall be unlawful for any lodge, by by-laws or otherwise, to refuse the payment of such benefits—because such member was not buried by the Order, or in accordance with its ritual—would respectfully report that they have duly considered said matter and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it shall be and is unlawful for any lodge to make the payment of its funeral benefits depend on the burial of the member by the Order or the use of the burial service as provided by the Order. In all cases where the member is in good standing at the time of his death and entitled to funeral benefits under the law of the Order, the same shall be paid as herein provided, whether [or not] buried by the Order, or the ritual and funeral service as provided by the Order is used at his funeral or burial."

Lieut.-Col. Henry A. Stone, P. G. M., Major E. F. Godfrey, Major Oscar A. Malmgren, Col. P. A. Anderson and Col. Joseph Warnecke, of Illinois, were among those endorsed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge to receive the Grand Decoration of Chivalry.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the indiscriminate and promiscuous advertisement by public display, newspaper or catalogue, of paraphernalia necessary and useful in conferring degrees in all branches of the Order, by agents, salesmen, jobbers or manufacturers thereof, is detrimental to the best interests of the Order, and that it is the sense of this Sovereign Body that the same be disapproved and discontinued whenever and wherever practicable."

Grand Representative Frank C. Goudy, of Colorado, Chairman of the Committee on Courtesies Extended, presented a most complete report of that committee, which was adopted, extending the unanimous thanks of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to all who had in any way assisted in making the session not only a most delightful one, but a most successful one as well.

IN CONCLUSION.

To be a member of the Sovereign Grand Lodge is a great honor and may well be prized by any member of our Order. To have been elected representatives from this Grand Lodge is an especially great honor, as Illinois is one of the foremost Jurisdictions. It has been our aim to represent you to the very best of our ability. How well we have succeeded we leave that for you to decide. We wish to express to you our thanks for the great honor conferred upon us, and assure the members of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois that when it is possible for us to do so we shall be delighted to assist as best we can in the great work of our Order.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

W. R. Humphrey

DOCUMENT NO. 4.

WHEREAS, The funds of our Subordinate Lodges are Trust Funds for the purpose of protecting our widows and orphans. and relieving our members when in distress; and

WHEREAS, Every possible safeguard should be thrown around these funds, in order that they may be preserved for the purpose for which they were contributed; therefore, be it

The Finance Committee shall, not later than the first day of May and November of each year, send a written report of their audit and inspection of the accounts, books, securities, bonds, funds and other property in the hands of the Treasurer, to the Grand Master, and shall give a detailed statement of the securities, bonds and funds, and the manner in which they inspected the securities, bonds and funds, and verify the cash on hand reported by the Treasurer.

DOCUMENT NO. 5.

Believing that the laws of the Order never contemplated the formation by the representatives of Subordinate Lodges of more than one central organization in any one city for the purpose of general relief work; and

WHEREAS, In the City of Chicago there are at the present time two such central organizations, known respectively as the Odd Fellows' Board of Relief and the Illinois Odd Fellows' League, each performing in its own way an almost similar line of work, resulting in added tax on those Subordinate Lodges that feel called upon to contribute to the maintenance of both, and deterring other Lodges from contributing to either organization because they can not contribute to both, and also resulting in confusion in the minds of the public and some of our own membership;

Resolved, That the Grand Master be requested to use his best endeavors to effect a consolidation of the two organizations.

O. O. F. Code for 1906, and substituting the word "thirty" therefor in both instances, so as to read when amended:

"In case of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge there shall be allowed not less than twenty dollars as a funeral benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled thereto, and such further sum as may be actually incurred under the laws of the Order for funeral expenses, not less than thirty dollars, unless shared by another society; liabilities for funeral expenses shall be limited to thirty dollars unless the Lodge, by By-Law, assume liabilities for a larger amount; provided, however, the Lodge may, with the written consent of the funeral beneficiaries, expend the funeral benefits toward the funeral expenses. The beneficiaries of the funeral benefit are the widow, orphans (under the age of 21 years, members of and residing with the family of the deceased), or the dependent relatives of the deceased, or relatives upon whom the deceased was dependent at the time of death. In the event of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge not leaving surviving him any of the above-named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving either no estate or insufficient estate to pay the expenses of the funeral, the Lodge shall pay the funeral expenses, not to exceed the combined funeral benefits and expenses provided by the By-Laws of this Lodge.

DOCUMENT NO. 8.

WHEREAS, On April 11, 1907, Brother Max Davis, P.G., Lodge Deputy Grand Master, received a letter from Brother Fred B. Merrills, Grand Master, in which he threatened to revoke the charter of Washington Lodge, No. 665, I. O. O. F., and charged it with "manufacturing testimony", "trifling with the Grand Master's office", and "acting in bad faith"; and directly and by inference made other charges, concluding with the flattering statement that said Lodge is a disgrace to our noble Order; and

WHEREAS, All charges made and inferences suggested in said letter are absolutely without foundation; and

WHEREAS, Such statements do a grievous wrong to Washington Lodge, condemning it unheard, and apparently wholly on ex-parte statements; and

WHEREAS, It is due to Washington Lodge to be given an opportunity to be vindicated; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the incoming Grand Master be authorized and directed to investigate the matter, and make such finding as may seem just and right to him.

Bro. George W. Young, of 392, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of Order. [See 21st report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 9.

WHEREAS, The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois extends to every county in said State, and is recognized by the people of the State of Illinois as one of the great moral and civil forces among the citizenship of the State; and

WHEREAS, The broad catholic democracy of the Order is antagonistic to rings, cliques, and combinations in the administration of the official affairs of the Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Grand Lodge of Illinois in regular annual session assembled, That it is the sense of this Grand Lodge that the Grand Master, in making his appointments, should observe the principle of rotation and distribution in selecting his official assistants and committees, so that every portion of the State should be recognized so far as possible. That is, in the appointments of Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, Grand Herald, and the members of the various committees provided for by the Constitution and By-Laws of this Grand Lodge, that he observe the territorial location for equitable distribution of such appointees.

That in the appointment and selection of members of the Board of Directors and members of the Advisory Board of the Orphans' Home, and members of the Board of Trustees and Advisory Board of the Old Folks' Home, no member thereof be allowed to succeed himself or herself on either of said boards, but that a new brother or sister be appointed each year from different parts of the State.

And that this rule also be observed in the selection of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee; the retiring member each year on said Committee step down and out and a new brother be appointed in his stead.

Grand Master Merrills presented the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 19th report of that committee.]

Supplementary Report of the Grand Master.

Since preparing the copy for the Grand Master's report I have signed a dispensation authorizing the institution of a new Lodge in Chicago to work in the Italian language. This Lodge is to be hailed as G. Carducci Lodge, No. 948, I. O. O. F. I commissioned Brother F. D. P. Snelling, Grand Senior Warden, as the Special Deputy to institute this Lodge. Brother Snelling reports that he instituted the Lodge on the night of November 16th, with eight charter members who were present. The Lodge already has a list of thirty-two candidates who have paid the initiation and degree fees in full. These candidates will receive the degrees on Monday night, November 25th.

The matter of instituting this Lodge received very careful consideration by myself, and I took the advice of a number of brethren in Chicago before the granting of the petition. I recommend that a charter be granted to them, authorizing them to work and keep their records in the Italian language.

Faternally submitted.

FRED B. MERRILLS.

Rep. G. I. Rawson, of 931, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Legislation. [See 17th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 11.

WHEREAS, A number of Rebekah Lodges, especially in the rural district, have By-Laws that are in various ways in conflict with the Constitution of the Rebekah Assembly, some of them by having their initiation fee less than $1.00, and others by paying sick and death benefits, we believe it to be to the best interest of the Order that all Rebekah Lodge by-laws be sent to the Judiciary Committee by a certain date; therefore, be it

Resolved, by this Grand Lodge, That all Rebekah Lodge by-laws not passed on April 1st, 1908, by the Judiciary Committee be declared void; and be it further

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be instructed to notify each Rebekah Lodge of this fact, and send them a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws up to date.

The following resolution, amending the Constitution for the Rebekah Assembly and adopted by that body, was submitted for approval, and was approved by vote of the Grand Lodge.

The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents a mile one way and $2.00 per diem; Provided, That Past Presidents, to be entitled to mileage and per diem, must have reached the honors of this Assembly and be residents of this jurisdiction."

Bro. F. B. Fellows, of 825, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Legislation. [See 12th report of that committee.]

WHEREAS, The official receipt and the stub thereof has no number by which it might be readily recognized, or any other similar means of recognition; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge instruct its Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge to take such steps at once as will cause said official receipts to be numbered with stubs to correspond, for the purpose of tracing, and such other safeguards as may appear to afford added protection.

In view of the fact that our Old Folks' Home at Mattoon is badly overcrowded, and entirely inadequate to accommodate the members of our Order who are entitled to its benefits; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge of Illinois be and is hereby authorized to levy a special assessment on the Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction, amounting to one dollar per capita, to be paid in four semiannual installments; and be it further

Resolved, That the money thus raised be used in the immediate construction of additional buildings for the accommodation of the Old Folks, costing approximately $100,000.00, one hundred thousand dollars, the balance of this amount to be paid by the Grand Lodge, in such yearly amounts as shall be recommended by the Finance Committee.

Total, $339.52

Waiving all irregularities and demands for further or other explanations in connection with the payment of the above amounts, at present:

Be it Resolved. That the statement "Allowed by the Grand Lodge" is too vague and indefinite. We want to know for what, and on what account, money is paid out by the Grand Treasurer, this in addition to the name of the person to whom paid.

And in all future reports of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, we demand that their reports show specifically the foregoing facts.

The Committee on Finance presented their fifth and sixth reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Both adopted Wednesday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 16.

Fifth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report recommending appropriations for the Orphans' Home as follows:

Maintenance, $20,000.00, also such amount as may be decided on by the Grand Lodge for purpose of erecting a building for heating plant. We further recommend that all donations and cash sales be added to the Maintenance Fund.

Sixth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the appropriations requested by the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home:

Maintenance.....	$14,000.00
Repairs.....	750.00
Cemetery Fund.....	100.00
Remodeling and addition to frame building.....	2,000.00
Total.....	$16,850.00

Also, the appropriation which might be required for new building if Grand Lodge vote same.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Printing presented their first and second reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Both adopted Wednesday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 18.

First report, by Bro. John R. Camp, of No. 322.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of printing for the Grand Lodge:

For printing the Grand Lodge Journal, the Officers' Reports, the Daily Journal, and the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, we received bids from the Illinois State Journal Co. and the Illinois State Register Co., both of Springfield; and for printing stationery and supplies bids were received from the above named firms and also from the Edw. F. Hartmann Co., also of Springfield.

Estimating the Officers' Reports and the Grand Lodge Journal to be of the same size as in 1906, the bids were as follows:

State Journal.....	$2 00
State Register.....	2 50

For the Officers' Reports—price per page:

State Journal.....	$1 40
State Register.....	1 50

For Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals—price per page:

State Journal.....	$1 40
State Register .....	2 00

For the Daily Journal, per page:

State Journal.....	$2 50
State Register .....	2 25

Inasmuch as the four jobs listed above, because of the amount of matter of the same kind used in more than one of them, must be printed at the same place, and as the aggregate of bids of the Illinois State Journal Co. was the lowest, the work was awarded to that firm.

The contract for the Grand Lodge Journal provides for paper covers, similar to those of the Journal of the last few years. The contractors have agreed, if so authorized by the Grand Lodge, to bind the books in heavy beveled boards, cloth covered, with gold stamp on back and side, at an additional cost of 12 cents per copy. This binding would be similar to that used on the Grand Lodge Journal a few years ago. Your committee would respectfully recommend the cloth binding, as it makes a much more substantial book.

The bid of the Illinois State Journal Co. for printing stationery and supplies was also the best, and this work was also awarded to that firm.

Respectfully submitted.

CHARLES W. KEISER,
CHARLES MCINTOSH.

Second report, by Bro. Charles W. Keiser, of No. 240.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Mrs. Grace E. Birkett, stenographer.... $17.50

N. C. Nason, proofreader. .... 25.00

John R. Camp, minute clerk..... 25.00

We respectfully recommend that the above amounts be allowed.

Signed by the Committee.

For the information of brothers desiring to receive instruction in the Work of the Subordinate Lodge during the session, Bro. H. A. Stone, P.G.M., Assistant Chief of Instructors, reported a list of names of brothers authorized to impart such instruction. These names, with others, may be found in the list given in the Appendix to this Journal.

The Committee on Legislation presented their first, second and third reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [These reports were all adopted Wednesday morning, the first report being amended by inserting in the fifth line of the second paragraph of the resolution, after the word "name," the words "the seal of the Lodge being changed to correspond with the new name."]

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report that it has given due consideration to that part of the Grand Master's Report on page 38 headed, "Change of Name," and would recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That when a Lodge wishes to change its name, on request in writing by ten members of the Lodge, the Noble Grand shall direct the Secretary to send written notice under the seal of the Lodge to all the members of the Lodge, that the question of changing the name of the Lodge will be considered at a stated meeting. Notice to be mailed at least ten days before the meeting at which the question is to be considered.

If two-thirds of the members present vote for the change of name, the Noble Grand shall direct the Secretary to report such vote and the name selected, under the seal of the Lodge, to the Grand Master, who, in his discretion, may issue a dispensation to such Lodge permitting it to use the new name, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge at its next regular session.

Upon approval by the Grand Lodge, the Lodge shall forward its charter to the Grand Secretary, to have such name properly indorsed upon its charter.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows: Amend the fourth (4th) section of the 5th report of the Committee on Legislation in reference to the investment of the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, being Document No. 53, on page 357 of the Journal of Proceedings of this Grand Lodge, A. the making of any such loan, or the purchase of any such mortgage. No greater sum shall be loaned in any case than forty per cent of the conservative value of the property, land and buildings, and in no event shall a sum greater than a conservative value of the land exclusive of buildings be loaned. In all cases of loans on real estate, Insurance to the full insurable value of the buildings thereon shall be procured, and net loss, if any, payable to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, as its interest may appear."

DOCUMENT NO. 22.

Third report, by Bro. J. J. Crowder, of No. 21.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

We have considered the recommendation of the Grand Master concerning Change of Venue (page 93, in Grand Master's Report), and beg leave to recommend that Section 19 of Article VII of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges be stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

Section 19. If, at any time before passing upon the objected evidence by the Noble Grand, the accused, or three members of a Lodge in which charges may be preferred against a member, are of the opinion that the accused will not receive an impartial trial at the hands of the Lodge, and present such opinion in writing, such paper, together with such evidence as may be desired bearing upon the question of prejudice in the Lodge, shall be forwarded to the Grand Master. The filing of such petition shall suspend all proceedings until such request for a change of venue is passed upon by the Grand Master. If such request be granted, a record of all proceedings had therein up to such time shall be transmitted at once to the Lodge to which the venue is changed. Such Lodge shall proceed with the case from that time in the same manner as if such case had originated therein.

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented their fourth report, which was entered on the Journal for consideration at the next annual session.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

We have given the recommendation of the Grand Master in reference to printing for the Homes as appears on pages 95-96, due consideration, and recommend that the following be added to Section 8 of Article VI of the Constitution:

The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the reports of the Grand Officers, the Proceedings of the Annual Session of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contracts for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they have offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts, as being correct. Provided, all stationery and blanks for the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home may be printed under the direction of the Boards of the respective Homes.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, and, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, was declared closed accordingly.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 20.

9 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Merrills in the chair.

Present—All the Grand Officers, with a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Daily Journal of yesterday's proceedings was received and distributed.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows:

To fill vacancies in the Committee on Legislation—Bros. J. E. Taylor, of No. 118; F. B. Fellows, of No. 825.

To fill vacancies in the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem—Bros. A. W. Weldon, of No. 67; Robert Walton, of No. 717; C. M. Eagleton, of No. 333.

The Grand Secretary exhibited at the desk a picture of Bro. John Young, of Bushnell Lodge, No. 322, McDonough Encampment, No. 79, and Victor Rebekah Lodge, No. 385. Bro. Young is in his 98th year, and was made an Odd Fellow in Germania Lodge, No. 13, of New York City, Dec. 26, 1834—seventy-three years ago. He is said to be the oldest Odd Fellow in the world.

Bro. H. J. Reeziger, of No. 488, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 24th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 24.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

In connection with the resolution which follows, there is herewith presented, for your kind consideration, a detailed account of the work done by the Odd Fellows' Board of Relief of Chicago, as illustrative of its general scope and plan of organization:—

REPORT OF THE ODD FELLOWS' BOARD OF RELIEF OF CHICAGO.

MEETING: FIRST WEDNESDAY OF EACH MONTH IN PARLORS
OF ATLAS LODGE, 261, 17TH FLOOR MASONIC TEMPLE, CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, SEPTEMBER 15, 1907.

To the Lodges of Cook County:—

It has been the custom of this Board to render to the lodges, from time to time, an account of its doings. For the past eleven years we have been engaged as a general relief committee for this county, to assist sojourning and unaffiliated brothers who are in need of the helping hand of their fellow members. In so doing we have not assumed upon the province of the subordinate lodge. The line of demarkation, however, is not always clear, and in some cases where the waiting for the meeting of a lodge might cause inconvenience and hardship, we, being easily accessible, have undertaken the task usually allotted to a lodge. Thus we have during the past year buried two brothers from other jurisdictions.

Many brothers have been relieved. Meals and lodging have been supplied at the St. Charles Hotel, pursuant to an arrangement we have with that house. Where cash money was advanced to relieve a brother, the transaction was considered as a loan. No security has been required or interest charged. The plighted faith of a brother's promise has amply sufficed. Seldom has this promise been broken. The ties of brotherhood, the sense of fraternal honor, the love and respect one bears to his own lodge, make this promise stronger. The untainted love of an Odd Fellow is one hundred per cent. of humanity.

The following members of other jurisdictions were buried in the Odd Fellows' plat at Rosehill Cemetery: Jacob Bemh, Northern Light Lodge, No. 121, Minnesota; died at Alexian Bros. Hospital. We quote from a letter received from the Secretary of that lodge: "Yours of the 26th inst. received. Mere words can not express our feelings, and the members of Northern Light Lodge, No. 121, I.O.O.F., at its meeting last evening voted you and the Odd Fellows' Board of Relief of Chicago a unanimous vote of thanks for the arrangements you made in behalf of the lodge for Bro. Bemh. It is such brotherly acts as yours that endear the Order to all those who are fortunate enough to be within its borders. Remember St. Paul in September, and do not forget 121 in Minneapolis."

Alfred H. McKay, Fort Lodge, No. 50, Norwood, Mass.; died at County Hospital. Buried at Rosehill in Odd Fellows' plat. He was on his way from Salt Lake City to Ireland. He died as the result of violent injuries, supposed to have been caused by hold-up men who had waylaid and robbed him. The case is pathetic and explains his presence in a county institution.

Among many applications received, members of the following lodges have been relieved:—

Frontier Lodge, 25, Kas.; Brockton Lodge, 40, Mass.; Pasadena Lodge, 24, Calif.; Shelton Lodge, 62, Wash.; Graham Lodge, 690, Penn.; West Waterloo Lodge, 716, Iowa; Oklahoma Lodge, 2, Okla.; Ft. Snelling Lodge, 163, Minn.; Monticello Lodge, 117, Ind.; Mt. Zion Lodge, 51, Ark.; Pride of Egypt Lodge, 931, Ill.; Golden Rule Lodge, 21, D. C.; Utopian Lodge, 398, Mich.; Humbolt Lodge, 266, Wis.; Monticello Lodge, 107, Ind.; Unity Lodge, 407, Mich.; St. Anne Lodge, 820, Ill., Eldorado Lodge, 8, Calif.; Alaska Lodge, 1, Alaska; Columbus Lodge, 215, Mich.; Rialto Lodge, 161, New Jersey; West Moreland Lodge, 840, Pa.; Phoenix Lodge, 233, Ohio; Gideon Lodge, 785, N. Y.; San Pablo Lodge, 43, Calif.; Westminster Lodge, 27, R. I.; Green Valley Lodge, 245, Wis.; Marietta Lodge, 26, Wis.; Magdalia Lodge, 991, Pa.; Principle Lodge, 76, Ill.; Collingwood Lodge, 54, Ontario; America Lodge, 385, Col.; Lansdowne Lodge, 9, Quebec; Hohenwold Lodge, 293, Tenn.; Logan Lodge, 848, Ohio; Emanuel Lodge, 208, N. Y.; Ludlow Lodge, 104, Pa.; Westphalia Lodge, 518, N. Y.

Many cases of sickness of transient brothers have been referred to the nearest resident lodge.

Whenever possible, we have obtained employment when applied for. Inasmuch as there are many employment agencies in this city, our field of endeavor in this respect is necessarily limited. We should, however, be very glad to receive the names of employers that are members of the Order, authorizing us to send them worthy applicants. In this, as in all other things, we seek the constant aid and advice of members of the Order. In our representative capacity, we take the broad ground that we are entitled to their good will and material aid. Were it not so, how could we in turn extend it to others?

We have received numerous inquiries from relatives and friends of brothers and sisters who have apparently, at one time or another, amid the lights and shadows of a great city, lost themselves among us. With the information at hand, we have, whenever possible, located the lost ones and restored them to their friends. If "absence makes the heart grow fonder," this may suggest a reason for their straying from home, family and friends.

Whenever, with the means at our command, consistent with the rules of transportation companies, we have found it possible to assist brothers and sisters to their homes outside of our city, our secretary has willingly and gladly devoted his time and efforts to their assistance.

We again invite attention to our urgent call to the lodges to induce each representative to attend our regular stated meetings, to the end that we may receive their advice and cooperation in the great work in which we are engaged. Surely one meeting in each month, at a place easily accessible to all transportation lines, ought not to result in hardship or even inconvenience to the representative. We earnestly hope our friendly call will be answered by large attendance.

In conclusion, permit us to state that, as we are working for the good of the Order, ours is a labor of love. Our compensation lies in the satisfaction of obeying the command enjoined upon every brother and sister to relieve the distressed. The grateful acknowledgments received, the many tenders of aid on the part of lodges and individual brothers, their cooperation and advice, have, these many years, sustained us in our work. Our united efforts in this behalf will in the future, as in the past, insure continuance of harmonious action in behalf of the suffering in pursuing constantly the work in which we are engaged.

Respectfully submitted, in F. L. and T.

H. J. REEZIGER,
President.

WHEREAS, The Odd Fellows' Board of Relief of Chicago, composed of representatives of lodges in Cook County, has been engaged for the past eleven years as a General Relief Committee in Cook County, administering relief to brothers of other jurisdictions who may be temporarily in need of assistance from the Order, thus in all respects responding to the command enjoined upon us as members of the Order, and fulfilling the solemn obligations of an Odd Fellow, working along well-trodden paths of duty in the enviable light of fraternalism; elevating the mind to high ideals, that has given to this Order a noble prestige far beyond the most cherished ambitions of its humble founders, so molding and shaping its lines of action as to command the respect worthy of Odd Fellows;

Resolved, That the Odd Fellows' Board of Relief of Chicago is entitled to the respect and confidence of the members of the Order, and we cheerfully recommend this organization to the support and assistance of the lodges of Cook County; no legal liability to exist in this behalf on the part of this Grand Lodge or the subordinate lodges.

"In case of the death of a beneficiary of this Lodge there shall be allowed not less than twenty dollars as a funeral benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled thereto, and such further sum as may be actually incurred under the laws of the Order for funeral expenses, not less than forty dollars, unless shared by another society; liabilities for funeral expenses shall be limited to forty dollars unless the Lodge, by by-laws, assume liabilities for a larger amount. Provided, however, the Lodge may, with the written consent of the funeral beneficiaries, expend the funeral benefits toward the funeral expenses.

"In the event of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge not leaving surviving him any of the above named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving either no estate or insufficient estate to pay the expenses of the funeral, the lodge shall pay the funeral expenses, not to exceed the combined funeral benefits and expenses provided by the By-Laws of this Lodge."

DOCUMENT NO. 64.

WHEREAS, Several members of the Old Folks' Home are possessed of real estate or personal property varying in value from one hundred dollars ($100) upwards, which has been placed in the hands of his or her Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge or with individuals for safe keeping, with provision for the disposition of said property upon the death of said member, the lodge or individual frequently being the beneficiary, and applications for admission to the Home are frequently made by those who have some property, the income from which is insufficient to maintain them outside of the Home; and

WHEREAS, Said Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges or individuals do not pay the cost of maintenance of said member in the Home, said cost being paid by the members at large; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home be governed in such matters by the following rules:

First—Any applicant for membership in the Old Folks' Home possessing real estate, securities, stocks, money, or other personal property of value exceeding the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100), shall, if accepted as a member, be required to convey, assign, transfer and set over to the Board of Trustees of said Home all of said property in trust. to be held and managed by said Board of Trustees for a period of twelve (12) months, and if at or before the expiration of said period said member shall withdraw or be discharged from the Home, then and in that event the said Board of Trustees shall first deduct from said property held in trust the sum of One and One-half Dollars ($1.50) for each week that said member was a resident of the Home, and then reconvey and turn over the remainder of said property, including all increment, to said member.

Second—If, at the expiration of said period of twelve (12) months, said member desires to remain at the Home, said Board of Trustees shall proceed to convert all real estate, securities and personal property other than money, into cash, the proceeds of which, together with all money heretofore placed in trust with said Board, including all increment, shall be remitted to the Grand Secretary, and by him forwarded to the Grand Treasurer, who shall place it to the credit of said member; from which account the Board of Trustees shall, prior to the close of the fiscal year, draw such a sum as may have been agreed upon in contract for admission, provided, however, that said sum shall not be less than One and One-half Dollars ($1.50) per week, and place same in the maintenance fund of said Home, until said account is exhausted. The Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, draw from said account a sum not to exceed Four Dollars ($4.00) per month, to be given to said member as spending money, until said account is exhausted.

Third—Upon the death of a member of the Home having a credit balance in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, that officer shall, upon receiving notice of such death from the said Board of Trustees, transfer said balance to the Endowment Fund of said Home and enter it as a donation in the name of said deceased member.

A motion that the Grand Treasurer be instructed to begin paying mileage and per diem warrants at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon was ruled out of order.

During a lull in business, Past Grand Masters J Otis Humphrey and John J. Brown were called for, and each made a short speech.

Past Grand Master Kewley moved that the resolution, adopted at the annual session of 1906, that payment of mileage and per diem be withheld until after the close of the session be rescinded. The motion failed of adoption.

Bro. Young moved that the Grand Lodge now adjourn until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The motion did not prevail.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented their first, second, third and fourth reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [All of these reports were adopted Thursday afternoon.]

DOCUMENT NO. 65.

First report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report under the title of "Maintenance Fees", on pages 44 to 47 inclusive, would most respectfully report that we find as follows:

That Brother Phillipson, at or about the time he entered the Old Folks' Home, turned over to Shelby Lodge, No. 274, of which he is a member, the sum of five hundred dollars, and in consideration of the receipt of said money said Lodge agreed to pay his maintenance at the Home and seven per cent interest as long as the money lasted.

That said Lodge complied with this agreement in the payment of said interest and said maintenance until the law was changed by this Grand Lodge releasing Lodges from paying such maintenance.

That there is now in the hands of said Lodge a balance of said fund amounting to two hundred twenty-seven dollars and twenty-seven cents.

We would therefore recommend that Shelby Lodge, No. 274, be directed by this Grand Body to pay to Brother Phillipson, or to the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home upon his written order, the said sum of $227.27.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. P. ANDERSON,
DUNCAN McDOUGALL,
M. P. BERRY,

Second report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to whom was referred that part of the Report of the Grand Master entitled "Committee on Analysis and Distribution" [page 92], would most respectfully report that,

Inasmuch as it has been the custom heretofore of the Grand Master to select this committee in his own way, we would therefore recommend that no change be now made.

This committee, however, is of the opinion that there is no authority under our law for the appointment of Sisters of the Rebekah Degree on any committee of this Grand Lodge.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

DOCUMENT NO. 67.

Third report, by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows on that part of the Grand Master's Report referred to this committee, found on page 68, entitled "Advisory Boards."

We fully and heartily indorse all the good things said about the Sisters of these Advisory Boards and their assistance to the Trustees, and their enthusiasm in their works for the good of the Homes; but we can not approve his recommendation that the Advisory Boards should be abolished, and the Sisters given equal representation and equal authority with the Brothers on the Boards of both Institutions. This, we hold, would be in conflict with the Acts of Incorporation under the Laws, which make this Advisory Committee what the name implies, advisory, and, to give them further authority than the rights now accorded them by the laws of our Order and the rules of the Trustees of said Homes we hold the scheme is impracticable for want of power. We therefore recommend that the present laws on these Advisory Boards be not disturbed.

Signed by the Committee.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows on that part of the Grand Master's Report referred to this committee, found on page 53-54, entitled "Egyptian Lodge Case."

We beg to report and recommend that the action of the Grand Master be approved.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Legislation presented their thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [All of these reports were adopted Thursday afternoon—the fifteenth after amendment showing that it related to Document No. 63.]

DOCUMENT NO. 69.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. John E. Jennings, of No. 158.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

That we have carefully considered the resolution [Document No. 34] in reference to the matter of making the Committee on Libraries for our Homes a standing committee of this Grand Lodge. Inasmuch as the subject matter of this resolution, as contained in the Grand Master's Report, was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order, we respectfully recommend that this resolution be referred also to the Committee on the State of the Order, and ask to be relieved from further consideration of the same.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 70.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. Wm. M. Schuwerk, of No. 895.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

That we have carefully considered the proposed amendment to Section five (5) of Article II (2) of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, as found in Section 1028 (page 118) of the Illinois Code of 1906, by adding thereto certain interrogatories therein named to applications for membership, and consider that the law as it now stands is sufficient, and does not limit the questions to be asked by any Subordinate Lodge, and only prescribes the questions that must be asked. We therefore recommend that said proposed amendment be not adopted.

Signed by the Committee.

[See Document No. 37.]

DOCUMENT NO. 71.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Geo. W. Lacky, of No. 814.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

That we have carefully considered the resolution, and find that we have acted upon the subject matter of said resolution [Document No. 63] in a former report, and therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject.

Signed by the Committee.

A communication was received from the Rebekah Assembly, consisting of sundry amendments to the Constitution of that body and to the Constitution for Rebekah Lodges and other legislation, adopted by the Assembly, for which approval of the Grand Lodge is asked.

Heber Briscoe

GRAND CONDUCTOR.

Wm. H. Briscoe

On motion of Bro. Kewley, P.G.M., it was ordered that the communication be declared received and be included without reading in the Daily Journal of today, and that it be referred to the Committee on Rebekah Degree. [See second report of that committee.]

The proposed amendments are as follows:

DOCUMENT NO. 72.

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution of the Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, on page 284, Section 2397, is in conflict with Section 33 of the Rebekah Code; therefore, be it

Resolved, That said Section be amended by inserting in the fourth line, after the word "Grands," the following words: "and those who have heretofore received, or may hereafter receive, the Assembly Degree," so that said Section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 1. This Assembly shall consist of the following members: One Delegate (who must be a sister Past Noble Grand in good standing) from each Rebekah Lodge in the State, and all other Past Noble Grands, and those who have heretofore received or may hereafter receive the Assembly Degree, in good standing in Rebekah Lodges in this jurisdiction; provided, however, that each delegate or Past Noble Grand shall not be a member of this Assembly until in possession of the Assembly Degree. (S. J. XX, pp. 984, 1003.)

WHEREAS, The uniform Constitution adopted for the government of Rebekah Lodges, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, is in many respects in conflict with the General Law; therefore, be it

Resolved, That said Constitution be amended in the following respects, that is to say:

Repeal all of Section 1 of Article III, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, page 298, Section 2499, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new Section:

Section 1. The persons herein specified shall be eligible to membership in this Lodge, subject to the laws relative to residence of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and of the Grand Lodge of Illinois; and conditioned further that all female applicants shall be white women, who have attained the age of eighteen years (except that the said age limit shall not apply to applicants who are the wives of Odd Fellows), who believe in a supreme, intelligent Creator and Ruler of the Universe, and who are of good moral character:

Clause 1. All persons who have received the Rebekah Degree.

Clause 2. All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, daughters, sisters, and mothers. Also the daughters, sisters, and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of our Order.

Clause 3. All unmarried white women. (S. J. XXI, pp. 397, 427, 428.)

Amend Section 6 of Article III, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, page 304, Section 2545, by striking out the word "and" in the fourth line and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or"; so that the said Section, when amended, shall read as follows:

Section 6. An Odd Fellow petitioning for membership in this Rebekah Lodge shall present either an Official Certificate or Visiting Card in date from his Subordinate Lodge, or a certificate in the following form:

Hall of ..... Lodge No. .... I.O.O.F.

At ..... Illinois ..... 19....

To whom it may concern:

This certifies that Bro. .... is a member of this Lodge in good standing.

(SEAL) ..... Secretary.

(J. 1895, p. 201; as amended J. 1901, p. 304;
T-505)

Repeal Section 10 of Article III, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, page 306, Section 2557, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new Section:

Section 10. No petition shall be received from any rejected applicant unless the period of six months has intervened since the date when such applicant was last rejected. (Rebekah Code, Sec. 24. S. J. XIX, p. 845; See Code of 1906, Sec. 2558).

Repeal Section 5 of Article IV of the Rebekah Lodge Constitution, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, page 309, Section 2576, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new Section:

Section 5. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen annually at the election in December, and prior to the installation in office shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the Lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the Lodge, with such penalties and conditions as may be prescribed by law; such bond before being presented to the Lodge must be approved by a majority of the Trustees. It shall be this officer's duty to keep just and true accounts between the Lodge and its members, pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received; and to inform the Treasurer from time to time, and after the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid in the Treasury belongs to any special fund of the Lodge; and shall notify in writing all members who are at any time in arrears for dues and assessments accruing against him or her during the period of one full year (delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address); and after the expiration of twenty days next succeeding the giving of such notice, if said member's account is not settled in whole or in part sufficient to reduce his or her arrears to an amount less than the dues and assessments accruing against him or her during the period of one full year, shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. The Financial Secretary, prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues, and at the close of each semi-annual term shall make the Lodge a detailed report of the business of the office, and have the books written up for the Finance Committee; and meet said committee prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit the books and papers, and to aid them in the examination thereof; and at the first regular meeting of the new term, present the report to the Lodge, with the statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member; and shall make out the annual report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Article XII, Section 2, of this Constitution, and shall deliver it to the Secretary for record and forwarding to the Grand Lodge; and shall receive such compensation as the Lodge shall have fixed prior to installation.

Repeal Section 1 of Article VII, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Sections 2618 and 2619, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new section:

Section 1. The regalia and jewels for officers of Rebekah Lodges shall be as follows, to-wit:

Each collar shall not exceed three inches in width; each baldric shall not exceed three and one-half inches in width; and each jewel shall be of silver or silver-plated, circular in form, and one and one-half inches in diameter, with design hereinafter specified engraved or stamped on one side, and with the other side plain.

For the Conductor—Regalia, a baldric, same as Warden's in shape and colors, with row of silver lace around inner edge; jewel, with representation or figure of two wands, crossed, and underneath, the word "Safety."

For the Inside Guardian—Regalia, a baldric, same as Warden's; jewel, with representation or figure of a shield crossed by a spear, and underneath, the word "Prove."

For the Outside Guardian—Regalia, a baldric, same as Conductor's, except that the row of silver lace be on the outside, none in the center; jewel same as Inside Guardian's, except that the word shall be "Vigilance."

For the Chaplain—Regalia, a white baldric, with silver lace on each edge, the front to be ornamented with pink roses and green leaves.

For the Supporters to Noble Grand—Regalia, a baldric, with pink center and green edges, trimmed with two rows of silver lace.

Brothers who are not officers or Past Noble Grands shall wear the regalia they are entitled to wear in a Subordinate Lodge.

Sisters who are not officers or Past Noble Grands shall wear badges or collars of pink and green, not exceeding three inches in width.

Repeal Section 1 of Article VIII, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Section 2620, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new Section:

Section 1. Any member who shall become in arrears for the dues and assessments accruing against him or her during the period of one full year, shall, after twenty days' written notice from the Financial Secretary, delivered to him or her in person, if possible, otherwise by mail to his or her last known address, be declared by the Noble Grand dropped from membership, unless the Lodge shall otherwise direct, or unless, in the meantime, such member shall have made payments so as to reduce the amount to a sum less than the dues and assessments accruing during one full year.

Amend Section 2 of Article X, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Section 2678, by inserting the word "ball" between the words "upon" and "ballot" in the second line, so that said Section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 2. A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by vote of a majority upon ball ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over until the next regular meeting for final action; except that when the applicant has left the vicinity of the Lodge, or it is his or her known purpose to leave before the next regular meeting, or to join in a petition for a new Lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

Amend Section 3 of Article X, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Section 2682, by inserting after the word "issued", in the first line, the words "to members who have been dropped for non-payment of dues"; also by inserting after the word "grant" in the fourteenth line the words "any member"; also by striking out the second word of the fifteenth line and inserting in lieu thereof the word "such" and also striking out all of said section following the word "books" in the fifteenth line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "may tender a written resignation of membership; he or she shall then be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate under the seal of the Lodge certifying that he or she has resigned membership, as evidence of his or her good standing at that time"; so that said Section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 3. Dismissal certificates shall be issued to members who have been dropped for non-payment of dues on the payment of one dollar. Visiting cards shall be granted upon request, upon the payment of the price of the card and the dues to the expiration thereof. No vote is necessary to grant a visiting card or a dismissal certificate. Should objections in either case be made for cause, the ground thereof shall be stated, and it shall suspend the issuing until after the investigation of said objections. The Lodge shall promptly investigate such objections, and if found to be sufficient by a majority vote of the members present, the card or certificate shall not be issued until the grounds of the objection be removed. If the objection is removed, or is found not to be sufficient, the card shall be issued immediately. A suspended member cannot take a card or a dismissal certificate. Should the Lodge refuse to grant any member a withdrawal card, such member may, if clear on the books, tender a written resignation of membership; he or she shall then be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate under the seal of the Lodge certifying that he or she has resigned membership, as evidence of his or her good standing at that time.

Amend Section 2 of Article XI, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Section 2684, by striking out all of the fourth line, and all of the third line after the word "dollar", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "by deposit of an expired withdrawal card, a dismissal certificate, or a certificate of resignation, one dollar; no fee whatever shall be charged for the deposit of an unexpired withdrawal card"; so that said Section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz: By initiation, one dollar; by deposit of an expired withdrawal card a dismissal certificate, or a certificate of resignation, one dollar; no fee whatever shall be charged for the deposit of an unexpired withdrawal card.

Repeal Section 3 of Article XI, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, Section 2685, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new section:

Section 3. The fee for reinstatement shall be one year's dues in all cases.

DOCUMENT NO. 79.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

We have carefully considered the resolution shown on page 343, as Document No. 6, and would respectfully report that the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its late session repealed the so-called "transfer law" of 1904, as amended in 1906, and enacted an entire new law on the subject-matter, leaving the Constitution governing our Subordinate Lodges in conflict therewith in several respects. The new law reads as follows:

"Resolved. That a member of the Order in possession of an Official Certificate or Visiting Card changing his residence from the territorial jurisdiction of his Lodge or Encampment to the territorial jurisdiction of another, and desiring to unite with a Lodge or Encampment at his new place of residence, upon making application for membership, accompanied by his Official Certificate or Visiting Card, showing his dues paid in advance, and being elected as provided by local law, [and official notice being sent] to his Lodge or Encampment, said Lodge or Encampment shall, unless charges are pending against him, without ballot and without fee, issue a Transfer Certificate and send the same, at once, to the Secretary or Scribe sending for the same; and upon receipt of the Transfer Certificate, the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of his new Lodge or Encampment without the payment of any additional fee; Provided, that, if a physician's certificate is required, he must pay the expense of the same.

"The issuing of a Transfer Certificate shall sever membership in the Lodge or Encampment issuing it: Provided, that, if the member becomes sick or disabled, or should die within four weeks of its date and before completing his membership by signing the Constitution of his new Lodge or Encampment, then said Transfer Certificate shall be cancelled and said member shall retain his beneficial standing in his old Lodge or Encampment, the same as though no Transfer Certificate had been issued.

“Provided further. That a brother desiring to receive the advantage of the preceding proviso must pay his dues four weeks in advance of the date of his Transfer Certificate.

“The provisions hereof, except those relating to benefits, shall apply to Rebekah Lodges the same as to Subordinate Lodges and Encampments.”

To harmonize our Constitution therewith, we present the following amendments and recommend their adoption:

Amend Article II, Section 9, by adding the words, “Provided, that if such member has moved from the territorial jurisdiction of his old Lodge into the territorial jurisdiction of this Lodge, membership shall be completed after securing his transfer certificate, without the payment of any fee, by signing the Constitution.” So that when amended the section will read as follows:

“SECTION 9. Any member of a Subordinate Lodge holding a visiting card or an official certificate in force shall have the privilege of applying for membership in this Lodge without having obtained a withdrawal card from the Lodge in which membership is held, and may be elected to membership in this Lodge; but such candidate shall not be entitled to full membership or have any of the privileges of a member of this Lodge until a withdrawal card from the Lodge in which previous membership was held is deposited with the Lodge, nor until the payment of the admission fee required by the By-Laws of this Lodge and signing the Constitution. Provided, that, if such member has moved from the territorial jurisdiction of his old Lodge into the territorial jurisdiction of this Lodge, membership shall be completed after securing his transfer certificate, without the payment of any fee, by signing the Constitution.”

Amend Article X, Section 2, by striking out the following words: “has moved from the territorial jurisdiction of his own Lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of this Lodge and is entitled to a withdrawal card or holds an unexpired withdrawal card from his old Lodge,” and in their place insert the following: “shall be admitted by transfer certificate.” Also, strike out all of said section after the words “provided, further, that no fee”, and in their place insert the following: “shall be charged for issuing a transfer certificate”, so that the section when thus amended shall read as follows:

“Article X, Section 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz.: By initiation, five dollars; by deposit of card, two dollars; as an Ancient Odd Fellow, five dollars; and as a non-beneficial member, five dollars. Provided, that no admission fee shall be charged a brother who shall be admitted by transfer certificate, except he shall pay for a medical certificate regarding his health, should one be required by the By-Laws of this Lodge; and provided, further, that no admission fee shall be charged an applicant for membership under Article X, Section 6, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, regarding the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register"; provided, further, that no fee shall be charged for issuing a transfer certificate."

Signed by the Committee.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

We have considered the resolution, and recommend that it be not adopted.

Signed by the Committee.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Finance presented their seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [All adopted Thursday afternoon.]

DOCUMENT NO. 83.

Seventh report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the receipts and disbursements of the Orphans' Home, pages 107 to 125, and Old Folks' Home, pages 134 to 163: That the matter was gone into by the Finance Committee when they audited the books and accounts of those Homes, the result of which is found in the second and fourth reports of our committee, as found on pages 75, 76, 78 and 79.

This same statement also holds good in regard to the receipts and disbursements of the Grand Secretary, as contained on pages 181 to 191, both inclusive, which were audited by the Committee on Finance, as per the first and third reports of our committee, as found on pages 73 to 79.

The question of donations to the Homes and Endowment Funds of the Homes, pages 197 to 216, we find properly accounted for by the Grand Secretary's and Grand Treasurer's reports.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 84.

Eighth report, by Cicero J. Lindly, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to Document No. 14, a resolution introduced with a view of levying a special assessment on Subordinate Lodges of $1.00 per member to be paid in four semiannual installments. [See page 348.]

That we are of the opinion that there is no immediate necessity of a $100,000.00 building at the Old Folks' Home, and we have no doubt that the Grand Lodge, when they take up and act on the request of the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, will make the appropriation to meet the necessary requirements.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 85.

Ninth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to "Appeal for Aid and Special Relief," on pages 40-41:

We heartily approve the Grand Master's action in granting relief to Brother Massey; also his action in giving to each of the graduates of the Orphans' Home a present of $10.00 in gold, not only as a reward for their work, but also to give them that much to start from the Home and not turn them out destitute.

In regard to the donation to Bro. Chas. W. Reed, we approve the Grand Master's action in drawing a warrant for $200.00 for his immediate needs, and are of the opinion still that this is a proper case for appeal to the Subordinate Lodges.

We agree with the Grand Master in discouraging the various appeals from one Lodge to another, and from outside jurisdictions, without proper authentication by the Grand Master.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 86.

Tenth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to Endowment Funds, on page 61.

We fail to see any necessity for action of the Committee on Finance on this letter of the Grand Master, as the next Grand Master may be of the same or a different opinion, and will probably, in due time, communicate his idea on this subject to the various Lodges.

Signed by the Committee.

Bro. Wm. R. Humphrey, G. R., explained to the Grand Lodge some of the changes the Sovereign Grand Lodge has made in the Rituals.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Deputy Grand Master, by direction of the Grand Master, declared the Grand Lodge closed until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Thursday, November 21, 1907.

REPRESENTATIVES' HALL, STATE HOUSE,
Thursday, Nov. 21, 1907, 9 A. M.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, with Grand Master Merrills in the chair.

Present—Grand Officers as at yesterday's session, and a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal and his assistants, having examined the brothers present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, the Grand Chaplain offered prayer, and the Grand Lodge was declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

Grand Master Merrills officially announced the result of the vote on the question of holding the Annual Session of 1908 in Peoria as—Yeas, 2538; nays, 4328; and declared the proposition defeated.

On motion of Representative Crowder, of No. 21, Peoria, the vote was made unanimous in favor of Springfield as the location for the session.

Reps. W. E. DeCamp, of No. 145 (Macomb), and Alvin C. Low, of No. 352 (Albion), were excused from attendance for the remainder of this session.

Past Grand Master Kewley offered the following, and moved its adoption under suspension of the rule. The rule was suspended, and the resolution was adopted.

Document No. 88.

WHEREAS, The condition of the finances of the country generally is such that banks are unwilling to cash the warrants issued by this Grand Lodge for mileage and per diem, thus forcing our Grand Treasurer to bring to this annual session currency to cash the said warrants without passing them through the bank, as has been the custom for many years; and

WHEREAS, This Grand Lodge at its annual session of 1906, adopted a resolution providing that the warrants for mileage and per diem should not be issued until after final adjournment of the annual session; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That for the year 1907, said resolution shall be suspended, and the Chairman of the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem be, and hereby is, directed to issue said warrants or vouchers immediately after the close of this morning's session, so as to permit our Grand Treasurer to cash the same upon presentation at such place as he may designate.

Rep. H. H. Richardson, of No. 356, was excused from further attendance at this session.

On motion of Bro. F. W. Latimer, of No. 184, it was ordered that the rule requiring that reports of committees lie upon the table until a meeting of the session later than that of their presentation, before being taken up for action, was suspended for the remainder of this session.

Rep. A. V. Cook, of No. 241, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Legislation. [See 19th report of that committee.]

Document No. 89.

WHEREAS, The mileage and per diem is not sufficient to cover the expenses of the representatives; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the per diem be raised from $2.00 per day to $3.00 per day, and the mileage from 5c per mile to 8c per mile.

Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., offered the following, which was adopted.

Document No. 90.

WHEREAS, The infirmities of age or serious illness have prevented attendance at this session of our Grand Body by Past Grand Representatives Dr. Samuel Willard, General John C. Smith, Walter E. Carlin, John Lake, and R. W. S. Wheatley; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our Grand Secretary tender to each of them, by letter, our sincere sympathy in their afflictions, and our hope that the coming year will be a happy and kindly one to each of them, so that we may have the pleasure of greeting them all at the annual session of 1908.

The following paper was presented and was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See 15th report of that committee (Doc. 105) and action following.]

Document No. 91.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

WHEREAS, At the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held in the city of St. Paul, Minn., the Grand Secretaries of many jurisdictions being present thereat, and being interested in the proceedings of said Sovereign Body, particularly the matter of the issue of new Rituals for the use of Subordinate Lodges, they were able, by consultation with Grand Representatives, to perform excellent economic service in the interests of the Order at large; and

WHEREAS, At a subsequent meeting of the said Grand Secretaries, the matter being fully discussed, with a paramount view to the best interests of the Order at large, they were enabled to come to the conclusion that the Sovereign Grand Lodge might, in justice to itself and the Subordinate Jurisdictions, in the interests of equity, furnish a portion of said Rituals in exchange for old ones; and

WHEREAS, By the action of said Grand Secretaries the matter received favorable consideration by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and it was decided to deliver for the use of Subordinate Lodges four copies of said new Rituals in exchange for old ones, thus saving to the subordinate jurisdictions a large sum of money, which has been variously estimated in the aggregate to be about $60,000.00; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that, by having the Grand Secretaries on the ground each year at the annual communications of the Sovereign Body, where they can be consulted by the Grand Representatives, the best interests of economy would be subserved; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, following the custom of some other Grand Jurisdictions, this Grand Lodge deems it a wise measure to have its able Grand Secretary at the sessions of the Sovereign Body. It is therefore ordered that the sum of $100.00, or so much thereof as may be necessary to cover actual expense, be appropriated for the purpose of having our Grand Secretary at the next session of the S. G. L., to be held in the city of Denver, Colorado.

Document No. 92.

Resolved, That Article IV, Section 1, of the Grand Lodge Constitution, as printed in Merrills' Code, be amended by inserting after the words "Order of Odd Fellows" the words "one annually for the term of one year, and one biennially for the term of two years," so that the section as thus amended shall read as follows:

"Sec. 1. The Officers of the Grand Lodge shall be as follows, viz.: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and two Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, one elected annually for the term of one year, and one biennially for the term of two years; all of whom shall be elected by ballot. Also, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald, all of whom shall be appointed."

Document No. 93.

Sixth report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

In regard to that part of the Grand Master's Report pertaining to the appointment of the Trustees of the Endowment Funds, your committee is of the opinion that the Grand Lodge had the legal right to appoint such committee. The Constitution provides that the Grand Master shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. The appointment of such committee by the direction of the Grand Lodge in no way deprives the Grand Master of any of his legal rights. The Trustees of the Orphans' Home Board and of the Old Folks' Home Board are appointed in the same way. The Grand Lodge, in our judgment, has full power to designate the way in which its committees shall be named. We can not, therefore, concur with the Grand Master in his views therein expressed, and recommend that the same be not adopted. [See page 59.]

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented the following report, which was considered and adopted. [See Document No. 8, page 344.]

Document No. 94.

Seventh report, by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals having considered a certain resolution introduced in the Grand Lodge at the present session by Brother John Steiner, Representative of Washington Lodge No. 665, dealing with the subject-matter involved in the appeal of Washington Lodge, No. 665, herewith reported upon by this committee, report as follows:

We recommend—

One—That the resolution be not adopted.

Two—That the entire subject-matter of the resolution be regarded as referred to the incoming Grand Master, to be considered and reported upon, together with the appeal of Washington Lodge, No. 665.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Grand Master appointed Bro. Chas. D. Brainard, of No. 21, to fill a vacancy in the Committee on Rebekah Degree.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was considered and recommitted without instructions. [The report was again presented this afternoon, without change, and was adopted.]

Document No. 95.

Eighth report, by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, having under consideration so much of the Grand Master's Report referred to it as deals with the appeal of Washington Lodge, No. 665, found in the report of the Grand Master, commencing on page 28, respectfully report as follows:

The questions involved in this appeal are of great importance, not only to Washington Lodge, No. 665, but to Odd Fellows throughout the State. The committee has given the matter careful consideration, hearing oral arguments by the Representative of the Lodge and by counsel for the various parties and interests involved, but nothing from the view-point of the Grand Master regarding his action in the case. In view of the fact that many of the matters necessarily considered by the Grand Master in determining the wisdom of the course taken by him do not appear sufficiently in the record to enable us to determine even to our own satisfaction the questions involved, we recommend that the entire subject-matter of the controversy and the appeal be referred to the incoming Grand Master, with authority to investigate the entire matter and report his recommendations with reference thereto to the Grand Lodge at its next session.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented the following report:

Document No. 96.

Ninth report, by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, having under consideration the Decisions of the Grand Master numbered one to twenty-four, both inclusive, found on pages 24 to 28, both inclusive, respectfully report as follows:

The Decisions of the Grand Master evidence thorough knowledge of the law and usages of the Order, and we take pleasure in commending the high character of his work in this regard.

In view of the great care evidently taken by the Grand Master in considering and deciding the numerous questions submitted to him, it is with great reluctance that we venture to recommend even slight modification of any of them. However, as to a few of the less important decisions, we are constrained to recommend slight changes in phraseology and in one or two instances nonconcurrence.

We recommend the approval of the Decisions numbered one, two, four, six, seven, eight, nine, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three and twenty-four.

We recommend that number three be modified by omitting therefrom the last sentence, and that with that change the decision be approved. The decision as amended will read:

"The Grand Lodge has vested the control and management of the Orphans' Home in the Board of Directors. The Directors have power to make rules and regulations for the management of said Home, which shall be effective until repealed or amended by the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge has not prescribed any qualifications which must be possessed by any child before it can be admitted to the Home, or which must be possessed by any child in order to maintain its residence in the Home when once admitted. This matter is a question for the discretion of the Board of Directors."

We recommend that the Grand Lodge do not concur in decision number five.

We recommend that the Grand Lodge do not concur in decision number ten.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. E. P. ANDERSON,
HENRY PHILLIPS,

Twentieth report, by Bro. A. O. K. Young, of 192.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

That we have carefully considered Document No. 64, on page 380, and recommend its adoption with the following amendments.

First. After the word "property" in line five of the first rule, on page 381, insert the words "in excess of one hundred dollars."

Second. After Rule Third on same page of Journal, add Rule Fourth, as follows:

"Rule 4. Any applicant who shall have conveyed or disposed of his or her property, within a period of twelve months prior to such application, for the purpose of evading the provisions of Rule 1 of this resolution, shall not be admitted into said Home, unless the party or parties acquiring such property shall convey such property so previously acquired from such applicant to said Board of Trustees, as required by Rule 1 of this resolution; and should any member of said Home inherit or otherwise acquire property, either real or personal, after his or her admission to said Home, the same shall be conveyed as required by Rule 1 of this resolution, or such member shall be discharged from the Home. Present members of said Home who now own property shall be required to comply with Rule 1, of this resolution or be subject to discharge."

Said resolution when amended will read as follows:

WHEREAS, Several members of the Old Folks' Home are possessed of real estate or personal property varying in value from one hundred dollars ($100) upwards, which has been placed in the hands of his or her Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge or with individuals for safe keeping, with provision for the disposition of said property upon the death of said member, the lodge or individual frequently being the beneficiary, and applications for admission to the Home being frequently made by those who have some property, the income from which is insufficient to maintain them outside of the Home; and

WHEREAS, Said Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges or individuals do not pay the cost of maintenance of said member in the Home, said cost being paid by the members at large; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home be governed in such matters by the following rules:

Rule 1. Any applicant for membership in the Old Folks' Home possessing real estate, securities, stocks, money, or other personal property, of value exceeding the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) shall, if accepted as a member, be required to convey, assign, transfer and set over to the Board of Trustees of said Home all of said property in excess of one hundred dollars, in trust, to be held and managed by said Board of Trustees for a period of twelve (12) months; and if, at or before the expiration of said period, said member shall withdraw or be discharged from the Home, then and in that event the said Board of Trustees shall first deduct from said property held in trust the sum of One and One-half Dollars ($1.50) for each week that said member was a resident of the Home, and then reconvey and turn over the remainder of said property, including all increment, to said member.

Rule 2. If, at the expiration of said period of twelve (12) months, said member desires to remain at the Home, said Board of Trustees shall proceed to convert all real estate, securities and personal property other than money into cash, the proceeds of which, together with all money heretofore placed in trust with said Board, including all increment, shall be remitted to the Grand Secretary, and by him forwarded to the Grand Treasurer, who shall place it to the credit of said member; from which account the Board of Trustees shall, prior to the close of the fiscal year, draw such a sum as may have been agreed upon in contract for admission (provided, however, that said sum shall not be less than One and One-half Dollars ($1.50) per week), and place same in the maintenance fund of said Home, until said account is exhausted. The Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, draw from said account a sum not to exceed Four Dollars ($4.00) per month, to be given to said member as spending money, until said account is exhausted.

Rule 3. Upon the death of a member of the Home, having a credit balance in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, that officer shall, upon receiving notice of such death from the said Board of Trustees, transfer said balance to the Endowment Fund of said Home and enter it as a donation in the name of said deceased member.

Rule 4. Any applicant who shall have conveyed or disposed of his or her property, within a period of twelve months prior to such application, for the purpose of evading the provisions of Rule 1 of this resolution, shall not be admitted into said Home, unless the party or parties acquiring such property shall convey such property so previously acquired from such applicant to said Board of Trustees, as required by Rule 1 of this resolution; and should any member of said Home inherit or otherwise acquire property, either real or personal, after his or her admission to said Home, the same shall be conveyed as required by Rule 1 of this resolution, or such member shall be discharged from the Home. Present members of said Home who now own property shall be required to comply with Rule 1 of this resolution or be subject to discharge.

Document No. 118.

Second report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Rebekah Degree would respectfully report as follows upon the amendments to the Constitution of the Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois, also the amendments to the Constitution for the government of Rebekah Lodges, adopted by the Rebekah Assembly and being Document No. 72, the same being referred to this committee for action thereon.

Your committee regret that this important matter should have been delayed until the last day of the session of this Grand Lodge, because your committee feel that in the limited time at its disposal a thorough revision of the Rebekah Constitution (which is so necessary at the present time) cannot be prepared so that the Grand Lodge can act upon same before adjourning.

Your committee recommend that the amendments contained in Document No. 72 be adopted by this Grand Lodge, together with the following additional amendments prepared by this committee.

Repeal all of Section 4 of Article IV, as the same is edited and reported in the Code of 1906, pages 308 and 309, and in lieu thereof adopt the following new section:

Section 4. The Secretary shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge; write all communications; fill up all certificates and cards; issue all summonses or notices required; attest to all moneys ordered paid at regular meetings and none other; and perform such other duties appertaining to the office as may be required by the Lodge, and shall receive such compensation as the Lodge shall have fixed prior to installation.

The Secretary shall make out at the end of the term the semi-annual report as required by Article XII, Section 2, of this Constitution. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of each Rebekah Lodge to furnish to the Secretary of each Subordinate Lodge to which any member of said Lodge belongs a list of the members of said Subordinate Lodge who are also members of said Rebekah Lodge, and thereafter to notify the Secretary of the proper Subordinate Lodge when any brother shall become a member of said Rebekah Lodge.

The Secretary shall also, at the close of the term, make out a report for the Lodge, showing fully its work and condition during the term; shall perform the duties of Financial Secretary, and shall give bond in the same manner as hereinafter prescribed for the Financial Secretary, if none be chosen; and shall also keep a list of all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, recording the date, amount and the name of the person in whose favor drawn; and if the warrant be payable from any special fund, that fact shall appear both on the warrant and in the list; and shall also keep a register of membership, enrolling the names of the members of the Lodge with date of proposal, initiation, signing of the Constitution, upon admission by card, certificate, or reinstatement after expulsion; also with date of resignation, withdrawal by card, death, suspension, reinstatement or expulsion, and shall also record the attainment of official rank.

Add the following new section to Article VI of the Constitution for Rebekah Lodges, to be known as Section 8.

Section 8. This Lodge shall elect a delegate to the Rebekah State Assembly, from among its duly qualified members, for the term of two years, at the first meeting in January, immediately after installation, notification being sent to the Assembly Secretary of said election on blanks prepared for that purpose; even-numbered Lodges electing in even-numbered years, and odd-numbered Lodges in odd-numbered years.

Amend Article X, of the Constitution for the Rebekah Lodges of Illinois, by adding the following new section to be known as Section 4.

Section 4. A member of the Order in possession of an Official Certificate or a Visiting Card, changing his or her residence from the territorial jurisdiction of his or her Lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of another Lodge, and desiring to unite with a Rebekah Lodge at his or her new place of residence, upon making application for membership accompanied by his or her Official Certificate or Visiting Card showing his or her dues paid in advance, and being elected as provided by local law, and official notice being sent to his or her Lodge, said Lodge shall, unless charges are pending against him or her, without ballot and without fee, issue a Transfer Certificate and send same, at once, to the Secretary sending for the same; and, upon the receipt of the Transfer Certificate, the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of his or her new Lodge without the payment of any admission fee. The issuing of a Transfer Certificate shall sever membership in the Lodge issuing it.

Your committee would further recommend that the new Committee on Rebekah Degree be instructed to prepare a complete revision of the Constitution for the Rebekah Assembly and the Constitution for the government of Rebekah Lodges, and report at the next session of the Grand Lodge.

Your committee appointed to witness and report on the work of conferring the several degrees by various Lodges at the Arsenal on Wednesday evening, November 20, 1907, beg leave to submit the following report.

We were present and witnessed the work of the Initiatory Degree by the Degree Staff of Hindsboro Lodge, No. 571, comprising the following brothers: E. S. Meikle, Bert Creveston, E. C. Crawford, J. F. Worsham, Wm. Hunt, Ole Langley, Arthur Cox, Fred Creveston, Andrew Gutudge, John Ingram, J. A. Waught, J. C. Dugan, Charles Combs, Frank Jeffers, J. E. Morris, W. C. Also the First Degree by the Staff of Bentley Lodge, No. 412, composed of the following brothers: S. L. McCrory, D. G. Berry, L. Davis, Wm. McGuilvery, J. C. Helms, Wm. Warwick, John McMininy, Wm. Kirkpatrick, J. Johansen, Wm. Egbers, Wm. Troute, James Main, J. W. Campbell, Ralph Mesick, J. E. Helfinch, Chas. Stepp, E. A. Payne, Wm. Meals, John Meals, H. Rams, Fred Reyer, Arthur Booth, C. O. Davis, R. W. Saer.

The Second Degree by the Degree Staff of Golden Rule Lodge, No. 374, viz.: J. F. Callahan, Jno. I. Judge, Jno. S. Collins, Jno. G. Gaines, Chas. S. Smith, H. F. Bromley, Geo. W. Ross, H. C. The work by each of the above named Staffs was done in a commendable manner, and evidenced much painstaking preparation. We feel that the work done by Bentley Lodge in the First Degree, and that of Prairie State Lodge in the Third Degree, should have special commendation for the splendid manner they did the work.

We believe that much good will result from having the Degrees conferred each year, thus giving the Representatives an opportunity to receive lessons they could not well receive otherwise.

We would recommend that the thanks of this Grand Lodge be extended to the Lodges above named, and we would also recommend that the practice of having the Degrees exemplified be continued at future sessions.

Respectfully submitted.

The Special Committee on Libraries for the Homes presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 121.

Second report, by Bro. L. L. McKinley, P.G.M., of No. 41.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Libraries for the Homes would respectfully report as follows:

We have received since our last report, found on pages 70-71 in the Grand Master's Report, nearly 1200 volumes, making a total of nearly 2200 volumes of good books to be placed in the Homes. Quite a number of Rebekah and Subordinate Lodges have sent money instead of books, and there is now in the possession of this committee the sum of $17.00 to be used by this committee in purchasing books for the two libraries.

This committee desires to state that Brother Gallaway, Rep. of Excelsior Lodge, No. 22, who introduced the resolution at the session of this Grand Body last year, builded better than he thought, for to him is due the thanks of this Grand Lodge, for placing in the hands of our sisters and brothers at the Old Folks' Home and our wards at the Orphans' Home the means of passing away of what would otherwise be idle time, in reading good books on all topics of interest and stories that tend to lead the young to a higher ideal of true womanhood and manhood in the struggles incident to human life.

This committee finds it impossible, at this time, to inspect the books that are being donated to our Homes, and would suggest that the Grand Master be authorized to appoint, in his discretion, one or two members of the committee to inspect the books that are here, and have same packed and shipped to our Homes. The committee would also recommend that, at the earliest time practicable, shelving be built in the two Homes, on which the books may be placed.

Postscript—The number of books received at the session was 804, of which 480 were donated by Subordinate Lodges, and 324 by Rebekah Lodges.

Signed by the Committee.

Deputy Grand Master Scott was called to the chair.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Lodge shall be known by the name and style of the "Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows."

ARTICLE II.—POWERS.

This Grand Lodge, under the limitations imposed upon it by its Charter and the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, possesses, within the State of Illinois, supreme legislative, executive and judicial authority. It has the right and power (1) to grant dispensations to establish Lodges; (2) to charter Lodges; (3) to suspend or discontinue for cause any Lodge subordinate to it; (4) to hear and determine all appeals from the actions and decisions of its Subordinate Lodges and from the decisions of the Grand Master; (5) to redress grievances of members and Lodges under its jurisdiction; and (6) to do whatever is proper according to the usages of Odd Fellowship and not in contravention of this Constitution or of the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. No Lodge of the Order can exist in this State without its permission.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall be composed of the following members, viz.: One Representative (who must be a Past Grand in good standing) from each of the Lodges of the State, and all other Past Grands in good standing of Lodges of this jurisdiction. A Past Grand from another jurisdiction, becoming a member of a Lodge in this State, may become a member of this Grand Lodge upon presenting a certificate of his official standing from the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction from which his membership was transferred: Provided, however, that neither a Representative nor other Past Grand shall be a member of this Grand Lodge until he shall have received the Grand Lodge Degree.

Sec. 2. This Grand Lodge shall have power to punish by reprimand, fine or expulsion, any of its members who shall refuse to obey its laws, or who shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of the Grand Lodge shall be as follows, viz.: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and two Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; all of whom shall be elected by ballot. Also, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald, all of whom shall be appointed.

He shall give the casting vote whenever the Grand Lodge is equally divided. He may call special sessions of the Grand Lodge whenever, in his judgment, the good of the Order requires him so to do, and he shall call a special session whenever requested so to do in writing by the representatives of fifty Lodges. He shall order the payment by the Grand Treasurer of all moneys voted by the Grand Lodge. In person or by Deputy, he shall confer all official degrees, and he shall communicate the necessary passwords to be used in this jurisdiction. During the recess of the Grand Lodge he shall have a general superintendence of the interests of the Order in this State; shall hear and decide any grievance or complaint that may be made to him; pass upon all questions of law and usage which shall have been first submitted on appeal under seal of the Subordinate Lodge to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, and he shall not be compelled to answer questions submitted by individual members of the Order; grant dispensations to open Lodges, and do such other acts as this Grand Lodge might do, except that he may not, by virtue of any powers conferred upon him by this section, exercise any of the legislative functions of this Grand Lodge. At each Annual Session the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by the Grand Lodge.

Provided, This Grand Lodge may, by its Rebekah Assembly Constitution, transfer to the President of the Rebekah Assembly any of the functions or powers with which the Grand Master is herein invested, so far as the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge may permit, and with such restrictions and limitations as the Grand Lodge may provide in said Rebekah Assembly Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Deputy Grand Master shall support the Grand Master in the Grand Lodge. His powers shall be the same as those of the Grand Master, when, during the absence of that officer from this jurisdiction, or because of his inability to act, or in the event of his death or resignation, the duties of the Grand Master shall devolve upon the Deputy Grand Master, and perform such other duties as are required of him by this Constitution, the laws and usages of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. The Grand Warden shall, under the Grand Master, have special charge of the door, and shall assist the Grand Master in conducting the business of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. Sec. 7. The Grand Chaplain shall perform the duties peculiar to his office.

Sec. 8. The Grand Marshal shall assist the Deputy Grand Master in supporting the Grand Master in the Grand Lodge. He shall, when requested, attend the Grand Master in his official visits to the Subordinates; shall make proclamation for the Grand Master when required so to do; shall obey his commands, and perform such other duties as are required of him by the Constitution, laws and usages of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 9. The Grand Conductor shall examine and conduct new members into the Grand Lodge; shall attend to the comfort and convenience of the Grand Lodge, and during its session shall execute the commands of the Grand Master.

Sec. 10. The Grand Guardian shall attend at the inner door of the Grand Lodge, and permit none to enter or depart without the consent of the Grand Warden.

Sec. 11. The Grand Herald shall attend at the outer door of the Grand Lodge. He shall have charge of the personal property of the Grand Lodge, and keep the same in good order.

Sec. 12. The Grand Representatives shall attend the meetings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and represent this Grand Lodge therein.

Sec. 13. The Grand Officers, excepting the Grand Representatives, shall receive for their services such compensation as the Grand Lodge may determine.

Sec. 14. The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, in such sum as the Grand Lodge may determine, to be executed to and approved by the Grand Lodge, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and for the delivery of all moneys, papers, books, records and other property appertaining to his office, whole, safe and undefaced, to his successor in office.

Sec. 15. The Grand Officers shall, in addition to the duties herein specified, perform such other duties as may be imposed upon them by law.

Sec. 16. Sec. 18. Candidates for office may be nominated at any time previous to the election.

Sec. 19. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks, and blanks shall be counted as votes.

Sec. 20. All elective Grand Officers shall be chosen separately by a majority of the valid votes cast. When there are but two candidates for the same office, in the event of a tie for two successive ballotings, the election shall be decided by lot. When there are more than two candidates in nomination, and neither receives a majority of votes at a balloting, the one receiving the fewest number of votes shall, after the result of the ballot has been announced, be, by the Chair, declared dropped from the nomination, and the balloting shall proceed.

Sec. 21. After the election, the Grand Officers may be, at any time before adjournment, installed into their respective offices. The Grand Master, or any Past Grand Master, shall install the Grand Master-elect, who may install the other Grand Officers-elect. All Grand Officers shall be installed to serve until after the election and installation of their successors.

Sec. 22. Any Grand Officer may be removed from his office for conduct unworthy of his standing in the Order, or for inattention to the duties of his office. He shall be entitled to a fair trial, and two-thirds of the votes of the members present shall be necessary to remove him; but any officer against whom charges are preferred shall not have the right to preside during the trial, or to appoint any committee or part of a committee to examine or try the case, or to do any official act that can affect the trial or its result.

Sec. 23. Vacancies in any of the Grand Offices, occurring during the recess, shall be filled by the Grand Master ad interim, and at the first Annual Session of the Grand Lodge thereafter the vacancies shall be regularly filled.

ARTICLE V.—LODGE DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS.

Section 1. The Grand Master shall appoint a duly qualified Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Subordinate Lodge, and a duly qualified Past Noble Grand or Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Rebekah Lodge, who shall serve as such until a successor shall have been appointed, or until removed by the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall obey the commands of the Grand Master, decide all questions of law and usage, when submitted in writing under the seal of the Lodge, giving the answer thereto also in writing. Said decision of the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall be binding upon the Lodge unless an appeal is taken to the Grand Master, in which case the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall transmit the original papers (being the question and answer) to the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Masters shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for them by the laws of the Order.

ARTICLE VI.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Section 1. The Grand Master, at each Annual Session, shall, within twenty days after his installation as such, appoint the following committees to serve one year, viz: (1) On Credentials, three members, of whom two shall be Representatives; (2) On the State of the Order, fifteen members, of whom at least twelve shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (3) On Legislation, fifteen members, of whom at least twelve shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (4) On Finance, three members; (5) On Rebekah Degree, ten members, of whom at least eight shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (6) On Mileage and Per Diem, fifteen mem-

Vacancies shall be so filled as not to diminish the number of Representatives on a Committee. In the Order of Business, the reports of these Committees shall be called and have precedence in the order in which they are herein named. And within twenty days after the adoption of this amendment, the Grand Master shall appoint a Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to consist of five members, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, one for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, and one for the term of five years; and thereafter at each Annual Session the Grand Master, immediately after the installation of the Grand Officers, shall appoint one member of said Committee for the full term of five years; and shall, whenever a vacancy exists in the membership of said Committee, occasioned by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, fill such vacancy by appointment, and such appointee shall fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions arising by appeal from the action or judgment of any Subordinate Lodge, or otherwise, which may be referred to them by the Grand Master or Grand Lodge, or which may be presented to said Committee by virtue of any legislation of this Grand Lodge, now or hereafter in force; and shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine all other cases which may arise under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted for that purpose; and shall examine and approve or reject the By-Laws of all Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction, and may so approve or so reject the same in whole or in part, but shall have no power to change any part thereof in any other manner. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the Grand Master from hearing and determining any question that may arise by petition or complaint of any grievance, by the wrongful act of any Lodge, officer or member, or otherwise interfere with the Grand Master in the exercise of his authority as the executive officer of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. The Committee on Credentials shall report, without delay, on the credentials of Representatives and Past Grands.

Sec. 3. The Committee on the State of the Order shall report upon the reports of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, in so far as such reports relate to the State of the Order. The Committee shall also report upon the condition and progress of the Order in this jurisdiction, upon applications for charters and upon such other matters as may be referred to it.

Sec. 4. The Committee on Legislation shall report upon all resolutions referred to it proposing the enactment, amendment or repeal of any law, and upon such other matters as may be referred to it.

Sec. 5. The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals shall hold four sessions annually, to-wit: Three at the office of the Grand Secretary, unless the Committee is notified by the Grand Secretary that there is not any business to come before them; one beginning on the third Tuesday of February, one beginning on the third Tuesday of May, and one beginning on the third Tuesday of August; and the fourth session shall be held at the time and place of holding the Grand Lodge. The Grand Secretary shall be the clerk of said Committee, and shall keep an accurate record of all their transactions, and shall have the care, custody and control of all its records, papers, etc.

At each session of said Committee, the member having the shortest term to serve shall act as Chairman, and each of said Committee shall be paid mileage at the rate of six cents per mile, by the nearest route from his place of residence to the office of the Grand Secretary, or to the place of holding the session of the Committee, as the case may be, for each of such sessions, and a per diem of three dollars for each day actually occupied, to be paid upon the certificate of the Chairman of the Committee.

The said Committee shall reduce all their judgments and decisions to writing, and file the same with the Grand Secretary.

All processes, whether in the nature of summons, subpoenas, or otherwise, shall be under the seal of the Grand Lodge and the signature of the Grand Secretary. All appeals hereafter taken from the final judgment or action of any Subordinate Lodge shall be taken and referred to the said Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. And the decisions and judgments of said Committee shall, unless appealed from within thirty days, be final, and stand as the judgment and decision of this Grand Lodge.

An appeal from the decision or judgment of said Committee to this Grand Lodge shall be allowed, and such appeal shall be considered and determined at the session next after such appeal is taken, except in case such appeal is taken during a session of the Grand Lodge, in which case such appeal may be considered and determined at such time as the Grand Lodge may direct. A notice in writing directed to the Grand Secretary and signed by the member appealing, or the Noble Grand or Secretary of the Lodge, under the seal of the Lodge, in all cases where a Lodge appeals, briefly stating the fact of such appeal and the reasons assigned therefor, shall be the only requirements of such appeal.

Sec. 6. The Committee on Finance shall report upon all accounts and claims against the Grand Lodge, previous to such accounts and claims being allowed. It shall audit annually the accounts of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, and the accounts of all officers and committees intrusted with the receipt and disbursement of funds of the Grand Lodge. It shall, from time to time, suggest such measures of finance as it may deem expedient.

Sec. 7. The Committee on Rebekah Degree shall report upon all matters relating to the Rebekah Degree and Rebekah Lodges referred to it.

Sec. 8. The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the reports of the Grand Officers, the proceedings of the Annual Sessions of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contract for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they have offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts as being correct.

Sec. 9. The Committee on Railroads shall, if possible, procure reduced rates of fare over the several railroads of the State for members of the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly attending the sessions thereof; and shall report to the Grand Secretary, at least three weeks before any session, the names of railroad companies giving reductions of fare, and all the details of the arrangements made therewith.

Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge Committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The Committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and two dollars per diem.

ARTICLE VII.—SESSIONS.

Section. 1. The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the third Tuesday in November. This meeting shall be styled the Annual Session. Special Sessions shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in Annual or Special Session, fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The Annual Session shall be held at the City of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote, by the Grand Lodge convened in Annual Session. A Special Session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call.

Sec. 2. At the Annual Session the elective Grand Officers shall be elected, and all business requiring the attention of the Grand Lodge transacted. At a Special Session no business shall be transacted excepting that for which the session was called, which business must be distinctly stated in the call.

Sec. 3. The Grand Lodge shall be opened in the Grand Lodge Degree at all times when engaged in transacting business of the Order.

Sec. 4. All questions in the Grand Lodge shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting, excepting upon a call of Lodges, when Representatives only shall vote, and each shall cast the number of votes to which his Lodge may be entitled. A call of Lodges may be required by any ten Representatives, and whenever the vote is taken this way, the yeas and nays shall be recorded.

Sec. 5. Each Lodge shall be entitled, upon a call of Lodges, to one vote for every ten members in good standing at the close of the last preceding semi-annual term; provided, that any Lodge with less than ten members shall have one vote.

ARTICLE VIII.—SUBORDINATES.

Section 1. Charters may be granted as follows, viz.: (1) On the written application of five or more brothers in good standing, to open a Lodge where there is no Lodge, or where there is no Lodge working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (2) on the written application of ten or more brothers in good standing, to open a Lodge where not more than nine Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (3) on the written application of twenty or more brothers in good standing, and applications for initiation from thirty qualified and approved candidates, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge, provided the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place. Each of said two-thirds Lodges shall vote on the request for consent after a period of not less than four weeks after the date of receiving such request, and upon the report of a special committee of the Lodge appointed to investigate the qualifications of both charter members and petitioners for initiation whose names are signed to the petition for the dispensation to open the proposed new Lodge. All applications for dispensations to open Lodges shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, and must be accompanied by the cards of the petitioning brothers and the charter fee, to-wit: Thirty dollars.

Sec. 2. Every Lodge opened in this jurisdiction shall be instituted by the Grand Master or a Past Grand specially deputed to do the duty, who shall give to the Lodge, with the charter or warrant, the necessary instructions and charges. The expenses of the instituting officer shall be paid by the Lodge instituted.

Sec. 3. Subordinate Lodges shall make such annual, semi-annual and other reports as may from time to time be required by law, blank forms for which shall be furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 4. No Subordinate Lodge shall initiate any person not twenty one years of age.

Sec. 5. Every Subordinate Lodge shall pay to the Grand Lodge such capitation tax as may from year to year, or by the By-Laws of this Grand Lodge, be determined upon. Provided, however, that there shall never be appropriated from such capitation tax for any one fiscal year a sum to exceed sixty (60) cents per capita tax for the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home and the Odd Fellows' Old Folks' Home, for maintenance and all expenses of such homes.

ARTICLE IX.—CHARGES.

Section 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge, and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons; which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days, from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by the return indorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge, within ten days next thereafter to formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge; and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy, and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy, of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing; and all parts of books, papers, or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner, except in cases where the originals shall be so filed; but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I, ....., Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F., to take the evidence under charges and specifications against .....Lodge, No. ...., I.O.O.F., in the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd Fellow that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed)

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matter in controversy, before such witness shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy; and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers, at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person, or by agent or other counsel.

Provided, That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him, which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same, and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That, for good cause shown, they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice; and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this State. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is, to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause, to the Grand Secretary; and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge, by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of the Lodge so charged may, personally or by agent (being an Odd Fellow), appear before said committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications; and said committee, at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged; and if said committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card, as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

ARTICLE X.—AGED ODD FELLOWS' FUND AND RELIEF.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall create, maintain and disburse an Aged Odd Fellows' Fund under the following provisions:

Sec. 2. Hereafter, all assets of all Subordinate Lodges whose charters have been surrendered shall be placed to the credit of a Fund to be called and known as "Aged Odd Fellows' Fund." Such fund may also be increased and maintained by voluntary contributions, and by such other means as are not inconsistent with the laws of the Order.

Sec. 3. The Grand Secretary shall keep a register to be known as the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register."

Sec. 4. Any Odd-Fellow over fifty years of age, who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five (25) years or more, and whose Subordinate Lodge shall surrender its charter, and who would under the laws of the Grand Lodge be entitled to receive a Grand Lodge card, may petition the Grand Lodge to place his name on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register. Said petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, setting forth the actual standing of the applicant at the time his Lodge surrendered its charter. Upon such petition being granted by this Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary shall place the name of such petitioner upon the Aged Odd Fellows' Register.

Sec. 5. Any Odd Fellow enrolled according to the above provisions may apply for admission to any Subordinate Lodge under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 6. Any Odd Fellow enrolled upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register may be admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge; he shall pay to the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which he has been admitted, an admission fee of five dollars ($5.00) and shall pay as dues the sum of five dollars and twenty cents ($5.20) per year. Said admission fee and dues shall be placed to the credit of the Aged Odd Fellows' Fund.

Sec. 7. Any Odd Fellow enrolled as above in a Subordinate Lodge as herein provided, who becomes sick or disabled, so as to be incapable of earning a livelihood, shall receive from the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which the brother has been admitted, the sum of two dollars ($2.00) weekly benefits so long as the money collected under the provisions of this Article shall permit the payment of the same.

Sec. 8. The Secretary of the Lodge shall immediately notify the Grand Secretary, in all cases of sickness or disability referred to in the preceding section, of their commencement and termination; and the Grand Secretary shall notify the Lodges having members on the Aged Odd Fellows' Register when the said fund shall be depleted.

Sec. 9. A member of a Subordinate Lodge admitted under the above provisions shall not be entitled to vote or speak on any question involving a disposition of the funds or property of the Lodge, but shall be entitled to receive the attentive benefits of the Lodge. Also, he shall be liable to watch with the sick members of said Lodge.

Sec. 10. Upon the death of an aged Odd Fellow enrolled as above, and who shall be entitled to the benefits of this fund, there shall be paid as a funeral expense the sum of $35.00 so long as the moneys collected under the provisions of the Aged Odd Fellows' Fund shall permit the payment.

Sec. 11. No Lodge receiving such members as above provided shall be liable for the payment of any sick benefits or funeral expenses to or on account of such members, nor shall any such member be required to pay any dues or assessments to such Subordinate Lodge, except for the benefit of the Aged Odd Fellows' Fund, and except for attentive benefits to the sick members of such Subordinate Lodge.

ARTICLE XI.—CONSOLIDATION OF LODGES.

Section 1. Any two or more neighboring Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges working under the jurisdiction of this Grand Body may, by permission of the Grand Lodge, or of the Grand Master in vacation, consolidate their membership into one Lodge, under the following regulations.

Sec. 2. The provisions of such consolidation shall be submitted to each Lodge interested, in writing, signed by not less than ten per cent of the membership of each Lodge, giving the name and number of the charter under which the proposed consolidated Lodge shall work, which may be the charter name and number of either Lodge, or charter name of one and number of another, or an entirely new name and such number as the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge may award them, together with any other agreements desired between such Lodges.

Sec. 3. A written or printed copy of the proposed provisions for such consolidation shall be mailed within three days to the last known address, as shown on the books of the Lodge, to all members of each Lodge by the Secretary thereof, stating that a vote will be taken on such provisions at the second regular meeting after their presentation, unless at such second regular meeting a later regular meeting, not exceeding four weeks, shall be fixed as the time for voting on such provisions.

Sec. 4. At such second regular meeting, or such other time as may be then and there fixed, a vote by yeas and nays shall be taken and the result duly recorded, and a certified transcript of the entire action taken shall, under seal, be sent immediately to the Grand Master.

Sec. 5. The Grand Master, at his discretion, or the Grand Lodge, at its discretion, shall grant and issue the necessary dispensation, provided that no Lodge has reported more than four members voting against the written proposition providing for the consolidation, but not otherwise.

Sec. 6. The consolidation, if authorized, shall be effected by the Grand Master or his duly authorized Deputy, whose duty it shall be to receive from each Lodge its charter, rituals, books, and property of whatsoever kind, together with full and complete separate lists of members of each Lodge, including dropped, suspended, expelled and deceased members, all of whom shall sustain to the consolidated Lodge the same relations, in every respect, as they did to their former Lodge.

On receiving such property and lists of membership, the Grand Master or his Deputy shall proclaim the Lodges duly consolidated, and proceed forthwith to the election and installation of duly qualified members to the various offices, as in the case of other Lodges. After such installation, he shall turn over to the consolidated Lodge everything that came into his possession, except that he shall not turn over more than four Rituals, one Charter, and one Seal, the excess number being sent to the Grand Secretary, and a full report of all his actions to the Grand Master. The Deputy shall not require any one to sign or re-sign any Constitution.

Sec. 7. All officers of the consolidated Lodges who shall have served a majority of the regular meetings of the current term prior to such consolidation, if more than one-half of such term shall have expired, shall be entitled to the honors of the offices in which they have so served; but if they shall not have served a majority of all such meetings, or if not more than one-half of the current term shall have expired at the time of such consolidation, then, and in that case, they shall not be entitled to such honors.

ARTICLE XII.—AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. This Constitution shall be altered or amended only by a proposition therefor in writing, submitted at an Annual Session, which proposition shall set forth the section to be altered or amended as it would read if amended or altered. The proposition shall be entered at length on the Journal, and shall not be acted upon until the next Annual Session, when it may be considered and adopted. But if, by changes in legislation or otherwise, any part of this Constitution shall be found to be contrary to the laws of the S. G. L., such part may, without previous notice, be stricken out or amended to conform to the laws of the S. G. L.

Sec. 2. Two-thirds of all votes cast shall be necessary to adopt an amendment to this Constitution, and the vote shall be taken of the members present by division and count, unless the vote by Lodges be called, in which case the vote shall be according to Article VII, Section 4, of this Constitution.

BY-LAWS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

ARTICLE I.—MEETINGS.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall, at each annual session, convene at 7 o'clock p. m., and adjourn from time to time until the business of the session is completed, unless otherwise ordered specially by a vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 3. The meetings of the Grand Lodge shall be opened with prayer.

ARTICLE II.—SUBORDINATES.

Section 1. Should any Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge fail to hold its meetings for six months, or make its returns as required by the Constitution for one year, it shall be deemed an extinct Lodge, and its charter forfeited. It shall be the duty of all Lodges to make out their returns previous to installation.

Sec. 2. In all classes where a Lodge shall have been suspended or expelled, or its charter shall have been forfeited, the charter, funds, books, properties, and effects of all kinds belonging to or owned by such Lodge, shall revert to this Grand Lodge; and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers of such Lodge to deliver them all immediately to the Grand Master, or his Deputy authorized by him to receive them.

Sec. 3. Members of a defunct Lodge who were in good standing at the time of its dissolution, as may appear by the records of such Lodge, or who may have paid to the Grand Lodge all arrearages then due by them, shall, upon application to the Grand Secretary, receive a certificate, under the seal of the Grand Lodge, which shall entitle them to the same privileges as a withdrawal card, and for the same time, to enable them to make application for admission to membership in another Lodge; Provided, that no such certificate shall be given to a member of a suspended or expelled Lodge, unless ordered by special vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. Any Lodge or member who shall be concerned in organizing, or who shall countenance or support, or who shall knowingly visit any Lodge in the State of Illinois, purporting to be Odd Fellows, and not possessing a legal, unreclaimed and valid charter, duly granted and presented or confirmed by this Grand Lodge, shall be deemed unworthy of fellowship; and such member, upon satisfactory proof, shall be suspended or expelled at the option of the Lodge of which he or she is a member; and any member so suspended or expelled shall not be reinstated unless the Grand Lodge assent thereto; nor shall any person who has been in membership in any spurious or illegal Lodge be received into any regular Lodge without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges shall punish their members who may be guilty of immoral conduct; and after charges have been preferred for immoral conduct, and sustained, they shall award such punishment as is provided therefor in their Constitution and By-Laws, or as the rules, usages and laws of the Order demand; in default of which, the Lodge neglecting or refusing to award punishment shall be liable to forfeit its charter.

Sec. 6. Every Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge shall have a suitable seal (a proof-impression of which shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary); and all of its official communications shall be sealed therewith.

Sec. 7. No Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge shall appear in procession in regalia, except to attend the funeral of a member of the Order, or to celebrate the anniversary day of the Order, April 26th, without first having obtained permission so to do in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 8. The following shall be the form of certificate of a representative to the Grand Lodge:

.....Lodge, No. ...., I.O.O.F.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

This is to certify that ....., Past Grand, has been duly elected representative of this Lodge in your Grand Body for two years.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, we hereunto affix our hands and the seal of our Lodge, this ..... day of ....., 190...

....., N. G.

Attest: ....., Secretary.

Sec. 9. Clause 1. The Representatives to this Grand Lodge shall be elected and hold office for two years, one-half of them being chosen each year; Provided, that said representatives shall not be entitled to mileage and per diem if the semi-annual reports and tax of their Lodges have not been received by the Grand Secretary prior to the first day of November.

Clause 2. Each Subordinate Lodge shall, on the night of and immediately after the installation of officers in April, biennially, from among the qualified Past Grands in membership in the Lodge, elect by ballot, and in the same manner as prescribed for the election of officers, one representative to this Grand Lodge; Provided, that when a public installation is had, the election may be at the next regular meeting thereafter.

Clause 3. Immediately after the election of representative, each Lodge, by its officers, shall execute the proper certificate as set forth in the preceding section, in duplicate; one copy of which shall be forwarded without delay, by mail, directed to the Grand Secretary; the other copy shall be delivered to the representative-elect.

Clause 4. When a vacancy arises in the representation of a Lodge, from any cause, the Lodge may, in its discretion, fill the same; but the election for filling such vacancy shall not take place until the next regular meeting after the decision to fill the vacancy has been made; Provided, however, that when, on account of such delay of one week, there will not be sufficient or reasonable time allowed to the representative-elect to prepare to attend the next ensuing session of the Grand Lodge and to travel thereto, the Lodge may fill the vacancy forthwith.

Clause 5. The representatives shall be divided into two classes—the first class being those that represent odd-numbered Lodges, and the second class those that represent even-numbered Lodges. The first class shall be elected biennially in odd-numbered years, and the second class biennially in even-numbered years.

Sec. 10. No Lodge-room of any Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall be established, and no meetings of any Lodge shall be holden, in a tavern or hotel, under penalty of forfeiture of their charter, without express permission of this Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

Sec. 11. No Subordinate Lodge in this State shall admit to membership, either by initiation or deposit of card, any person residing nearer another Lodge working in the same language, without the consent of such Lodge having been first obtained in writing, and the payment to such Lodge of the amount of fees for initiation and degrees charged by the Lodge receiving such member; Provided, however, the Lodge giving such consent in writing may, also in writing, if it so desires, waive the payment to it of the above-named fees for initiation and degrees; Provided, that in a city or village in which there are two or more Lodges, they shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE III.—AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws shall not be amended unless the section proposed to be amended shall be submitted to the Grand Lodge in writing as it would read if amended as proposed. The proposed amendment shall be read twice at length, and on the second reading may be put upon its passage; when, if it shall receive a number of votes equal to a majority of all the representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted. A proposition to repeal a section or other part of the By-Laws shall be made in writing and shall set forth in full the section or other part proposed to be repealed, which proposition shall be read twice at length, and on its second reading may be put upon its passage. If it shall receive a number of votes equal to a • majority of all the representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted.

Sec. 8. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the Lodge. He shall notify in writing all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address, and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled, in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. Such bond, before being presented to the Lodge, must have been submitted to and approved by a majority of the Trustees. He shall keep the funds, notes and securities of the Lodge; pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, and none other; keep a full account of all moneys expended, and give the Lodge, at the first meeting in each month, a statement of its funds. He shall keep a separate account of any special fund instituted by the Lodge, and report to the Financial Secretary, at or before the last meeting in each term, any money received by him as interest or dividends on any notes, securities or stocks held by him. He shall make for the Lodge, at the close of his term, a full report of his receipts and disbursements, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books, papers, securities, bonds, funds and other property in his possession; and at the first regular meeting of the next term he shall present his report to the Lodge. He shall pay over and deliver up, when legally called upon, all moneys, bonds, books, papers, and other property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the Lodge, to his successor in office, or to such person as the Lodge may appoint to receive the same.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Junior Past Grand of this Lodge to act in the capacity of Past Grand, and to deliver the charge of that office to candidates. Any Past Grand may act as Noble Grand or Vice Grand when legally called thereto.

Sec. 9. All other officers (that is, all others than those enumerated in previous sections of the Constitution) shall perform such duties as are prescribed for them by the regulations and charges of their offices and the By-Laws of the Lodge.

ARTICLE IV.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Section 1. The Standing Committees of this Lodge shall be a Committee of Trustees, a Visiting Committee, a Finance Committee, and such others as may be created by the By-Laws.

Sec. 2. Five Trustees shall annually be chosen by ballot at the regular election in March, and a plurality of votes shall elect. The term of office of Trustees shall begin on April first following their election, after having qualified as hereinbelow provided, and shall hold their office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified by filing certificate of election as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary, within one week after said election, to file with the County Recorder of the County where such Lodge is located, a certificate of the election of said Trustees, such certificate setting forth also that the term of office of said Trustees begins on April the first following. It shall be the duty of the said newly elected Trustees, when qualified as above, to approve the bonds of the newly elected officers; also to act as an Executive Committee of the Lodge in carrying out all acts not otherwise provided for; to procure Lodge room, fuel, lights, regalia, and all things necessary for the comfort of the Lodge, under its direction. They shall have the guardianship of all widows and orphans of the Lodge, and carry out all provisions of the Lodge in relation to them; and shall from time to time recommend such action as they may deem necessary for the prosperity of the Lodge; they shall present to the Lodge at the close of their term of office a written report of their proceedings.

Sec. 3. The Visiting Committee shall consist of at least three members, one of whom shall be the Noble Grand. They shall keep themselves informed at all times as to the condition of a brother who has been reported sick; they shall report to the Lodge what benefits he is entitled to; and they shall provide for his care and watch, as his case may require and the laws of the Order permit. If a member of another Lodge be sick and apply to this Lodge for relief, his case shall be referred to the Visiting Committee as if he were a member of this Lodge; and if he be entitled to receive benefits from his own Lodge, this Lodge shall advance the sum thus due him, and forward an account of the same to his Lodge without delay. The Lodge may, by by-law, add to the number of this committee and prescribe more specific details of their duty; Provided that, in cities or towns having more than two lodges, the Visiting Committees of the different Lodges may, if they see fit, appoint one of their number to act with a like number from the other Lodges in the town or city as a special Visiting Committee, whose duty shall be the care of traveling or sojourning brothers who may be sick or disabled in the town or city where such Lodges exist.

Sec. 4. The Finance Committee shall consist of three members, to be appointed by the Noble Grand on the night of his installation. They shall audit and inspect the accounts, books, securities, bonds, funds, and other property in the hands of the Treasurer, and the books and reports of the Secretaries, and other officers and committees charged with the receipt and expenditure of money. For this purpose they shall fix a time and place to meet the Secretaries and Treasurer, after the last regular meeting in each semi-annual term, and shall report in writing at the first regular meeting in the next term. They shall also examine all other financial matters referred to them, and report thereon to the Lodge as soon as practicable. Neither the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Financial Secretary, nor any member of the Board of Trustees, shall be a member of the Finance Committee.

ARTICLE V.—ELECTIONS, ETC.

Section 1. No brother shall be eligible to the chair of the Noble Grand unless he has served a regular term as Vice Grand; nor shall any brother be eligible as Vice Grand unless he has served one term in some inferior office. But if all qualified members present refuse to accept the office of Noble Grand or Vice Grand, a Third Degree member may, under dispensation from the Lodge Deputy, be elected to either of said offices without previous service.

Sec. 2. All elective and appointed officers must have the Scarlet Degree before they are installed.

Sec. 3. Nominations for elective officers may be made at the regular meeting next preceding the night of election, and on the night of election immediately previous to the election for each office.

Sec. 4. The elective officers, except the Treasurer and Financial Secretary, shall be chosen at the first regular meetings in March and September, and shall hold their respective offices for six months and until the next regular installation of officers. They shall be installed at the first meetings in April and October. The Treasurer and the Financial Secretary (if there be one) shall be elected in March, and shall be installed at the first meeting in April, and both shall serve for one year. If a public installation of officers be had, it may be at another time than that specified above, but not prior to the first meeting in April and October.

Sec. 5. The election of officers shall be by ballot, except in cases where there is but one candidate for an office, when the election may be by acclamation. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to an election. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks; and blanks shall be counted as votes. When there are several candidates, and there is no choice, at each successive balloting the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes in the preceding ballot shall be dropped from the nomination.

Sec. 6. If any officer shall be absent for three consecutive meetings, except for personal sickness, his office may be declared vacant by vote of the Lodge, if he is an elective officer, but by the officer who appointed him, if he is an appointed officer. All vacancies shall be filled in the manner of the former selection, to serve the residue of the term; and the officer so serving shall be entitled to the full honors of the office.

ARTICLE VI.—DEGREES.

Section 1. No degree shall be conferred upon a candidate until, by examination in open Lodge, he shall have been found proficient in the highest degree he shall have attained, i. e., in possession of the unwritten work thereof, so as to give an intelligent explanation of its uses, and, as near as may be, in the language of said work; Provided, however, that when urgent necessity is shown, and a dispensation therefor shall have been granted by the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, such examination may be dispensed with. The dispensation may also permit the conferring of more than one degree at the same meeting.

Sec. 2. A member desiring to receive any degree or degrees shall pay to the Secretary of the Lodge the fee or fees therefor, who shall, under the proper order of business, make known his desire to the Lodge, at a regular meeting thereof, stating which degree or degrees are desired; whereupon (the candidate being in waiting), the Lodge shall be opened in the highest degree the candidate has attained, when he shall be admitted and examined by the Noble Grand, or other brother under his direction, as to his proficiency, as required in the preceding section; after which (the candidate having retired), the Noble Grand shall raise the Lodge to the Third Degree and put the question as to his proficiency to a vote of the Lodge; and if a majority declare him proficient, the degree shall be conferred upon him, but if declared not proficient, it shall not be conferred until, upon further examination, he shall be declared proficient. The conferring of degrees may be done at special meetings called for that purpose.

Sec. 3. A member of this Lodge who shall have paid the fee or fees for any of the degrees may, upon application, receive a certificate requesting any Lodge to which it may be presented to confer upon him the degree or degrees therein specified.

ARTICLE VII.—DROPPING, TRIALS AND PENALTIES.

Section 1. Any member who shall become in arrears for the dues and assessments accruing against him during the period of one full year shall, after twenty days' written notice from the Financial Secretary, delivered to him in person, if possible, otherwise mailed to his last known address, be declared by the Noble Grand dropped from membership, unless the Lodge shall otherwise direct, or unless, in the meantime, he shall have paid dues so as to reduce the time of arrearage to less than one full year; Provided, however, that a member sixty years or more of age, who has been a contributing member of the Order for twenty-five consecutive years, who shall become in arrears for dues and assessments during a full year, shall not be dropped by virtue of such arrearage, but he may be placed upon the list of "non-contributing members." If so placed, he shall thereafter be known as a "non-contributing member"; he shall be entitled to receive all passwords and fellowship of Subordinate Lodges; and, upon payment of the cost to the Lodge, he shall be entitled to receive the special visiting card provided by the Sovereign Grand Lodge for non-contributing members. This Lodge shall be exempt from the payment of per capita tax to the Grand Lodge upon all such non-contributing members.

Sec. 2. If any member of this Lodge shall be found guilty of conduct contrary to the laws of the Order, or in violation of its principles as set forth in its lectures, charges and obligations, or shall be found guilty of any dishonest or immoral act or practice, injurious to himself, his family, or to society, or by which the Order may be scandalized, he shall be subjected to such penalty as the laws of this jurisdiction or the discretion of the Lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 3. If any member of this Lodge shall have reason to believe that any other has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, as shown in the preceding section, it shall be his duty immediately to give notice of such violation or offense, in writing, to the Noble Grand. The Noble Grand shall forthwith refer a copy of such written communication, concealing the name of the informant, to a special committee of three members; which committee shall proceed, without delay, to investigate the matter therein stated; and if, in their opinion, there is just ground therefor, they shall, as early as practicable, prefer a charge, or charges, against the member so accused, specifying therein the particular matter of offense with which he is charged; and the committee shall have charge of the prosecution on the part of the Lodge.

Sec. 4. Any other Lodge in this jurisdiction, or a member of any other Lodge, if his own Lodge will forward his complaint attesting his good standing, or a member of this Lodge, may prefer an open complaint or information against any member of this Lodge; and such complaint shall be treated as complaints or informations mentioned in Section 3 of this Article; but the complaint shall be read in open Lodge and the committee thereon there appointed.

Sec. 5. Whenever a charge, or charges, are preferred against a member, they shall be read in open Lodge, at a regular meeting. The Secretary shall immediately furnish a copy thereof, under seal of the Lodge, to the member so accused, and at the same time cite said member to appear before the Lodge at the second regular meeting thereafter and plead guilty or not guilty to each charge and specification; and if he pleads not guilty, then the Noble Grand shall appoint a competent member of the Lodge as a commissioner or committee of one to take the evidence, both for the Lodge and the accused, in deposition form, by writing down both the questions and answers in full, and that the said commissioner to take evidence shall be first obligated by the Noble Grand to perform such duty, and he shall be authorized to obligate witnesses who may be members of the Order, and cause such witnesses who may not be members of the Order to be obligated by a proper officer authorized to administer oaths. Said commissioner shall have power to pass upon the competency of evidence, and if objections are made to his ruling, he shall note said objection, together with the question and answer, in the depositions. If the accused appears when cited and pleads not guilty, the case shall be continued two weeks from the night the citation is returnable, to give each side an opportunity to have the Secretary cite their witnesses to appear before the commissioner. The commissioner shall have power to continue the taking of said evidence from day to day, and when the evidence is all taken, said commissioner shall report the same to the Noble Grand over his certificate. The Noble Grand shall rule as to whether said evidence objected to before the commissioner shall be read to the Lodge, and for the purpose of passing upon the same, he shall, not later than three days before the fourth regular meeting of the Lodge, at a time and place selected by him, after notifying the committee of the Lodge having the prosecution in charge, and the accused or his attorney, in writing, of such time and place, hear both the prosecution and defense before passing upon the objected evidence. The Noble Grand, after hearing both sides, shall mark upon the depositions, at the place where the objected evidence may appear, either the word overruled or sustained, as the case may be, and the evidence read to the Lodge shall be only that which the Noble Grand has overruled the objections thereto.

Sec. 6. If personal service of a copy of the charges and citation cannot be had on an accused member, by reason of his permanent absence, concealment, or because of his absconding, the Lodge may regularly proceed with the trial upon proof of the fact that such personal service is rendered impracticable, and that a copy of the charges and citation has been deposited in the post office, postpaid, directed to him at his last known postoffice address, and that a like copy of the charges and citation shall have been left at his last known place of residence, if the same be within the jurisdiction of the Lodge; Provided, such papers shall be deemed to have been served upon the accused only from the date when the constructive service above described is complete. The Noble Grand shall appoint counsel to defend him, if none appear for him.

Sec. 7. The Lodge, at said fourth regular meeting, or at such other time as may then be fixed, shall open in the highest degree which the accused has attained, if he be not of the Third Degree, and shall listen to the reading of the evidence taken by the commissioner, both for the Lodge and the accused. The accused shall be heard in his own behalf in person or by counsel, and the committee appointed to prosecute on behalf of the Lodge shall have the right to also address the Lodge. The Lodge shall then proceed to vote upon the charge or charges preferred; but no member shall be entitled to vote unless he were present during the whole of the reading of the testimony and of the arguments thereon. If the charges be sustained, in whole or in part, by a vote of two thirds of the members entitled to vote on the question, the accused shall retire to the ante-room. The Secretary shall then read to the Lodge the charge or charges, or part or parts thereof, that have been sustained, when the Noble Grand, without motion, shall proceed to put to vote the highest order of punishment—expulsion; and if that be not agreed to, he shall put the next—suspension; and shall so proceed until some order of punishment is agreed to by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. One penalty only shall be inflicted as the result of one trial.

Sec. 8. Whenever the Lodge shall determine upon suspension, a motion may be made to fix the time, and two amendments may be offered thereto, which shall be decided without debate. The Noble Grand shall put them to vote, commencing with the longest period of time therein named; and if all of them be rejected, a second motion may be made, and two amendments permitted thereto, which shall be put to vote in a like manner; and the Lodge shall so proceed until some period of suspension is agreed to. But suspension of membership shall work no suspension of dues and arrearages, but they shall run on during the time of suspension. If the Lodge shall decide to punish by fine, the same course shall be adopted in determining the amount thereof as is above provided in fixing the time of suspension; and in either case, of fixing the time of suspension or amount of fine, the majority of the members present shall decide the period of time or amount. But no suspension shall be shorter than eight days, nor longer than one year.

Sec. 9. When the misconduct is confessed by the accused brother, the Lodge to which such case is referred may proceed to vote upon his punishment without the formula of a trial.

Sec. 10. The only legal penalties for misconduct are fine, reprimand, suspension, and expulsion. Fine is not allowed as penalty for violation of the principles of the Order.

Sec. 11. The penalty for intoxication is reprimand for the first offense, suspension for the second, and expulsion for the third; and no other penalties are legal. Provided, the penalty upon the conviction of a brother who has been expelled for intoxication, has been reinstated, and shall again be found guilty of intoxication, shall be suspension for not less than three months, and for the next conviction for a like offense he shall be again expelled; and provided further, that if a Representative attending a session of the Grand Lodge shall be found guilty of intoxication at such session, the penalty shall be expulsion.

Sec. 12. When a definite penalty is fixed by law for any offense, a brother convicted thereof is sentenced without further vote; if alternatives are fixed, the Lodge chooses one of them by vote.

Sec. 13. If any accused member shall evade the receiving of a citation, or, after receiving the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the Lodge at the time therein fixed, and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of his case, the Lodge may proceed in his absence to expel him for contempt.

Sec. 14. At all stages of the proceedings the accused shall have all opportunity to vindicate himself; and in case of suspension or expulsion following the constructive citation provided for in Section 6 of this Article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if he shall show that his absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done him.

Sec. 15. The accused or any three members feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Lodge in a trial shall be entitled to an appeal to the Grand Lodge, which appeal must be entered according to the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge on the matter of appeals. On command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be acquitted or tried anew for the same offense.

Sec. 16. Any brother having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all Lodges in the same place; and a brother who has been legally expelled shall not be admitted to membership again without consent of the Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

Sec. 17. If any member of the Lodge shall make to the Noble Grand any accusation against a brother, under Section 3 of this Article, which shall be proved to be without reasonable grounds, or false and malicious, it shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to deliver up the name of the informant to the Lodge, on demand of a majority of the members thereof present, that he may be dealt with accordingly.

Sec. 18. This Lodge shall have a black book, in which shall be entered the names of all persons expelled by this Lodge, or any other Lodge of which they may have received due notice, with the date and cause of such expulsion.

Sec. 19. If, at any time before passing upon the objected evidence by the Noble Grand, the accused, or three members of a Lodge in which charges may be preferred against a member, are of the opinion that the accused will not receive an impartial trial at the hands of the Lodge, and present such opinion in writing, such paper, together with such evidence as may be desired bearing upon the question of prejudice in the Lodge, shall be forwarded to the Grand Master. The filing of such petition shall suspend all proceedings until such request for a change of venue is passed upon by the Grand Master. If such request be granted, a record of all proceedings had therein up to such time shall be transmitted at once to the Lodge to which the venue is changed. Such Lodge shall proceed with the case from that time in the same manner as if such case had originated therein.

Sec. 20. Upon such removal, the Prosecuting Committee, or some attorney appointed by them, or by the Noble Grand of the removing Lodge, may present the case, and the accused may appear by himself or attorney, as if no such removal had taken place.

Sec. 21. If either the prosecution or the defense shall desire the testimony of a witness whose attendance cannot be secured, they shall file with the Secretary of the Lodge the interrogatories they wish to be propounded to the witness, naming him and giving his address. The Secretary shall immediately deliver or cause to be delivered to the opposite party a copy of the interrogatories. The latter party, within one week of such service, may file counter interrogatories with the Secretary. At the expiration of the week, or sooner if counter interrogatories be sooner filed, the Secretary shall forthwith forward them to the Noble Grand of a Lodge near the witness, with a communication under seal, requesting him to take the deposition of the witness named. Upon receipt of the same, the said Noble Grand shall, as soon as possible, take or cause the deposition to be taken by some competent member of the Order, first obligating him as an Odd Fellow, if he be an Odd Fellow, or swearing him or causing him to be sworn, if not an Odd Fellow, causing every interrogatory to be propounded to the witness and the answer to each to be reduced to writing in the presence of the witness; and when the deposition is completed, shall cause the witness to sign the same under his obligation as an Odd Fellow, if he be an Odd Fellow, or be sworn to and sign the same before one authorized to administer oaths, if he be not an Odd Fellow; and then the Noble Grand, or person taking the same, shall certify the same to have been duly taken, and such certificate shall be verified by the seal of the Lodge, and the deposition shall then be sealed and transmitted by mail to this Lodge. Depositions thus taken and certified may be read in evidence in the cause to which they relate.

Sec. 22. When the matter has been determined, a copy of the record of the proceedings had thereon, with the register of the evidence, shall be returned to the removing Lodge; and the same shall be filed in its archives, and the judgment entered upon its records. An appeal to the Grand Lodge may be had in case of a removed trial, as in other cases.

Sec. 23. All votes taken under the provisions of this Article shall be by ballot with balls.

Sec. 24. If any member of the Order who shall have been duly notified to appear and give evidence shall fail to appear as notified, or, appearing, shall refuse to answer questions as a witness, he shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and the Lodge may proceed to expel said member for contempt.

ARTICLE VIII.—REINSTATEMENT.

Section 1. A brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge may, within one year after being dropped, be reinstated upon application made in open Lodge by a member thereof, which shall be held over until the second meeting thereafter, the Secretary reading the same at each meeting, and be determined affirmatively on a ballot by a majority of the votes cast, and upon payment of such amount as the By-Laws of the Lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 2. If a brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge shall, after one year from being dropped, make application for reinstatement, his application shall be treated like a proposition for membership by initiation, except that the vote of a majority on ballot shall reinstate him.

Sec. 3. A brother dropped from membership in this Lodge who may have been in membership in the Order for five consecutive years, and who may be over fifty years of age, may be reinstated as a non-beneficial member by a majority on ballot. His application must state age, occupation and residence, and be disposed of as required in the preceding section.

Sec. 4. A member dropped from membership in this Lodge who shall, at any time within five years from being dropped, make written application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card for the purpose of joining another Lodge in Illinois, may be reinstated and granted a withdrawal card by a majority vote upon ballot; and the reinstating vote shall grant the card also without further ballot. But such application may, at the option of the Lodge, be referred to a committee for investigation, and shall be reported upon and acted on as soon thereafter as practicable.

Sec. 5. A member expelled by this Lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation, reparation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the Lodge. After the reception of the report, the Lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Lodge, or in recess to the Grand Master, for permission to reinstate him; and if it be granted, he shall thereby be reinstated. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of the fee provided by the

By-Laws of this Lodge, not less than one year's dues. But members expelled for non-payment before such action was forbidden shall be reinstated as dropped members.

Sec. 6. When a suspended or expelled member shall have been reinstated, either by expiration of sentence or action of the Grand Lodge, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all the Lodges in the same place.

ARTICLE IX.—CARDS, DISMISSAL CERTIFICATES AND RESIGNATION.

Section 1. A member of this Lodge may end his membership therein by taking a withdrawal card or a dismissal certificate; and he may end his membership in this Lodge and in the Order also by presenting a written resignation of membership. No resignation of membership or application for withdrawal card shall be entertained from any one who is not clear on the books.

Sec. 2. A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by a vote of a majority upon ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over one week for final action, except that when the applicant has left the vicinity of the Lodge, or it is his known purpose to leave before the next meeting, or to join in a petition for a new Lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

Sec. 3. If the Lodge refuses to grant a withdrawal card applied for, the applicant may tender a written resignation of membership; he shall then be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate, under the seal of the Lodge, that he has resigned membership, as evidence of his good standing at that time.

Sec. 4. A visiting card may be granted to any member by vote of the Lodge at a regular or special meeting, or by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary at any other time, when application for the same is made to them in writing; but it shall not be made out until he shall have paid all charges on the books against him, his dues to the expiration of the card, and the price of the card: Provided, that a Lodge may provide by by-law that when a member pays one year's dues in advance, the card may be granted without fee for same.

Sec. 5. Dismissal certificates shall be granted by this Lodge, and issued by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary without vote of the Lodge, upon proper application therefor and the payment of one dollar, to any member dropped for non-payment of dues for five years, or to any dropped member who has removed from the State, or is joining with other brothers in petitioning for a new Lodge, unless complaint is filed or charges are preferred against him. Provided, this Lodge may, by vote, grant a Dismissal Certificate before the expiration of the five years.

ARTICLE X.—FEES, DUES, BENEFITS AND FUNDS.

Section 1. No person shall be admitted to membership or be reinstated in this Lodge, or receive any degree, or a card, until he shall have paid the amount required therefor by this Constitution or the By-Laws. When dues and special assessments or fines stand charged upon account, the payments made shall apply to these in the order of their accruing.

Sec. 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz: By initiation, five dollars; by deposit of card, two dollars; as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, five dollars; and as a non-beneficial member, five dollars; Provided, that no admission fee shall be charged a brother who shall be admitted by Transfer Certificate, except he shall pay for a medical certificate regarding his health, should one be required by the By-Laws of this Lodge; and provided, further, that no admission fee shall be charged an applicant for membership under Article X, Section 6, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, regarding the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register"; provided, further, that no fee shall be charged for issuing a Transfer Certificate.

Sec. 3. The fee for each degree shall not be less than three dollars.

Sec. 4. No member shall be reinstated after having been dropped for non-payment of dues for less sums than are herein provided, viz.: Under Article VIII, Section 1, of this Constitution, the amount of one year's dues, neither more nor less; under Article VIII, Section 2, the same fee as is charged for an initiate of the same age, or such lesser sum (not less than one year's dues) as the By-Laws may prescribe; under Article VIII, Section 3, a sum not less than one year's dues; under Article VIII, Section 4, the amount of one year's dues and the price of the card.

Sec. 5. The regular contributions to the Lodge fund shall not be at a less rate than seven than cents a week, to be determined by the By-Laws; but the Lodge shall, by its By-Laws, prescribe some less rate, not exceeding five cents a week, for the dues of non-beneficial members: Provided, members resident of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home may be, by by-law, exempt from the payment of weekly dues so long as resident therein; and provided further, said members, while residents of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, shall not receive sick benefits from their Lodge if exempt from the payment of weekly dues.

Sec. 6. The Lodge may by its By-Laws require such further contributions for a Widows' and Orphans' Fund, an Education Fund, a Funeral Assessment or Fund, or for any other fund suitable to the purposes of the Order, for either or all of them, as the Lodge shall determine.

Sec. 7. The Lodge may, by its By-Laws, set aside any amount not exceeding five per cent of the receipts for dues as a contingent fund, to be used for entertainments and in the payment of necessary and proper obligations which the Lodge must meet, and for which purpose the Lodge cannot expend its general funds.

Sec. 8. A beneficiary member shall be any one who has been for six months a member by initiation of this Lodge (or of the Order, if admitted to membership in this Lodge upon an unexpired withdrawal card), as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, or by reinstatement after dropping or expulsion, who is under no complaint or charges of misconduct, and who is not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues. A member reinstated after suspension shall be beneficiary immediately upon reinstatement, subject to the provisions herein in relation to dues: provided, however, that this Lodge, by proper by-law, may enact that, if a member shall become non-beneficiary by reason of being more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, he shall, before he can become beneficiary, pay all arrears for dues, assessments, and fines; and such by-law may further provide that, as a penalty, such non-beneficiary member shall not become entitled to weekly benefits for a period subsequent to such payment not exceeding thirteen weeks.

Sec. 9. Every beneficiary member of this Lodge, in case of sickness or disability not caused by vice or immorality on his part, shall be entitled to and receive from the funds of the Lodge such weekly benefits as may be fixed by the By-Laws, not less than two dollars a week if of the Scarlet Degree; but if no sick benefit shall be allowed for less than a week's sickness, or for the fractional part of a week. Provided, that this Lodge may provide in its By-Laws for a sick benefit of not less than one dollar to be paid to brothers who may have been sick, and received sick benefits continuously for the period of one year; Provided further, that this Lodge may provide by by-law that no benefit shall be paid for the first one week or two weeks of such sickness or disability: Provided further, that a brother who is ill outside of the jurisdiction of this Lodge, in order to receive benefits, shall furnish to this Lodge a certificate of a regular practicing physician, in the following form:

*To the Officers and Members of Lodge No. .... I.O.O.F.,

[SEAL.]

Sec. 10. In case of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge there shall be allowed not less than twenty dollars as a funeral benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled thereto, and such further sum as may be actually incurred under the laws of the Order for funeral expenses, not less than sixty dollars, unless shared by another society; liabilities for funeral expenses shall be limited to sixty dollars unless the Lodge, by by-law, assume liabilities for a larger amount; provided, however, the Lodge may, with the written consent of the funeral beneficiaries, expend the funeral benefits toward the funeral expenses. The beneficiaries of the funeral benefit are the widow, orphans (under the age of twenty-one years, members of and residing with the family of the deceased), or the dependent relatives of the deceased, or relatives upon whom the deceased was dependent at the time of death. In the event of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge not leaving surviving him any of the above named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving either no estate or insufficient estate to pay the expenses of the funeral, the Lodge shall pay the funeral expenses, not to exceed the combined funeral benefits and expenses provided by the By-Laws of this Lodge.

Sec. 11. A member so far in arrears for dues as not to be entitled to weekly benefits shall not be entitled to attentive benefits, but such member shall be visited by the Visiting Committee if within the jurisdiction of this Lodge: provided, however, that the Lodge may provide such brothers attentive benefits not involving the payment of money from the general fund or the nurse fund of this Lodge; and provided, further, that this Lodge may, by proper by-law, limit the time for which the Lodge shall be liable for the payment of night watchers or nurses for an sick or disabled beneficiary member of this Lodge in any one sickness or disability.

Sec. 12. Non-beneficial and non-contributing members shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and advantages of membership, except the right to receive financial benefits, and shall be subject to all penalties and liabilities as other members. No financial benefits shall be allowed to any non-beneficial or non-contributing member, nor shall any pecuniary relief be extended to any such member from the funds of the Lodge, except upon the recommendation of some committee; provided, no non-beneficial or non-contributing member shall be assessed for the purpose of raising a fund for the payment of sick or disability benefits,

Sec. 13. The special funds of this Lodge shall be sacredly devoted to the purposes for which they may be raised; and the general fund shall be considered sacredly pledged to the relief of distressed brothers, the payment of benefits, the furnishing of the Lodge room, and such other necessary expenses as are and may be recognized and authorized by the laws of the Order.

Sec. 14. The stocks, securities, investments and funds of this Lodge shall not be transferred, in whole or in part, but by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting. The resolution therefor shall have been presented at least one week before final action.

ARTICLE XI.—TERMS AND REPORTS.

Section 1. Semi-annual terms shall commence on the first regular meetings in April and October; the annual term, on the first regular meeting in April.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the retiring officers, at the close of each semi-annual term, to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge, immediately, a full report of the work of the term, upon the blank forms furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary, and in conformity with the instructions of that officer, accompanied by whatever amount may be due to the Grand Lodge; and at the close of each annual term, in like manner, the Annual Report of Membership.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall forfeit its charter if it fails to comply with the requisitions and laws of the Grand Lodge; and in such case it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to comply with the provisions of the first and second sections of Article II of the By-Laws, of the Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE XII.—CONSTRUCTION, AMENDMENTS, ETC.

Section 1. When doubts arise of the true meaning of any of these articles, it shall be determined by the Noble Grand, his interpretation being subject to an appeal to the Lodge, and its decision being subject to an appeal to the Grand Master, thence to the Grand Lodge; provided, the Grand Master may refer the decision of the Lodge direct to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, thence to the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. These Articles, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended, suspended or annulled, except on motion made in the Grand Lodge in a regular session, in writing; and such motion shall not be finally acted upon on the day of its presentation, except by a four-fifths vote of all members present; provided, said motion shall fully set forth the proposed amendment or alteration and how the whole section or sections would read if amended or altered as proposed.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws and Rules of Order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient; provided they do not in any way contravene any of these articles, the Laws and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, or of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, or the principles of the Order.

Two copies of the By-Laws, or any amendment thereto, certified by the Secretary under the seal of the Lodge, shall, immediately after adoption by the Lodge, be sent by the Secretary to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals; which approval shall be necessary before said By-Laws or amendments thereto shall become operative.

After approval or amendment of the same, one copy to be left in the office of the Grand Secretary; the other copy to be returned to the Lodge. The By-Laws shall not be suspended, set aside or altered, except by regular process of amendment, a written proposition for which shall have been before the Lodge for at least one week.

XII.—Closing the Lodge.

3. The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum, and pronounce the decision of the Lodge on all questions. He may speak on points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose. He shall decide all points of order without debate, unless he entertain doubts on the point, subject to an appeal to the Lodge by any two members; on which appeal no member shall speak more than once.

4. Previous to taking the vote on any subject, the Noble Grand shall, in an audible voice, ask: "Is the Lodge ready for the question?" after which, if no member rise to speak, he shall rise and put the question.

5. No member shall speak to another, or otherwise interrupt the business of the Lodge, while the minutes are being read, or while any member is addressing the Chair.

6. No member shall disturb another while addressing the Chair, unless to call him to order. No member shall rise from his seat while another member is speaking, nor on any pretense shall one pass between the speaking member and the presiding officer.

7. No member shall speak on any question before the Lodge unless he rise from his seat and respectfully address the Chair. A member speaking shall confine himself to the subject under debate, and shall use no personal, indecorous or sarcastic language, to reflect on the Lodge or its members; and when his speech shall have been concluded he shall resume his seat.

8. If two members, or more than two, rise at the same time to speak, the Chair shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

9. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject unless all the members present wishing to speak shall have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the Chair; and no member, while speaking, shall name another except by the appropriate title designating his rank in the Order.

10. Whenever a member, while speaking, shall be called to order, he shall resume his seat until the question is settled and leave is given him to proceed.

11. No motion shall be debated until the same is seconded and stated to the Lodge by the Chair, and any motion shall be reduced to writing on the request of any member.

12. When a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be in order but these: (1) to adjourn, or its equivalent, to proceed to close; (2) to lay on the table; (3) the previous question; (4) to postpone indefinitely; (5) to postpone to a certain time; (6) to commit; (7) to amend; and these motions shall be privileged and have precedence in the order in which they are made to succeed each other by this rule; and motions to adjourn, to proceed to close, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

13. When the previous question is moved and seconded it shall be put at once in these words: "Shall the main question be now put?" If decided in the affirmative, the debate ceases, and the Chair puts to vote all pending amendments, in their proper order, and the main question; if the previous question be decided in the negative, the question shall remain before the Lodge as before.

14. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums, numbers or times shall be proposed, the question shall first be put on the highest sum or number, and on the longest or latest time.

15. Any member may call for a division of the question when it can be divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible, except at the option of the mover.

16. If the reading of any paper be called for and it be objected to by any member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the Lodge without debate.

17. Every qualified member present shall vote on all questions before the Lodge, unless the Lodge excuse him from so doing for special reasons.

18. On a call for the yeas and nays by a majority of the Lodge, the name of each member voting shall be entered on the minutes.

19. When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not again be acted on during that or the next succeeding meeting.

20. No motion shall be heard for reconsideration of any vote of the Lodge unless the same shall be made by a member who voted with the majority in the first instance.

21. Before any communication, petition or memorial shall be received and read by the Secretary, a brief statement of its contents shall be made verbally to the Lodge, either by the member presenting the same or by the presiding officer.

22. On application to the Chair, any member may be excused from serving on a second committee, at the time of his appointment thereon, if the duties of the first committee remain unperformed and the applicant be not discharged therefrom.

23. The person first named on a committee shall act as chairman thereof, unless the committee select a different member for that office. The mover and seconder of a resolution referred to a special committee are usually the first named thereon.

24. No committee can be finally discharged until all debts contracted by it shall have been paid.

25. The consequences of any measure may be reprobated in strong terms; but to arraign the motives of those who propose or advocate it is a personality and against order.

26. When a member shall be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable words shall (if required) be taken down in writing by the Secretary.

27. No motion can be made by one member while another is speaking, and no motion shall be received unless the member making it shall rise and address the Chair.

28. The affirmative of a question is first put, then the negative; but in matters of form or of course, such as reading reports, petitions, memorials, or other papers, withdrawing motions, etc., to save time, the Chairman usually assumes the assent of the Lodge when, on inquiry, no objection is expressed.

29. The Noble Grand, or any member doubting the decision of the Lodge, may call for a count or a division of the votes.

30. All questions not herein provided for shall be decided upon the principles laid down in Robert's Rules of Order.

31. These Rules of Order may be temporarily suspended by general consent or by special vote of two-thirds of the members present; and they may be permanently amended in the same manner as the By-Laws.

In accordance with the request of the committee, the Superintendent now has on file a full and complete inventory of the personal property of the Home. Presented in the Grand Master's Report, 75; adopted, 363.

Third report, by Bro. Cicero J. Lindly, P.G.M.—On business of the Grand Secretary's office for six months ending October 31, 1907. The committee made their customary semiannual visit on the 5th of November, and thoroughly investigated all departments of the office. The result of the investigation is given in detail. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 76; adopted, 363.

Fourth report, by Bro. Davis—The committee visited the Orphans' Home on the 6th of November. The general condition of the Home was found to be good, and its business transacted in a very satisfactory manner. The Secretary, the Board of Directors and the Superintendent are commended for the manner in which they have conducted the affairs intrusted to them. The Rebekahs have started the foundation for a domestic science school. An appropriation for that purpose is recommended. At present there are 126 children at the Home—75 boys and 51 girls, with 14 additional applications approved, which will increase the number to 140—78

- boys and 62 girls. Receipts of the year foot up $28,421.83; disbursements, $23,335.44, leaving an unexpended balance of $5,086.39. Presented in the Grand Master's Report, 78; adopted, 363.
- Fifth report, by Bro. Davis—Recommending appropriations for the Orphans' Home—for maintenance, $20,000, to which are to be added all donations and cash sales; for heating plant, such amount as may be decided on by the Grand Lodge. Presented, 349; adopted, 363.
- Sixth report, by Bro. Davis—Recommending itemized appropriations for the Old Folks' Home amounting to $16,850, and such further sum as may be required for new building if the Grand Lodge vote same. Presented, 349; adopted, 363.
- Seventh report, by Bro. Koester—A review of the financial affairs for the year of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, pointing out to the searcher for details the sources from which the desired information may be obtained. Presented, 396; adopted, 423.
- Eighth report, by Bro. Lindly, P.G.M.—On Document 14, page 348, proposing to levy a special assessment on Subordinate Lodges of one dollar per member, payable in four semiannual installments, for the purpose of constructing additional buildings at the Old Folks' Home. The committee are of the opinion that there is no immediate necessity of raising the fund contemplated, and that the Grand Lodge will make all needed appropriations as the occasion may arise. Presented, 396; adopted, 423.
- Ninth report, by Bro. Davis—On "Appeal for Aid and Special Relief", in Grand Master's Report, pages 40 and 41. The committee approve the Grand Master's action in the several cases mentioned, and agree with the Grand Master in discouraging the various appeals from one Lodge to another and from outside jurisdictions. Presented, 396; adopted, 423.
- Tenth report, by Bro. Koester—On "Endowment Funds" in Grand Master's Report, page 61. The committee fail to see any necessity for action on this letter of the Grand Master, as the next Grand Master may be of the same or a different opinion, and will probably, in due time, communicate his idea on this subject to the various Lodges. Presented, 397; adopted, 423.
- Eleventh report, by Bro. Lindly, P.G.M.—On Document 15, page 348. The committee set forth in detail the purposes for which the several items of expense were incurred, and conclude with the statement that "For the information of members, it might be well in the future for the Secretary to specify in his report what such expenses are for." Presented and adopted, 411.
- Twelfth report, by Bro. Davis—On Bond presented by Grand Secretary-elect, approving and recommending acceptance of same. Presented and adopted, 412.
- Thirteenth report, by Bro. Lindly, F.G.M.—On Bond presented by the Grand Treasurer-elect, approving and recommending acceptance of same. Presented and adopted, 412.
- Fourteenth report, by Bro. Koester—On Report and Accounts of the Grand Treasurer. The committee say they have examined the Grand Treasurer's Report (pp. 243-250), checked the same up, item by item, and performed all the additions, and find the same correct in all respects. The Grand Treasurer has exhibited to them securities, cash, certified checks and deposit-slips, of which they give a detailed list, aggregating $104,796.36. We now have in the hands of the Grand Treasurer $14,356.20 more cash and $14,600.00 more securities than we had at the last session of the Grand Lodge. The committee recommend that the cancelled vouchers be filed with the Grand Secretary for future reference. Presented and adopted, 413.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Davis—On resolution (Document 91, page 405) proposing that the Grand Secretary attend the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and that $100, or so much thereof as may be necessary to cover actual expense, be appropriated for the purpose of securing his attendance at the next session of that body. The committee is of the opinion that the Grand Lodge should first determine whether or not it desires to have the Grand Secretary attend the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and recommends that said resolution be acted upon by the Grand Lodge. Presented, 414; the resolution under consideration adopted, 415.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. Koester—On investment of Endowment Funds (pp. 56-61). The committee recommend approval of the action of the Trustees in investing $18,100 in first mortgage farm loans, but suggest that in future each loan be made from one fund, and not divided between the two funds. Presented and adopted, 418.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. Davis—Estimates of Receipts and Disbursements for the next fiscal year, appropriating $104,955.00 to meet estimated expenses, and fixing the Capitation Tax at 90 cents per member. Presented and adopted, 430.

Eighteenth report, by Bro. Lindly, P.G.M.—On resolution (Document 25, page 361) asking that an Honorable Veteran Jewel be granted to Bro. John Latas, a member of Monticello Lodge, No. 847. The committee recommend that the request be granted; and they recommend further that similar jewels be granted to all brothers now members in this State who have been for fifty years in continuous good standing, upon presenting to the Grand Lodge, at its annual sessions, certificates showing such to be the fact. Presented and adopted, 430.

Nineteenth report, by Bro. Davis—Recommending appropriations for services of Assistant Secretary, Janitors and others for this session of the Grand Lodge. Presented and adopted, 431.

Informal report, by Bro. Davis—On Document 33, page 366, that the Grand Lodge appropriate a sum not exceeding $5,000 for the erection at the Orphans' Home of a Manual Training and Domestic Science Department. One report, made to the Grand Master, October 29th. The committee report that they have been unable to secure a reduction of rates, owing to the new rate of two cents a mile, which went into effect on all railroads in Illinois on July 1st, 1907. A letter in reply to the application of the committee, from the Central Passenger Association, is appended to the report. Presented, 69. No action on the report.

On Printing.

First report, by Bro. John R. Camp, Chairman—Giving bids and their action on same for printing the Grand Lodge Journal of Proceedings, the Daily Journal, the Officers' Reports, the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and Stationery and Supplies, for all of which contracts were awarded to the Illinois State Journal Company, their bids being the lowest. The committee report further that the contract for the Grand Lodge Journal provides for paper covers, similar to those of the Journal of the last few years. The contractors have agreed, if so authorized by the Grand Lodge, to bind the books in heavy beveled boards, cloth covered, with gold stamp on back and side, at an additional cost of 12 cents per copy. They recommend the cloth binding, as it makes a much more substantial book. Presented, 350; adopted, 363.

Presented, 382; adopted, 421.

Second report, by Bro. Anderson—On that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Committee on Analysis and Distribution", on page 92. Presented, 382; adopted, 421.

- Third report, by Bro. H. A. Stone, P.G.M.—On that part of the Grand Master's Report on page 68 entitled "Advisory Boards", indorsing all the good things said about the sisters of these boards, but not concurring in the recommendation that the Advisory Boards be abolished and that the sisters be given equal representation and equal authority with the brothers on the boards of both institutions—holding that this would be illegal and impracticable. They therefore recommend that the present laws relating to these Advisory Boards be not disturbed. Presented, 383; adopted, 421.

We can not, therefore, concur with the Grand Master in his views therein expressed, and recommend that the same be not adopted." Presented, considered, and failed of adoption, 406.
- Seventh report, by Bro. Duncan McDougall—On Document 8, pages 344-345, relating to the Washington Lodge case. The committee recommend—(1) That the resolution be not adopted; (2) That the entire subject-matter of the resolution be regarded as referred to the incoming Grand Master, to be considered and reported upon, together with the appeal of Washington Lodge, No. 665. Presented and adopted, 406.
- Eighth report, by Bro. McDougall—On so much of the Grand Master's Report, pages 28-29, as deals with the appeal of Washington Lodge, No. 665. The report concludes with the recommendation that the entire subject-matter of the controversy and the appeal be referred to the incoming Grand Master, with authority to investigate the entire matter and report his recommendations with reference thereto to the Grand Lodge at its next session. Presented, considered, and recommitted, 407; reported back, without change, and adopted, 419.
- Ninth report, by Bro. McDougall—On Decisions of the Grand Master, appearing on pages 24-28, twenty-four in number. Eleventh report, by Bro. Phillips, P.G.M.—On the form of Surety Bond in the Grand Master's Report, on pages 50-53, recommending that the Bond, and the conditions to be inserted therein, as set forth in said report, be accepted and adopted, as a proper Surety Bond for use in our Subordinate Lodges. Presented and adopted, 429.

Resolution signed by all the members of the committee, providing that By-Laws of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges may be passed upon at other times than the regular sessions of the committee, when the good of the Lodge concerned may render such action expedient. Presented and adopted, 410.

‡ Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839 Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.
